

U. S. TO BORROW HUGE SUM FOR NOTE PAYMENTS

Will Need $775,000,000 to Meet
Obligations Maturing
June 15.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The Government will soon go into the market for heavy borrowings, to pay outstanding obligations which mature on June 15 and aggregate $775,000,000, it was learned at the Treasury Department today. Secretary Mellon and his advisers have not agreed upon the method, but an announcement containing details of the new financing is expected within a few days.

The maturing obligations include $380,000,000 Treasury certificates of indebtedness and $270,000,000 of 3 1/2 per cent Victory notes. The Government also will have to pay out $125,000,000 in interest on the first and second Liberty bond issues.

Large blocks of certificates and Victory notes will be redeemed in advance of maturity.

2 RECOVERING FROM INJURIES

Were Hurt in Accidents With Motorcycles.

Two persons today are recovering at the city hospital from injuries received in motorcycle accidents yesterday.

George A. Farrar, 64, Rural Route P, Box 1, was badly bruised and cut about the head when he was struck and dragged about 180 feet by a motorcycle ridden by George Warren, 17, 1924 West 10th street. The accident occurred in the 2600 block on Speedway avenue. Warren and his brother, Dave, who was riding in a side car, made an attempt to escape, but were stopped by police. Warren was charged with assault and battery, failure to stop after an accident and failure to have a license on his motorcycle.

Mrs. Fannie Jones, 45, 1123 1/2 East Washington street, was knocked down and her right arm was broken as she was crossing the street at Washington street and Highland avenue, when struck by a motorcycle ridden by Fred Hagan, 25, Washington street. Hagan was not arrested, as witnesses said Mrs. Jones walked in front of the motorcycle.

BOOKNOTES

The Century Company tells us that an interesting fact about Gilbert Frankau's novel, "The Love Story of Allette Brunton," to be published by them on May 20 (this is the novel of which English readers absorbed the details within a week after publication), is that one of the chief characters seems to represent some faithfulness the authors mother, Julia Frankau, well known as a novelist, under the pseudonym of "Frank Danby." The hero's mother, in "The Love Story of Allette Brunton," is a famous novelist, and she, faithfully an opponent even of divorce, dies of death most despatchly while she finishes a novel which shall show the world the wrong it is doing in making social outcasts of her son and "daughter" who are actually man and wife but cannot be legally married. The descriptions of this interesting and poignant character have been selected by English critics for the highest praise.

"To produce a self-governing being, not to produce a being to be governed by others."

Such is the ideal for the home laid down by Spencer, and on this text Dr. Stephen S. Wise bases his discussion of "Child Versus Parent: The Irrepressible Conflict in the Home." Dr. Wise is strongly in favor of democracy in the home, and he emphasizes parental responsibility rather than parental authority, and the need of teaching the art of service rather than the pursuit of happiness.

Dr. Wise is known throughout the country as founder and rabbi of the Free Synagogue. This institution represents the extreme of liberal or radical Judaism, but Dr. Wise is a loyal defender of every Jewish cause, even though he is grouped with the left wing.

The author says of his reason for writing this new book: "Time and again I have to avert conflict in the home. This little volume is my answer to those who wish the viewpoint of a Jewish teacher in our day touching these problems." (The Macmillan Company.)

MAY BOOKS.

Henry Holt & Co. will publish during May the following books:

"Pierre and Luce," a novel by Romain Rolland.

"Benjamin Franklin," a play by Constance D'Arcy Mackaye.

"The Secret Partner," a novel by Elizabeth Frazier.

"In Colours of the West," poems by Glenn Ward Dreshbach.

"Baldazzar Court" (revised illustrated edition), by Simon Strunsky.

"Two Little Misogynists," a story by Carl Spitteler.

Constance D'Arcy Mackaye is the first to dramatize the life of Benjamin Franklin in a full-length play. It will be published by the Holt in May.

Miss Mackaye's "Patriotic Plays and Pageants" has just been reprinted for the fourth time.

Elizabeth Frazier, whose novel "The Secret Partner," the Holt will publish in May, was war correspondent for the Saturday Evening Post during the war.

HARVARD VS. YALE.

