

FOOTBALL

BOWLING

BILLIARDS

BASEBALL

WRESTLING

BASKET-BALL

SWIMMING

RING GOSSIP

EDDIE
ASH

NEWS OF THE DAY IN

VEDDER
GARD

THE WORLD OF SPORT

HEZE
CLARKLOOK FOR MEN HIGHER UP IN GRID SCANDALCollege Authorities Would Locate 'Fixers' Who Hired Football Stars.

MAY MODIFY RULES

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Athletic authorities at Notre Dame and at University of Illinois are looking for the "men higher up" in the football scandal that has wrecked athletic careers at these two institutions.

The "men higher up" who induced the college stars to participate in the "southern" football game at Taylorville, Ill., are being sought.

So far the players who have admitted participation in the game have not been asked to conduct the negotiations or induced them to play. With traditional college stitism they have "taken" the men and women "paid" on the part of the man or men who involved them in the scandal.

The authorities of the two schools who are involved desire to learn the identity of the man who tampered with the college players as a protective measure against further scandals of sorts. If there exists any agency outside of college circles that is responsible for inducing athletes to break the rules, the college authorities are eager to learn of it that they may take corrective measures.

A fight is now on professionalism in Middle Western schools is certain to be one of the chief subjects for discussion at the annual meeting of the Big Ten athletic conference at the Iowa City, next June. Coach A. A. Stagg of the University of Chicago, has announced he will bring the matter before the meeting.

All the University of Illinois players there is a disposition, according to reports here, to resent their banishment from athletics because of participation in the "southern" game.

The St. Louis Star, Illinois star quarterback, who was one of the nine Illinois men suspended from further participation in athletics, is quoted as saying:

"Why should we be the goats? The ball players get away with it. Every one knows that half the baseball players in the Big Ten break the rules in the summer time, but nothing is done about it."

George Huff, director of athletics at Illinois, declared that any coach or di-

BROTHER OF ILLINI STAR IN SCANDAL TELLS OF METHODS USED TO AID THE ATHLETES

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., Jan. 31.—Richard Simpson, city editor of the Taylorville Breeze, and star center on the Taylorville independent football team, today told the "southern" story as to how his brother, Bill (Dopey) Taylor, got the University of Illinois on funds which he says were advanced by Robert (Bob) Carr, of Chicago, leader in the University of Chicago's football team.

Here is Simpson's story:

"I don't like to talk about the family dances, but so much has been said about what I want to tell the whole affair,

Roy graduated from Taylorville High School five years ago but could not afford to go to college, so my brother he had saved to enter the university in the fall of 1920 without any dealing with the athletic department. He was not able to get football, even on the freshman team because of scholastic failures, he is Simpson's story.

Grover Hoover, coach of the Taylorville Independents, who engineered the Taylorville football team, today told the "southern" story as to how his brother, Bill (Dopey) Taylor, got the University of Illinois on funds which he says were advanced by Robert (Bob) Carr, of Chicago, leader in the University of Chicago's football team.

The first Zupnick (Robert Zupnick)

coach of the Taylorville Independents

had a "Dopey" last year at the high school basket-ball tournament at Elkhorn

when George Seeneff, former coach at Taylorville and now at Alton, told him he had to enter the university

in the fall of 1920 without any dealing

with the athletic department. He was not

able to get football, even on the fresh-

man team because of scholastic fail-

ures, he is Simpson's story.

"The first Zupnick (Robert Zupnick)

coach of the Taylorville Independents

had a "Dopey" last year at the high

school basket-ball tournament at Elkhorn

when George Seeneff, former coach

at Taylorville and now at Alton, told

him he had to enter the university

in the fall of 1920 without any dealing

with the athletic department. He was not

able to get football, even on the fresh-

man team because of scholastic fail-

ures, he is Simpson's story.

