

RAILROADS TO MEET STRIKE ISSUE JULY 1

Ultimatum Issued to Heads of Systems Sets Forth Workers' Demands.

PREFER WALKOUT OF LABOR

Associated Employers Meet to Consider Message From Jewell.

By United Press
CHICAGO, June 28.—Railroads moved today to place all shop work under the contract system, to meet the strike workers, set for July 1.

This is opposed by the United States Railroad Labor Board. Executives claim that the men, by striking, will violate the board's ruling first.

An ultimatum was sent by the shop craft to the Association of Railroad Executives.

Railway executives, it was announced today will meet in Chicago tomorrow to consider Jewell's ultimatum.

Unions Await Concessions
Union leaders will meet half way concession granted by the railway executives. The general impression, however, was that the railways would refuse to comply with any of the demands made.

Action of Pennsylvania
Action of the Pennsylvania Railway in meeting wage demands of its employees, thus preventing a strike on that road, may have some tendency to avert a general strike. More than 42,000 are affected by the Pennsylvania adjustment.

The demands were: That the managements ignore the recent labor board order authorizing a $60,000,000 dollar cut in the annual pay of shopmen; that the managements restore certain working rules eliminated by the labor board; and that certain roads abandon the practice of contracting certain labor.

DRASTIC ACTION COMING

Government Recognizes Crisis as Gravest in Administration.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, June 28.—Immediate and drastic action by the Federal Government in the event of a strike of 1,000,000 rail workers on July 1 is probable, it was learned from high authorities here today.

President Harding is determined to uphold the railway labor board in whatever action it takes against the railway workers or the railways.

Its decisions are to be enforced with all the power at the Federal Government's command.

Because the strike will be directed against a decision of the board cutting wages, Federal officials believe the Government has the power to act, in contrast to its virtual helplessness to force a termination of the coal strike.

The probability of a rail strike with a large percentage of the coal mines of the country idle presents to the Administration its most grave domestic problem since President Harding assumed office.

There is no doubt that with the first pinch of a coal shortage near, the situation is causing concern in official circles.

HARDING CALLS MINERS TO MEET WITH OPERATORS

Hopes to Bring About Termination of Nation-Wide Coal Strike.

SATURDAY DATE IS FIXED

Radical Legislation Proposed in Congress by Pennsylvania Representative.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, June 28.—President Harding today called a conference of the coal miners and operators in the central competitive field, which he hopes will bring about the termination of the nation-wide coal strike for Saturday morning.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, was called into conference by Secretary of Labor Davis shortly before noon. Indications then were that Davis made a final effort to induce Lewis to modify his views regarding a miners-operators conference.

Government seizure and operation of the coal mines for at least a year is provided in a resolution introduced in the House today by Representative Burke, Pennsylvania, a union labor leader. The resolution authorized and directs the President to take over and operate the mines for a year or as long thereafter as he sees fit.

MORE LEPROS RELEASED

"Mount Hawaii" Is New Name for Hospital, Once Despoiled.

HONOLULU, Hawaii, June 28.—Leprosy is now so far from being the hopeless horror it once was, that the patients at the Kalaikihi receiving hospital on Oahu in the outskirts of Honolulu have rechristened that institution "Mount Hawaii."

The voice of science has released ten more Kalaikihi leprosy patients. By the use of the Dean specific, developed from the oil of the chaulmoogra tree, the disease has been "arrested"—the doctors put it—in these victims, and they are free to mingle again with their relatives and friends, subject only to periodic examinations and their parole not to leave the islands. To all intents and purposes they are cured. The parole system is the safeguard science grows about the patients, lest they fail to take proper care of themselves and suffer a relapse.

It has been nearly two years since the last patient was sent from Kalaikihi to the leper settlement of Kalaupapa in Kalawao, on the island of Molokai. More and more of those in touch with the operation of the Kalaikihi station, as well as the officials at Kalaupapa, believe no more patients will be sent to the once so-called "Lonely Isle."

Jack McVeigh, superintendent at Kalaupapa, who is acting chairman of the territorial board of health, has just returned from an inspection trip of the island of Hawaii, and says he found great improvement in all the paroled patients on that island.

HELL'S TICKET OFFICES, SAYS DENVER LAWYER

Dance Halls Must Close if Crusade in Denver Is Successful.

DENVER, June 28.—Denouncing dance halls as "ticket offices to hell," John Hipp, Denver lawyer and noted crusader in the West in the campaign for national prohibition, has joined forces with the Denver Federated Church Council in a movement to close all public dance halls in this city.

Sunday dancing at local amusement parks has aroused considerable antagonism, and a legal battle between the city and the management of at least one park is imminent, following an arrest for violation of a State law in permitting dancing on Sunday. The park manager who was arrested has also threatened to invoke Colorado's "blue laws" against Sunday moves, street traffic, newspaper sales, cigar stores and drug stores if his Sunday dance hall is closed.

The art of terpsichore, as practiced to the strains of modern jazz music, was bitterly attacked by Mr. Hipp, who characterized jazz dancing as a "quintessence of carnality." "When I charge that dance halls are ticket offices to hell," Mr. Hipp said, "I speak with knowledge of the hellish conditions that prevail in these places."

"I take no issue against dancing as dancing. I have no doubt that dancing, when properly done, is an excellent exercise and is conducive to grace and beauty. Dancing has been the handmaiden of religion and of art, but how it has been prostituted in recent years."

"If we are to have men and women worthy to become parents of the coming generation we must abolish the present-day dance hall as we have abolished the saloon. I would as soon have my son frequent a saloon as to have my daughter go to dance halls."

"The modern dance, with its accompanying music, is nothing if not carnal; it leads to carnality, and when kept up for hours, leads straight to hell."

"Two-thirds of the women of the street fall as a result of the dance hall," Hipp said.

"Men Have Carnal Thoughts" "A majority of the men who frequent dance halls go there with nothing but carnal thoughts in their minds. The youth who goes to the dance hall looking for clean pleasure is considered lacking carnal technique."

Hipp declared that innocence could not endure in dance halls where "the atmosphere is heavy with sensual music, and men and women seem to be held together with adhesive plaster."

"Many girls," Hipp concluded, "who would be indignant if they were asked by their mothers to assist in the household duties after their day's work, go to dance halls and dance until midnight huddled close to some man who has just one purpose in his mind—to get closer. It's vile and wicked and must be done away with."

"Tanic has them all beat," said Paul Kennedy, R. F. D. E. West Terre Haute, Ind., miner for the Vandalia Coal Co., in telling of his recovery by taking this remarkable medicine.

"For two years I suffered the worst way from indigestion. I had no appetite and when I did eat didn't agree with me. I used to have awful dizzy spells, black spots danced before my eyes. I felt sickish and faint, and would get up in the morning feeling miserable. I spent a lot of money for different medicines but they didn't fit my case. Then a friend advised me to take Tanlac."

"Well, I feel like a different person now. I eat three square meals a day, never have any distress, and have gained ten pounds. I sure have to hand it to Tanlac."

Tanic is sold by all good druggists. Adv.
