

PROMISE SLASH IN PERSONNEL OF NAVY YARDS

Congress Threatens to Cut Appropriation One-Half.

MANY WILL LOSE JOBS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The Congressional committee on naval affairs is now holding over Army and Navy appropriations, if 2,222 civilian workers are employed normally; Boston, 2,863 workers; Philadelphia, 4,932 workers; Washington, 61,535 workers, and Charleston, 1,207 workers. These estimates are already reduced and at least 50 per cent of the yards which may be affected due to cuts ranging upward to 75 per cent will occur, according to present estimates.

The Navy Department takes the position that it cannot be responsible for any such action, as the matter is now up to Congress, although they hope to avoid any actual drastic move, making any necessary cuts as gradual as possible.

HANDCUFFS PLAY PART IN WOOING

Queer Romance Follows Arrest of Severin Steward.

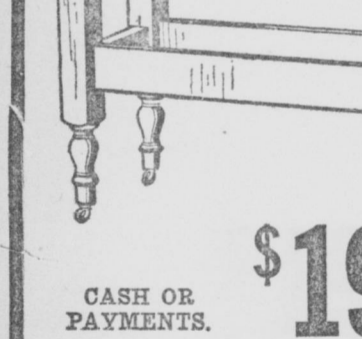

Love laughs at locks and bars, it was said, and it develops Dan Cupid does not scorn a pair of handcuffs to bring results. A queer romance, announced today of Miss Ladora Hoffman, one of the cashiers of the Hotel Severin, and Jerry Gordon, chief steward of the hotel, features a game warden's warrant, a girl's pretty wrists and handcuffs to tie them.

The romance began at Lake Manitou last summer when Mr. Gordon fell into the hands of a game warden for neglecting to get a fishing license. He and Miss Hoffman, a member of the party, knew each other slightly. When the steward, who is known as "Handsome Jerry," dared Miss Hoffman to put on the manacles produced by the warden and march to a justice of the peace with him, she accepted the challenge. The procession through the streets of Rochester was the talk of the lake.