Haywood Brown has aroused a fervid argument by his lament that Harvard, in gaining athletic pre-eminence, has sacrificed her literary supremacy to Yale. Proud sons of Harvard are busy submitting lists of their writers and poets of note.

We say may the tribe of both increase. Our two best sellers last fall—books still much in demand—were written by Harvard and Yale men respectively: Bob Vincent's "Of All Things," and Stephen Vincent Benet's "The Beginning of Wisdom."

WHY WAS DANTE GREAT.

Benedetto Croce is acknowledged to be the greatest living authority on Dante. And yet he does not deny him as a philosopher, a theologian, a political writer. In his introduction to "The Poetry of Dante" (Holt) he says: "If Dante were not, as he is, a very great poet, there would be little importance in the details of his life." This is only one example of the sanity and clarity of Croce's study of Dante, a work which will prove stimulating to both layman and student.

For New Styles and Pretty Arms

(Beauty Notes)

Women are fast learning the value of the use of delatone for removing hair or fuzz from face, neck or arms. A paste is made with some powdered delatone and water and spread on the hairy surface. In 2 or 3 minutes it is rubbed off, the skin washed and every bit of hair has disappeared. No failure will result if you are careful to buy genuine delatone and mix fresh as wanted.—Advertisement.

RADIO TO AMUSE THE KIDS

MRS. JAMES M. CURLEY AND HER SON ENJOYING A RADIO CONCERT.

Radio has brought about one less worry for mother.

She needn't rack her brains to find something to interest the baby.

Instead, radio concerts caught by the receiving set at home supplies a diversified program for the family. The grown-ups find the set as much a toy as the baby does.

In the home of James M. Curley

Library Notes

New fiction books at the Central Library include: "Signs and Wonders," by J. D. Beresford; "Garden of Memories," by H. S. Cooper; "Joy of Living," by Sidney Gowing; "Snowdrift," by J. B. Hendry; "Street of the Angels," by William Le Queux; "Oh, Susanna," by Meade Minnerode; "El Diable," by Graydon Norton; "Cornelia," by Mrs. L. F. Perkins; "Through John's Eyes," by Huntly Robertson; "River Prophet," by R. S. Spears; "Gentle Julia," by Booth Tarkington; "The Mystery Girl," by Carolyn Wells; "Sold South," by W. A. Wolf.

New technical and scientific books at the Central Library include: "Half-Century of Public Health," by American Public Health Association; "Theory of Aviation," "Handbook of Laboratory Glass Blowing," by B. D. Bolas; "Training of a Secretary," by A. L. Church; "Raw Silk," by Leo Duran; "Life and Love of the Insect," by J. H. C. Fabre; "Water Buffalo," by H. P. Garland; "Clock Repairing and Making," by F. J. Garrard; "Laboratory Manual of General Chemistry," by H. N. Holmes; "Eating for Health and Strength," by R. A. MacFadden; "Handbook of National Steel Lumber," by National Press-Steel Company; "Text Book of Quantitative Chemical Analysis by Gravimetric, Electrolytic, Volumetric and Gasometric Methods," by J. C. Olson; "City Homes on Country Lanes," by E. S. Smythe; "Military Signal Corps Manual," compiled by J. A. White.

New sociological, philosophical and religious books at Central Library: "Christian Approach to Islam," by J. L. Burton; "Text-Book of Sociology," by J. Q. Dealey; "Little Essays of Love and Virtue," by Havelock Ellis; "Facing Old Age," by Abraham Epstein; "Poverty and Dependency," by J. L. Gillin; "Kismet, and the Nations," by E. M. North; "Working with the Working Woman," by Mrs. C. S. Parker; "Asia at the Crossroads," by E. A. Powell; "What is Social Case Work?" by M. E. Richmond; "America and the Young Intellectual," by H. E. Stearns; "Beloved Ego," by Wilhelm Stekel; and "Full Up and Fed Up," by Whiting Williams.

