

AMNESTY ARMY WILL ABANDON PICKET TACTICS

Campaign of Peaceful Persuasion for Prisoners' Release Planned.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Leaders of the "children crusaders," who are to "camp" in the national capital until their fathers and relatives—the political prisoners—are freed from Federal prisons, today decided to abandon militant picketing methods.

From now on, a campaign of peaceful persuasion will be conducted, with the idea of getting "the real facts" before Congress and the Administration, Mrs. O'Hare, one of the leaders of the little army, said.

The crusaders turned their campaign against Congress today. The plan for amnesty was presented to the members of Congress, who represent districts from which the political prisoners come. Senators and Representatives from seven States—Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Illinois, Oklahoma, Missouri and Arkansas—were interviewed.

NAVY OFFICERS PROTEST CUT FROM RESERVE

Appeal to Harding Against Alleged Discrimination Against Them.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Nearly 400 Naval reserve and auxiliary officers of various grades now in active duty will be separated from the service July 1, without provision for the future under terms of the Navy Appropriation bill which has passed the House.

Included in this number of officers are fifty-nine old time officers who compose the Naval Auxiliary Service, which was organized in 1885 for the Spanish-American war. They were placed in charge of the naval supply ships, all of the officers of the regular naval establishment being needed for the battleship.

When organized, officers in the auxiliary service were accorded the same privileges as the regulars, with longevity pay and other benefits. In the emergency of 1917 Congress legislated these auxiliary officers into the newly organized naval reserves. This deprived them of their longevity pay and other benefits and placed them on a par with volunteer officers of little or no service record.

The Navy Appropriation bill which passed the House made no provision for these fifty-nine auxiliary reservists, who had served both in the Spanish-American war and in the World War. It is claimed for them that their service should give them the same status as regular officers, and that many of the younger regular officers.

NO RETIREMENT PAY.
Legislation already enacted and bills pending before the House Naval Affairs Committee provide for pensioning regular combat officers and for retirement at 60 years of age or for length of service. No retirement pay or other benefits are provided for the fifty-nine officers who composed the old naval auxiliary service, many of whom are nearing the 60-year age limit.

These auxiliary officers have appealed to President Harding in an effort to correct this alleged discrimination. Letters of protest, in effect a round robin, have been mailed by each officer to the White House.

It is expected the fight will be carried to the Senate Naval Affairs Committee, where the work of the House Appropriations Committee is to undergo careful revision. Friends of the old naval officers expect the Senate to grant relief from the apparent injustice.

The House Appropriations Committee considered the case a file reserve and auxiliary officers serving on active duty when it framed the appropriation bill. It was determined to reduce the cost of the naval establishment and decided the only way to effect reductions was to cut off officers and men. It was not authorized to make provisions for retirement, or retirement pay, but being the duty and the province of the Naval Affairs Committee.

A survey made of the officer personnel committee that the better policy was to retain in the active service as many as possible of the regular navy officers and to force removals or separations from among the reservists. This plan followed, and the bill, which was the bill is restricted to regular officers of the navy, with some few exceptions.

Commander William Prudden of the training ship Rappahannock at San Diego, Cal., is one of the auxiliary officers who has written the President. He was first officer of the supply ship Zafiro, which went with Admiral Dewey's fleet into Manila Bay, May 1, 1898, and has since been in the navy service.

"I have full faith," said Commander Prudden, "that Congress and the Administration will take the best of provision for us in the pending legislation when our long years of faithful service are brought to their attention."

There are two simple means of remedying the situation. Congress might look favorably on a plan to transfer these officers to the regular service as extra numbers in grade out of the line of regular promotion. But that would be for service on auxiliary ships. If this is not feasible retirement pay privileges

EAGLE LOSES FIGHT TO FLIER

King of Birds Breaks Neck Against Airplane Strut.

QUANTICO, Va., May 2.—A combat in the air between an eagle and a marine corps plane, in which the king of the air lost his life, took place near Quantico.

Lieut. R. O. Sanderson, flying near the flying field, saw a flock of birds and gave chase. An eagle, which had been hovering high over the flock, wheeled on his approach and at top speed flew directly toward him.

The bird struck one of the wire braces of the plane with such force as to break the brace and the eagle's neck. The bird then was caught in the braces of the plane. The eagle measured seven feet between the wing tips.

