

SELFISHNESS TO DOMINATE ARMS PARLEY

Old School Diplomats, Not Humanitarians, on Delegations.

ENIGMA FROM JAPAN

By J. W. T. MASON.

Selfish national interests and not international generosity will dominate the Washington disarmament conference. This fact is shown by the kind of men who have been appointed delegates to the conference. There is no humanitarian on the list. Prince Tokugawa of Japan is the only prominent man of the foreign delegations who is neither a politician nor an old school diplomat.

For the United States to make the conference even a moderate success, it will be necessary to offer to trade with the delegates. There will be some faces in front and loaded guns behind at the conference table. No nation present will be willing to make sacrifices for the good of humanity unless an ultimate personal profit is shown. President Coolidge will rule all Washington when the international statesmen come together as it rules in the Senate and House of Representatives.

FAVOR MASTER POLITICIAN.

Arthur Balfour who probably will head the British delegation is the master politician in international areas in the House of Commons. He is never seen without a gun to give anything away without getting something better for his country in exchange.

Premier Briand of France and his chief assistant, ex-Premier Viviani, have no interest in anything outside the boundaries of France. Their political prestige always has depended on not giving anything and getting everything.

AMERICAN RICH. who is to head the Italian delegation, thinks in terms of secret diplomacy. Italy is interested in the conference only to the extent of preventing any treaty which might have a prelatial plan in Africa and Asia Minor. Rich will have to prevent the adoption of any rule for the reduction of Italy's army below the requirements of colonial expansion. Secret diplomacy will be used to this end.

JAPAN'S DELEGATE PROVES ENIGMA.

The one enigma of the conference delegations is Prince Tokugawa of Japan. He is the adopted son of the late Prince Keiki Tokugawa, who was the last of the Shoguns. The Japanese Shogunate system gave Japan her present military temper.

ASK GRAIN GIFTS FOR NEAR EAST

Quota for Indiana Is 200 Cars of Corn.

Strong endorsement of the Near East Relief grain appeal for the starving babies of the Bible lands, is given in a resolution framed by the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Association and forwarded to the agricultural committee by Secretary P. H. Crane.

The directors of the federation declare "that contributions to the Near East Relief are for a worthy cause and those members of the organization who feel able, should give grain or money for the relief of the destitute in the countries reached by this agency."

The grain appeal was endorsed at a recent meeting of the federation directors. Russell G. East, Shelby County agent who is to direct the grain appeal, with George C. Bryant of the United States bureau of agricultural statistics, have figured out Indiana's quota which is approximately 200 car loads of corn. The State quota with that of the county quotas are based on estimates of crop reports. Prof. G. I. Christie chairman of the Near East Relief agricultural committee, suggests the week of Nov. 14 as a time for gathering the donations. Elevator operators of the State will receive and handle the grain free. It was announced. Director East is greatly interested in the appeal and will have the cooperation of practically all of the county agents.

Headquarters for the grain appeal is at 405 City Trust building, the home of the State Near East Relief.

VICTOR ARTISTS WIN AUDIENCE WITH MELODY

Peerless Quartette Gets Praise
Singing Songs of Olden Time.

An unusually demonstrative audience greeted the eight Victor artists who presented a generous program of pleasing variety at the Murat last evening. Billy Murray, who acted as master of ceremonies, introducing his colleagues, won many laughs with his humorous preamble to each group of numbers. The popular entertainer has plenty of pep and personality that put over his solo numbers with a dash.

His "Ten Little Fingers and Ten Little Toes" brought forth a storm of applause and he was forced to sing several encores, among them being a clever half sung, half spoke specialty, "When You're Down in the Old Swamin' Hole," the remainder of the singers coming in on the last chorus. As an extra for his second group he sang "The Old Town Hall."

The Peerless quartette, including Albert Campbell, Henry Burr, John Meyer and Frank Croton, won fresh laurels with their group including "Linda," "I'm Missin' Mamma's Kissin'," "Somebody's Mother," and a freightless melody, "The Evening Star" from Tannhauser, and the favorite classic, "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," and as an extra "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes." Mr. Croton has a deep rich bass voice that seemed peculiarly adapted to the style of his selections.

