COLONELS AND INDIANS SPLIT

Twin Bill Tuesday Sees Each Club Win—Third Contest Today.

"Turn about is fair play" was adopted as a motto by the Indians and Colonels yesterday in the double bill at Washington Park and after the locals had given the Kentuckians a real trouncing in the first game, the Indians won the second, and the Colonels won the third.

CHAMPS COME OUT OF SHELLS

Kilbane and Leonard Finally Agree to Risk Crowns in Coming Battles.

By DAVIS J. WALSH.
NEW YORK, May 31.—Two of our most famous champions are to emerge from the cocoon in a very short time, one to defend his title against a good second-rater, the other to engage in a no-decision bout with the only man who seems to have a real chance.
