

Eddie Ash

NEWS of the DAY

Vedder Gard

THE SPORT WORLD

Heze Clark

INDIANS OPEN
LENGTHY STAY
IN SAINT CITYFans There Anxious to See
How 1922 Tribesmen
Stack Up.

SERIES OF FIVE GAMES

ST. PAUL, May 3.—The Indians were in town today for their first 1922 visit and Saint fans were anxious to see what Jack Hendricks has under his managerial wing this season. Much has been heard of the Hoosiers and baseball followers here were interested in the playing of the few new men in the tribe line-up, mainly of Krueger, the hard hitting catcher, and Brown, the tall youth obtained from the Giants. The Indians are usually a good traveling team and a big attendance is promised at Lexington Park throughout the week.

The Indians will play a series of five games here, starting today and closing Sunday. Manager Kelley of the Saints has his athletes in good shape and is hopeful of climbing up into the first division shortly. The team is down in fifth place, but only a few games removed from the leading Indianapolis and Columbus clubs.

The Hoosiers got an off-day yesterday along with all the other teams in the American Association. St. Paul and Minneapolis were expected to use Weaver or Cvet on the mound in the series opener today. The Saints have learned to respect the batting ability of the Indians after seeing what hitting damage the Tribe scored at Minneapolis. Manager Kelley planned to take a good look at his twisting staff before announcing his choice for mound duty this afternoon.

The weather was cloudy and threatening here this morning, but the Governor's weather bureau did not forecast rain and the chances were good that the series opener would be played as per schedule.

LIVE NEWS
AND GOSSIP
OF THE PUGILISTS

BLACK SEES WELTER HONORS.
CINCINNATI, May 3.—Eddie (Kid) Black, welterweight champion of Western Kentucky, today announced that he was going to fight for the title with a man who has escaped being knocked out. Even the champions of all the different classes, from lightweight to heavyweight, had referees count "ten" over him, but this Buffalo contender has yet to take a knock out.

Black has placed himself under the management of Biddy Bishop of this city and the latter will enter into the match at once of getting Black into a match for the welter title. Black was formerly handled by Alvin Smith of Buffalo, who died a few months ago. Black, out of respect for his former manager, had left off from ring work for two months. His first contest under Bishop's management was with Bobby Lee at Indianapolis.

"I am willing to post $10,000 to guarantee weight and appearance for Black to box any man in the ring at 132 to 148," says Bishop.

JACK RUSHES BACK TO PARIS.
BERLIN, May 3.—Jack Dempsey's comment on Berlin Tuesday just before he left for Paris was: "It's a nice place, but I don't like it." He was referring to his Berlin visit because he said he had urgent business in Paris, and after his transatlantic he expected to return to the United States at once.

The mayor of the German capital intended an official reception of greater importance than the one given to Dempsey for a short greeting. The fight was held in Berlin in a deserted hall, and the fight was devoted to breaking away from dog trainers and bell boys who clamored for autographed snapshots that had been taken by amateur photographers.

BOUTS AT MARTINSVILLE.
MARTINSVILLE, Ind., May 3.—Joe Walters and Spike Kelly, welterweights, have been matched for the main go of eight rounds here Friday night on the local weekly boxing card. Walters is the favorite, but Kelly promises to give him plenty of fight. In the semi-final bout Benny Jacks of this city will clash with Jimmy Smith of Bicknell over the eight-round bout. They are bantamweights. Two prelims, with local talent participating, will be held. Howard Wigman of Indianapolis will referee.

TUT JACKSON BOUT.
WASHINGTON, COURTHOUSE, Ohio, May 3.—The fifteen-round bout at the "all park" Thursday night between Tut Jackson of this city and Jack Geyer of Columbus, promises to draw the largest crowd that ever witnessed a boxing bout. Arrangements are being made to accommodate 3,000 people. A number of women interested in athletic sports here expressed a desire to see the battle. Big delegations will be here from Dayton, Springfield and Columbus.

GREB-TUNNEY, MAY 23.
NEW YORK, May 3.—The fifteen-round light heavyweight championship battle between Gene Tunney, titleholder, and Harry Greb, challenger, was scheduled for Madison Square Garden on May 23, has been advanced to the night of May 24. Frank Flourney, Greb's manager, yesterday arranged the change in date with Frank Bagley, Tunney's manager, and George Engel, manager of Greb.

