CREWS GIVEN 2 YEARS' TERM AT LEAVENWORTH

Former Taswell Postmaster Sentenced for Embezzlement.

Clay Crews, formerly postmaster at Taswell, Crawford County, was sentenced to serve two years in the Federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., by Judge Albert B. Anderson today on a plea of guilty to embezzling about $3,800 of postoffice funds.

Crews was indicted in 1917, but left Taswell before he could be arrested. He enlisted in the Navy in Denver, Colo., and served on the battleship Florida throughout the war. He came to Indianapolis with his father yesterday, and gave himself up.

In explanation of the shortage he told the court that he ran a general store in connection with the postoffice and the funds had become hopelessly mixed.

Kenyon declared, in commenting on the West Virginia situation, that constitutional rights are violated if the men are to be driven out of counties because they go there to endeavor in peaceable ways to have men join unions, or if men belonging to unions interfere with nonunion men securing positions and by threats and violence make it impossible for nonunion men to work.

It was charged, in Kenyon's report, that there had been law violations on both sides in the West Virginia controversy, and that both sides have been forgetful of the third party—the public—which has a vital interest in preserving industrial peace in a region furnishing the percentage of coal which this region furnishes.

In discussing remedies for the West Virginia situation, Kenyon said it was absurd to reach any conclusion that industrial troubles "can only be settled by force, riot and bloodshed; that no basis can be established for adjustment of these difficulties."

WILL OPPOSE KENYON PLAN

The United Mine Workers will vigorously oppose any form of compulsory arbitration or legalized open shop methods, such as embodied in Senator Kenyon's recommendations for creation of a tripartite Federal board to adjust differences between coal operators and miners. It was made emphatically clear today by William Green, secretary-treasurer of the miners union, Mr. Green read carefully the dispatch from Washington outlining the Kenyon plan. He then dictated the following statement:

"Press reports indicate the recommendations of Senator Kenyon provide for the creation of an additional industrial court. They provide for compulsory arbitration and the recognition and establishment of the open shop in the mining industry. While they provide for the recognition of the right to bargain collectively, they make collective bargaining unworkable by providing for compulsory arbitration."

"The mine workers are opposed to this legislation. The entire membership of the organization is unalterably opposed to any form of compulsory arbitration or legalized open shop methods. The officers of the United Mine Workers will vigorously oppose the passage of any measure embodying such principles."

Little Matter of Bonds Least of His Worries

Ripley County Man, Arraigned in Auto Case, Says 'Em a Million.'

"Make the bonds $5,000 or $10,000 or whatever you want to; I guess we could raise them if you made them $100,000; the amount doesn't make any difference to us," Frank King, one of the three residents of Ripley County arraigned before Howard S. Young, United States Commissioner, on charges of conspiring to transport a stolen automobile in interstate traffic, told Commissioner Young today when the matter of bonds was under consideration.

"All we would have to do would be to telephone down home and it would take several automobile trucks to bring all the bondsmen we could get to Indianapolis."

King, who is the owner of a sawmill and stock farm near Osgood, together with Ben Fangman, tobacco dealer of New Marion, and Tilden Johnson, who owns a sawmill at Versailles, is charged with conspiracy to transport a Buick automobile belonging to Richard B. Mann of Cincinnati from that city to Versailles. The car was stolen several years ago.

The case was continued until March 30 as the three were released on bonds of $2,000 each.

Wait Long for Case, but Are Frustrated

Members of the Federal jury who have been waiting around Judge Albert B. Anderson's court all week in expectation of deciding a case, got one yesterday—almost. But after listening to evidence all day long in the case of Harry S. Frank of Cleveland, Ohio, against the Rowland Power Consolidated Collieries Company for $400 for services he claims to have rendered the company in floating a bond issue of $600,000 in 1919, the plaintiff dismissed the case just as it was about to go to the jury late yesterday.

When the calendar of civil cases was made up almost forty cases were set down for trial by jury, but so far dismissals and continuances have disposed of them before they reached the jury.

BRICK MAKERS THANK RANDALL AND EVERYBODY

Adopt Resolution Expressing Gratitude for City's Hospitality.

The thirty-sixth annual convention of the National Brick Manufacturers' Association, held at the Claypool Hotel, closed this afternoon with the adoption of resolutions thanking Theodore A. Randall, Indianapolis, secretary of the association, for his work in making the convention a success, and the people of Indianapolis for the hospitality shown during the three-day visit to this city.

