

THE WEATHER

Somewhat warmer, probably local snow tonight and Friday.

VOL. XXXIV.

Published at Indianapolis, Ind., Daily Except Sunday. Entered as Second Class Matter, July 25, 1914, at Postoffice, Indianapolis, Ind., under act March 3, 1879.

INDIANAPOLIS, THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1922.

Subscription Rates: By Carrier, Week, Indianapolis, 10c; Elsewhere, 12c. By Mail, 50c Per Month; $5.00 Per Year.

NO. 222.

HOME EDITION
TWO CENTS PER COPY

S. READY TO BEGIN 'WAR CRAFT' SUITS

STATE G. O. P. INSISTS NEW MAKE ADDRESS

Committee Appoints Special Body to Go and Get Senator.

PRAISES HARDING Says Administration Working Wonders in Face of Obstacles.

Sentiment in favor of the candidacy of Senator Harry S. New for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate cropped up to such an extent in the meeting of the Republican State committee today that it was found necessary to send out a committee to ask the Senator to address the meeting. Although a close watch was kept no such committee was sent for Albert J. Beveridge, who will be Senator New's opponent in the primary.

Senator New was not far from the committee room and responded at once. Cheers could be heard through the closed doors of the room.

The Senator, according to statements of persons who afterward left the meeting, asked for confidence in the Administration at Washington. He told the committee members that the President has a great Cabinet and a hard working Congress. He said the Administration is accomplishing great things in the face of almost unsurmountable difficulties. He did not discuss his candidacy.

The members of the committee appointed to invite Senator New to speak are Will J. Robinson of Lebanon, Thomas J. Jackson of New Albany and Fred Ewing of Princeton.

STATE CONVENTION DATES MAY 24 AND 25. The date of the State convention was fixed at May 24 and 25. It will be held in Tomlinson Hall. The number of delegates was fixed at 1,700, as compared with 1,650 at the last convention. The convention is based on one delegate for each 400 Republican voters.

The deficit, facing the committee as a result of the last presidential election also was discussed. With the exception of the way the committee took up the formation of a woman's State organization.

The meeting of the State committee was held in connection with the annual mid-winter meeting of the Republican State Editorial Association which opened at the Hotel Sevier.

The editors took up routine business at their opening session, listening to reports by Edward J. Hancock, Greensburg, president; J. W. Plummer, Clinton, secretary; and George D. Lindsay, Marion, treasurer.

The next mid-winter meeting, it was decided, will be held at Clifty Falls (Continued on Page Two.)

NAME GENERAL IN SENATORIAL A. E. F. INQUIRY

South Carolina Attorney Accuses Former High Officer of Shooting Private.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The name of Colonel Paul D. Malone, formerly a brigadier general in the 5th Division, was brought up today during the investigation by the Senate Committee of Senator Tom Watson's charges of mistreatment of American soldiers in France.

The charge was made in a letter read to the committee and promptly denied by Colonel R. C. Langdon of the Army War College, that Malone shot down a soldier in France because the enlisted man was not marching fast enough.

W. H. Newbold, an attorney of Charleston, S. C., made the accusation against Malone in a letter to Senator Dial, Democrat of South Carolina. Dial read the letter to the committee.

Colonel Langdon who commanded the 10th Infantry in France, told the committee he "never witnessed or reported such a shooting and never heard of such a thing."

Newbold, in his letter, quoted statements made by I. B. Henderson, formerly Langdon's orderly, as saying that while troops were on the march in France, Malone, then a colonel of the 231st Regiment, tried to ride his horse over some men who were lagging from exhaustion, and that the second time he shot one of them down.

Langdon said he never had seen Malone do anything of the sort, and said he thought Henderson was suffering from hallucinations.

Henderson was quoted as saying the men had been marching two days without food or water.

Sentator Brandegee announced Henderson would be called as a witness.

PERSECUTION OF WITNESS ALLEGED. Charles P. Green of Minneapolis, who appeared before the Senate Committee investigating alleged mistreatment of American soldiers in France, has been "persecuted" by the American Legion and (Continued on Page Two.)

WEATHER
Forecast for Indianapolis and vicinity for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m., Jan. 27, 1922:
Somewhat warmer, probably local snow tonight and Friday. Lowest temperature tonight 15 to 20 degrees.

HOURLY TEMPERATURE
6 a. m. 32
7 a. m. 32
8 a. m. 32
9 a. m. 32
10 a. m. 32
11 a. m. 32
12 (noon) 27
1 p. m. 21
2 p. m. 31

SOLEMN CEREMONIES MARK POPE'S BURIAL

Only Cardinals, Roman Nobility and Other Notables Witness Rites.

