

HOLDS GERMANY HAS NO PLACE IN CONFERENCE

"What Is There for Her to Discuss?" Asks French Chief Delegate.

TERMS ALREADY FIXED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—"Why should Germany be admitted to a conference of nations? What is there for her to discuss?"

This, in effect, was the attitude of Rene Viviani, nominal head of the French delegation today, as the proposal to include Germany in an association of nations. The Frenchman made his reply pertinent to a possible meeting next year.

Germany, Viviani said, had no further interest in the Pacific; Germany has only to fulfill the terms of the Versailles treaty to be disarmed to the satisfaction of every one; Germany had her opportunity for full discussion of finances at Wiesbaden with Loucheur.

France, Viviani said, would like fair warning before Germany gets into any conference; France wants to bring up a bundle of facts with facts and figures.

As for the present conference only two results are expected by the French—an agreement regarding capital ships, and a resolution regarding China. The more optimistic of a French statesman, however, consider that a third result, international endorsement of France's military policy, has already been reached. But daily facts are contradicting this idea.

MOUNT SERMON STILL MODEL

'Y. W.' Staff Members Told of Lasting Value of Dis-cour-se of Ages.

Dr. W. O. Trushoff, pastor of the First Friends Church made the seventh of a series of talks on the subject, "The Sermon on the Mount," before the members of the Young Women's Christian Association yesterday afternoon. He said:

"The fundamental principles of the Sermon on the Mount were as well today as they did one thousand years ago; as they will ten thousand years hence; that they will live in individual life or in the affairs of the Y. W. C. A. in the business of the city administration as well as in the affairs of the State or Nation, because this sermon was given not only to the ages but to the ages."

Lectures and club meetings are scheduled at the Y. W. C. A. this week. The organization of three new clubs in the Whitfield School, the Lincoln School and the Horace Mann School, respectively, will be in charge of Miss Florence Jar, director of this department of girl reserve work. This will bring the total number of clubs up to nineteen, with an approximate membership of 600. Young women who act as club leaders will meet in a conference at the Association building Thursday morning. Included in the group are Mrs. Mord Carter, Miss Charles, Mrs. D. H. Smith, Miss Mary Isabelle Downing, Mrs. Perry Lesh, Mrs. Guy Wachstetter, Miss Margaret Evans, Miss Margaret Smalley, Mrs. L. W. Collins and Miss Lucille Jones.

Grade school reserves will attend a supper Thursday evening, which will be followed by a basketball game with girls from the Christamore Settlement. Miss Georgia Beach will act as coach for the Y. W. C. A. team. The game is open to the public. High school members of the Girl Reserves will resume their regular meetings following the change necessitated by the Thanksgiving holiday. Girls from Shortridge High School will meet on Wednesday afternoon to discuss a program of service to be carried out in the near future. The initiation of thirty new members and a skating party with boy friends as guests will follow a supper to be given by the Technical Club Friday evening.

The I. G. C. Girls, one of the largest social clubs among industrial girls, will hold their monthly party Friday evening. Miss Hilda Kirkman will have charge of a program of music. Monday noon, during the lunch hour Mrs. Don D. Tullis gave a program of songs before the girls at the Indianapolis Grove Club.

She sang, "Wake Up," "Colleen of My Heart" and "Secret Languages."

JUDGE SAYS RICH TIPPLERS IMMUNE

Discharges Restaurant Owner in 'Tiger' Case.

"Why have the wine cellars of the rich never been touched in this town; the poor and the humble are punished for having a small quantity of liquor every day," thundered John Robbins, special judge today in city court, as he decided stamped "discharged" on an affidavit charging Sam Koby with operating a "blind tiger."

Koby, who owns a restaurant and wholesale tobacco house at 427 West Washington street, came to police headquarters on Nov. 12, and surrendered after four half-pints and a plate of bonded whiskey had been found in a cache under the floor of his restaurant by police and Federal officers. He said he had been in Greenfield at the time the liquor was found. At the trial today a mysterious employee called "Winstead" came forward and took the blame from Koby.

Koby was arrested on four previous occasions this year. At the present time he is undergoing investigation by the grand jury on charges of receiving stolen goods and conspiring to commit a felony.

Records in the city clerk's office show the Koby was convicted of operating a "blind tiger" on July 15 and fined $100 and costs.

Attempt to End Life May Be Successful

Physicians at the city hospital today stated that Arthur Long, 41, 516 Highland avenue, a street car motorman who shot himself Saturday night, is still in a critical condition. The bullet entered near his heart.

Long shot himself after failing to gain admittance to the home of William Beck, 924 East Fifteenth street, where Mrs. Long is employed as a housekeeper. Long said his wife had been separated for two years and Mrs. Long obtained a divorce from him Oct. 24.

Search Reveals Gold of Plundered Ship

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—Chests suspended from the hull, water pipes and other nooks and crannies of the liner Sonoma today gave forth a golden stream of English sovereigns, part of the loot of $125,000 in gold stolen from the ship's special tank while on route here from Australia. In all, more than $102,000 of the stolen gold has been recovered and the search continues. A number of the members of the crew are being questioned and arrests are expected.

President Harding to Spend Christmas Quietly at Capitol

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—President Harding plans to spend Christmas quietly at the White House, it was officially announced this afternoon.

CASE PRESENTS QUEER TANGLE

Five Men Are Held Here for Train Hold-up in Illinois.