A resolution also was adopted asking Ohio State University to provide a site on the campus for a building to be used to house the laboratories of the ceramic section of the United States Bureau of Mines.

The committee on resolutions included: Julius E. Lutz, St. Louis, Jr.; Ohio: William Burgess, Canada; L. L. Richardson, Kentucky; Harry Clippert, Michigan; L. D. Walrath, New York; F. C. Irvin, Colorado; J. Stocke, Jr., Missouri; E. H. Rodgers, Texas; E. E. Merry, Georgia; L. P. Isaacs, West Virginia; J. F. Reynolds, Connecticut, and D. T. Bunting, Indiana.

The morning session was devoted to the reading of technical papers and discussions by S. H. Ingberg of the Bureau of Standards, Washington, D. C.; H. B. Hall of Milwaukee, Wis.; William Hanley, Jr., of Bradford, Pa., and J. Stocke, Jr., of St. Louis, Mo.

However, the exhibits remained open the remainder of the day and the delegates, with the rush of business of their minds, devoted their attention to visiting the booths.

At the banquet at the Claypool Hotel last night Douglas Malloch, poet and humorist of Chicago, was the principal speaker. The banquet brought out a large attendance.

Albert J. Beveridge, former United States Senator, was toastmaster. He spoke briefly on the art of brick-making and paid tribute to the manufacturers.

"I am concerned about the economic condition of our Republic," he said, "I feel that we have entered into one of the most serious periods of our history. Railroads, railways have got to come down. The Indiana tax law must be overhauled. Our politician-capitalists have got to stop worrying so much about who is going to carry the next election and pay more attention to American business. We've got to go down to the bedrock of prudence and good sense and build from that."

ED JACKSON, AMONG SPEAKERS.

The other speakers were Ed Jackson, Wolf Eyrol, John Gandolfo, Jacob Goldstein, Henry Pieper, Carl Frederick Knop, Samuel Epstein, Walter Jensen, Patrick Joseph Hickley, Edward Nestor, William Waterman and Dr. Joseph Wright, all of whom had completed all of their examinations and papers, and Pando Tepoff and William Dras, both of whom presented honorable discharges from the Army and were accepted under the soldier citizens clause.

A telegram from President Harding, to whom the manufacturers sent an invitation written on a brick, which he sent in answer to the invitation was read. The message followed:

"Please convey my very sincere regrets that I can not be present at the thirty-sixth annual banquet of your association tonight. I very greatly appreciate the unique and cordial invitation which you extended and I wish very sincerely it might have been possible for me to join you. Under the circumstances I can do no more than express my very cordial greetings and good wishes."

The first move was a motion to have stricken from the record the testimony of Eugene Freese, Hollywood dramatist, who told of an alleged attack suffered by Virginia Rappe for whose death Arbutuckle is being tried. The defense contested the motion hotly.

RIVERSIDE FOLK FILE NEW PROTEST

Residents of the Riverside Park neighborhood renewed their protest against the downtown re-routing of Riverside cars before the board of public works today.

The present route is Indiana avenue to Illinois street, south to Washington street, west to Capitol avenue and north to Indiana avenue. The re-routing order is effective Feb. 1.

The Riverside protestors declared that a petition favoring the change which was filed with the mayor's committee on re-routing was obtained by unfair representation of its contents.

Stating that a final decision upon the matter very likely will be made Monday the board took the delegation's remarks under advisement.

Common Sense About Eczema and Eruptions!

Here's Something About S. S. That You'll Be Glad to Hear.

You might just as well know it right now—the cause of skin eruptions, pimples, blackheads, boils and so on, is right in the blood. There is no getting away from it. Science has proved it. We prove it. You can prove it.

What's the cause of skin troubles and eruptions is in the blood, it isn't common sense to simply treat the skin. A bottle of S. S. S. will prove to you what has happened to your blood. S. S. S. is a scientific blood cleanser—it drives out the impurities which cause eczema, itching, rash, boils, blackheads, blotches and other skin eruptions. When these impurities are driven out, you can't stop several very nice things from happening. Your lips turn naturally rosy. Your eyes sparkle, your complexion clears. It becomes beautiful. Your face looks like that of prosperous, ruddy, well-fed, refined gentlemen, or if you are a woman, your complexion becomes the real kind that the whole world so admires. S. S. S. is also a powerful body-builder, because it builds new and more blood cells. That's why it fills out sunken cheeks, bony necks, thin limbs, helps regain lost flesh. It costs little to have this happen to you. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin, called uric acid, which is generated in the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of uric acid. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinges of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.—Advertisement.