ROME, Jan. 26.—Pope Benedict's mortal remains were interred today in the vault of St. Peter's.

With ceremonies unforgettable for picturesqueness and solemnity, the body was placed in its casket and borne to the sarcophagus.

Only Cardinals of the church, attending clergy, members of the diplomatic corps and representatives of the Roman nobility viewed the impressive rites.

Starting at 3 p. m. the services were finished an hour later. A vast throng stood outside the cathedral during the ceremony.

The burial service was begun when the cardinals of the Sacred College, each carrying a lighted candle, began arriving by interior corridors and stairways from the Sistine Chapel in the adjoining Vatican. They were escorted by the Patriarchs and heads of the religious orders and took their seats in the Sacramental Chapel where the body of Pope Benedict was lying in state.

Then there arrived from the Sacristy of St. Peter's where it had formed, the procession of the canons singing the Mass.

In the chapel three separate groups were formed by the relatives, personal servants and domestic prelates of the late Pontiff. The Swiss guards were massed in the background while the noble and Palatine guards were grouped closely about the bier.

The Pope's private chaplains and secretaries advanced toward the bier knelt and then slowly lifted the body of the Pontiff and placed it in a wooden coffin lined with white silk.

Cardinal Merry del Val, as Arch Priest of the Basilica of St. Peter's, descended from the altar with his assistants and took his place in front of the coffin.

The bier, borne by the four private chaplains of the Pope, was surrounded by a detachment of the Swiss guards while the canons of St. Peter's acted as an escort of honor to the Sacred College.

DELEGATES JOIN IN PROCESSION. Slowly, as the bier moved out from the Sacramental Chapel in to the main body of the Basilica, delegates to the Sacred College fell into line two by two followed by members of the Pope's family all dressed in deepest mourning and finally priests and clergy.

The procession moved slowly to the steps of the Sistine Chapel, accompanied by the huge organs of St. Peter's. The spectacle was seen in its full grandeur when after crossing from the right to the left nave of the Basilica, it swung under the great central nave having for a few seconds in front of the bronze statue of St. Peter and next in front of the confessional where the statue of Pope Clement XIII kneels in the act of prayer.

The procession then moved toward the entrance to the vault, the choir beginning the anthem "In Paradisum." One by one, the highest dignitaries of the church in their pontifical robes gave absolution. The anthem "In Paradisum" was then sung after which Cardinal Merry del Val gave the body of the Pontiff final absolution.

The four private chaplains placed the plain wooden coffin in one of cypress. Then three bags containing the gold, silver and bronze medals struck during

WORLD UNREST SHOWS LITTLE IMPROVEMENT

Poor Old Globe Is in Muddled State.

FARMER ASKS AID

Observer Sees Situation Through Dark Glasses.

Special to Indiana Daily Times and Philadelphia Public Ledger.

By COL. EDWARD M. HOUSE.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26.—The feeling of restlessness and dissatisfaction throughout the world shows but little indication of abatement.

At home we find the people chafing under the yoke of high taxes, high cost of living and the depression in trade. There is the curious anomaly of raw materials selling below the cost of production and goods manufactured from these same materials retelling at a price which makes living conditions difficult. Whether this condition exists because of the reluctance of the retailer to reduce prices or whether it is because of the costs of transportation is a matter of opinion.

In desperation the American farmers have formed themselves into a "bloc" and are seeking relief through legislation. They have been accustomed to see this form of relief sought by manufacturers; and in their days of stress they naturally turn in the same direction. It is doubtful whether the result of their efforts will be satisfactory, for it is much more difficult, even temporarily, to stimulate the prices of agricultural products in this country than it is to stimulate the prices of manufactured articles. Perhaps if they would use their undoubted political power toward bringing down the prices of articles essential to their farm operations and living expenses quicker and more beneficial results would accrue.

"BLOC" ACTION HELD MISTAKE. It is to be regretted the "bloc" has demanded and received the sanction of the Senate for a former member of the Federal Reserve Board. This is clear legislation of a regrettable type and will not accomplish the purpose intended. Tomorrow the manufacturers may demand a member, and later labor also may demand one, and so on down the list until this beneficent institution is wrecked. The Federal Reserve Board was intended to, and should, represent

(Continued on Page Two.)

