

GERMANY AND RUSSIA MAKE TRADE TREATY

Diplomatic Relations to Be Resumed at Once.

AN ALLIANCE SEEN

Delegates at Genoa Surprised by Action.

LONDON, April 17.—An economic treaty, providing for a mutual "most favored nation" policy, was signed near Genoa by representatives of Russia and Germany, according to a dispatch from the Genoa correspondent of La Prensa, Buenos Aires, today.

Tschitcherine and Rathenau signed the agreement, according to the correspondent. Diplomatic relations will be resumed immediately, under the treaty, it is said.

The news of the treaty had the effect of a bombshell on the allied delegates to the economic conference. No comment could be obtained, officials desiring to confer among themselves before giving their views as to the probable effect of the treaty.

The treaty is regarded here as a possible basis for a German-Russian alliance. The terms of the treaty showed that Germany and Russia have, between themselves, agreed upon many of the very points on which the main conference is split. Respective war claims of the two countries are cancelled. Russia waives any claims to German reparations, while the Germans cancel their claims for losses through Soviet nationalization of Germany's property or that of German citizens seized in Russia.

A clause in the treaty provides that this cancellation is conditional upon Russia's refusal to compensate any other countries.

Allied delegates declared the importance of the Russo-German agreement plans for which were held in Berlin when Tschitcherine passed through on his way to Genoa, could not be overemphasized. It meant that Russia, at Genoa, now has the open backing of Germany, in much for which she stands, and that if the Soviet delegation leaves summarily, it can still count upon relations with Germany for commerce with the outside world.

Existing treaties such as that of Brest-Litovsk when the Bolsheviks surrendered on condition of no further aggression by Germany are superseded by the present agreement.

INDIANAPOLIS MAN FATALLY HURT IN WRECK

Harvey Watts, Fireman, Injured When Train Is Ditched by Washout.

DANVILLE, Ill., April 17.—Two men were injured, one fatally, when a Big Four mail and express train running from Indianapolis to Peoria, was wrecked near Foster Ind., early today. A washout caused the train to derail.

Harvey Watts of Indianapolis, fireman on the train, was fatally hurt and William Auton of Urbana, Ill., the engineer, was seriously injured.

Traffic on the road will be blocked for several hours.

Harvey Watts, the fireman of the wrecked train, is roomer at 1404 West Washington street.

NEW DELAY IN GOV. SMALL CASE

Suggestions Intended to Shorten Time for Hearing.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., April 17.—New delay of the trial of Len Small, Governor of Illinois, charged with conspiracy to embezzle, appeared probable today when the defense offered a number of suggestions, it was claimed, will materially shorten the time required for presentation of evidence. The suggestions offered by the Small lawyers will be given consideration. It was said authoritatively, however, that the week's delay will result putting the date of the trial over until next Monday.

Delay would be acceptable to the defense in view of the State Republican convention to be held in Springfield on Friday. Opposing attorneys representing factions in the party desire to attend the convention.

Governor Small, accompanied by his son Leslie, arrived in Waukegan from Kankakee, C. C. Leforge of Decatur was with him.

25 MILLIONS OF PIKE EGGS

Hatch to Be Placed in Streams of Indiana Next Summer.

Twenty-five million wall-eyed pike eggs are to be incubated in State hatcheries and the hatchery on the State of Indiana public waters next summer, it is announced by George N. Mannfeld, State superintendent of fisheries and game.

These eggs were purchased from Michigan commercial fisheries. Fifty quarts of 750,000 eggs to the quart will come to the State hatchery at Riverside Park. The other 100 quarts will be sent to the State hatchery at Tri-Lakes in Whitley County.

According to State conservation officials it is possible to propagate approximately 90 per cent of the eggs. Last year the department propagated and planted in Hoosier waters ten million wall-eyed pike eggs also obtained in Michigan.

