

THREE-FOURTHS OF U. S. INCOME SPENT ON WARS

Past, Present and Future Armaments Cost Four Billions During Fiscal Year.

COST TO OTHER POWERS

WASHINGTON, July 12.—War, past, present and future, cost the United States nearly four billion dollars in the fiscal year ended July 1. Treasury Department records showed today.

Seventy-five cents out of each dollar of the taxpayers went into bills arising from war or preparation for war. Other nations are spending as great or a greater percentage of their income for this purpose. This explains why the people are bringing pressure on their governments to accept President Harding's invitation for a disarmament conference.

Tax collections for the year totaled $5,135,928,000, while disbursements for war purposes amounted to $3,338,928,000, without taking into account millions paid out in pensions by the pension bureau, by the war risk bureau and a score of other expenditures by departments which are not generally classified as war conducting branches of the Government.

COST 25 PER CENT LAST YEAR.
The percentage spent for war in the previous fiscal year ended June 30, 1920, was 92 cents out of each dollar collected in taxes. The actual amount was $3,034,285,000. But in that year the Government received in taxes a total of $6,463,344,000. In the fiscal year just ended, therefore, war cost the people Government of the United States just $2,997,288,000 less than in the preceding fiscal year.

For the first eleven months of the fiscal year just ended the Government spent a total of $3,493,142,000 for war purposes. Of this the largest single item was the maintenance of the War Department and the Army for which a total of $987,844,000 was expended. The Navy Department spent $919,000,000. This is a total for these two defense departments of $1,907,844,000.

NEARLY BILLION IN INTEREST.

Interest on the public debt, mainly arising from the great war, cost the Government $829,038,000 in the first eleven months of the fiscal year. Detailed figures for the entire year will not be available for several days.

The shipping board, created during and as a result of the World War, spent a total of $121,730,000 without counting the loss that was incurred when the board was forced to sell ships at a price below what they cost the Government. This loss is an item that will increase during the present fiscal year as more and more ships are disposed of. The Government paid $728,588,000 to the railroads on account of obligations incurred during the war. These are only the larger expenditures.

PLAN TO BLOCK NEW FIREHOUSE

West Siders to Vent Ire on Safety Board.

The board of public safety will come in for its share of criticism which citizens of West Indianapolis have been heaping upon city departments at a meeting of the Enterprise Civic League in Assumption Hall, 1105 Blaine avenue, this afternoon. The board of safety is to be disbanded that section from the rest of the city, predicted today.

Proposed location of a new firehouse at River and Oliver avenues will be the point upon which the disaffected citizens will base statements that the board of safety, like the rest of the administration of Mayor Charles W. Jewett, thinks of every other section of the city before it recommends a new place as West Indianapolis. It was said.

The junction of River and Oliver avenues is at the northeast corner of West Indianapolis and location of a firehouse there would not add to the protection of the district at all, the citizens contend. The board of safety plans to put the station here so that it may serve the industrial section to the east, and West Indianapolis only incidentally, they add.

A recommendation that the station be located on or west of Belmont avenue so as to take care of the far western district will be made, it is understood. The league will definitely decide what it will do with its petition for disannexation at the meeting. It may be presented either to a Marion County court or the city council, leaders said.

Beef Bone Grafted Into 'Funny' Bone

LONDON, July 12.—The case of a girl 11 years old who had a gap in her upper jaw, which was filled by a bone of the arm, filled by a boiled beef bone is described by Dr. C. W. Gordon Bryan in the Lancet.

A piece of bone cut from the leg of an ox, hollowed out, and shaped like the bone of the arm, was inserted into the gap and secured with pins. The muscles were stitched around it. A plaster cast was applied to the mouth. In three weeks the bone was firmly united and the patient left the hospital a month later.

A few weeks after the girl had full use of her arm.

Edgar Baldwin property, located near the downtown section, was purchased by the post.

De Valera's Mother Says 'Full Freedom' Terms for Ireland

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 12.—Eamon De Valera will not be "so imprudent" as to accept anything but "absolute freedom" for Ireland. In the Irish press negotiations, according to the belief expressed today by his mother, Mrs. Catharine Wheelwright.

"I do not believe my son or those associated with him as leaders would be so imprudent as to accept any terms but absolute freedom," Mrs. Wheelwright said in an interview at her home here.

"We want no more of England, forever, but there might be some agreements made regarding invasion and so forth which would be satisfactory to both sides."

Interrupted in her work in the kitchen, Mrs. Wheelwright discussed Ireland and her son's only reluctantly, saying she had rather wait "until it is all over and Ireland is free—the dream I have had since childhood."

