

INDIANAPOLIS NURSE SEEKS PRESIDENCY

Has Opposition From South Bend in State Association Meeting Here.

Miss June Gray, instructor in the Red Cross teaching center of Indianapolis is one of the two candidates for president of the Indiana State Nurses Association, whose names had the ballots distributed today at the opening general business session of the State convention in the Palm room of the Claypool Hotel. Miss Margaret Parker of South Bend is the other candidate. The remainder of the nominees include Miss Lucy Leaman of Ft. Wayne; Miss Della Ingle Smith of Evansville; Miss Anna Price of Chest Brook of Indianapolis; and Miss Anna Medendorf of Lafayette, for second vice president; Mabel Scott Hungins and Norma Coates Ade of Indianapolis, for secretary; Allean Gross of Ft. Wayne and Esta Ricketts of Franklin, for treasurer; Mrs. C. D. Fawcett of Indianapolis, Miss Fannie Thomas of South Bend, Captain the Hear of Indianapolis, Sister Lena Braun of Evansville, for three years directors.

Mary A. Myers, president of the association opened the meeting with a brief talk. She urged the nurses to work toward gaining a bigger membership.

"We are too weak," she said. "We have not enough members. There is a great group of women in the State, one of whom should belong to our association. The quality of what we have is fine, but we lack quantity now and we must all work together to gain fresh material."

Rebel Murray of Muncie talked on "How and Where Scholarships May be Obtained."

NURSES NOT TAKING HIGHER EDUCATION.

She declared the nurses are not taking hold of higher education as they should and that the association bend its efforts to encourage the nurses to work to acquire higher education and to arrange for them to attain this education.

Miss Nannie Brown declared, "We must bring our young women in a cultural way. For good health must be cultured. We must bring the in the schools the students gain general culture and poise, as well as efficiency in nursing."

Reports of various officers and district secretaries were read and general routine business conducted.

For the first time in 15 years, Lincoln was held in parlor B of the hotel. General G. H. of the health board acting as tournament master. Responses were made by Mrs. Grace Cook, chairman of the Nurses Central Registry of Indianapolis, whose topic was "Old-Time Nurses"; Frances M. Ott of Indianapolis, who spoke on "Modern Nurses"; Lillian Geras of Ft. Wayne, who spoke on the "Prohibition"; Mr. Paul Scott of Franklin, whose subject embraced "The Ford and Public Health Nurse" and Mrs. D. P. Beyer of New York, in charge of the Colgate dental clinic, who did overseas work for four years.

COL. HARRISON GIVEN PRESENT.

During the luncheon hour Miss Isa Gaskill presented a brass desk clock to Col. Russell G. Harrison on behalf of the nurses of Indiana with an engraving "In grateful appreciation to Colonel Harrison by the Indiana Nurses." Colonel Harrison, father of the "nurses" during the afternoon a down comfort was sent to Mrs. Peter Brice, or "Mother Brice" as she is known to the nurses, who was the first superintendent of nurses at the city hospital. The gift was sent in appreciation of her life's work.

The program this afternoon was composed of reports from central directors and in charge of the private duty section, Grace Cook being chairman. Tonight a get-together party for ex-service nurses will be given by the Berry-Copeland post, American Legion at Ma-Lo, which is to include "chicken mess," army style.

Lincoln will be entertained at 6 o'clock tomorrow evening, with the election of officers will take place after which the session will be taken over by the public Health section. The convention will be closed tomorrow evening by an address "Beyond the Farthest Camping Grounds and the Last Tin Can" by Paul Haworth, explorer and mountain climber, to be held on the eighth floor of the Chamber of Commerce.

Special clinics will be conducted for the nurses Saturday morning by Willis D. Gatch, Dr. John W. Sluss, Dr. Carl MacCay and Dr. W. F. Hughes.

Miss Annette B. Cowles, superintendent of nurses at the city hospital, was chosen as president of the Indiana League of Nursing Education at the league session held yesterday afternoon in the Claypool Hotel in connection with the nineteenth annual convention of the Indiana Nurses Association. Miss Mary M. Peterson of the Robert Long Hospital was elected vice president, and Miss L. L. Gospinger of the Deaconess Hospital, secretary-treasurer.

PREMIER PRESIDES

At the Pall Mall Gazette, which is very close to Premier Lloyd George and friendly to his political interests, has reopened the question of the premier's presence at the Washington conference.

According to the Pall Mall Gazette, "Powerful influences are at work to induce the premier to go to Washington in November, accompanied by a large staff of political experts."

From present indications the premier will not go to Washington. For several weeks newspaper reports have been appearing upon this subject. It was indicated these stories were inspired to sound out public sentiment.

Before the Cabinet meeting, Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, conferred with the premier.

WASHINGTON SATISFACTION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The decision tentatively reached by the British Cabinet at London today to include Australian and Canadian representatives on the main British delegation to the November armament conference was generally hailed with deep satisfaction in administration quarters.

It was stated that the presence of the Australian and Canadians here next November would be immensely pleasing to American officials.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 6.—Hugo Staines, the German industrial and financial magnate, is turning his attention to Mexico and today was reported to be behind a gigantic colonization scheme in this country.

Luis Huller, Jr., who has just succeeded in having a $20,000 land concession to a group of Americans declared invalid, is understood to have either the backing of Herr Staines or a German group close to the Staines interests.

The most recent news, however, was well-known to Huller's efforts had been granted many years ago to James R. Garfield, son of former President Garfield of the United States; Nelson Rhodes of Los Angeles; Olive M. Stafford of Cleveland, Ohio, and E. J. Marshall of El Paso.

McCray Besieged Over Hammond Judgeship

Governor Warren T. McCray was besieged today by candidates and friends of candidates for the judgeship of the Superior Court at Hammond. Judge Walter Hough of that court died Tuesday evening. Among those mentioned as aspirants to the office are Dan Moran, Hammond; James Patterson, Gary; Hoy T. Davis; J. D. Kennedy, East Chicago, and A. Oettemeier, East Chicago.

U. M. W. CASE MAY SEE DELAY IN U. S. COURT

Suit Filed Menaces Very Foundations of Union Labor.

Although the suit for injunction brought against the United Mine Workers of America, their officials and a number of Indiana coal producing concerns and individuals by the Bordenland Coal Corporation of Virginia, has been set down for hearing before Judge Albert B. Anderson in Federal Court for Oct. 14, it is not believed the case will come to trial at that time. A delay of a week or more probably will be granted.

John W. Harkness, attorney for the mine workers called upon Judge Anderson and said in view of the importance of the case, and the fact that the entire "check-off" system is under attack, he thought it would be necessary to have additional time in which to prepare his case. He also said W. A. Glasgow of Indianapolis, who succeeded Charles Evans Hughes as president of the United Mine Workers, had agreed to speak at the hearing.

RALSTON TO SPEAK AT TWO MEETINGS.
