

G.O.P. LEADERS WORRIED OVER VEXING TANGLE

Legislative Problems to Prolong Session of Congress.

PRIMARIES HIT Tariff and 'Bonus' Will Provide Lengthy Controversies.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Republican leaders of Congress frankly admit they are worried over the existing legislative tangle which is threatening to carry the present session well into or even through the coming congressional campaign.

The Republican party "whips" outside, as well as within, Congress are known to be much worked up over the prospect of the session continuing during the spring and summer primaries in which one-third of the Senate and the entire House membership must first go to bat for reelection.

TARIFF AND "BONUS" TO PROLONG SESSION.

With Senate and House Republicans at cross purposes over the tariff and the soldier "bonus," which Republican leaders are fearful will become two of the chief issues and upon which the Democrats are banking to regain control of the House, the plan for an adjournment not later than June 1, seems now to be a forlorn one.

The President recently expressed a desire that the Senate put the armament conference treaties ahead of the tariff. Indefinite delay is menacing the Administration program for early ratification of the several peace treaties. The demand for further information made by the Republican "irreconcilables" and Democrats constituting a majority of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, with respect to the four-power Pacific treaty and the status quo in Pacific fortifications and naval bases provided by Article XIX of the Naval Limitation Treaty, has added to the delay.

LONG CONTROVERSY OVER "BONUS" IN PROSPECT.

The mix-up over the soldier "bonus" in both the Senate and House renders uncertain what kind of a "bonus" bill will be passed eventually, or how soon one can be passed by both chambers. A number of Republican Senators have joined the Democratic minority of the Senate in opposing a sales tax to pay for the "bonus" and a long controversy in the upper chamber is believed to be inevitable in a "bonus" bill containing such a tax is passed by the House.

The action of the Republican members of the Senate committee in dropping the American valuation plan incorporated in the Fordney "permanent tariff" bill passed by the House, and in reverting to foreign valuations as a basis for levying ad valorem duties, has brought them in serious conflict with House Republican leaders who favor the American valuation scheme.

Groninger Puts City's Bureau Share at $4,500

A basis for a possible compromise in the argument between the city and State industrial board over whether the municipality shall continue to support the Indiana Free Employment Bureau at Maryland street and Capitol avenue with a $6,000 a year appropriation, was reached today by Thomas A. Riley, member of the State board, and Taylor E. Groninger, corporation counsel.

Mr. Riley said that Mr. Groninger had agreed to submit a proposal to the board of public works that it authorize an appropriation of $4,500. Mr. Riley said that in turn he would find a way of cutting the bureau's annual budget to $9,000, instead of $12,000. The State supplies an appropriation equal to that of the city. Mr. Groninger asked that if the city participates it be given the privilege of naming one of the employees of the bureau. The industrial board member said he referred Mr. Groninger to Governor Warren T. McCray on this question.

Prisoner, Who Fears Verdict, Falls Dead.

BERLIN, Feb. 20.—Fear of death has killed a prisoner at the Berlin Criminal Court.

Franz Hoppe, a business man, was charged with murdering and robbing a woman resident of Kongschewitz. While the jury gave their verdict in the absence of the prisoner, in accordance with German custom, Hoppe listened eagerly from his cell close by. He thought he heard the word "guilty" and the accused guilty of murder.

Hoppe was brought into court and stood pale and trembling, as the judge declared, "You are found guilty of murder."

At that moment Hoppe murmured, "I know," and fell dead.

As a matter of fact the jury only found him guilty of manslaughter.

Asks Harding to Deny Resignation of Judge Landis

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—President Harding was asked today by former Congressman Benjamin F. Welts of Ohio to accept the resignation of Keneas Mountain Landis as judge of the Federal Court at Chicago.

If Landis should be permitted to retire at this time, Welts declares in a letter to the President, it would be impossible to impeach him for accepting the position as high commissioner of baseball, which Congress passed a law making it necessary for a Federal judge to confine his activities to his judicial duties.

Payment of Loans Show Conditions Much Improved

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The improvement in agricultural conditions is beginning to manifest itself in an orderly liquidation which is reflected in recent repayments to the War Finance Corporation in connection with its export loans, as well as its loans for agricultural and livestock purposes. Eugene A. Mayer, director of the War Finance Corporation said today. From Jan. 1 to Feb. 15, inclusive, a total of $15,233,000 has been repaid to the War Finance Corporation. Of this sum $3,920,000 represents repayments on account of loans made under the war powers of the corporation. Of the latter amount $103,000 was repaid on cattle loans and $3,760,000 on railroad and public utility loans.

FALL TO DEATH FROM 4TH STORY

Two Men Die as Result of Fight Over Favors of Woman.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—An inquest will be held this afternoon into the death of John Hussey and Joseph Horan, who plunged through a fourth story window with a woman, the wife of a woman. The woman, Miss Irene Nolan, is held as a witness.