Books of poetry, essays and plays new at Central Library: "Fir-Flower Tablets," (poems) translated by Mrs. Florence Ayscough; "Latest Thing and Other Things," by Alexander Black; "Greatest Poems," by Witter Bynner; "Thomas Hardy, Poet and Novelist," by G. C. Chew; "The Spring: A Play," by S. C. Cook; "Modern Russian Poetry," edited and translated by Babette Deutsch; "Cotswold Characters," by John Drinkwater; "Colors of Life," (poems) by Max Eastman; "Every Day Poems," by George Elliston; "Reveries of a Psychologist," by G. S. Hall; "Poems," by Ralph Hodgson; "Dramatic Theory and Practice in France, 1600-1800," by E. F. Jourdain; "Beggars' Vision," by J. B. More; "Song of Roland," done in English, in the original measure; "Collected Poems," by Edward Thomas; "Irish Poets of Today," compiled by L. D. Walters; and "Book of Yale Verse."

New books of travel, history and biography at Central Library: "American Portraits," 1875-1900, by Gamaliel Bradford; "My Boyhood," by John Burroughs; "The Trip Abroad," by Charles Chapple; "Why Lincoln Laughed," by R. H. Conwell; "Historic Costumes," by S. H. Ditchett; "Things Seen in Florence," by E. H. Gerson; "Moonlight in Moscow," by M. E. Harrison; "History of the Mongols, from the Ninth to the Nineteenth Century," by Sir H. H. Howorth; "Inns and Taverns of Pickwick," by B. W. Katz; "In Unknown China," by Samuel Pollard; "Travels of Marco Polo, the Venetian," by Marco Polo; "Travel in the Two Last Centuries of Three Generations," edited by S. R. Rogge; "Outlook for the Philippines," by C. E. Russell; "Prime Ministers and Presidents," by C. H. Sherrill; "Life and Letters of Sir Wilfrid Laurier," by O. D. Skelton; "The Russian Advance," by Stanley Washburn.

SUMMER BEAUTY HINT

Hair is by far the most conspicuous thing about us and is probably the most easily damaged by bad or careless treatment. If we are very careful in hair washing, we will have virtually no hair troubles. An especially fine shampoo for this weather, one that brings out all the natural beauty of the hair, that dissolves and entirely removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt, can easily be used at trifling expense by simply dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox (which you can get at any drugist's), in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. This chemically dissolves all impurities and creates a soothing, cooling lather. Rinsing leaves the scalp spotlessly clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on the glossy richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem much heavier than it is. After canthrox shampoo, arranging the hair is a pleasure.—Advertisement.

Big Emma, 'Lifter' Queen, Meets Death in Poverty

Once Wealthy Leader of Thief Band Kills
Companion and Herself.

CHICAGO, May 23.—Musty police records were brought to light today and an amazing story of the career of Mrs. Emma Weir, "the million-dollar lifter," was constructed. Mrs. Weir and her inseparable companion, Mrs. Rickey Gunther, were found dead in the Weir home yesterday.

Mrs. Weir, according to the police, was known as "Big Emma" and for years was the directing head of one of the most notorious bands of shoplifters in Chicago. More than a dozen years ago it was noticed the plunder taken by the band aggregated more than $1,500,000. So daring and clever were "Big Emma's" methods, police say, that apprehension of her or her associates was extremely difficult.

The police believe "Big Emma's" career came to an end by suicide that followed murder. The body of Mrs. Gunther was bruised and bore evidence of violence. Mrs. Weir's body, with a gas tube in the mouth, was found in another room and between this room and where Mrs. Gunther lay were several tightly closed doors.

Mrs. Gunther's daughter and neighbor of Mrs. Weir declare the two had quarreled after years of closest friendship and Mrs. Weir had promised to see that "we both go to sleep and never awaken."

Many innovations in shoplifting were credited to "Big Emma" during her career. She is said to have introduced the "split skirt," with improvised pockets beneath, in which thousands of dollars' worth of loot was carried from stores. In the hey-day of her career "Big Emma" used to drive to the shopping district with a stylish "four-in-hand" drawn by blooded horses.

Members of "Big Emma's" gang finally were apprehended by the police and many are now in prison. The woman herself served a short term in Joliet prison. With the breaking up of her band, poverty came to "Big Emma" and she died.

Roaring Camp Recalls Days of Gold Rush

SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 23.—Sacramento today turned back the calendar 73 years and was a roaring mining camp of the gold rush days.

The "days of '49 celebration"—the city's attempt to revive for a time the romantic spirit of the days when gold was washed from river sands and spent in gambling halls, opened when "General Gutter," impersonated by Hobart Bosworth, actor, landed on the banks of the Sacramento River and fought his way against hordes of Indians, to Gutter's fort on the outskirts of the city.