THE PRESENCE of this coat among other property said to have been found in possession of Hartman, was not known when the indictment was returned, and following the decision of the Supreme Court it was decided, according to Mr. Evans, to have a new indictment returned against Hartman. His defense could not be used by him in this case.

Twelve indictments were returned by the grand jury, among them being the indictment against Hartman, and one charging Albert Welling with unlawfully having explosive in his possession.

Welling, who is said by the police to be a wanted crackman, was arrested in connection with Edward Stevens, both being charged with unlawfully having explosives in their possession. They were arrested at the Hotel Sevier and among their possessions were quantities of nitroglycerin and other high explosives and a set of burglar tools, said by police to be the most complete they had ever seen.

Stevens is now serving a term at Michigan City. When he was sent to prison the original indictment was sent with him and since both he and Welling were indicted jointly a new indictment was returned against Welling.

WELLING LED JAIL DELIVERY. Welling led the jail delivery here July 4, 1920, and was not recaptured until a few weeks ago, when he was placed under arrest in California.

Other indictments returned were George Looper, murder in the first degree; killing Henry Patten on Dec. 15, 1921; Harry Truelock, visiting a gambling house; Joe Rose, 1734 Boulevard Place, assault and battery with intent to murder; Bernard Krake, vehicle taking; Robert V. Cones, forgery; Keuben Wright, vehicle taking; James Rhodes, forgery; Leonard J. Kelley, issuing fraudulent checks.

The grand jury also recommended six dismissals.

MANUFACTURER TAKES OWN LIFE

W. H. Dyer of Schell Candy Company Sends Bullet Through His Brain.

Special to The Times.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 26.—Pacing utter ruin, W. H. Dyer, president of the Schell Candy Company and former operator of the Dyer Canning Company, ended his life here Wednesday afternoon.

Taking a mirror from his home, Dyer held it before him as he sent a bullet crashing through his brain.

He died at St. Mary's Hospital. Dyer lost a fortune when the bottom dropped out of the sugar market.

Machine Taken From Front of His Home

J. O. Adams, 2022 North Pennsylvania street, reported to the police today that his new Buick automobile, which was standing in front of his home had been stolen. He did not know when the thieves obtained the car, he said.

Assumes Vatican Authority Until New Pope Elected

Cardinal Gasparri, Papal Secretary of State, according to dispatches from Rome, assumed papal authority until a new Pope is elected.

HARTMAN FACES NEW CHARGE OF STOLEN GOODS

Evans Explains Reason for Another Indictment in Case.

Another indictment charging J. Herbert Hartman, former Republican nominee for city judge, with receiving stolen property, was returned by the grand jury in Criminal Court today.

This indictment was necessitated by a recent decision of the Supreme Court in which it was held, in a case of receiving stolen goods, evidence could not be introduced showing the defendant had received stolen goods after the goods referred to in the indictment had been received, according to William P. Evans, prosecuting attorney.

Mr. Evans stated in the present indictment Hartman is charged with receiving a fur coat from Frank Francis, alias Frank Moore, and the time of the receipt of this coat was not known at the time the other indictment was returned against Hartman. This coat, the indictment charges, is of fur and is valued at $500.

It is alleged to have been stolen by Francis from Anna Tarpley of Louisville, Ky.

INDICTMENT FAILS TO COVER THEFT. The presence of this coat among other property said to have been found in possession of Hartman, was not known when the indictment was returned, and following the decision of the Supreme Court it was decided, according to Mr. Evans, to have a new indictment returned against Hartman. His defense could not be used by him in this case.

Twelve indictments were returned by the grand jury, among them being the indictment against Hartman, and one charging Albert Welling with unlawfully having explosive in his possession.

Welling, who is said by the police to be a wanted crackman, was arrested in connection with Edward Stevens, both being charged with unlawfully having explosives in their possession. They were arrested at the Hotel Sevier and among their possessions were quantities of nitroglycerin and other high explosives and a set of burglar tools, said by police to be the most complete they had ever seen.

Stevens is now serving a term at Michigan City. When he was sent to prison the original indictment was sent with him and since both he and Welling were indicted jointly a new indictment was returned against Welling.

WELLING LED JAIL DELIVERY. Welling led the jail delivery here July 4, 1920, and was not recaptured until a few weeks ago, when he was placed under arrest in California.

Other indictments returned were George Looper, murder in the first degree; killing Henry Patten on Dec. 15, 1921; Harry Truelock, visiting a gambling house; Joe Rose, 1734 Boulevard Place, assault and battery with intent to murder; Bernard Krake, vehicle taking; Robert V. Cones, forgery; Keuben Wright, vehicle taking; James Rhodes, forgery; Leonard J. Kelley, issuing fraudulent checks.