NEBRASKA SUSTAINS SAM.
LINCOLN, Neb., May 3.—Suspension of the license recently granted Sam Langford, negro heavyweight fighter, to box in Nebraska, was announced Tuesday by the department of public welfare. Suspension was for no infraction of Nebraska boxing rules, but was due the announcement said, to similar action taken in Louisiana for alleged breach of contract by the boxer.

MARTIN K. O. S. HERMAN.
NEW YORK, May 3.—Babe Herman, Los Angeles (Cal.) featherweight, was knocked out by Vincent "Pepper" Martin of Brooklyn Tuesday night in the first round of a scheduled fifteen-round bout.

A. A. U. MEET IN GARDEN.
NEW YORK, May 3.—The national junior boxing tournament of the Amateur Athletic Union will be held in Madison Square Garden, May 24 and 25, it was announced Tuesday.

COLLEGE BASEBALL.
Notre Dame 16; Belmont 7.
Purdue 6; Drake 5.
CHICAGO, 4; Armour, 3.

BASEBALL
STANDINGS
AND CALENDAR

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.
	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Indianapolis	10	6	.625
Columbus	10	6	.625
Minneapolis	9	7	.563
St. Paul	9	7	.563
Louisville	7	9	.438
Kansas City	7	10	.412
Toledo	5	12	.290

AMERICAN LEAGUE.
	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
St. Louis	12	6	.667
New York	12	6	.667
Chicago	9	7	.563
Cleveland	8	9	.471
Philadelphia	8	9	.471
Boston	7	9	.438
Washington	8	11	.421
Detroit	12	12	.500

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
New York	11	5	.688
Chicago	11	5	.688
St. Louis	8	7	.533
Brooklyn	8	7	.533
Pittsburgh	6	9	.400
Philadelphia	6	9	.400
Cincinnati	5	10	.333
Boston	5	12	.290

GAMES TODAY

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.
Indianapolis at St. Paul.
Toledo at Kansas City.
Columbus at Milwaukee.
Louisville at Minneapolis.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.
St. Louis at Detroit.
Cleveland at Chicago (postponed; rain).
Washington at Boston.
New York at Philadelphia.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
Cincinnati at St. Louis.
Chicago at Pittsburgh.
Boston at New York.
(No other games scheduled.)

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.
St. Paul-Indianapolis, rain.
(Only game scheduled.)

AMERICAN LEAGUE.
St. Louis..... 000 010 000—1 5 0
Detroit..... 002 001 000—3 10 1
Batteries—Shocker and Severide; Ehmeke and Bassler.

Washington..... 000 000 101—2 7 1
Philadelphia..... 210 002 000—11 14 1
Batteries—Mogridge, Francis and Garrity; Picinich; Hasty and Perkins.

Boston..... 002 100 021—6 9 2
New York..... 312 042 007—12 18 2
Batteries—Fullerton, Karp, Collins and Ruel; Walters, Jones and Schang; Devorner.

Cleveland..... 002 210 203—10 12 1
Chicago..... 300 000 102—8 11 0
Batteries—Coveleskie and O'Neill; Russell, Wilkinson, Mcweeney and Schalk.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

New York..... 310 010 010—4 10 0
Boston..... 000 100 101—8 10 1
Batteries—Fullerton and Smith; Marquard, Watson, Philpitt and O'Neill.

Pittsburgh..... 000 010 001—2 5 3
Cincinnati..... 202 101 030—9 11 0
Batteries—Carlson, Wellons, Morrison and Gooch; Couch and Hargrave.

OPTIMISTS TO HAVE NINE.

A "Pepper" Ray has been named as manager of the new baseball team to be organized by the Optimists Club. The directors also have decided to stage a tournament this year, and Ralph Elton and W. J. Pray have been pointed as a committee of arrangements for the event.

CURLY TOM IN MONROE SEAT

Tom Alley, Indianapolis boy, will team with Wilbur D'Alene and a driver yet to be named in driving the three Monroes entered in the international 500 mile race to be held at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, Tuesday, May 30.

Alley is ever an interesting personage about the track, but this year is unusual in that he has signed for a car a month before a race. He usually comes to the track a day or two before the race, gets a mount and goes on into the race. Last year he was chosen to drive an hour before the big event. And he had his front-end in second and third places consistently until he put him out with the race well along.

It's a fact to tell when Alley is on the track. He never wears any covering for a wealth of curly hair. Whenever any of the visitors ask the track hangers on who Alley is, they are usually answered, "Our walking hair tonic advertisement." All of which gets a laugh from Alley, who is good natured and full of wit.

