ENGLISH SPEED MOUNT ENTERS 500-MILE RACE

Bentley Car Listed to Try for Honors May 30 in Motor Classic.

KLEIN COMING BACK

The British colors will mingle with the flags of France, America, and probably Italy, during the hand parade before the start of the 10th annual 500-mile race on the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, Tuesday, May 30. Although Louis Costalen is expected to make an eleventh hour entry of a team of Sunbeams from Wolverhampton, England, it was not a certainty until today that there would be an English competitor. Any doubt was dispelled with the receipt by

'Nother Morvich Test

NEW YORK, April 28.—Conditions being favorable, Morvich, the sensation of the turf world, was to get his big test in preparation for the $50,000 Kentucky Derby on May 13, at Jamaica race track today.

A high wind prevented a severe test yesterday, but the "Runnymede" colt stepped over the mile and a furlong route in 1.55 flat. Morvich carried 126 pounds.

T. E. Myers, secretary-manager of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, of a cable from London, entering a Bentley car.

This will be the debut of the Bentley in American racing. The entry is made by W. Douglas Hawkes, the engineer and designer of the car, who may drive the racer in the dash for $50,000 on Memorial Day. Reports from England imply that Hawkes will make Jean Goux and his pair of Ballot entries hurry to defend the European honors in the International classic.

Goux, one of the craftiest pilots who ever came over to represent France, has two new Ballot mounts, but has not announced his teammate. Last year in the French Grand Prix, Goux took one of the small four-litre 1122 cubic inch Ballots and drove it into third place. The car did not have the speed of several it defeated, but Goux had the skill to outgeneral his speedier competitors. Goux was also the first foreigner to win in Indianapolis races, taking the 1913 event with a Peugeot.

In addition to the French and English flags, the Italian colors are expected to vie with Old Glory in the parade before the start and to be behind this air by the signal bombs. Only Belgium and Germany will be missing among all the countries which have ever had cars here.

Art Klein, one of the veterans of the racing game, is going to drive one of Louis Chevrolet's cars in the May 30 race, according to announcement made Thursday night. It will not be the first appearance of Klein at the wheel of a Frontenac in a 500-mile race.

Back in 1920 when Chevrolet brought out the 183 inch engine for his "Frontys," Klein was one of the trio of Frontenac drivers. The car he drew was hard to be the first 100 miles he battled with Joe Boyer, his teammate, and Jean Chassagne for the lead. Twice his racer was out in front and he battled within about a third place. After completing 100 miles, or forty laps, he second place, a steering arm broke and he smashed the smash unscathed. Both Klein and his mechanic came out of the smash unscathed.

Klein is Ralph De Palma's rival for bad luck. He has started in four Indianapolis events and in three of them serious mechanical faults have forced him to the pit walls before the checkered flag fell.

Coliseum Offers Better Facilities for A. A. U. Tourney

Present Titleholders to Compete in Track and Field Events.

A large and star entry list is expected in the second annual indoor track and field meet of the Indiana A. A. U. to be held at the Coliseum, State Fairgrounds, May 9. Robert Sturm, in charge of the entries, states that he has heard from various colleges over the state and different athletic organizations connected with the A. A. U. and all have expressed a willingness to send the best athletes available.

Better facilities will be afforded at the Coliseum than were possible at Tomlinson Hall, where the meet was held last year. The short dash events will be lengthened. For instance, at Tomlinson Hall the longest dash event had to be cut to thirty yards. At the Coliseum it is thought that this can be increased to the 100-yard dash. Practically all of the regulation events can be held on the big indoor floor of the Coliseum.

Many of the present title holders are expected to defend their crowns against other entries. Walter Kernel of Indiana holds the thirty-yard record, but this distance will no doubt be lengthened as stated above.

Paul Draper, the Butler star, holds the 1,000 yard run title and he will probably be among the entries this time. Fred Cady of Butler also may participate in the 600-yard run to defend his title. The 200-yard run event was won by Edward Sullivan of the Hoosier A. C. and Meier reports are that Sullivan will be in the lineup at this meet. The little of Butler will compete again, it is believed, in the two-mile run which he is a favorite to win.

C. L. Siebert of Indiana State Normal holds the high jump and broad jump title from both of which he is the holder. A. C. winner of the shot put event in 1921, likely will contest for that honor again.

Main Go at Fort Ends in First; Other Scraps on Card Are Thrillers

By HEZE CLARK

In the first annual of a scheduled ten round bout, Eddie Grant of Dayton, Ohio, knocked out Skiffy Lewis of Martinsville, Ind., last night at the Ft. Benjamin Harrison boxing show. A second man scheduled to meet Maybara Fisgant of Indianapolis in the main go of the boxing carnival, but could would not kept many boxing fans away from the big canvas arena and Maxie, who had taken the match as a percentage basis refused to go on. Lewis was substituted, but was confident, knowing that weighed in eight-ten pounds.

The system of three judges giving a decision in all bouts that went the limit of the scheduled number of rounds, was followed at the fort show last night. The judges were Rublen, Dunn and Dorsett.

Eddie Grant is both by name and nature a welterweight. In one of the hard and fast. Skiffy Lewis hardly touched a glove to the other Ohio boy, while Grant peppered the Martinsville boxer with lefts and rights in so rapid order that the bout was over long before the boxing carnival, but could warble kept many boxing fans away from the big canvas arena and Maxie, who had taken the match as a percentage basis refused to go on. Lewis was substituted, but was confident, knowing that the he had been hit. He was his best, however, and he was hit hard.