The grand jury also recommended six dismissals.

MANUFACTURER TAKES OWN LIFE

W. H. Dyer of Schell Candy Company Sends Bullet Through His Brain.

Special to The Times.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 26.—Pacing utter ruin, W. H. Dyer, president of the Schell Candy Company and former operator of the Dyer Canning Company, ended his life here Wednesday afternoon.

Taking a mirror from his home, Dyer held it before him as he sent a bullet crashing through his brain.

He died at St. Mary's Hospital. Dyer lost a fortune when the bottom dropped out of the sugar market.

Machine Taken From Front of His Home

J. O. Adams, 2022 North Pennsylvania street, reported to the police today that his new Buick automobile, which was standing in front of his home had been stolen. He did not know when the thieves obtained the car, he said.

CALIFORNIA 'DIRT FARMER' LIGHTS FUSE

Says 'Steam Roller' in Use at Agricultural Parley.

HEARING DENIED

Relief, if Any, From Session Held 'Pure Luck.'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—Promised fireworks in President Harding's National Agriculture Conference materialized this afternoon.

L. H. Francisco, self-styled "dirt farmer" of San Diego, Cal., denied a hearing in open session of the parley, charged "steam roller methods" was being exerted and asserted that any relief the conference may recommend for the farmers of the Nation will be "just pure luck."

"I am ashamed at the things that are going on here in this conference," Francisco shouted after Chairman Anderson entertained a motion for recess while Francisco was vehemently demanding to be heard.

Francisco deprecated "all this fine talk" of the speeches made since the conference Monday last, and said there were few dirt farmers among the delegates and declared that the only thing the speeches were serving to do was to "fill the audience to sleep."

CHARGES POLITICS KEEP HIM FROM BEING HEARD. He charged that politics was responsible for his failure to be heard.

"I am not a radical," he said. "I don't purpose to drive anyone out of his home, but I want my own good money to come to Washington in the hope of seeing something real done for alleviation of the farmers' troubles. Apparently we won't get anything real out of this conference except by luck. The real farmers of this country don't want the Government to give us any money. All we want is a fair price for our products proportioned to the returns given other industries."

Francisco declared he had tried to see President Harding but had been denied audience with the executive. He asserted the cause of every defect in the road is the conference when it reconvenes later.

(Continued on Page Two.)

POSTMASTER AT TASWELL USED OFFICE FUNDS

Clay Crews, Formerly in U. S. Navy, Surrenders to Federal Court.

With a record of honorable service on the dreadnaught "Florida," throughout the war, Clay Crews, defaulting former postmaster of Taswell, Crawford County, who has been under indictment since 1917 for misappropriating postoffice funds voluntarily appeared in Federal Court today, gave himself up and entered a plea of guilty to the charges against him.

Crews, who is a clean cut, fine-looking young man, conducted a general store at Taswell, and it is said that he used about $3,800 of postoffice funds to stock up the store. After the shortage was discovered he promised to make it good, sold his stock of goods, but disappeared. He enlisted in the Navy at Denver, Colo., under his own name and served on the Florida throughout the war. When his presence in the Navy was discovered by postoffice officials it is said that Joseph Daniels, then Secretary of the Navy, refused to have him arrested until after his enlistment had expired.

VESSEL PLOWS WAY TO RESCUE

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Smashing and ripping through tons of ice, the flagship Alabama of the Goodrich Transit Company today fought her way into clear water and then liberated the steamships Indiana and Illinois, a mile due east of the mouth of the Chicago River.

The ships, carrying passengers as well as freight, headed slowly for shore. There were still tons of ice to be plowed through, however.

MANUFACTURER TAKES OWN LIFE

W. H. Dyer of Schell Candy Company Sends Bullet Through His Brain.

Special to The Times.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 26.—Pacing utter ruin, W. H. Dyer, president of the Schell Candy Company and former operator of the Dyer Canning Company, ended his life here Wednesday afternoon.

Taking a mirror from his home, Dyer held it before him as he sent a bullet crashing through his brain.

He died at St. Mary's Hospital. Dyer lost a fortune when the bottom dropped out of the sugar market.

Machine Taken From Front of His Home

J. O. Adams, 2022 North Pennsylvania street, reported to the police today that his new Buick automobile, which was standing in front of his home had been stolen. He did not know when the thieves obtained the car, he said.

