

ASKS BOARD TO HIRE EXAMINER FOR TEACHERS

Committee Makes Report Charging Irregularities in Licenses.

REFORM IS PROMISED

Recommendations that a man be employed who is qualified to handle the work of the teachers' training department of Franklin College were made to the State board of education today by the committee appointed to investigate the charges that teaching certificates were issued to persons who did not attend the teachers' school.

The committee reported irregularities were found in the issuing of the teachers' certificates of training. The committee recommended the present system used by the college be continued until the second semester is completed and at that time a new head of the department shall be installed. Dr. C. E. Goodell, president of the college, assured the board that as soon as a new and competent head of the department can be found he will be appointed.

H. O. Williams, director of the teachers' training department assured members of the board if the school were given time in which to find a new head, the latter would be worked out in a satisfactory manner.

BOOK ACTION IS DEFERRED

A resolution asking the adoption of agricultural textbooks be postponed until next year, when the board will award contracts for the high school textbooks was adopted. No complaints against the use of the present books have been received. Benjamin J. Burris, president of the board, said:

Adoption of a modern method of accounting among the various school cities of the State was recommended to the board and Mr. Burris said that the system would be put into effect immediately. The system will help, Mr. Burris said, in determining the cost per capita in each school city at present the same is impossible to determine due to the fact that the same items of expense are not taken into consideration. Much of the work called for under the old form of accounting is out of date, due to the changes which have been made in the last few years, Mr. Burris said. Two members of the State board of education will meet with the board of accounts to draft the new method of accounting.

BOARD SENDS CONDOLENCE

A resolution of condolence was sent to the husband and son of Mrs. Lillian C. Orme, president of the Indiana Parent-Teacher Association, who died recently. The resolution was introduced by N. Hines, president of the State Normal.

A resolution of condolence also was sent to the family of Frank Helbig, superintendent of the Lake County school, who died recently. The resolution was introduced by Clifford Funderburg, superintendent of the Huntington County schools.

The board decided to hold its meetings every six weeks, instead of every four weeks. The next meeting of the board will be held March 5.

SAYS REPUBLIC NEEDS SUPPORT

Schortemeier Holds Faith Is Chief Need.

"It is high time for some leader to come forth in America whose life's theme will be 'Have faith in the Republic,'" said Frederick E. Schortemeier, secretary of the Republican State Committee, speaking before the American Club at the Lincoln Hotel today noon. "The present day tendency toward blue or group action, the efforts in some quarters to promote Socialistic doctrines, the general distrust of government, make it imperative that there may arise some individual or individuals, whom the American people will heed and support, so that there may be, if they are not due to the American form of government, The Republic has been a success for a century."

"The evils are due to the failure of mankind to administer the principles of a Republic or to a tendency toward abandoning the principles of the Republic and not to the Republic system. The anti-republican tendency is not a system, but rather in the tendency to abandon or rather to the system, together with the weaknesses of human thought and action."

Sees Daughter Crushed to Death

CROSBY, Wyo., Jan. 24.—Mrs. Alex Sohajda stood by helpless while her 6-year-old daughter was crushed to death today under a freight train on a railroad track. The child crawled under the train while it was as a standstill. As the cars started, her ankle was caught by the slowly creeping wheel, which rolled over her entire body.

Marriage Licenses

Thomas C. Moore, 825 Belview Pl., 51; Lizzie A. Tygritt, 826 S. Belview Pl. 60; Herschell Blackwell, 1131 N. Missouri, 23; Edna Edith Cobb, 373 West Twelfth, 23; George Para, 1423 Everett st., 27; Mary Miskowice, 1008 West Pearl st., 22.

Births

William and Margarette Kurrash, 1446 South Madison, girl.

Harry and Emily Ott, 221 East Raymond, boy.

Perry and Hattie Courtney, St. Vincent Hospital, boy.

Paul and Alice Marx, St. Vincent Hospital, girl.

Earnest and Bertha Huber, 1232 Ewing, girl.

Henry and Louise Ker, 1232 North Tuxedo, boy.

George and Isabelle Hill, 1330 Garland, girl.

Robert and Helen Murphy, 44 Henderickson, boy.

Guy and Helen Woodward, 1409 East Washington, girl.

Robert and Elsie McKenna, 138 Highland, girl.

Jesse and Georgia Crockett, 245 Craven, girl.

Walter and Julia Hayden, 914 Church, girl.

Albert and Alma Pasch, 305 East Iowa, girl.

James and Doris Tomlinson, 1501 South New Jersey, boy.