Her hair is white, she has finely chiseled and intelligent features and a pictureque personality. She said she came to this country from Ireland forty-two years ago and made her last visit to the country fourteen years ago.

"Ireland has made a wonderful fight and has made it alone," she said. "Of course, she has friends on this side, but her fight has been alone, except that God has been on her side."

"I believe that Ireland is about to be free, and am praying that she will. Brave men have given their lives for the cause. The people of Ireland have endured unending suffering but those who gave their lives have not died in vain. I hope."

"My first prayers of childhood were for Irish freedom and I have continued them all through my life. Before I die I expect to see Ireland shall be free. Then I shall be happy."

"When it is all over, no doubt, the biographies of the leaders will be written. Each one has only done the work which God called upon him to do. To those who fought and prayed and worked for Ireland those given the humblest as well as the largest tasks, will belong the credit if Ireland was her independence."

Mail Clerk Fined for Intoxication

Frank Hains, 32, a mail clerk living in Danville, who was arrested by Motor-policemen Hanford and Lansing Sunday on charges of malicious destruction of property, drunkenness and raising an officer, pleaded guilty to the intoxication charge and was fined $15 and costs by Judge Walter Pritchard in city court yesterday afternoon. The other charges were dismissed.

Hains was arrested after a rough-and-tumble fight in an apartment at 1835 Central avenue, occupied by Cora Eaton and Bessie Clinton.

Conference Is Good Substitute for the League—McAdoo

WASHINGTON, July 12.—President Harding's proposal for an international disarmament conference "is an adequate substitute for former President Wilson's League of Nations," in the opinion of William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, who is in Washington today. McAdoo said today he was heartily pleased that President Harding had taken the initiative in limiting world armaments as a preventive against future wars, but he believed that nations would have been the better way.

"I am gratified that the administration is going to head the popular will in this matter," said McAdoo. "An agreed basis for the general reduction and limitation of armaments is one of the essential steps towards the peace of the world."

Harding's Aims Set Forth in 3 Points to Bring World Peace

WASHINGTON, July 12.—America's aims in the proposed international conference on disarmament and affairs in the Pacific were outlined in high authority today. The aims were:

1. Removal of sources of international friction as a necessary prelude to effective disarmament.
2. Extension of the disarmament principle wherever possible to stop the use of gas, aircraft and other means of warfare.
3. Adoption of a principle for Siberia similar to the open-door policy of China.

The belief here is that before effective disarmament agreements can be reached, the causes of international misunderstandings must be removed, else nations will not agree to limit armaments.

This expression was taken as practically a certain indication that far-reaching causes of international misunderstandings must be removed, else nations will not agree to limit armaments.

The Anglo-Japanese alliance is one of the matters sure to come up early in the conference, it is believed. The action of Great Britain in postponing any definite action on this treaty after war was obviously pleasing to this Government.

The Yap matter also will come up if it is not settled before the conference.

Siberia is another field where the growth of friction is feared. Since Russia cannot be invited to the conference this Government hopes to apply the open door in that territory. This, it is assumed here, would call for the withdrawal of Japanese troops which are at present in Siberia.

LIFE TERM IS LAWYER'S OFFER FOR MRS. KABER

County Attorney Refuses to Accept Plea of Guilty in Second Degree.

DEATH CHAIR LOOMS

COURTHOUSE, CLEVELAND, July 12.—Attorneys for Mrs. Catherine Eva Kaber this morning offered to have the woman accused of plotting the murder of her husband, Daniel Kaber, wealthy Cleveland publisher, plead guilty to second-degree murder, with life imprisonment as the penalty.

County Prosecutor Edward C. Stanton refused the offer.

At a conference in Judge Bernon's office the attorneys for the defense are said to have admitted that there was little chance for the accused woman to escape the death chair under the sentence.

Hope of Mrs. Catherine Eva Kaber to prove that arsenic found in the vital organs of Daniel Kaber came from embalming powder, was shattered by the defense's own witness.

Roy Daniels, one of the undertakers who had taken charge of Kaber's body and who on direct examination and testified that 24 pounds of the powder had been sprinkled on the vital organs twenty-four hours before the autopsy, admitted on examination that the first autopsy was held before the undertaker had opened the body and the embalming powder had not been used until Kaber's stomach had been removed.

The undertaker's testimony opened the defense's battle to save the accused woman.

WORLD WAITS JAP ACTION ON DISARMAMENT

with a great deal more sincerity were the proposed conference to deal merely with the question of the reduction of armaments. The inclusion of the whole problem of the Pacific and Far East in the program is not pleasing to Tokyo, according to well-informed quarters. The Pacific and Far East phase of the conference looms larger and larger as the proposition is studied.