Terre Haute Doctor Says He Was Asked to Operate on Girl for Honor's Sake

This is the latest picture of George A. Hanna, who was found murdered in the basement of the vacant parsonage belonging to the United Presbyterian Church at Hoopston, Ill. Below are shown the parsonage and the church which adjoins it.

W. T. HANNA, FATHER

HOOPSTON, Ill., May 2.—William Nesbitt, brother-in-law of John C. W. Hanna, former pastor of the United Presbyterian church here, who was found murdered in the basement of the vacant parsonage Thursday, was to be questioned today at Danville by State Attorney John H. Lewman.

Questioning of Nesbitt was ordered after a doctor of Terre Haute, whose name was withheld, had told authorities he was approached shortly before the death of the girl and asked to perform an operation.

LIGHT VOTING, HARDLY RIPPLE AT LOCAL POLLS

o'clock. Twenty-five of these were Democrats.

member of the election board in the Eighth precinct of the Eighth ward said at 8:30 that while early voting was light, heavier activity was expected later. There had been sixty-five voters in at 8:30.

Eight were Democrats. This majority is a top-heavy Republican precinct.

Only 101 had voted at the Marion Club. In the Seventh precinct of the Sixth ward, at 9:30 o'clock.

The First precinct of Washington Township reported 102 votes at 9:30 o'clock. Eighteen were Democrats.

In the Eighth precinct of the Tenth ward, normally Democratic, 100 Republicans and fifteen Democrats had voted by 8:40 o'clock. Only forty-nine votes were in the First precinct of the Twelfth ward at 8:30 o'clock.

Forty-seven Republicans and eighteen Democrats had marked their tickets by 8:40 o'clock in the Eighth precinct of the Ninth ward.

The Eleventh ward was coming in as slowly as the others, a report from the First precinct at 8:50 o'clock showing only sixty-four votes in. Thirteen of these were Democrats.

GRACE HANNA, SISTER

The doctor said the man who had approached him represented himself to be Wyman, but, when brought face to face with Wyman, he said he was not the man. He was asked, the doctor said, to perform the operation to save the girl's honor, but he refused. Nesbitt is to be brought before the doctor.

Wyman and W. T. Hanna, father of the slain girl, were questioned by Lewman. No statement as to the outcome of the purpose of the quiz was forthcoming.

LIGHT VOTE AT TERRE HAUTE

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 2.—Little interest was being shown in Vigo County today over the election and early voting was light. The contest was being run mainly by a few candidates disinterested with prohibition enforcement. Only about 10 per cent of the voters turned out in the forenoon.

Interest was being shown in the National and State offices.

POLLS CROWDED AT WARSAW

WARSAW, Ind., May 2.—One of the heaviest voter over recorded in Kosciusko County was expected to be cast in the primary election today. The polls were crowded during the entire forenoon.

BEDFORD VOTING EXTREMELY LIGHT

BEDFORD, Ind., May 2.—An extremely light vote was being cast in the primary elections in Monroe and Lawrence Counties, according to reports here today. Farmers were staying in their fields trying to catch up with work which was stopped by recent flood waters.

EVANSVILLE HEAVY VOTE

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 2.—Clear skies and fair weather brought a record crowd to the polls here today. Many men and women had been waiting in some precincts an hour or more when the polls opened at 6 a. m.

HARDING SAYS HE'LL WELCOME LEASE INQUIRY

President Believes Oil Agreements Will Serve Best Interests of U. S.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—President Harding welcomes any investigation, friendly or unfriendly into the oil leases entered into by Secretary of Interior Fall with large private corporations, it was stated at the White House in the course of President Harding's bi-weekly conference with newspaper correspondents.

The President believes, it was said, that the leases entered into will serve the best interests of the Government, and welcomes any scrutiny which the Senate or any other investigating agency cares to give them.

PUT FINAL TOUCHES ON BIG BALLOON

Soldiers Will Enter Their Racer in Meet at Milwaukee.

BELLEVILLE, Ill., May 2.—Soldiers of the United States Army Air Station here are putting the finishing touches on the big balloon that the War Department has entered in the International Balloon Race to be held May 8, at Milwaukee. This is the second balloon to be entered by the government in an international balloon event. It is being built under the direction of A. Leo Stevens, veteran balloonist, chief civilian aeronautical officer at the local base.

