

CARLIN SHANK TO FACE FIGHT FOR BOARD JOB

Eickhoff Says He Will Make Single-Handed Commissioner Race.

'MACHINES' COLLIDE

Opposition to the renomination of Carlin Shank as the Republican candidate for county commissioner from the Second district became assured today following the filing by Arthur Eickhoff, clerk of the Michigan road near Liberty avenue, of his intentions to be a candidate for the Republican nomination for commissioner from Shank's district.

Although Mr. Eickhoff says he is not the candidate of any faction of the Republican county or city organization, it is conceded that he can expect no support from the Coffin-Dodson wing headed by George V. Coffin, leaving it to Richard V. Sipe, must necessarily be for Carlin Shank and Harry Tutewiler, the two county commissioners who appointed him.

The candidacy of Mr. Eickhoff is looked upon as a "Shank-Tutewiler menace" because it is not known if the Shank-Armistage-City Hall faction will do anything to aid Carlin Shank's campaign. Tutewiler climbed out of the Shank-Armistage band wagon when Coffin was made county clerk.

The Shank-Armistage faction was anxious to have the county commissioners appoint Henry Coffin as clerk to succeed Sipe and a meeting was held with these forces for the purpose of obtaining a promise from Commissioner Shank that Coffin would be appointed clerk.

SHANK DENIES ALLEGED PLEDGE.

Commissioner Shank denies he promised Mayor Samuel Lewis Shank, Coffin would be appointed clerk. He told Lewis after Coffin was appointed. I took his advice—Take care of my friends," said the commissioner.

It has been evident for some time the "Shank-Armistage" would not "allow" Harry Tutewiler, a commissioner who is seeking re-nomination at the coming primary. Carlin Shank and Tutewiler thus far have played their cards together.

A effort was made to induce Shank to run for the nomination for county recorder instead of for the commissioner's office. In that way, the county clerk's position could have been eliminated. Tutewiler from the political arena by putting out their own two candidates for county commissioner, but Carlin Shank refused to be a candidate for the office.

Those who are in a position to be informed declare Armistage at this time is not sure of his grounds in the Shank-Tutewiler situation, since he does not know whether the mayor will throw his organization strength in interest of Carlin Shank, or whether the mayor will adopt a "hands-off" policy and only conduct the election of the county clerk.

FALL IN LINE BEHIND NEW.

By living up with Coffin and Dodson, Carlin Shank and Tutewiler virtually become Senator New men as the entire county organization is known as a "New machine." Mayor Shank's support is being given to an out-and-out Beveridge man in the senatorial fight.

As far as the Dodson-Coffin-courthouse machine now stands there is no difference between the two factions. The old Jewett-Lemcke forces are for Senator New and County Auditor Leo Fesler is for New.

Leaders of the courthouse group would not be surprised if the Shank-Armistage element would "forget" Carlin Shank in an effort to put Beveridge across in the county.

The action of Commissioners Shank and Tutewiler bolting from the Shank-Armistage faction indicates the two commissioners feel the Coffin-Dodson support is more valuable than the Shank-Armistage-city hall faction. Shank and Tutewiler administered a terrible political setback to the Armistage-city hall crowd when George V. Coffin was appointed county clerk. It is known now Shank and Tutewiler never mentioned the possibility of making Coffin county clerk until it was time to make the decision.

County Commissioner Albert Hoffman admits he had no idea the other two commissioners were considering the appointment of Coffin, because he understood Shank and Tutewiler favored Coffin.

MACHINE COMBINATION THOUGHT LIKELY.

It is pointed out in the enthusiasm to New over in the county, the Coffin-Dodson-courthouse faction might unite with the Jewett-Lemcke crowd.

Mr. Eickhoff for ten years was connected with the Indiana National Bank for four years. In the last year he was treasurer's office during the terms of Edward G. Sourbier. At present he is connected with the Bankers' Investment Company with offices in the Merchants Bank building.

It is understood Commissioner Tutewiler also will have opposition at the primary.

Judge W. W. Thornton of Superior Court, room 1, today filed notice of his intentions to be a candidate for re-nomination on the Republican ticket.

Coincident with the evidence of a combination of Jewett-Lemcke and Coffin-Dodson forces there was circulated a report County Chairman Harry C. Hendrickson, cog in the old Jewett-Lemcke organization, is demanding the resignation of several ward chairmen who are understood to be allied with the Shank leaders.

It was said leaders of the Marion County Republican League, which is seeking the election of William H. Freeman, member of Mayor Shank's board of public works, to the county chairmanship were surprised at the strength of Freeman sentiment found in every ward where they called precinct committeemen and ward chairmen to headquarters last night. This is thought to be causing Mr. Hendrickson some worry.

SITUATION IS SATURATED.

A peculiar situation exists in a number of wards. The leaders in the Shank camp in the last city election were dubbed about the loyalty of several regular ward chairmen so they ignored them and named Shank workers in the Fifth Ward and Thomas Dillon in the Eleventh Ward were two such substitute chairmen.

In the coming fight for party control the regular chairmen are expected to attempt to take command of the machinery. Owing to the strength built up by their substitutes in the municipal campaign several stiff battles for Ward supremacy undoubtedly will be offshoots from the main fights.

LIMERICK WAR ABATES WHILE FOES PARLEY

Rival Irish Faction Leaders
Confer in Effort to Agree.

LIMERICK, Ireland, March 9.—This city remains quiet and hope is growing in a clash between the loyal troops of the Irish Republican army and the revolting Limerick and Tipperary battalions.