It must of necessity occupy first place in the program of business and an agreement must be reached on every disputed point before the conference can get around to the question of reducing armaments and navies.

TWO COOPERATIVES WILL BE HELD.

According to present indications, there will be two conferences. The first will take up the Pacific and Far East question and include only those nations directly concerned. The second will discuss disarmament and may be extended to include others than the five powers originally designated.

Both Chambers, Lloyd George and Briand may attend their respective countries at the conference, which is expected to open in Washington this fall. The American delegation is expected to be headed by Secretary Hughes and the names of William Jennings Bryan and Robert Lansing, both former Secretaries of State.

BRIAND ACCEPTS FOR FRANCE

PARIS, July 12.—Premier Briand, in behalf of France today accepted President Harding's invitation to an international conference to discuss disarmament.

Announcement that France accepted was contained in a speech delivered by the premier in the Chamber of Deputies. It was received with terrific applause.

After denouncing the Chamber that France is now in receipt of the official offer from the American President, Premier Briand said:

"France has readily accepted the proposal in order to show the government's desire for peace."

After the applause had subsided the premier continued:

"I want to thank the American executive for having thought of France, thereby rendering homage to her pacific spirit."

"France is resolutely determined to find means of limiting armaments. Out of the proposed conference perhaps will come agreements which guarantee the future peace of the world."

"France also has an interest in the Pacific which we must not neglect."

"When the preliminary finished, the applause broke out again, lasting several minutes."

It is learned that the Hon. Viviani has telegraphed to Geneva suggesting a postponement of the League of Nations Congress on disarmament which was scheduled to open here Saturday.

SEE NO CLASH WITH LEAGUE

LONDON, July 12.—Foreign office officials today scoffed at the view expressed in some quarters in England and France that President Harding's proposed international conference was in the first place an association of nations rivaling the League of Nations.

It was pointed out that President Harding's proposal for a meeting to discuss disarmament and far east problems was the heavy endorsement of the dominion premiers who are the strongest adherents of the League of Nations.

Lord Robert Cecil, chief exponent of the League of Nations in Great Britain, said he was not at all surprised at the international conference.

"I see no threat against the supremacy of the League of Nations," declared Lord Robert Cecil.

Premier Meighen of Canada, in an interview printed in the Times today, praised the American offer.

The Canadian premier was quoted as saying:

"To a distracted world the message offers new hope and promise of relief. Nowhere is President Harding's proposition welcomed more eagerly than in Canada. I hope it will be thoroughly successful in bringing nearer the time when we can live in peace entirely."

Suggestions are being made that there should be a preliminary conference to discuss the technical aspects, thus shortening the work of the real international conference when it meets in Washington.

It is believed that, if President Harding's proposition is successful, the disarmament and Far East conference will be convoked at Washington about the middle of autumn.

POPE PREPARES TO BACK HARDING

ROME, July 12.—President Harding's invitation to the League of Nations international conference to discuss disarmament and Far East problems has created an excellent impression at the Vatican.

It was learned from an authoritative source today that Pope Benedict is preparing a document for public circulation encouraging the idea. It was pointed out that the Holy See of the Roman Catholic church has been a powerful supporter of disarmament.

Persons close to the Vatican, in discussing the proposal for an international conference, said that the "presence of an authorized American envoy at the Vatican might prove most useful in the present juncture."

Those favoring the sending of an American envoy to the Holy See pointed out that the combined spiritual influence of the Roman Catholic church and the powerful political prestige of America would go far in pointing out the future salvation of humanity.

Ban Women Smoking

Representative Paul R. Johnson of Mississippi has proposed a bill in the House to prohibit persons in the District of Columbia to sell or give females cigarettes or any other forms of tobacco, and that women shall not be allowed to smoke in public.

Encouraging the idea. It was pointed out that the Holy See of the Roman Catholic church has been a powerful supporter of disarmament.

Persons close to the Vatican, in discussing the proposal for an international conference, said that the "presence of an authorized American envoy at the Vatican might prove most useful in the present juncture."

HUGHES WOULD HEAD DELEGATION

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Questions of procedure brought up by the call for a disarmament conference were under official consideration today despite the fact that the actual gathering of delegates is still some weeks away. Leading speculation here is what part President Harding will take in the conference and who he will appoint to represent this Government. While there has been no announcement the course generally favored seems to be:

The President to take no active part in the discussions of the delegates, but to advise with them frequently.

The appointment of a delegation of about four men to represent this country in parleys.

Secretary Hughes in all probability would head the American delegation. There would probably be a Senator and the names of Knox and Lodge are mentioned in this connection.

It is also possible that one Democrat would be named. The names of William Jennings Bryan and Robert Lansing, both former Secretaries of State.