Boris Bakhmeteff Defends Semenoff

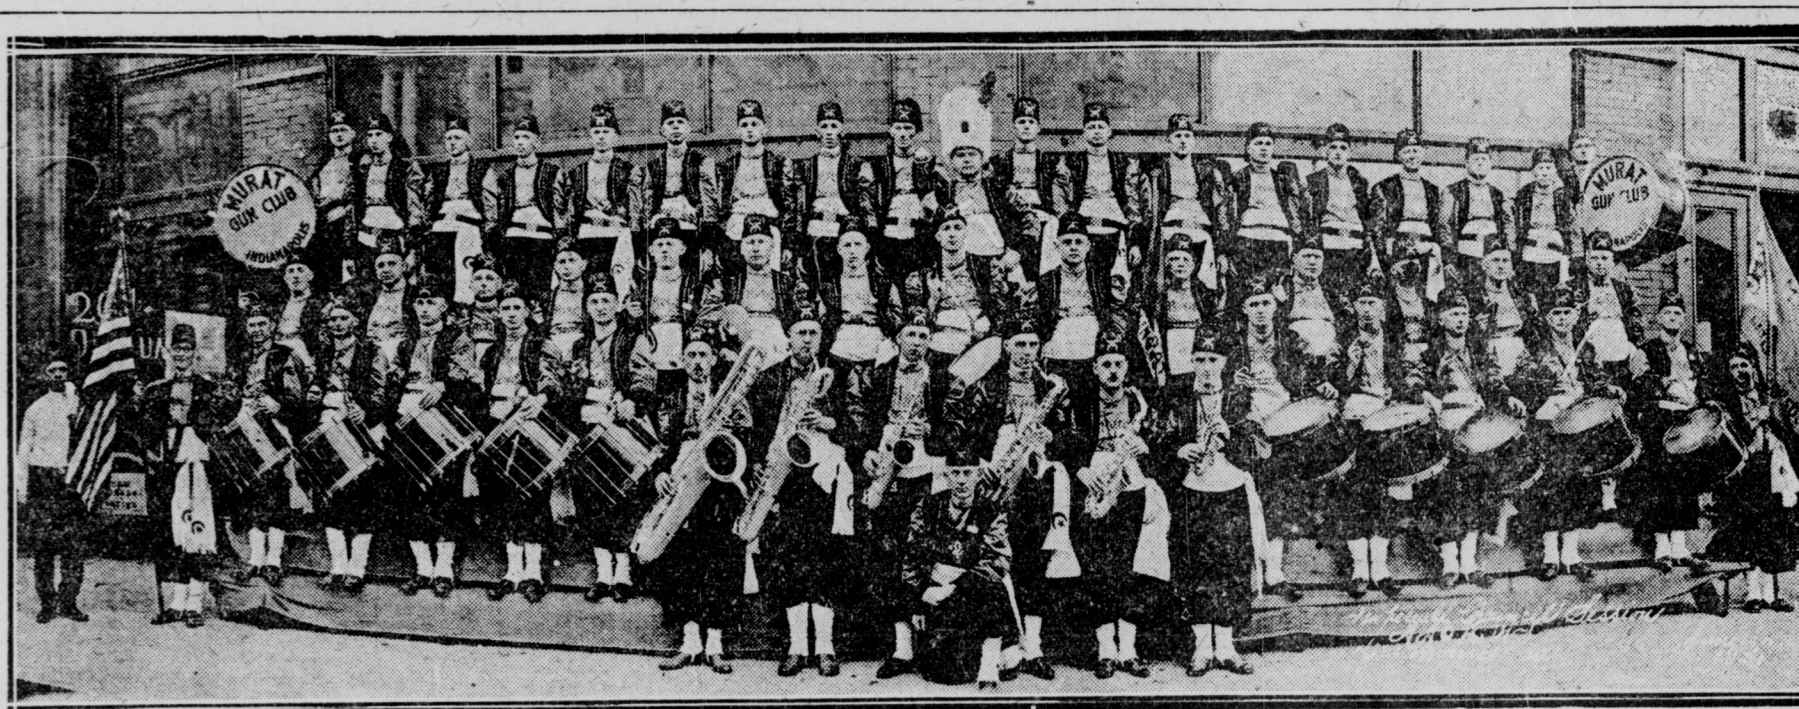

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Within a few hours after the State Department had confirmed his right to the title of "Russian Ambassador," today Boris Bakhmeteff came to the defense of Gen. Gregory Semenoff, now in a New York jail on civil charges while efforts are being made to hold him for the murder of American soldiers.

"General Semenoff is not responsible for the deaths of American soldiers," Bakhmeteff said. "In the chaotic conditions which prevailed in Siberia he could not prevent it."

MRS. O. E. STIVERS DEAD.

LIBERTY, Ind., April 17.—Mrs. Orion L. Stivers, wife of the editor of the Liberty Herald, is dead, after a long illness. The funeral takes place Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Stivers was formerly a school teacher and until her last illness was active in club work.

MAKING IT SNAPPY IS THING GATLING GUN CLUB DOES NOTHING ELSE BUT

SOLDIERS IN HOLD-UP ROLE TO GET BOOZE

Searched All Passersby in Hopes of Finding Bootlegger.

Twenty-nine violators of the liquor laws and three soldiers with an earnest desire for liquor were arrested by police during the week-end. Ten of this number were charged with violating the prohibition law and nineteen were charged with intoxication.

Ivan Morales, Lalo Valenzuela and Charles B. Denny, all soldiers from Ft. Harrison, conceived the idea of hauling a reputed bootlegger's "hang-out" and holding up all comers, with the hope a bootlegger starting out for his night's work would fall into their hands.