OUIJA BOARDERS

CHICAGO, May 23.—Love-sick girls by the scores are being driven to the point of suicide by the ouija board, according to Gen. Hallington-Booth of New York, president of the Volunteers of America, who is a visitor here today.

"The ouija board tells a girl her sweetheart doesn't love her," said Gen. Booth. "She then decides to end it all."

He said the ouija board, already abolished in some States, should be legislated out everywhere.

L. S. AYRES & Co.

Gingham Porch Dresses That Are Unusually Chic

Twelve new models in gingham porch dresses are really "porch dresses" in name only, for according to their standards of quality, workmanship and mode they are socially eligible to much more ostentatious places and occasions than their appellation implies.

It's Only Their Prices
That Are Low

Ranging Modestly From
$2.95 to $6.95

There are large-checked ginghams with embroidered pique collars and cuffs and distended pockets. These are tailored. One is shown at the extreme right; $2.95.

Fine-checked ginghams with organdie collars, cuffs and vests, some with hand embroidered panel effects that are quite stunning top the price range at $6.95.

Then there are these delicate kinds as grace the other two figures in the accompanying picture, inset with gingham-crisscrossed organdie.

Women who buy these dresses, who feel their softness of quality, inspect the nice finishing and view their attractive styles, will immediately realize (yes, and take advantage of) the unusual efforts we have put forth to offer clever and good dresses at remarkably low prices.

—Ayres—House dress dept., third floor.

A Wednesday Sale of Toiletries Pertinent to the Summer Season

Talcums

Lazell's assorted talcum, 16¢.

William's assorted talcum, 2 for 25¢.

Colgate's Baby or Eclat talcum, 12¢.

Sylvan talcum, 12¢.

Mme. Ise's assorted talcum, 20¢.

Miro Dena Elcassia, Violet or Muguet talcum, 25¢.

Freckle Creams and Lotions

Cadeurka's lotion, 89¢.

Creme de Citron, 50¢.

Dr. Berry's freckle cream, 49¢.

Sheehan's Quince Seed cream, 35¢.

For the Bath

Assorted bath salts, $1.25.

Bath sponges, 25¢.

Bath brushes, with handles, 69¢.

Aerolette bath tablets, newly imported from England, 35¢.

Hand pumice, 10¢.

Abonita lilac vegetable, 89¢.

Amami bath powder, 60¢.

Bay rum, 45¢.

Bulk Perfumes

Djer-Kiss, $1.50 ounce.

Coty's L'Origan, $1.75 ounce.

Amy's LaBoheme, $3.00 ounce.

Amy's Jasmine, $3.00 ounce.

Rigaud's Mary Garden, $2.40 ounce.

—Ayres—Toiletries, street floor.

For the Picnic or Auto Trip

ONE-GALLON JUG

To Keep Foods or
Liquids Hot or Cold

The jug pictured is a seal-packed one gallon container that will retain ice for twenty-four hours—hot liquid twelve hours—ice cream ten hours.

It is equipped with a detachable drinking cup and is non-breakable, making it particularly suitable for use on a picnic or auto-trip where rough treatment is only too apt to be its lot. Take one to the races.

Price, $3.75

—Ayres—Luggage,
sixth floor.

New German Envoy Forgets to Bring Along Credentials

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Dr. Otto Wilefeld, the new German ambassador to the United States, has been in a most embarrassing position since his arrival in Washington.

He has been in the capital for more than a week now, and has not yet been received by President Harding. This fact has caused a great deal of comment in diplomatic quarters.

Today the terrible truth came out. Dr. Wilefeld left Berlin so hastily that he forgot his letters of credence and he cannot be formally presented at the White House until he has 'em.

MOTHER-IN-LAW AGAIN!

NEW YORK, May 23.—"I didn't like the Army, but I prefer it to living with my mother-in-law," said Henry Ferguson, when arrested for deserting his wife.

DOWNSTAIRS at AYRES'

Men, Women and Children Can Be Fitted in New

Shoes in a Sale 98c—$1.69

Here Is a Resume of the Shoes at These Prices

For Children,
Shoes at 98c

Play oxfords and barefoot sandals, in mahogany calf and patent leather, 6 to 8, 8 1/2 to 12 and 11 1/2 to 2.