Alley will arrive in a few days to get his Monroe ready for the long drive.

Morvich in Public Trial

NEW YORK, May 3.—In order to permit the public to judge for itself the condition of the colt, the unbeaten Morvich was to be given a time trial at one mile under races at the opening of the local turf season at Jamaica today.

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield are of finer quality (and hence of better taste) than in any other cigarette at the price.

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

NEW YORK, May 3.—The fifteen-round light heavyweight championship battle between Gene Tunney, titleholder, and Harry Greb, challenger, was scheduled for Madison Square Garden on May 23, has been advanced to the night of May 24. Frank Flourney, Greb's manager, yesterday arranged the change in date with Frank Bagley, Tunney's manager, and George Engel, manager of Greb.

NEBRASKA SUSTAINS SAM.
LINCOLN, Neb., May 3.—Suspension of the license recently granted Sam Langford, negro heavyweight fighter, to box in Nebraska, was announced Tuesday by the department of public welfare. Suspension was for no infraction of Nebraska boxing rules, but was due the announcement said, to similar action taken in Louisiana for alleged breach of contract by the boxer.

MARTIN K. O. S. HERMAN.
NEW YORK, May 3.—Babe Herman, Los Angeles (Cal.) featherweight, was knocked out by Vincent "Pepper" Martin of Brooklyn Tuesday night in the first round of a scheduled fifteen-round bout.

A. A. U. MEET IN GARDEN.
NEW YORK, May 3.—The national junior boxing tournament of the Amateur Athletic Union will be held in Madison Square Garden, May 24 and 25, it was announced Tuesday.

COLLEGE BASEBALL.
Notre Dame 16; Belmont 7.
Purdue 6; Drake 5.
CHICAGO, 4; Armour, 3.

Kilbane-Martin Go
Now Looms Up as
Next Feather Bout

If Champion Keeps Promise,
Pepper Will Get Chance at Johnny's Title.

BY DAVIS J. WALSH.
NEW YORK, May 3.—"If you have anything to say, John Patrick Kilbane, speak now, or forever hold your peace." They are supposed to have heard of mouth promise, John to meet the winner of the Pepper Martin-Babe Herman scrap in a featherweight championship bout, and strange as it may seem, there was a winner and a very convincing one at that.

He is Vincent (Pepper) Martin of Brooklyn, who lured the Babe to sleep with a left to the jaw in the first round at Madison Square Garden last night.

No Duke about that punch, John. The peppery one had first prepared Herman for the worst. Another ace like left to the same jaw and Herman had sat down for a count of six to think it over. When he arose, slant-eyed, Martin measured him for a right and missed by an inch, then left again. It was all over.

Now Martin must be accepted as the logical candidate, and seriously John, there is no reason why you shouldn't seize that proposition by the lapel and bang right on. If you haven't gone back beyond recall, you should outpoint this Pepper fellow in any kind of a back-and-forth to fifteen rounds. So it is all right on that score.

And if you are concerned about the purpose, just consider the fact that the bout would arouse the cash customers to a frenzy.

Martin is extremely popular in Brooklyn and other premiere places where they think he is unbeatable as the best of financial reasons, the bout should be held not too far away from Flatbush.

However, that is strictly up to you, John. This peppery person is waiting, and since you will have to fight some time, it might be as well with some one who isn't too good.

BIG LEAGUE STUFF

News Item—George Mogridge, well known and respected pitching chief of Washington, brutally assaulted by strong arm men in Philadelphia. Four home runs in four innings, three in a row in the fourth, an American League record. Mogridge was hit by a ball in the fourth, and the pitcher, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

Howard Ehmeke had one of his good days and the Detroit Tigers sent the Browns into a tie for first place by a three to one defeat.

The Giants made it four straight from the Braves and the Braves took a first place hold on last place. The Giants treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

Howard Ehmeke had one of his good days and the Detroit Tigers sent the Browns into a tie for first place by a three to one defeat.

The Yankees also halted a losing streak, and Frank Baker, getting three hits, treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

Couch, holding Pittsburgh to five hits, made the Pirates lie down and be good while the Reds won by the top heavy score of 9 to 2. Harper made two sensational catches in right field for the Reds.

