

BURGLAR USES GUN IN DEMAND FOR VALUABLES

Victim Kept Covered by Weapon as Prowler Hunts Booty.

THREATENS TO SHOOT

With a revolver pointing at him in the semi-darkness, Bruce C. Frantz, Apartment No. 1, the Guilford, 423 East North street, watched a burglar help himself to money and jewelry early today. Frantz heard some one walking in the next room. He started to get out of bed to investigate when the man entered his room and covered him with a revolver.

"Hand over your money and be quiet, or I'll shoot you," ordered the burglar in a voice that left no doubt in Frantz's mind that he would shoot if he made the slightest move to prevent the robbery. The burglar took a purse, containing $7, and also took Frantz's watch worth $25. He escaped by way of the fire escape which was the way he had reached the window of Frantz's apartment.

ROBBED.

Burglar made a rich haul at two groceries on Marlindale avenue early today. At Base Kleemeier's grocery, Marlindale avenue and Twenty-Second street, the burglar entered by way of a rear window. There was $85 missing from the cash register. The thief also took three bars of floor soap worth $2, sugar worth $6, two cases of soap valued at $11, and two boxes of cigars worth $4.

At George Rudick's grocery, Marlindale avenue and Seventeenth street, the burglar broke a glass on a side window, entered and carried away $20 from the cash drawer.

Miss Constance Greenwood, employed at the Bond-Bell Company, reported to the police last night that a thief had stolen her hat and purse from the dressing-room at the company's plant. The purse contained $1, and twenty Interurban tickets. It also contained a diamond lavaliere worth $40.

Thefts at three city schools were reported to the police last night. Joe Neary, 1402 West Vermont street, reported his clarinet stolen from junior band room at Technical High School. The clarinet is worth $50.

John Coleman, 3533 North Pennsylvania street, told detectives that a watch worth $80 and $2 in cash was stolen from his pocket in a clothes room at Shorrtown High school.

A boy thief entered grade school No. 69, at Thirty-Third and Pennsylvania streets, yesterday afternoon. The boy ransacked cloak rooms and several articles were stolen. A fountain pen worth $5 was missing from the desk of Miss Mary S. Ray, principal.

LOOT CASH REGISTER

OF DRUG STORE.

Mrs. Ida Roessle reported that a thief had stolen $210 from the cash register at the Roessle drug store, 702 Ft. Wayne avenue.

A pay telephone stolen from a cigar store on Massachusetts avenue, was found in an alley in the rear of 315 North Alabama street. The cash box had been battered open.

A laundry mark resulted in the arrest of Kenneth House, room 219, Y. M. C. A. building, 111 South Market street. Kenneth House, 21, son of manager of the Progress Laundry, called the police.

Progress Laundry called the police. Englebright and McClure, that two weeks ago a bundle of laundry owned by Sidney Gates manager of Lowe's Theater was stolen. The laundry company paid for the stolen clothing. Yesterday clothing with Gates laundry mark was found in a bundle sent by Kenneth House. It is said the police are in charge of grand larceny.

The remainder Gates missing laundry was found in House's room, the police say.

IT HAPPENS IN "STORIES."

other members of the committee have had an opportunity to study and digest the plan.

According to O. B. Iles, president of the Chamber of Commerce, the committee expects to work through the details of the outline immediately and after making changes in the plan which they see fit, to present it to the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce for their consideration.

Immediately following this an effort will be made to get every civic and business organization of Indianapolis to support the project.

CITY-WIDE PROPOSITION.

"Although the Chamber of Commerce is fostering this movement, this is no movement of the Chamber, but rather what we truly believe," said Mr. Iles.

"Thirty years ago the Chamber of Commerce was very largely responsible for the starting of track elevation, yet no one thinks of track elevation as a Chamber of Commerce affair. The Indianapolis Manufacturers' Building, Coliseum, or whatever it is called is a city-wide proposition. It belongs to the city and not to any individual organization.

The Chamber of Commerce is happy to have the opportunity of starting this and certainly will back it all the way through. Just as soon as our tentative plans are completed, we expect to go to every organization in the city and get them to join with us and to put this over this year," Mr. Iles said.

PATROLMAN IS SUSPENDED ON GIRL'S CHARGES

to a rooming house operated by Elliott Jackson, 431 East Market street.

Dumont is alleged to have kept the girl at that place. He was arrested March 20, at the home of William Gillespie, and charged with contributing to delinquency and pandering.