Ernest and Eva Shockley, 512 East 11th, girl.

Ernest and Agnes Summers, 1212 West 44th, boy.

Deaths

Helen Hilker, 66, Bethel and Sherman Drive, lobar pneumonia.

Infant Child, 1 hour, Methodist Hospital, death due to lobar pneumonia.

Virgil Warner, 84, 725 Park, apoplexy.

Elizabeth Foxlow, 71, 20 West Kansas, chronic myocarditis.

Fannie Congleton, 57, 425 South Rural, heart attack.

Irene Viola Smith, 30, 1304 West Thirtieth, acute cardiac dilatation.

Eliza McCord, 60, 601 West Twenty-Eighth, apoplexy.

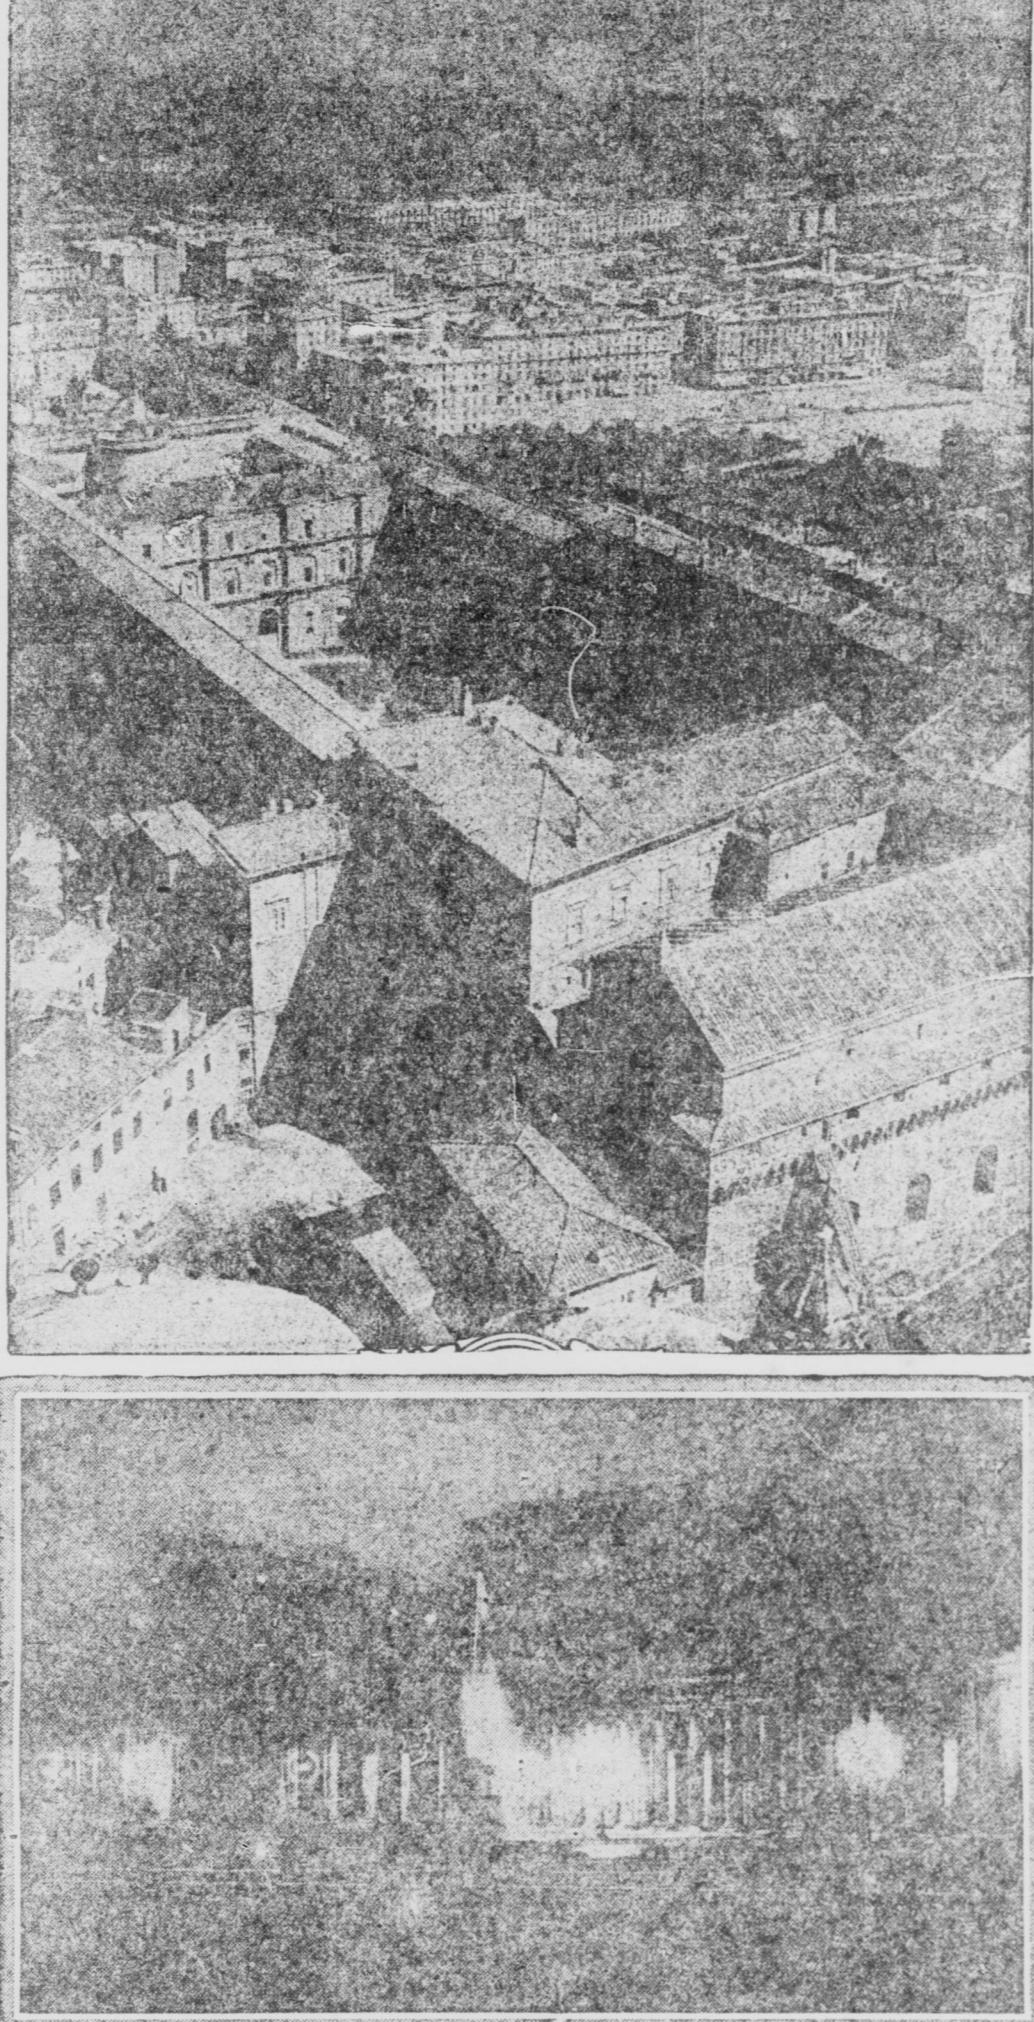

Frank M. Purlee, 65, Eastern, acute myocarditis.

Malcolm Miller, 2, 561 Tomlinson, bronchial pneumonia.

Infant Smit, 1 day, 922 East Seveneenth, premature birth.

Nellie Williamson Pursell, 77, Deaconess Hospital, tubercular meningitis.

VIEW OF THE VATICAN, WHERE POPE DIED

DEMOCRATS TO OPEN CAMPAIGN AT OHIO DINNER

James M. Cox and Senator Pat Harrison Will Be Central Figures.

ISSUES TO BE DEFINED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Democratic leaders intend to start this year's congressional campaign. It was disclosed today, with a dinner at Dayton, Ohio, tomorrow night at which Senator James M. Cox, presidential candidate in 1920, and Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi, will be among the central figures.

The dinner, while held ostensibly to launch the candidacy of Senator Pomerene, Ohio, for re-election, is expected to result in Democratic leaders defining some of the national issues on which the two main parties will wrest from the Republicans seats in both Senate and House at the fall elections.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.

The chief senatorial contests this year are expected to have narrowed down to Franklin, New Jersey; McCumber, North Dakota; New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota; Calder, New York; France, Maryland; Sutherland, West Virginia, all of whom, Republican leaders fear, may be defeated; while Ashurst, Arizona; Gerry, Rhode Island; Hitchcock, Nebraska; Kendrick, Wyoming, and Pomerene, Ohio, are regarded by Democratic leaders as those most likely to be recorded as "not present" in the next Senate.

Democratic National Chairman Hull and his predecessor, George White and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson, may be among the speakers.