The Yankees also halted a losing streak, and Frank Baker, getting three hits, treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

The Indians made it four straight from the Braves and the Braves took a first place hold on last place. The Giants treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

The Yankees also halted a losing streak, and Frank Baker, getting three hits, treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

The Indians made it four straight from the Braves and the Braves took a first place hold on last place. The Giants treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

The Yankees also halted a losing streak, and Frank Baker, getting three hits, treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

The Indians made it four straight from the Braves and the Braves took a first place hold on last place. The Giants treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

The Yankees also halted a losing streak, and Frank Baker, getting three hits, treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

The Indians made it four straight from the Braves and the Braves took a first place hold on last place. The Giants treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

The Yankees also halted a losing streak, and Frank Baker, getting three hits, treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

The Indians made it four straight from the Braves and the Braves took a first place hold on last place. The Giants treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

The Yankees also halted a losing streak, and Frank Baker, getting three hits, treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

The Indians made it four straight from the Braves and the Braves took a first place hold on last place. The Giants treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

The Yankees also halted a losing streak, and Frank Baker, getting three hits, treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

The Indians made it four straight from the Braves and the Braves took a first place hold on last place. The Giants treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

The Yankees also halted a losing streak, and Frank Baker, getting three hits, treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from them in exactly one third of an inning. Rube Perkins and "Big" Miller the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh!

BILLY EVANS SAYS

Plenty of Backbone in No-Hit Game

Gameness under fire! That, added to phenomenal control, is the real answer to the no-hit, no-run, not-a-man-reach-first ball game hurled by Charley Robertson, Chicago White Sox pitcher, against the Detroit Tigers.

In my many years' experience as an arbitrator I have never umpired a ball game in which a pitcher showed more backbone. If Robertson never pitches another game, his one performance against the Tigers entitles him to go down in history as a hurler with nerves of steel.

It was the rookie's second game as a big league moundman. Pitted against one of the hardest hitting teams in the history of baseball, he equaled a record held by only two men: Cy Young and Addie Joss.

Away back in 1904 Young, hurling for Boston, trimmed the Athletics in a no-man-reach-first contest, and four years later Joss, Cleveland star, working against Ed Walsh, turned the trick on the Chicago White Sox. Walsh, though defeated, struck out fifteen Clevelanders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

Robertson's feat, however, is even more remarkable, since the Detroit team of today is a much harder hitting club than were the White Sox or the Athletics of the old days. The Sox, in fact, were then known as the hitless wonders.

DILLON BOXING
CARD COMPLETE

Champs, ex-Champs and Near Champs Booked—Full Evening
of Action Assured.

Ed W. Harter, manager of the Jack Dillon testimonial boxing show to be staged at Washington Park Wednesday night, May 10, today announced the complete program for the historic carnival that promises to be the biggest affair of its kind ever held. In fact so many ring stars have offered their services and almost demanded that they be given a place on the program in order to do their bit toward the Dillon benefit that Manager Harter may find it necessary to shorten some of the bouts in order to get the program finished in the one night.

At present ten real bouts are carded besides eleven sparring exhibitions. Among the champions to appear will be Jack Britton, welterweight; Johnny Buff, bantamweight; and Johnny Wilson, middleweight. Among the former champions will be Battling Nelson, light-heavyweight; Ray Benson, welterweight; and Jack Dillon, former king of the light heavies.

The ring for the great athletic carnival will be erected in the middle of the baseball diamond at Washington Park and will be surrounded by 3,500 ring-side seats. There will be a back-and-forth movement for 10,000, it is estimated. The first bout will start at 8 o'clock sharp and the bouts will be kept moving in rapid-fire order. Tickets are on sale at the Claypool drug store and are meeting a ready demand. Reservations from outside the city have been good.

The ring for the great athletic carnival will be erected in the middle of the baseball diamond at Washington Park and will be surrounded by 3,500 ring-side seats. There will be a back-and-forth movement for 10,000, it is estimated. The first bout will start at 8 o'clock sharp and the bouts will be kept moving in rapid-fire order. Tickets are on sale at the Claypool drug store and are meeting a ready demand. Reservations from outside the city have been good.

The ring for the great athletic carnival will be erected in the middle of the baseball diamond at Washington Park and will be surrounded by 3,500 ring-side seats. There will be a back-and-forth movement for 10,000, it is estimated. The first bout will start at 8 o'clock sharp and the bouts will be kept moving in rapid-fire order. Tickets are on sale at the Claypool drug store and are meeting a ready demand. Reservations from outside the city have been good.