ONE WORKED BOX GAME

Fred McKinney and Frank Nelson, charged with assisting three prisoners of the Indiana State Reformatory, John Biglow, charged with burglary, and George Buda, charged with burglary, were sentenced to one year on the Indiana State Prison, Judge Collins said today.

Judge Collins said this is the maximum penalty provided by law for such offenses. He was charged in an indictment that McKinney and Nelson gave aid to Buda, charged with burglary, and George Buda, charged with burglary, were
sentenced to one year on the Indiana State Prison, Judge Collins said today.

On a charge of issuing a fraudulent check, Nimmon F. Lavering, 23, was sentenced from one to five years at the Indiana State Reformatory. John Biglow, 33, charged with burglary, was sentenced from one to fourteen years at the Indiana State Prison.

It is alleged that Rithchild lost $4,000 when Buda worked the old "box game."
It seems that Buda exhibited a little box which would transform a $1 bill into one of larger denominations or in other words, make money out of nothing. The box is a small machine "worked" beautifully. Buda claims he took only $2,000 from his victim, John Frank and Matt Cole, who were indicted with him. A severe case of insanity was discharged.