The balloon entered in a race by the Government was constructed two years ago at Ft. Omaha under the direction of Stevens. It had a capacity of 75,000 cubic feet of gas. The balloon under construction here will have a capacity of 80,500 cubic feet and a lifting power of three and one-half tons.

All of the work on this unusually large craft will be done by privates and sergeants, with the exception of the seamstress work, which will be carried on by women.

It takes 2,500 yards of special balloon fabric for this envelope. Five and one-half miles of sewing are represented in this job; two and one-half barrels of special varnish, five barrels of napha and many other ingredients have been used.

The balloon will be known as "U. S. Army No. 2" and will require a net in which 15,250 feet of rope will be used. This net will represent 144 meshes. The balloon when completed will stand 105 feet high from the bottom of the basket to the top of the valve.

FLAPPERS FLAP DERISION OF 'OLD FOGIES'

Form New Club to Protect Right to Rouge, Smoke and 'Roll Their Own.'

CHICAGO, May 2.—Resenting to the time-old maxim of "in union there is strength," because of the volley of criticism threatening their purpose, the flappers here have said foundations for the organization of a "Flappers Club."

Its sponsors—Margaret Pursell, a high school girl, seventeen and pretty, and Yvonne Vignone, also seventeen and pretty, deny that the proposed organization will be a model of the "Shifters," which lately came to the fore in New York.

"We're going to be original," Margaret firmly announced today. "We're forming a constitution, bylaws and everything, and when we get through they'll let us alone."

Members of the club, Margaret added, will be allowed to smoke, dabble in paints, "roll their own," wear one-piece bathing suits and whatnot. In fact, she said, the constitution will permit everything that the "old fogies are condemning."

"We want to tell the world," Margaret continued, "that it's none of their business if we smoke a cigarette now and then, and it won't injure our health any more than it will the health of our fathers or big brothers."

"They say we shouldn't wear rolled stockings. And we just perfectly will if we want to. They say we mustn't rouge. And we'll rouge and rouge and rouge, they say we mustn't dance in this way or in that. And we'll just certainly find out the ways they have in mind and dance and demonstrate."

The trouble is there are too many evil minds in the world. The boys we go with don't keep looking at our legs if we wear short skirts. It's the old men who want to reform us who seldom look us in the face."

Margaret added that membership in the "Flapper Club" will be open to all girls "out of their teens and slightly past twenty."

And this, in passing, to the boys—there will be a male auxiliary.

WORKERS FORM NEW PARTY AS ANTI-SOCIALIST

Executive Is on Bail on Charge of Criminal Anarchy During War.

CLEVELAND, May 2.—With the Socialist Farmer-Labor "near merger" accomplished, the Socialist party resumed its convention here to find another element laying plans to defeat its purpose.

The Workers Party of America, headed by C. E. Ruthenberg, former Socialist candidate for mayor of Cleveland, who served a year in Canton workhouse for his alleged wartime activities, met in mass meeting and denounced the Socialists as "reactionaries."

"The party is all but dead; I attended its convention here and sat at its wake," Ruthenberg declared. "The Workers Party, charged with criminal anarchy, is out on bail awaiting disposition of his case by the New York Court of Appeals. He was announced here as the new executive secretary of the Workers. Just what action will be taken by the Socialists in face of the new criticism would not be forecast by Socialist leaders."

On the orange colored ticket the list is: W. W. Thornton, Lin D. Hay, Theophilus Moll, J. Fred Masters, Clint H. Givan and James A. Collins. And then on the little pink slip it is: J. M. Leathers, Lin D. Hay, Theophilus Moll, J. Fred Masters, Clint H. Givan, James A. Collins and Frank J. Lahr.

Lahr is the Jewett-Lemcke choice for judge of juvenile court.

One of the reported Shank slates lists both Louis W. Carnegie and Arthur C. Bank for auditor. Two others slate only Rankin.

The Shank forces working for county control apparently were not bothering themselves about the senatorial scrap. As was learned last week, both Beveridge and New were slated on some Shank tickets. On the orange and pink slips, however, Beveridge is listed.

The combinations of endorsed candidates were so numerous and so widely different that there was little significance in any of them. Apparently the slate makers had promised all the candidates they would be slated so they divided the lists so everybody would get on at least one.