A wavering Limerick brigade the rebels were trying to get has united with the loyal troops supporting Michael Collins and Arthur Griffith. Parleys between representatives of both sides continue.

The loyal soldiers have taken up their quarters in their barracks. The rebels who formerly occupied the barracks have converted several small hotels and the poorhouse into cantonments. Further reinforcements of loyal troops have arrived and the rebels are greatly outnumbered. Both sides are fully armed for "field service."

It was reported Michael Collins and Eamon De Valera, the two rival leaders in Irish politics, may come to Limerick.

In addition to the loyal reinforcements additional troops have reached the rebels. Leaders of the insurgents claim they soon will outnumber the loyalists four to three. The revolutionists have occupied a bouthouse and Limerick bridge surrounding the main entrance to the city.

WILL SEEK PUBLICITY

DUBLIN, March 9.—Austin Stack and J. J. O'Kelly, emissaries of Eamon De Valera, have been ordered to lead a campaign in behalf of the Irish, it was learned today. They will attempt to offset the efforts of James O'Mara and Sean MacColla, who are at work for the Irish Free State in America.

INDIANA KEEPS PACE IN WORK OF BUILDING

Marion County Trades Body
Gathers Information From All Sections.

A symposium of the building and construction industry, now being compiled at the offices of the Marion County Building Trades Council, taken from reports received from all sections of the country, show that Indianapolis and Indiana are as far advanced with building prospects as any other section.

Contracts awarded in the New England States for the month of February show approximately $10,000,000, a considerable increase over the same period of a year ago.

Rhode Island the situation appears to be somewhat better than anticipated, but prices of building material are still at a high figure.

SEES REVIVAL.

New York City and State show a very heavy residential construction, with building operations indicating much larger totals in the immediate future. The favorable attitude of the State Legislature on the recommendations of the Lockwood housing committee that in some cases the permitted area be increased up to 10 per cent in their total area in the erection of new dwellings, is resulting in active plans for construction work of all kinds, particularly in residences.

In New Jersey heavy activity continues in the building industry, and primarily in the line of residential construction. In Philadelphia for building operations, with a heavy movement for residence construction.

Baltimore continues to add to its building totals, and the Federal reserve district closely parallel the $3,000,000 mark reached in January.

During the last two weeks building permits in Pittsburgh totalling over a million dollars, have been applied for and actual construction has been started in many instances.

BUILDING DEMAND IN OHIO DISTRICT.

Cleveland business conditions are for a better building demand and prospects much brighter. On the whole it is believed 1922 will be a better year than 1921.

Building construction is expected to reach big totals in May. That feeling is based on the large number of big contracts already let. A large number of proposals are being advertised.

In Cleveland business conditions are for a better building demand and prospects much brighter. On the whole it is believed 1922 will be a better year than 1921.

Building activities continue steady throughout the southeast, especially in the large industrial cities and centers. Builders estimate that construction for the first two months of this year has been 75 to 85 per cent better than in the same two months a year ago.

MINE CHIEFS FIGHT STATE AGREEMENTS

ence by April 1, and saying: "We do not intend to drift into a strike."

In the face of the fact that a meeting with the Illinois operators may bring about a settlement, however, continuing to fight the state agreement, and one that will save our membership from a demoralizing and disastrous strike.

The construction placed on the Farrington telegram by the international miners was unexplained.

CHIEFS FEAR NO SEPARATE AGREEMENTS.

William E. Green, secretary-treasurer of the international union, said he felt confident there would be no separate agreements. He said Farrington in his telegram yesterday had agreed to abide by any decision of the policy committee. The message said the Illinois miners would negotiate a State agreement if a wage conference were not in session by March 31, and providing the policy committee would approve that course.

The policy committee will meet before March 31 and Green and other officers feel confident it will declare solidly against State agreements as threatening the life of the union.

BELIEVE ILLINOIS MINERS HOLD KEY

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The Illinois miners today guard the only loop hole through which settlement of the threatened nation-wide coal strike may be effected, according to the general belief of Government officials here.

Secretary of Labor Davis believes, it is learned authoritatively, that the Illinois district agreement will be made and that other districts will follow in reaching separate contracts with their operators. It is estimated by responsible authorities that at least 75 per cent of the workers would be willing to sign separate district agreements if the Illinois "experiment" is proved successful.

A certain portion of laborites, however, believe such agreements would work for the detriment of the national organization and result in "overthrow" of John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, who has staunchly opposed State settlements.

Operators on the other hand, are enthusiastic over the turn of affairs. State agreements can be made more easily because the arrangements can be settled locally conditions they say. It will not mean a breaking up of the union they maintain, because the national union is essential to a peaceful arrangement.

The American Federation of Labor maintains is silent on the differences between President Farrington of the Illinois and Lewis. It is understood, however, the federation is prepared to give active support to the miners in case of a strike.

Until the issue in Illinois is decided and the workers either agree with the operators or break, the entire national situation is in the balance.

The men took to the woods and met a national miners' phantasm.

Now the woods are full of strange folk.

Phantasms are protected by law.

Hens, so far as is known, are not.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., March 9.—Heartless cruelty, a good Samaritan and love at first sight have combined to present State game prosecutors here with a problem. A farmer last year baited a fox-trap with a live homing hen.

A kind-hearted passerby cut the tether.

The hen took to the woods and met a national miners' phantasm.

Now the woods are full of strange folk.

Phantasms are protected by law.

Hens, so far as is known, are not.