For Men, at $1.69
Tan Work Shoes
Sizes 6 to 10

For Women,
at $1.69

High and low shoes; in sizes from 6 to 10 and from 2 1/2 to 7 1/2.

Special Purchases Featured in Downstairs Yard Goods

These purchases, from leading jobbers and mill agents of New York, bring to you new and seasonable fabrics at prices which represent substantial savings.

Women who sew will find values they can easily appreciate; they will find it to their advantage always to visit this department before buying yard goods; they will realize that here every effort has been made to increase the purchasing value of their money.

Fine Percales, 20c Yd.

Yard wide; high count; shirting patterns; stripes, figures and checks; also some dress checks in gold, lavender, green and blue. Very special.

White Pique, 15c Yd.

27 inches wide; in narrow and wide wale, suitable for summer skirts, children's coats, white only.

Woven and Printed Shirting, 25c Yd.

36 inches wide; very desirable for men's shirts.

Standard Percales, 12 1/2c Yd.

Yard wide; limited assortment of striped and figured patterns; limit of 10 yards to customer.

New Feather Pillows, $1 Each

Made of new hen feathers, dry picked; covered with heavy weight tickings, in satin finish; have patented ventilator to keep the feathers fresh and fluffy; 21x27 inches.

Cotton Shantung, 29c Yard

Highly mercerized; yard wide, very useful just now for men's and boys' shirts, for draperies, dresses and the like; cool and dainty; in natural, tan, rose, pink, blue, gray, brown and white.

Cotton Poplins, 29c Yd.

Mercerized finish; 27 inches wide; for dresses; light and dark blue, green, old rose, pink, lavender.

Fine Ginghams, 17 1/2c Yd.

22 inches wide; large assortment of checked, stripes, plaids and plain shades.

Kimono Crepe, 29c Yd.

32 inches wide; short lengths of serpentine crepe; excellent for kimonos, etc.

Ripplette 29c Yd.

Mothers appreciate the value of Ripplette for children's summer clothes, as well as for underwear, etc.

Novelty Voiles, 35c Yard

Woven stripes and plaids; in various color combinations; some have the embroidered clipped patterns one finds in foreign fabrics; all are 36 inches wide. Fine for summer frocks.

Checked Dimities and Leno Checks, 25c Yard

Checks and plaids; in a fine, soft finish; the very thing for underwear.

Several of the patterns, particularly the Leno checks, are also suitable for dainty bedroom curtains.

Shirting Percales, 17c Yd.

Good finish; yard wide; good assortment of shirting patterns. 10 to 20-yard lengths.

Dimity Remnants, 19c Yd.

36 inches wide; in checks and plaids of various sizes, no woven stripe; all white.

Bath Towels, 29c Ea.

Heavy weight Turkish Towels, also athletic rib towels, 17x34 inches.

Jack Towels, 19c

and blue border; guest towels.

Silk Remnants, $1.59 Yard

Crepe de Chine, Canton Crepe, Crepe Satin, Romaine Crepe, in plenty of staple shades and also new shades.

Curtain Scrims, 15c Yd.

Yard wide; several border designs; also some plain marquisette; white and beige.

Lingerie Sateen, 35c Yd.

Very fine; yard wide, extra soft and lustrous; in copen, lavender, nile, pink, flesh, gold, red, tan and brown; short lengths, from 1 to 10 yards.

Bedspreads, $1.98 Each

Heavy weight crocheted spreads, of new design; size 81x90 inches; unusually good quality at the price.

Wash Rags, 5c Each

Good quality, soft yet firmly woven; colored border; SECONDS.

Silk and Cotton Mill Ends, 39c Yd.

Yard wide, suited for linings; many colors and patterns.

Some More Dresses at $15

See Tomorrow Night's Paper

WHEN the success of last week's great $15 Dress Sale became apparent, our buyer immediately left for New York to find, if possible, another group of equally good values.

Some of this latest purchase has already arrived; in styles, materials, colors, sizes they are fully equal to the smart Summer silks of last week's sale.

See the Details Tomorrow Night

L. S. AYRES & CO.—DOWNSTAIRS STORE