The struggle occurred in an apartment owned by Miss Nolan. According to the police the men had quarreled before and the dispute was renewed when Hussey, who was engaged to Miss Nolan, called and found Horan conversing with her.

During the fight the two men almost wrecked the furnishings of the apartment. As they struggled they unconsciously stepped on the front window and plunged through.

Both were dead of fractured skulls when the police arrived.

SARRAUT GETS BACK TO FRANCE

Head of Parley Delegation Given Warm Reception.

HAVRE, Feb. 20.—Albet Sarraut, head of the French delegation to the Washington arms conference, arrived here today and was greeted by a demonstrative reception. In a statement, he said, "I found the American people little prepared for France's ideas on disarmament. The other powers had big programs and big navies which were easily susceptible to reduction. France's fleet had been enfeebled by the war."

"Americans came to realize, however," Sarraut concluded, "that France cannot be left defenseless."

LABOR-FARMER CONFERENCE TO SEEK U. S. RULE

Leaders Predict Complete Party Ticket in Field Before 1924.

COALITION IS LIKELY

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Representatives of united labor and farmers laid plans here today to gain political control of the United States.

Coalition of the various groups of labor will be effected around the United Farmers "National bloc" formed here Saturday, it was stated on good authority.

Leaders predicted an entire national ticket of the contemplated party would be in the field by 1924.

Until that time, candidates of other parties if satisfactory will be given the support of the new party. In case all other candidates are unsatisfactory, the party will put their choice in the field. Labor, according to William Johnston, president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, will not find it difficult to cooperate with the United Farmers "National bloc."

"We expect to build up the Senate farm bloc and make a real American union," he said.

The meeting here is unique, as this is the first attempt to get the various groups of labor and farmers together.

LAST THREE DAYS.

Sessions will be executive and will continue for three days.

Besides the sixteen standard railway unions, representatives of the Socialist party, the United Mine Workers, American Federation of Labor, American Society of Equity, committee of forty-eight, Farmer-Labor party, Nonpartisan League, Single Taxers and many other groups will attend.

Representatives of the American Teachers' Association and prominent clergymen also are expected to take part in the meeting.

Arthur C. Townley, president of the National Non-Partisan League and said to be one of the factors of the United Farmers "National bloc" will take an active part in the meetings it was reported.

President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers will attend and will hold a conference with officials of the railway unions relative to the threatened coal strike. The rail unions probably will promise him moral support in the strike and pass resolutions to that effect, according to Johnston.

LABOR PLANS NO THIRD PARTY.

"Labor has no idea of forming a separate third party," said Mr. Johnston. "I am fully acquainted with the new United Farmers' National bloc and am sure we will have no difficulty in cooperating with it."

"After free discussion, I hope all the groups will reach the same conclusion as mine with existing conditions, but we are no blameless," Johnston, in alluding to the possibilities of this coalition, pointed out there are nearly two million men in the railroad unions alone in normal times; there are 450,000 miners and the farm movement expects to have nearly 1,000,000 members. Then, he said, there are the various other unions. This does not count the wives of the workers who also are voters.

Johnston attacked bitterly the present administration. "It is a notorious fact," he said, "not one piece of remedial, helpful legislation looking forward to general reconstruction tending to benefit the whole people has been passed by any member of Congress known to be in active cooperation with the Chief Executive."

President Harding, Johnston said, has "not sent to Congress a single suggestion that can be construed as being physically or spiritually beneficial to the people of the United States since taking office."

The committee in charge is composed of Edgar F. Brown of the Supervisors, Albert Greatback of the Clerks and Robert L. Maze of the Letter Carriers.

Clyford Cordery will act as toastmaster, and talks will be made by Postmaster Bryson, Arthur Grow for the supervisory employees, James Nutt, C. E. Pogue, Mrs. Herman Kettler, Claude Harris and Elmer E. House.

Muncie's Curfew Will Ring Tonight

SPECIAL TO THE TIMES
MUNCIE, Ind., Feb. 20.—The curfew will ring in Muncie at 8 tonight for the first time in fifteen years. Mayor Quick has given this order at the request of members of the Mothers' Council, which declared that parents wishing to go to card parties or dances, send their children to picture shows, keeping them out until late at night, thus undermining both their health and morals. The curfew ordinance was passed here twenty-four years ago, but was never enforced.

PARKING TIME CUT TO 1 HOUR IN PROPOSAL

Meridian and Pennsylvania streets within the congested district and the first block of Massachusetts avenue north of Ohio street between the hours of 8 a. m. and 7 p. m.

No vehicle would be permitted to park in any place while on the congested district between 8 a. m. and 7 p. m.