The solo instrumental numbers were the piano solos by Frank Banta, who is a pianist of the highest caliber. He played a jazz artist; duets by Mr. Banta and John Meyer, which made a "hit" with the listeners, the comedy "stunts" carried on in preparation for the team's performance, being a few semi-classical that everybody enjoyed including Cadman's "At Dawning," "I'll Take You Home, Kathleen," "Old Pal, Why Don't You Answer Me" and "Mary Is Coming to Me."

As for jokes and character songs, Monroe Silver brought peals of laughter from his hearers by his Cohen stories, his parody on Billy Murray's "Ten Little Fingers" and new versions of old college favorites, presented in true Hebrew fashion.

The stage was attractively arranged, the glowing fireplace rose shaded lamps and artistic furniture making a satisfactory setting. The concert as a whole was decidedly entertaining, the artists being familiar to most of the audience by reason of their records and their appearance in a similar program here last season.

Catarrh Does Harm—Get Rid of It

Catarrh of the nose or throat when it becomes chronic weakens the delicate lung tissues, deranges the digestive organs, and may lead to consumption. It impairs the taste, smell and hearing, and affects the voice. It is a constitutional disease and requires a constitutional remedy.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by purifying the blood removes the cause of the disease and gives permanent relief. This alternative and tonic medicine has proved entirely satisfactory to thousands of sufferers in three generations.

If there is indigestion or constipation, Hood's Pills—they are purely vegetable, gentle, thorough.—Advertisement.

BURGLAR'S FIRE GRAZES SIDE OF NEGRO PURSUER

Attempt to Prevent Garage
Robbery Results in Exchange of Shots.

MANY PLACES VISITED

Two burglars opened fire on a policeman and another man who detected them attempting to break into the garage of the Laid Lawns, North and Delaware streets, early today. One bullet struck the Ray White, negro, 606 Hudson street, tearing through his clothing and grazing his side.

White discovered the burglars, who, he says, were negroes, and he went to the front of the college to try and find the watchman. Falling in this, he signaled to Motorcycle Policeman Brooks who was passing. Brooks had turned toward the garage when three shots were fired at White by the burglars. Brooks fired three shots at the two burglars, who ran north through an alley and escaped.

EFFORTS MET WITH SMALL RETURNS.

Burglars and hold-up men who operated in various parts of the city during the week-end met with only small financial success.

Stewart Snel, 1705 Fletcher avenue, reported that a burglar entered his home and took a purse containing $2.

Two apartments in the Marguerite Flats, were entered by a burglar. Mrs. Harvey Wilson said $11 was taken from her home, apartment No. 6. Miss Emilie Gueles, said her apartment, No. 10, was entered by the burglar, but nothing was taken.

Two hold-up men entered John P. Suttin's shoe store, 1814 Madison street, Saturday night and escaped with $17. John Lewis, 512 West New York street, was held up on Orange street by a negro man and woman Saturday night and relieved of $45. The police arrested Catherine Taylor, 21 Osage street, and Lewis identified her as the woman who robbed him.

Charles Chase, 2234 Howard street, was

INGROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrown nail reduces inflammation and pain and so softens the tender sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost overnight.

"Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.—Advertisement.

Arrival of Police.

India India, 577 Chesapeake street, told the police that a thief took eleven phonograph records from her home. Edward Laiden, 205 South Eleventh street, Richmond, Ind., sought to know his "past, present and future," last night and he paid a Gipsy fortune teller 50 cents for the information. The Gipsy was in the doorway of a store near Washington and Capitol avenue. She suggested to Laiden that he permit her to hold his money "for luck," and he handed her a roll of bills. After the fortune was told the bills were returned and in a few minutes Laiden discovered that there was a $20 bill missing. He called the police but the teller of future events could foresee the arrival of the police and had disappeared.

Anna Rose, 379 North Bolton avenue, telephoned the police that two tires and two rims were stolen from her automobile in the yard of her home last night. The rims and tires were worth $90. Burglars entered the store of Foster Greer, 508 Indiana avenue. Cigars and cigarettes valued at $6 were taken. The
