

Society

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season was that of Miss Laura Carol Pindon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Padon, 62 North Layman avenue, and Wallace Carter Wadsworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wadsworth of this city, which took place last evening, the Rev. Father M. Lyons of the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes officiating. Branches of pine screened the walls and stairway and formed a background for the banking of palms, ferns and floor baskets of yellow and lavender asters, before which the service was read. Mrs. Alice Klaus Tracy sang "At Dawning" and "Beloved, It Is Morn," preceding the service, accompanied by Miss Marie Sullivan, who played the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" for the processional.

Miss Mary Padon, sister of the bride, maid of honor, wore a striking frock of yellow tulle combined with lavender and gold lace and carried an arm bouquet of lavender and yellow asters. Miss Agnes Padon, bridesmaid, was gown in lavender tulle and silver lace and her bouquet was of lavender asters. Little Jean Wickens and Dorothy Adams, flower maids, wore dainty frocks of lavender organdie appliqued with yellow motifs and carried baskets of lavender and yellow blossoms to which were attached yellow tulle streamers that formed an aisle for the bridal party. Veno Sacre acted as best man.

Assisting in the dining room was a group of members of the Delta Delta Delta, sorority sisters of the bride. The bride wore a charming gown of ivory tulle combined with georgette crepe embroidered with pearls, over which fell her tulle veil arranged in cap effect and caught with organdie blossoms, and she carried a shower of sweetheart roses.

Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Gladys Hudson, Bloomington, Ill.; Mrs. Jeanette Clifford Wickens, Albuquerque, N. M.; and Mrs. Otto Bretweiser, Muncie.

Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth departed last evening for a trip to Yellowstone Park, the bride traveling in a handsome suit of midnight blue tulle with hat to match. They will be at home Oct. 1, at Jonquil Terrace, Evanston, Ill.

The marriage of Miss Hazel Mae Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Cooper, and Arnold Houser, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Houser, took place last evening at the home of the bride, 2130 North Delaware street, Dr. O. W. Pifer officiating. The house was decorated with palms, sunflowers and baskets of cut flowers. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Miss Victoria Montani, harpist, who also played "To A Wild Rose," during the ceremony. Mrs. Roy V. Van Horn, as matron of honor, wore a gown of pink silk draped with a silk shawl, brought from Paris by Mrs. Cooper. Little Miss Doris Louise Van Horn, flower girl, wore a dainty frock of pink organdie and a head band of pink tulle with a pink gauze butterfly as trimming, and carried a basket of pink roses. Morris E. Houser, brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride was crowned in ivory tulle and her mother's wedding veil, which was arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Mrs. Cooper, mother of the bride, wore a black tulle dress fashioned with a beaded tulle. An informal reception followed the ceremony. The bride's traveling suit was of navy blue tulle and she wore a hat of copper color. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Bell and Mrs. Edith Van Horn, Lafayette; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Blair, Seymour; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Tanner, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Houser will be at home after Oct. 1, at 2130 North Delaware street.

Several Indianapolis persons were attendants at the wedding of Miss Lois Blount, daughter of Mrs. Ladonna Blount, Tipton, and Herman James Shedy, Hiram, Ohio, which was solemnized with a lovely ceremony last evening at 8 o'clock, at the West Street Christian Church in Tipton. Preceding the service, which was read by President Minor Lee Bates, Hiram College, Olive Tressler sang the Theta prayer and Mrs. L. L. MacQueen, Covington, Ky., sister of the bride, sang "Oh Promise Me" and "Because," accompanied by chimes. The church was attractively arranged to carry out a color scheme of pink and white, which also was used in the costumes of the bride's attendants, who wore white frocks with picture hats of pink, and carried arm bouquets of Columbia roses. The ceremony took place by the light of tall cathedral candles and the playing of chimes at 8 o'clock from a distant balcony announced the entrance of the bridal party.