AGE LIMIT OF DRIVERS RAISED.

The age limit of drivers of motor vehicles would be raised from the present 16 years to 18 years, in compliance with the State law. No one under 18 years would be permitted to drive a horse-drawn vehicle, as at present.

In the listing of classes of vehicles which have emerged from right-of-way, such as fire and police cars, emergency repair cars of public utilities are left out. They are included in the present ordinance.

It is expected that the council will hold several public hearings before acting upon the ordinance. The Hoosier Motor Club is greatly interested in it and has expressed the desire that its officials have an opportunity to criticize the measure before its passage. Mr. Bailey said that the bill was not completed until Sunday evening and there was not time to submit it to the club.

Because of the absence of Councilman Walter W. Wise from the city, no action is expected to be taken by the council upon the jitney ordinance amendments, boxing commission and other important measures.

Councilmen and city officials, however, are looking forward to an interesting session, due to the announced intention of President Theodore J. Bernd starting an investigation into the administration's use of the $20,000 unemployed relief fund.

Mr. Bernd has invited all men with objections to the way in which the unemployed relief fund is being administered to the meeting. He said he has several letters from men who said they were refused jobs under the $24-a-day plan because they were not old enough to be hired by Mayor Samuel Lewis Shank.

He also said he had received complaints from men who were on regular pay rolls as laborers at the rate of 40 cents an hour, transferred to the $24-a-day relief pay rolls.

Men have been hired in the street cleaning and street commissioners department under the new plan. John F. Walker, superintendent of street cleaning and Martin J. Hyland, street commissioner, are expected to attend the meeting to answer any questions councilmen may have.

The ordinance authorizing a bond issue of $500,000 for the construction of a new ward and an administration and nurses' home buildings will be introduced, as will a measure creating a badge and button fund for the board of public safety.

POLITICS WILL PLAY PART IN HARTMAN CASE

sustaining the prosecutor. During his questioning of talesmen Mr. Holmes asked this question of the juror, "If it should develop during the course of the trial that the Indianapolis News or by its representatives was instrumental in obtaining this statement from Frank Francis, which involved the defendant, would that prejudice you?"

Mr. Holmes dwelt at length on the effect it would have if Mr. Hartman did not take the stand in his own defense. The defense challenged St. Clair Parry, 3010 North Meridian street, a former manufacturer, but following the objection of the State, the court refused to sustain the challenge. Parry said he had an "opinion" concerning Hartman at the time he was a candidate. To questions placed by the court, Mr. Parry indicated he would be the chief witness for the defense and the instructions of the court.

GETTING JURY NO SIMPLE TASK.

"Indications are a jury will not be obtained until Tuesday and possibly not until Wednesday. It is thought Francis will be among the first witnesses for the State. The State will not give out information when Francis is expected to arrive in the city.

Out of the seventy-five members of the special venire, the court excused twenty-seven on account of illness. That figure would include the venire called out by the sheriff. Many talesmen produced certificates from doctors as to their illness.

Among some of the witnesses for the State whose names appear on the indictment are: William H. Francis, in care of Madden Copple garage; Mrs. Ann Torrey, 1636 Tyler parkway, Louisville, Ky.; Mr. J. J. Gibbs, Louisville, Ky.; Orin E. East, 2204 Erie street, Louisville, Ky.; Matthew Panasky, 219 West Broadway, Louisville, Ky.; William H. DeForester, chief of detectives at Louisville, Ky.; and several Indianapolis witnesses.

POLICE GUARD COURTROOM DOORS.

Police have been assigned to the doors leading into the courtroom. When all seats are filled the doors are closed. Several hundred people waited for hours in the corridors of the courthouse to gain admittance.

At the side of Mr. Hartman was his wife, who sat next to any member as talesmen answered questions. Hartman took notes and followed the case with much interest.

Some of the trial will last from a week to ten days. Judge Bain will remain in Indianapolis over night so court may start promptly at 9 o'clock each morning.

The State elected to try Hartman on a charge of receiving stolen goods. He is charged specifically with receiving and concealing a fur coat, valued at $500, which was the property of Mrs. Francis of Louisville, Ky. The State charges the coat was stolen by Frank Francis.

OTHER CHARGES AGAINST HARTMAN.

Numerous other indictments were returned by the grand jury against Hartman. His wife said that her husband indicated. Indictments have been returned against the Hartmans in the Federal Court, charging violations of the prohibition law and the national motor vehicle act.

He will also discuss the State highway commission as regards giving Indiana a superior system of State roads at a reasonable cost. He will speak of the policy of Governor Newton Albany, Ind., the extensive use of gravel and stone in preference to hard surface materials, and will show how maintenance is one of the strong features of the State highway system.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it is no longer irritating, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Advertisement.