It was previous to the time she went to the East Market street house, the girl, according to her confession, went to a rooming house on New Jersey street near Market street, in company with Patrolman Martin. On the second visit to that place, according to the Badger girl, the policeman confessed he was a married man, and she decided to "break" with him.

Patrolman Martin said he was innocent. "I do not even know this girl's name," he said. "It all started six weeks ago when I offered her a job in a Greek restaurant where I was employed. Patrolman Henry Ellerkamp and myself were assigned to the east end district with orders to enforce the law, and we started in to obey these clean-up orders. The result is I am suspended."

"At the time I saw this girl in the Greek restaurant, I knew she was too young to work in such a place, but when she said she was 19 years old, I could do nothing."

"I saw her in company with two men and an older girl at Market and East streets at 10:30 p. m. a few nights later and I questioned the four and they said they were waiting for an East Michigan street car."

SAFETY GAVE MAN WARNING.

"I knew one of the men and I warned them they could not loaf on my district. I told them I was in the east end to clean it up and I would do it. On that occasion the girl I had seen in the restaurant said she would go with me. I thought no more of it as she did not continue to work at the restaurant. I did not know where the girl roomed, as said she lived with her sister in the east part of the city. I am innocent of the charge against me, but when you get a woman started in a h-b-l spot, you get her first come to the attention of the police at headquarters when at 6 p. m. March 19, the desk sergeant received a telephone call a girl was being held until the police arrived.

Patrolmen McClure and Englebright were sent to investigate and met Mrs. Orpina Jones, who said her son was in Cincinnati on a visit and Marjorie Badger had told her he was in trouble in that city.

The young man, in fact, was not in trouble, another said. The Badger girl was found at the Jones home and was questioned. Her statements about what had occurred at 431 East Market street resulted in her being arrested as a delinquent girl and the police investigated which led to the arrest of the two men, and the suspension of Patrolman Martin. Others are involved and may be arrested according to a police official.

HICK' MELLETT IS CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

the Democratic party for Congress, Eighth district. Nearly every man, woman and child in Anderson knows "Hick" Mellett, and not only is he well known in his home city but throughout the district in which he always has lived.

Personally and politically his career has been full of the spectacular element. He first became mayor here in 1911, after serving four years as a member of the city council, which he served in an aggressive fight for reforms and improvements. When he became a candidate for mayor party lines went to smash. He was opposed by elements of his own party, but supported by many Republicans.

During his first term as mayor, foundations were laid by the city for greater civic and industrial development. The miles of the municipally owned light and water plants were doubled at a minimum cost to the taxpayers, many miles of streets were paved, a system of public parks and playgrounds were established, a new lighting system for the business district was installed, the fire department motorized, a new and beautiful city hall built, and many other things accomplished.

"I stand squarely on a program of Woodrow Wilson Democracy," he said in announcing his candidacy. "I fully believe if we had had, since the war, the kind of constructive leadership in national government, that we had until the congressional election of 1918, depression, normally, readjustment or whatever you may call it, would not have become so great a thorn in the side of our people. If I am elected I hope to have a part in bringing about legislation as far as it possibly is within the power of Congress and further readjustment of world conditions on a humanitarian basis."

BLOODY GOES 'NOTHER GHOST.'

WATERBURY, Conn., March 22.—A resolution has been adopted by the Democratic committeemen of Tipppecanoe County endorsing the candidacy of Dan W. Simms of this city for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator.

"The reputation of Mr. Simms as a Democrat is unquestionable; as a citizen of highest personal integrity; as a neighbor, sympathetic and helpful—capable in debate of maintaining the high standard set by Hendricks, Turp and McDonald," the resolution says. "We are proud to give our endorsement to such a candidate for the high office of United States Senator and glad of the opportunity to commend his candidacy to the Democrats of the State of Indiana."

Use Doan's Say These Indianapolis Folks:

H. B. MASSLICH, Manager of Brevard Hotel, Cor. Illinois and Ohio Streets says: "I was compelled to put my feet a good deal and this had a tendency to put my kidneys out of order and brought on attacks of backache, but Doan's Kidney Pills never failed to stop my trouble." (Statement given June 10, 1921.)

On October 26, 1921, Mr. Masslich said: "The relief I mentioned in my former recommendation has become permanent and I am glad to endorse Doan's."