The first Zupnick (Robert Zupnick)

coach of the Taylorville Independents

had a "Dopey" last year at the high

school basket-ball tournament at Elkhorn

when George Seeneff, former coach

at Taylorville and now at Alton, told

him he had to enter the university

in the fall of 1920 without any dealing

with the athletic department. He was not

able to get football, even on the fresh-

man team because of scholastic fail-

ures, he is Simpson's story.

The first Zupnick (Robert Zupnick)

coach of the Taylorville Independents

had a "Dopey" last year at the high

school basket-ball tournament at Elkhorn

when George Seeneff, former coach

at Taylorville and now at Alton, told

him he had to enter the university

in the fall of 1920 without any dealing

with the athletic department. He was not

able to get football, even on the fresh-

man team because of scholastic fail-

ures, he is Simpson's story.

The first Zupnick (Robert Zupnick)

coach of the Taylorville Independents

had a "Dopey" last year at the high

school basket-ball tournament at Elkhorn

when George Seeneff, former coach

at Taylorville and now at Alton, told

him he had to enter the university

in the fall of 1920 without any dealing

with the athletic department. He was not

able to get football, even on the fresh-

man team because of scholastic fail-

ures, he is Simpson's story.

The first Zupnick (Robert Zupnick)

coach of the Taylorville Independents

had a "Dopey" last year at the high

school basket-ball tournament at Elkhorn

when George Seeneff, former coach

at Taylorville and now at Alton, told

him he had to enter the university

in the fall of 1920 without any dealing

with the athletic department. He was not

able to get football, even on the fresh-

man team because of scholastic fail-

ures, he is Simpson's story.

The first Zupnick (Robert Zupnick)

coach of the Taylorville Independents

had a "Dopey" last year at the high

school basket-ball tournament at Elkhorn

when George Seeneff, former coach

at Taylorville and now at Alton, told

him he had to enter the university

in the fall of 1920 without any dealing

with the athletic department. He was not

able to get football, even on the fresh-

man team because of scholastic fail-

ures, he is Simpson's story.

The first Zupnick (Robert Zupnick)

coach of the Taylorville Independents

had a "Dopey" last year at the high

school basket-ball tournament at Elkhorn

when George Seeneff, former coach

at Taylorville and now at Alton, told

him he had to enter the university

in the fall of 1920 without any dealing

with the athletic department. He was not

able to get football, even on the fresh-

man team because of scholastic fail-

ures, he is Simpson's story.

The first Zupnick (Robert Zupnick)

coach of the Taylorville Independents

had a "Dopey" last year at the high

school basket-ball tournament at Elkhorn

when George Seeneff, former coach

at Taylorville and now at Alton, told

him he had to enter the university

in the fall of 1920 without any dealing

with the athletic department. He was not

able to get football, even on the fresh-

man team because of scholastic fail-

ures, he is Simpson's story.

The first Zupnick (Robert Zupnick)

coach of the Taylorville Independents

had a "Dopey" last year at the high

school basket-ball tournament at Elkhorn

when George Seeneff, former coach

at Taylorville and now at Alton, told

him he had to enter the university

in the fall of 1920 without any dealing

with the athletic department. He was not

able to get football, even on the fresh-

man team because of scholastic fail-

ures, he is Simpson's story.

The first Zupnick (Robert Zupnick)

coach of the Taylorville Independents

had a "Dopey" last year at the high

school basket-ball tournament at Elkhorn

when George Seeneff, former coach

at Taylorville and now at Alton, told

him he had to enter the university

in the fall of 1920 without any dealing

with the athletic department. He was not

able to get football, even on the fresh-

man team because of scholastic fail-

ures, he is Simpson's story.

The first Zupnick (Robert Zupnick)

coach of the Taylorville Independents

had a "Dopey" last year at the high

school basket-ball tournament at Elkhorn

when George Seeneff, former coach

at Taylorville and now at Alton, told

him he had to enter the university

in the fall of 1920 without any dealing

with the athletic department. He was not

able to get football, even on the fresh-

man team because of scholastic fail-

ures, he is Simpson's story.

The first Zupnick (Robert Z