RED LEADER TO VISIT AMERICA

Leonid Krassin, Trade Commissioner, Enroute to London.

LONDON, July 12.—Dispatches from Berlin today stated that Leonid Krassin, Bolshevik trade commissioner, would soon visit the United States.

Krassin, who left for Moscow after recovering from his recent illness, will return to London in three weeks. It was stated at the offices of the Russian commission that the United States had been in charge of his assistant, M. Berzig.

Before his illness Krassin had planned to visit Canada to supervise several huge contracts. At that time, it was reported he would enter the United States, but this was denied by Bolshevik authorities, who said that he would be deported the same as Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, former Russian representative in New York.

5 BIDS RECEIVED ON SEWAGE UNIT

Offers Cover New Building and Conduit System.

Five bids for the construction of the second division of the city sewage disposal plant at Sellers Park were received by the board of sanitary commissioners today. They were referred to the board's engineer, C. H. Hurd who said the successful bidder would be announced Thursday.

Bidders and proposals were George W. Bunning, Indianapolis, $230,000; Freyn and Colon, St. Louis, $195,000; J. W. and W. C. Martin, Indianapolis, $220,000; J. C. Karstedt, Indianapolis, $235,515; and William P. Junglaas, Indianapolis, $265,000.

The unit consists of the pump and screen house, to cover equipment purchased during the last year and a large concrete conduit system connecting various parts of the entire plant.

This Man Ought to Be Able to Pay Big Fine

Jesse F. Arbuckle, living near Wolcott, White County, was arrested yesterday by Inspectors Edward E. Brown and Agent A. S. White, Federal prohibition enforcement officers, and Sheriff Price of White County. A fifteen gallon still, about four gallons of corn whisky and a container were found on the premises, although the still was not set up. Arbuckle was taken to Monticello, where he was released on bond of $1,000. He told the officers that he had been making whisky since April, but the year he has been getting $20 to $25 a gallon for it.

PACKERS WILL BE QUESTIONED

Illinois Investigation of State Funds' Use Strikes in High Places.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 12.—Two officials of Chicago packing companies were summoned today to appear before the Sangamon grand jury in connection with the juggling of $10,000,000 in State funds.

Sheriff Masters went to Chicago to subpoena Fred W. Crowell, treasurer of Armour and Company, and A. L. Carlton, treasurer of Swift and Company. Claims that these two companies were permitted to borrow ten million dollars from the State on which only 2 per cent interest was received by the State treasurer are being probed by the grand jury.

The investigation which got under way yesterday may be used as a basis for civil suits against Governor Len Small, Lieut. Gov. Fred Sterling and Senator Andrew Russell, all of whom served terms as State treasurer, to recover $2,000,000.

This is the amount which Attorney General Edward Brundage believes is due the State in interest money withheld from State funds by former treasurers. In case the evidence presented to the grand jury warrants, the former State treasurers, also may face criminal charges.

The grand jury resumed its investigation with State Treasurer Edward E. Miller concluding his testimony.

COP CONTROL DISCUSSED BY HUMANE BODY

loafing with the other colored gentlemen in the basement of the city hall.

Several weeks ago it was discovered that while these officers were reporting hourly to Miss Meany most of their reports were being made from a few downtown private telephones.

At that time the board of safety issued orders that they should report to the Gamewell operator the same as other members of the police department. Following that order, a perusal of the monthly report of the society revealed that the four officers were reporting more investigations and inspections than the whole of the regular police force.

FACETIOUS SUGGESTION.
It has been facetiously suggested that the conference of the officers of the humane society last night was to consider whether, in view of the marvelous record of the four sergeants, it would not be possible to assign them to policing the city at large, to the exclusion of the four hundred patrolmen, thereby carrying out Controller Bryson's recent demand for economy in all departments.

It is understood that an invitation was extended to George Williams, executive secretary of the board of public safety, to attend the meeting in order that he might convey to the board the confidence of the executive officers in their ability to "do the good job" whenever the board of safety desires to retire from active duty.

The policy of absolute secrecy, announced recently by W. H. Roberts, president of the society, has not prevented it becoming known that the board of directors, McConnell is reported to have been censured in the belief that he was responsible for the public attention attracted by the obviously padded report of the humane officers for the month of May.

McConnell, who never heretofore has subscribed to a policy of secrecy concerning public business, has now suddenly become a proponent of the impossibility of carrying out the board's policy and to have declined to be a party to it.

The society continues to hold him forth as a member of the board, regardless of what legal complications might arise as a result of such action. It is also understood that in order to further the society's policy, the board of directors has decided to supply the secretary with reports submitted at the last meeting, and there exists no record of the regular board session such as an incorporated society is required to keep by the laws of Indiana.