Says Congress Will Make Movies Clean Up and Stay Out of Politics

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The legislative broom will be taken up by Congress to sweep the movies morally clean through establishment of a Federal censorship and the prevention of movie magnates from dominating politics, Senator Meyers, Montana, predicted today.

Meyers is sponsor of a resolution for a probe of movie activities in politics and the institution of a Federal Censorship Board.

"I cannot believe that the movie magnates purchased Will Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, to avoid national censorship," Meyers declared today in an interview. "They may have thought Hays could clean up the movies himself and thereby erase the necessity of Federal censorship."

"But I rather believe they feel national

ALLEGES BIG SUMS WERE OVERPAID TO 2 AIRCRAFT CONCERNS

Will Ask Refund of $2,554,383.27 From Dayton-Wright Co. and $4,706,005.88 From Wright-Martin Corporation.

OHIO MAN IS NAMED PROSECUTOR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The United States Government will begin immediately the recovery of large sums of money which it is alleged were overpaid for aircraft construction during the war, Attorney General Daugherty announced today.

The war frauds bureau of the Department of Justice, cooperating with War Department accountants, has developed sufficient evidence to justify institution of suits for the recovery of over-payments.

Attorney General Daugherty said the Government accountants reported over-payments to the Dayton-Wright Airplane Company of Dayton, Ohio, of $2,554,383.27 and to the Wright-Martin Aircraft Corporation of $4,706,005.88.

The Attorney General declared specific suits would be brought in these cases. Litigation against the Dayton-Wright Corporation will be conducted in the Federal Court of the Southern District of Ohio. James N. Linton of Columbus, has been designated as special attorney to conduct the litigation.

DEMOCRATS NOW LINING UP FOR NEXT BATTLE

Jackson Day Banquet at Dayton Initiates New Campaign.

DAYTON, Ohio, Jan. 26.—The National and State Democratic campaign for the coming congressional elections and the presidential vote in 1924, was considered under way today following James E. Cox's speech at the Jackson Day banquet here.

Cox, defeated for the presidency a year ago, broke his long silence with an attack on the Harding Administration, Henry Cabot Lodge and the arms conference and a demand for revival of the League of Nations.

"We are ready for the next fight," Cox said. "We stand in our very tracks just where we were when the votes were counted. We have not retreated a step."

The Democrats in rush quarters here as indicating Cox would again seek the nomination for President in 1924.

Cox charged "the present leaders of the Republican party have forsaken the soul of Abraham Lincoln for the spleen of Henry Cabot Lodge," and declared the Administration was responsible for present industrial depression because W. D. Borah deserted the policies of Woodrow Wilson.

"The distress in Russia is chargeable to the terrors of sovietism; the distress in America to the treachery of Lodge."

Senator Pomerene, Ohio, the other speaker at the banquet attacked the Republican vote on seating Senator Newberry.

J. P. Tammany, former secretary to President Wilson, and other party leaders attended the banquet.

COX SPEECH IS FIGHT SIGNAL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Revitalizing of the Democratic party for its campaign looking toward gaining control of Congress in the fall elections was under way here today, following the signal given by James M. Cox, the party's 1920 presidential candidate, in his militant speech at Dayton, Ohio, last night.

The first step will be the cleaning up of the party deficit of about $200,000, resulting from the last campaign. Cordell Hull, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, was sending out appeals to Democrats to rush contributions for the party coffers.

The Cox speech also is the signal for a bitter attack on the Harding Administration in all Democratic quarters.

AFTER ALLEGED SPECULATORS Works Board to Examine Tomlinson-Hall Leases.

George O. Hutsell, clerk of the board of public works announced today that he will send letters to all persons who have made deposits to hold dates during 1922 or spoken for dates for the leasing of Tomlinson Hall advising them that their options will be cancelled unless they come in and pay the full rental fee in accordance with the recent ruling of the board, designed to prevent speculation in leases.

Mr. Hutsell said he has discovered that one man, suspected of speculating in the leases has signed up for the hall for Halloween, Christmas Eve, New Year's Eve, Thanksgiving and Armistice day, depositing $5 on each date. An effort will be made to return these deposits and refuse the hall to the man who tried to obtain the five best dates in the year almost a year in advance.

The rental charges for the hall are $60 a day or $50 a day for two days or longer for commercial purposes and $25 a day straight for charity.

"SAY IT WITH A TIMES WANT AD"

WESTER DEFINES "RESULTS" as the something secured by folk who read and use the Times Classified Columns!

MA in 3500. Classified Adv. Dept.