Local Federal officials know nothing concerning the charges against the five men held in the Marion County jail after being given a hearing before Clyde Randall, United States commissioner at Terre Haute, on charges of being implicated in the robbery of an Illinois Central train near Paxton, Ill., on Nov. 7.

As crime was committed in Illinois the prisoners undoubtedly will be tried in the Illinois Federal Court, Federal officials say. It is not even known here by what proceedings the defendants were taken before Mr. Randall.

Yesterday the body of Steve Ferguson, negro, whose death several weeks ago resulted in the arrests of the five men, was exhumed from Crown Hill cemetery on order of Paul F. Robinson, coroner, and an examination was made by Dr. George R. Christian, deputy coroner. It was found that Ferguson died as the result of a bullet which entered his chest just above the heart.

Ferguson's body was found in the bushes at the side of the road near Rockville a few days after the train robbery. At the time it was believed he had been killed in a running battle between two bands of bootleggers, but postal officials believe he was killed in the fight with the train crew at the time of the hold-up.

The body was brought to a point near Rockville and thrown into the bushes by the roadside.

The five men who are held in jail here in default of bonds of $10,000 are: James Hill, 1115 North Capitol avenue; Frank Wolfe, 1911 Chadwick street; Vernon Jones, 511 North Senate avenue and Garrett Osborne, 647 Indiana avenue; and Joseph Burnett, 1014 South West street.

KIWANIS CLUB IN ALL-DAY SESSION

Interest Will Be Stirred at Meeting.

To stimulate an interest in their organization over the State, the Kiwanis district trustees will meet in Indianapolis Wednesday for an all-day session to be held at the Hotel Severin.

John L. Bromert, newly elected governor of the Indiana district, will preside. Beside the trustees the district officers and Col. J. L. McCulloch of Marion, Indiana, district governor, will attend the meeting. More than forty visiting Kiwanians are expected. The board of directors of the Indianapolis Kiwanis Club will entertain the visitors at noon luncheon which will take the place of the regular weekly club luncheon. At 6:30 p. m., the club will have a dinner in the new room of the Severin for the State officers and trustees. Frank Comerford, prominent Chicago Kiwanian, will give the address.

The meeting of the district trustees will be the first since J. N. Bromert became head of the organization in Indiana.

OFFICER IS PUT ON PROBATION

Testimony Shows Johnson Was in the Wrong.

The board of public safety put Patrolman Robert L. Johnson on probation for a month following his trial on charges of conduct unbecoming an officer today. Several minor promotions and appointments also were made.

Patrolman Johnson was charged with conduct unbecoming an officer in affidavits filed by Bert Cox, Mrs. Martha Cox and William M. Elmer, all of 117 Shelby street, several weeks ago. They swore that Johnson came to the Cox home, where Elmer boarded, and threatened the Coxes unless he got out of town. The testimony today showed that the Coxes and Johnson have been involved in family troubles for some time. Johnson said Elmer had caused Mrs. Johnson to separate from him. Mrs. Johnson and Elmer denied this.

Firemen were promoted to the rank of chauffeur as follows: Henry Gendron of Truck Co. 27, James O'Reilly of Squad Co. 2, Harold Morgan of Pumper Co. 10, Renzil Williams of Pumper Co. No. 16, and Morris Moreland of Truck Co. 23.

Patrolmen H. Howell and Omar Lee were promoted to trafficman and Trafficman John Stump was raised to detective sergeant.

Miles J. Padgett and George G. Mueller were appointed patrolmen and William Decker and William A. Petty, substitute firemen.

During the week ending Nov. 26, 127 permits for building valued at $436,178 were issued, the report of Building Commissioner Walter B. Stern showed.

GRAND JURY TO SIFT BANK CASE

Will Take Up Beech Grove Cashier's Reputed Shortage.

The Marion County grand jury today was prepared to probe the alleged shortage of Henry Schoenrock, cashier of the Beech Grove State Bank, which was closed Saturday on orders of Charles W. O'Connell, State bank commissioner. Prosecutor William P. Evans said that the grand jury will take up the investigation at once.

The meantime Mr. Schoenrock is in the Marion County jail because of his failure to give bond in the sum of $10,000. He was arrested Saturday night and has been in jail since.

Mr. Camp said following an examination by the bank examiners that $32,854.06 of the nearly $125,000 total deposits of the bank in public money and is provided by surety company and personal bonds. That protects all public money, he said.

Legion Weekly Has Established Offices

The American Legion Weekly has established offices at the national headquarters of the legion in the Meridian Life building, according to an announcement at the headquarters.

John T. Winterich of New York, managing editor of the magazine, has come to Indianapolis and will remain here about two months. It was announced that the method of distribution of the magazine has been changed so that disabled men in hospitals and vocational schools will receive it through legion posts.

AGREEMENT ON POSTAL RIGHTS PLEASES CHINA

Withdrawal of Unfair Competition Helps Nation Considerably.

By WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN. WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The agreement reached by the nine powers to give up postal privileges in China will greatly delight the Chinese people and greatly encourage the government at Peking.

The presence of postoffices conducted by foreign governments has been more than a mortification; it has been a real injury to the home government. China has had competitors in a matter which in other countries is the government monopoly.

The agreement to withdraw these privileges is in harmony with the spirit of the conference; it is additional proof that the Chinese people are being treated on an equal basis with the other nations.