The attendants were Miss Carol Blount, sister of the bride; Mrs. J. Victor McCool, Kokomo; Mrs. O. A. Davis, Marion; Mrs. W. C. Miller, Indianapolis; Miss Marjorie MacQueen, Covington, Ky., as flower girl; Lawrence MacQueen Jr., nephew of the bride, Covington, page, and Kenneth Prather Fry, Indianapolis, best man. The ushers were all from Indianapolis and members of Delta Tau Delta, the bridegroom's fraternity. They were as follows: Russell Koehler, Stanley Sellick, Dan McKinney and Cary McCallum. The little flower girl and page wore dainty costumes of white muslin.

The bride wore a charming gown of silk chantilly lace and satin and a tulle veil with wreath of orange blossoms. Mr. and Mrs. Shedy have left for a trip to the Great Lakes and Canada, and will be at home after Oct. 1, at Hiram, Ohio. The bride was a graduate of Butler College and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. The bridegroom was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Shedy of Fairmont and attended Butler College.

Miss Martha Christine Burt, a bride-elect, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given last night by Miss Doris McCannan at her home, 2301 Bellefontaine. The guests were Miss Lavena Fisher, Miss Anna Pate, Miss Ina Shore, Miss Martha Shillery, Miss Margaret Radbeck, Miss Dorothy McCoy, Miss Mary White, Miss Eugene Wilcox and Mrs. Pringle. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. E. A. McCannan. Miss Burt will marry Alex Connell Sept. 13 at the Third Christian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Benton and daughter Mildred, Twenty-Fifth and Meridian streets, have returned from a motor trip in northern Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Fernor S. Cannon, 17 West Thirty-Fifth street, departed today for Cape Cod, Mass., where they will spend a fortnight.

Freel Sculling came yesterday from Atlanta, Ga., to join Mrs. Sculling and sons Lelifer and William, who are the guests of Mrs. Will Valodin, 2064 North Talbot avenue.

State Officials Talk to Hamilton Teachers

Special to The Times.
NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Sept. 2.—Dr. J. N. Jurey, secretary of the State board of health, spoke at the teachers' institute here Thursday on the subject of "Diet."

L. N. Hines, State superintendent of public instruction, also spoke. He made the prediction that the coming school year would be the most successful in the history of the State. He based his prediction on the fact that the minimum wage law goes into effect this year and he thought it would make more efficient teachers, and he also believed the housing conditions for the children over the State were much improved.

BAVARIA MAKES PROTEST.
BERLIN, Sept. 2.—The Federal Council of Bavaria today sent a communication to Berlin protesting against infringement of state's rights in ordering the suspension of newspapers in Bavaria. Der Tag and Lokal Anzeiger in Berlin have been suppressed for a fortnight owing to political articles that followed the assassination of Matthias Erzberger.

GIRLS! LEMONS

BLEACH SKIN WHITE

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quartet pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin. Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.—Advertisement.

AUTO THIEVES WRECK CAR.

Four men drove an automobile stolen from William C. Bobbs, 1610 North Delaware street, into an electric light pole at West Washington street and the Rockville road Thursday afternoon, knocked the pole down, demolished the front part of the car and escaped. Before hitting them.

the pole, the car knocked down six mail boxes. The men escaped in another automobile which had been following them.

Negligees for the School-Bound To College, Academy or Convent

These warm days don't inspire shopping for winter bathrobes, but the college girl (or her mother), is nothing if not foresighted, and realizes the utmost necessity of purchasing these essentials now.

Bathrobes made of Beacon blanketing in the new shades and in many desirable patterns—figures, stripes, plaids—have trimmings of cord, ribbon and bands of self material. Some have the shawl, others the Tuxedo collars, and some are collarless. They range from $4.95 to $26.50.

Corduroy Bathrobes

These in the popular breakfast coat style, to be worn loose or belted, have the V neck and kimono or ¾ length sleeves, pockets, cords and are self trimmed—$3.95, $4.95 and $8.95.

Soft Taffeta Breakfast Coats, $6.95

If you're in love with the taffeta breakfast coat at all, you probably have a preference for the flounced style. These in the light and medium shades are self-ruching and fruit trimmed.

Fine Taffeta and Satin Coats

Luxurious little coats for school, negligee and breakfast wear, and in the dark tones especially appropriate for Pullman service to and from college. They come, however, in two-tone effects, light, medium and dark predominating. Straight lines with deep flounces and decoration of ruching, fruit, cords and plaiting. From $9.75 to $25.00.