For chief offices the Jewett-Lemcke slates varied less. In the different localities, there was little significance in any of them. Apparently the slate makers had promised all the candidates they would be slated so they divided the lists so everybody would get on at least one.

FRENCH PASS DAY IN PEACE

Effort to Arouse Revolutionary Spirit Fails.

PARIS, May 2.—The attempt of the French communists to arouse revolutionary spirit by a huge May Day demonstration found an unsympathetic, even hostile, public. This May 1—usually a trying day for the French republic—passed in calmness.

The communist stock was never so low with the rank and file of the French people as now. The proceedings of the Bolsheviks at Comen, together with the popular feeling aroused by the Rasco-German treaty, has dealt a blow to the French communists for soviet government. Furthermore, the populace is angered at the communist demonstration yesterday, which resulted in the shooting of two policemen. Only taxicabs took the annual day off, and the few auto-buses which passed in place of trams.

The subject that occupied the communist orators this year was "taxes and an eight-hour day." The Journal Des Debats says:

"This shows they do not have anything to argue about, so they decide to protest against the normal functions of human life." Copyright, 1922.

NEW MAJESTIC TO BE BIGGEST SHIP IN WORLD

German Who Supervised Vessel's Construction Gives Interview.

STOCKHOLM, May 2.—Dry leaders which have been handed over to the representatives of the White Star Line, is not only the largest but at the same time the most sumptuous and probably also the swiftest passenger ship of the world.

That was the tenor of an interview given by Baurat Artus, who as the representative of the German government supervised the building of the ocean giant.

"Of course, it has been a bitter task for us to prepare the surrender of this ship which was destined to be the glory of Germany's shipping trade," said Artus. "But I am proud to state, that nevertheless all of us did our duty in the most loyal manner. The future 'Majestic' is outfitted in exactly the same way as if it had been for the Hamburg-American line for which it was originally intended."

"The work on board the 'Bismarck,' which had been launched in the spring of 1914, was completely stopped at the beginning of the war and has only been resumed two years ago. The mammoth steamer is 291.5 meters long—one more than the former 'Vaterland'—30.5 broad, 18.5 meters high from the bottom to the upper deck. The draught when loaded is 19.52 meters (thirty-five feet); the tonnage amounts to 59,000 tons; 48 water pipe boilers supply the steam for the four turbines which act directly on the four screws. The boilers are heated by oil firing which almost develops no smoke. The oil employed is a very tough Melsburg oil which, when stored, is so consistent that it has to be cut with spades and cannot explode. The system of the double bottom divided into carefully calculated cellules offers a further element of security."

"According to the contract, the efficiency of the engines must be 66,000 horse power, but we are sure that 100,000 horse power can easily be obtained so that the 'Majestic' will be the most sumptuous that could possibly be imagined. The dining room, covering 1,050 square meters and possessing a beautiful cupola, painted by Professor Kolipsberger of the Munich Academy, is finished in white. It offers room for all the passengers, so that no second dinner has to be served."

"The smoking room is furnished with dark oak and the walls are covered with leather. The hall (the dance hall) is remarkable for its beautiful deep carving of massive oak wood. The restaurant is finished in Honduras mahogany, embellished by gold ornaments. A wonderful staircase leading through five decks is outfitted with precious iron work and the walls are decorated with copies of famous German paintings executed by the Hamburgian painter, Professor Koertitz."

"Quite remarkable, too, is the swimming hall. The ceiling, lighted from within gives the illusion of the sky, and bottom lights within the basin make the water look almost supernaturally transparent."

"As the crew amounts to 1,500 men the ship will carry altogether nearly 6,000 persons. The ship costs approximately two billion marks."

Ideals of Lincoln to Be Taught in Navy

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Believing that Abraham Lincoln is "our greatest American," Secretary of the Navy Denby has taken steps to have Lincoln's ideals and character inculcated in the naval cadets at Annapolis.

In a letter to Rear Admiral Henry D. Wilson, superintendent of the academy, Secretary Denby urges that the choicest of Lincoln's papers and addresses be made a part of the curriculum in preparing young naval officers for their future careers.

Repeating, Admiral Wilson stated that extracts from Lincoln's papers and other writings are already a part of the academy English course.