The men stopped several persons in the vicinity of West and Washash streets without success. When they stopped Roy Zike, 704 West New York street, and hopes of a coveted bottle died and real visions of the city prison loomed before them. Morales stuck a revolver in Zike's face and demanded that he submit to a search. Zike took the revolver away from Morales and threw it away a fence.

He summoned a policeman and the three soldiers were placed under arrest, charged with assault and battery and poornity. Valenzuela also is charged with petit larceny.

Those arrested on "tiger" charges were: Harry Curry, 3045 Rawles avenue; Francis Rodger, 5809 Dewey street; Fred Hold, Maywood, Ind.; Louis De Langhe, 1023 North Dewey street; William Lockett, 1142 Blaine street; Sherman Howard, negro, 841 Melk street; Louis Bennett, 845 West Eleventh street; James Beardsley, negro, 1302 1/2 North Senate avenue; Ruth Noss, 2227 Northwestern avenue, and Kate Brock, negroess.

One of the liveliest of the supply uniformed organizations of Murat Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, is known as the Gun Club, which is pictured above in full panoply together with its drum and bugle corps and its saxophone sextette.

The Gun Club of Murat is famous for its parade drills and the drum and bugle corps serves to add zip to the foot work of the other bodies. The saxophone sextette is right now on the verge of out-browning the famous Brown brothers themselves and no appearance of the Gun Club is complete without their enchanting music.

These are a part of the boosters back of the "F. O. B." entertainment to be given at Murat Theater Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

CATHEDRAL HIGH MASS FOR EASTER

Lesson of the Risen Christ Conveyed by the Rev. Mr. O'Hara.

Pontifical High Mass was said by Bishop Joseph Charrand of St. Peter and Paul Cathedral on Easter Sunday morning. The Rev. Edward Russell was deacon of the mass; the Rev. L. Durbin was sub-deacon; Dr. James Ryan and the Rev. Maurice O'Connor were assistants; Father Lister and Father L. O'Connor were masters of ceremonies; Father O'Rourke was arch-priest and the Rev. John O'Hara of Notre Dame University officiated as cantor.

The Easter sermon was delivered by the Rev. Mr. O'Hara who said in part: "If Christ be not risen, then is our faith vain. In these simple words, St. Paul expressed the importance of the fact of the resurrection. It is important because it is the highest proof of the divinity of Christ and if Christ is not God, then our faith is vain. Christianity is foolishness and Christian sacrifice and Christian life a delusion and a snare. If Christ be not risen then He was a mere man, a hypocrite, a senseless fool, the greatest fool; the blood of millions of martyrs was shed in vain and many more of Christian souls have lived empty deluded lives of sacrifice when they could have sought happiness in physical pleasure. If Christ be not risen Christian morality is a hypocritical, senseless farce.

PROGRESS AT GENOA WAITS ON RUSSIANS

Bolshevik Reply on Allied Proposals Promised Thursday.

GENOA, April 17.—Progress at Genoa waits on Russia. The Bolshevik delegations' official reply to the allied proposals, is not expected before Thursday. Meanwhile, the conference is in a deadlock. The Bolsheviks have refused to accept the allied proposals. The allied proposals are being discussed. The allied proposals are being discussed.

Continue Legion Drive for Members

The drive for new members and information as to desires of ex-service men for a bonus and compensation will be continued by the American Legion in Indiana. Incomplete returns received by Department Adjutant Frank H. Henley show that 6,000 new members were enrolled and many new claims for compensation are being turned in.

Jap Rum Smugglers Wounded in Fight

PORTLAND, Ore., April 17.—In a pitched battle between three members of the Japanese crew of the steamer Kaitu Maru and the three deputy sheriffs at St. Helens, Ore., today, Shimamoto, engineer of the vessel, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded and a second Japanese was less seriously wounded, according to a report sent authorities here. The three Japanese are said to have been attempting to smuggle whisky ashore.

Ask That Sugar Losses Be Repaid

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Sugar importers, who acted as Government agents for importation of sugar from the Argentine to relieve the 1920 shortage in the United States, today asked the House Agriculture Committee to enact a resolution authorizing the President to direct the sugar equalizing board to adjust their losses.

The committee voted 7 to 4 to compel the board to show its records of dealing with importers for committee investigation.

LOYD GEORGE OUT OF OFFICE AFTER GENOA?

Rumor Rife That British Premier Has Contracted for Book.

PARIS, April 17.—A rumor is rife at Genoa that Premier Lloyd George is going to resign his office at the close of the Genoa conference, according to a dispatch printed here today. The report said the premier already has signed a contract with a publishing house to write a book entitled "Tragic Hours—War and Peace."

The Rev. Mr. O'Hara continued: "The day of the old time religious controversy has passed. Dogma has been pushed so far into the background that union services are held everywhere outside the Catholic Church and preachers audaciously avoid any reference to a specific dogma that would arouse antagonism on the part of a disserter.