While the main go was short, the fans more than got their money's worth, for they saw one of the best preliminary bouts ever staged at Ft. Harrison and an eight-round semi-windup that was full of hard hitting and plenty of action. Spike Kelly of Indianapolis was outfought in each of the eight rounds in the semi-windup with Paul Dillon of Gary. The boxers weighed in at 12 pounds. There is one thing that must be said of Kelly and that is, he is "game," but he lacked the punch to even worry the hard hitting battler from the other side.

Four husky negroes, Gene Elbert Cornback, Dick Serrel and Upton Stout met in a battle royal. Kid Stout was remaining after the other two had been knocked out, the best fought in every round and then buttling a battle royal, but four knockdowns in the third ended the battle royal and Stout was the winner.

In four rounds of fast boxing Charles Kid Winters of Indianapolis won a judge's decision over Kid Buck of Cincinnati. It was a neat scrap and the boys went to it in every round.

BIG EASTERN MEET STARTS

New Records Expected in Some Events—Pentathlon Is One of Features.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The Penn relay carnival arrived today for its annual two-day exhibition. The troupe included the usual high-class assortment of star and juvenile strong men, aerialists and fleet feet from collegiate and domestic circles.

Some of the lustre of past shows was missing through the absence of the customary European acts and many of the big domestic members were showing in the Drake relays of the West.

While the main track and field events were scheduled for tomorrow, Des Moines turned host to the crowds of visitors and athletes who flocked here from all parts of the country, and the opening day program was given an auspicious start.

While many former entries were not on the program the carnival bore a strong National color with Virginia University, Georgetown and the Navy, representing the South, Rednuds and Occidental bearing the colors of the Far West and Notre Dame, Ohio State, Illinois and Chicago from the Middle West. All of the big Eastern schools were on hand.

Features of the opening day program were the pentathlon championship, intercollegiate and interscholastic medley relay championship, the two-mile run and the quarter mile collegiate championship.

Bob Legendre, Georgetown, winner of the pentathlon title last year and the outstanding favorite this year, will try to equal the record made by Howard Berry Penn star, who won first place in each of the five events several years ago. Roberts of Middenberg, Clayp of the Navy, Heltmer of Harvard, and Byrd of Virginia Poly are expected to give him plenty of opposition.

Hamilton (Canada) Collegiate Institute is regarded as the favorite in the interscholastic medley championship, and the one-mile high school and two-mile interscholastic races.

New records are expected in the quarter-mile collegiate championship when the local amateur leagues swing into action for the 1922 season. The mayor will ride in the parade of the early afternoon and then go out to Riverside Park and lend his presence to the game in the Fraternal League, between the father of De Moley and Bricklayers' Union team. President Harris of the City Amateur Baseball Association announced today that the mayor had consented to pitch the first ball at that game, which will be staged on Diamond No. 1. Lew made a catch at Washington Park, April 12, but he believes he will have the home jinx against tomorrow when he makes his second start as a twirler.

DRAKE RELAYS OPEN IN WEST

Big Track Carnival Starts With Parade of Competing Athletes.

DES MOINES, April 28.—Drake's National relay carnival got away with a flying start here today.

A great army of athletes, 1,000 strong, representing nineteen universities, twenty-nine colleges and thirty-five high schools, paraded through Des Moines streets preliminary to the opening of the annual Western Olympics at Drake stadium.

With the main track and field events scheduled for tomorrow, Des Moines turned host to the crowds of visitors and athletes who flocked here from all parts of the country, and the opening day program was given an auspicious start.

The downtown decorations and the athletes were taken to the big stadium, where preliminaries in the special college events and several of the high school relays were scheduled to begin.

Intercollegiate sport followers watched with interest as the preliminary competitions got under way. The Drake games have attracted a larger field of entries than ever before, and indications today were that many famous track marks would give way to new records.

Shank to Try Another Turn in Pitcher's Box to Help Boost Amateurs

Mayor Lew Shank is going to get in on another baseball opener tomorrow when the local amateur leagues swing into action for the 1922 season. The mayor will ride in the parade of the early afternoon and then go out to Riverside Park and lend his presence to the game in the Fraternal League, between the father of De Moley and Bricklayers' Union team. President Harris of the City Amateur Baseball Association announced today that the mayor had consented to pitch the first ball at that game, which will be staged on Diamond No. 1. COOL WEATHER GREETS TRIBE IN FAR NORTH

All Seats Sold as Indians Help Millers Open Home Season.

WEAVER DUE TO PITCH

MINNEAPOLIS, April 28.—With all reserved seats sold, fans in joyful mood despite a chilly atmosphere and players anxious to get out and perform before what promised to be a record crowd totally, American Association season was to open here this afternoon with the failing of the 1922 Millers, as the team starter the present schedule at Louisville, and today's game was the first game in which Jack Hendricks' Indians, leaders in the American Association race, were on hand to act in the role of the enemy and Joe Cantillon's Millers, only a shade behind the Hoosiers in the league standing, are in fine mood and determined to crown the opening bow with a victory over their rivals from Indianapolis. Harry Weaver, youthful curveballer, was expected to take the mound for the Indians, while it was thought that Rube Schauer would be in the box for the home club.

The Indians reached here this morning. Jack Hendricks reported his men in fine shape after a night in the sleeping. As Weaver would be his first choice for the second work if the weather warranted properly. In case the young ster did not show well in practice Clint Rouge was expected to get the call.

Minneapolis club officials smiled broadly this morning even if the weather was of the frigid variety. It was raw and cool in fact cold, but why should the Miller officials worry? The reserved sections at Nicollet Park were sold out for today as early as Wednesday and a big crowd was thus assured no matter if there were snow flurries today.

The Millers think they have it on the Indians because of winning two out of three at Indianapolis. The Indians hope to take that feeling on off 'em in the series here.

This is a cold country up here. The snow has not been dished long. In fact it snowed to be "just around the corner" this week.
