

MOTHERS' AID SOCIETY HEARS
REPORT OF WORK
Mrs. Henrietta Ellinwood
Elected President for Tenth Time.

At the annual meeting of the Mothers' Aid Society at the office of the organization in the Union Trust Building yesterday, Mrs. Henrietta E. Ellinwood was re-elected president, this being her tenth term in that capacity.

In acknowledging the pleasure of the society in again placing Mrs. Ellinwood at its head, Mrs. Frank D. Scholl gave a brief history of the organization since its inception in 1907, she having been on its board of directors since that time. She related how the Mothers' Aid had grown from its first few families cared for to its present enormous proportions; from the days when Mrs. Ellinwood and her several officers carried on the work up to the present time. In the course of the year, Mrs. Fred C. Gardner also endorsed Mrs. Ellinwood's re-election by a motion that a vote of thanks be extended her for the many years of faithful, efficient service she had rendered. Mrs. Gardner had also been a director in the Mothers' Aid Society for many years.

The following report was read by the president:

"Industrial and economic conditions during this past year have been more serious than at any time in the history of our organization."

"Unemployment and lowered wages have on the one hand increased the number of persons dependent upon the amount of money available for our use."

"With increased demands and decreased funds the members of our office force have been compelled to exert extra efforts and spend long hours to carry on the work. We have, however, given relief and advice to all who have sought our assistance or have been reported to us."

"You will be interested, no doubt, to know that we have assisted 1,900 widows and children (490 widows, 1,410 children). Our disbursements were $35,010.98. We have given advice about approximately 15,300 times, and handled 157 court cases. Made 4,267 visits. Reunited and made self-supporting fifty-seven families. Returned fourteen families to their respective relatives in other cities."

"A new phase of our work has been the establishment of four social centers in addition to Fairview Settlement. These social centers were organized primarily to enable us to keep the mothers and their children being much more economical to supervise, teach and provide for numerous families under one roof. We are thus able to keep the children with their mothers and permit the mothers to go out and work for their own livelihood by leaving their children in the care of a widow in charge and in many other ways simplify and coordinate our work; for example:

"One of the colored centers has ninety children enrolled in the kindergarten and eleven mothers with thirty-two children housed there."

"The work at Fairview has gone forward with ever increasing interest. We have provided at the Settlement for fifty-three widows and 133 children during this past year. Our supervisor has made 1,155 visits. You can thus readily see that the homes, two nurseries and kindergarten have been overcrowded at all times. If we had more cottages we could accommodate more families."

The society officers include: Mrs. Ellinwood, president; Mrs. Harry D. Hammon, vice president; Mrs. Stanley S. Allardice, treasurer; Mrs. Frank L. Jones, recording secretary; Mrs. George C. Haerle, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harry Miesse, assistant corresponding secretary; Miss Martha S. Allardice, past department president. She received many beautiful gifts.

Neither could Puss Junior. As for Tom Thumb, he was knocked over trying to head piggle off and gave up the job in disgust.

So the old woman went to find some one to help her. At last she met a dog. So she said to the dog:

"Dog, dog, little pig."

Piggy won't get over the stile, And I shan't get home tonight."

But the dog wouldn't help, so the old woman called to Puss and Tom, and told them to come along, as she was going to find somebody to help her, if it took all night. And by and by she met a stick. So she said:

"Stick, stick, beat dog."

But the stick wouldn't help.

Piggy won't get over the stile, And I shan't get home tonight."

It's a crabbed old oak or a knotty old elm," said Puss Junior. Never mind, we'll not give up." And then they all went on a little further until they came to a meadow where a barnfire was burning. The flames crackled merrily, and seemed to say, "Why don't you ask us to help?" So the old woman climbed over the fence and said to the fire:

"Fire, fire, burn stick;

Stick won't beat dog;

Piggy won't bite pig;

Piggy won't get over the stile,

And I shan't get home tonight."

But the fire would not, and then the old woman didn't know what to do.

"Don't give up hope," said Puss Junior, "perhaps we will find some kind person to help us yet."

And in the next story you shall hear what happened. (Copyright, 1924.)

Notes of Interest to Women

Through statistics recently made public it is estimated that there are approximately 11,000,000 more females of the white race today than males, as against an excess of 4,000,000 before the war.

A bureau for jobless women will be established soon in Kokomo by women charity workers of that city. Mrs. Samuel Bartlett will lead in this work.

Indiana has 100 women commercial travelers who are business getters and considered most proficient in this line of work.

Mrs. Virginia C. Meredith of West Lafayette, prominent club woman of the state, is editor of the pages of the Breeder's Gazette, devoted to the interests of women, boys and girls in stock farm homes.

Advisory Board— Mrs. William J. Sumner, chairman; Mrs. Henrietta E. Ellinwood, vice chairman; Mrs. Fred C. Gardner, Mrs. John Madden, Mrs. D. McCallister, Mrs. Martha S. Allardice, Mrs. Richard Lieber, Mrs. William L. Taylor, Mrs. Fred W. Scholl, Mrs. Herbert Wagner, Mrs. Henrietta E. Ellinwood, Mrs. Frank D. Stainsaker, Mrs. George C. Haerle, Mrs. Joseph Allardice, Mrs. Frank J. Lahr, Mrs. Fred C. Gardner, Miss Martha S. Allardice, Mrs. Louis Hollweg, Mrs. Harry D.
