

Indianapolis Favorites Remain in Running of National Tennis Tourney

LOCAL PLAYERS SHOWING GREAT FORM IN MEET

Bastian, Burdick and Hennessey Win—Sagalowsky in Junior Semi-Finals.

MEN'S DOUBLES START

Boys' First Round Scores
First round matches today in boys' tourney at Woodstock resulted as follows: Wiener, Philadelphia, defeated Kohn, Indianapolis, 6-1, 6-0; Christina, Indianapolis, defeated Markey, Indianapolis, 6-3, 6-4; Donaldson, Detroit, defeated Halloway, Chicago, 6-0, 6-2; Von Berg, Indianapolis, defeated R. Carter, Chicago, 1-6, 6-4, 6-3. Retrier, Indianapolis, defeated Chevret, Indianapolis, 6-4, 6-2; Reed won from Ward by default; Strachan, Philadelphia, defeated Hadley, Indianapolis, 6-1, 6-3; Kaffenberger, Indianapolis, defeated McKown, Indianapolis, 6-4, 6-1.

Christina's defeat of Markey and Von Berg's defeat of R. Carter were considered upsets.

Local favorites continue in the running in the national clay court tennis tourney being held at the Woodstock Club. Bastian, Burdick and Hennessey came through Tuesday's play in fine form and pleased their many Indianapolis admirers mightily by their splendid showing. Sagalowsky has reached the semi-final round of the Junior meet.

Competition is getting stiffer as the tourney progresses and the locals were due to run into some terrific struggles today. Hennessey had his task cut out for him when he met Wray Brown of St. Louis, the runner-up in the recent intercollegiate meet in the East. Bastian was to meet Benjamin Parks of Armory, Pa., and Burdick was to meet Arthur Hubbell of Chicago.

Champion Meets Texas
William Tilden, national champion, was expected to run into more trouble than he has yet encountered when he played Adous of Texas in a 4 o'clock match today. The world's champ had little trouble in his Tuesday's match with Don Turner, winning, 6-0, 6-1.

Zenzo Shimizu was scheduled to play Phil Bettens of California at 3 o'clock today, and fans looked for another good battle. In Tuesday's play Sanders of St. Paul gave the Japanese a good fight, but Shimizu's ability to return everything sent over the net finally won him two straight sets, 6-4, 6-3.

Garland's showing in the meet so far has led some to believe that he will go to the finals. Today he was to meet Kuhler of Cincinnati in a 4:30 match. Garland won over Barr of Dallas Tuesday in straight sets, 6-2, 6-2.

Westbrook, the Conference champion, remained in the play. He was to meet Haupt today in what was expected to be a thrilling struggle.

Four Juniors Battle.
Four players remain in the junior meet. Sagalowsky is the only local hope. The time of the semi-finals in the junior event was set at 4 o'clock today. The schedule called for "Sag" to meet Leonard Reed of Pittsburgh, a great player. Two Chicago players, Lott and Rosenberger were to fight it out in the other match.

The men's doubles were carded to start today with one of the feature matches, the first on the bill, when Garland-Hardy met Tilden-Weiner at 2 o'clock. The Wright-Shimizu vs. Hutchinson-Sanders battle was expected to be one of the features of the day.

The boys' event started today. It is not classed as a national event, but rather as an open tourney.

The results of yesterday's play in the men's tourney here follow:
Charles Garland, Pittsburgh, defeated John Barr, Dallas, Texas, 6-2, 6-2; Fritz Bastian, Indianapolis, defeated Ted Hurren, St. Louis, 6-2, 6-2; William Tilden, Philadelphia, defeated Don Turner, Chicago, 6-0, 6-1; Wray Brown, St. Louis, defeated Leo Lunn, Chicago, 6-1, 6-1; John Hennessey, Indianapolis, defeated George Lott, Worthen, Columbus, 6-1, 7-5; George Lott, Chicago, defeated Frank Donovan, Detroit, 6-2, 6-1; Louis Kuhn, Cincinnati, Ohio, defeated Mincey Kohn, Indianapolis, 6-1, 6-1; Phil Bettens, California, defeated Ed Lott, Cleveland, 6-3, 6-1; J. B. Adoue, Dallas, Texas, defeated Karl Rammann, St. Louis, 6-1, 6-1; Zenzo Shimizu, Japan, defeated Clarence Sanders, St. Paul, 6-4, 6-3; Ed Haupt, Cincinnati, defeated George Reeves, Chicago, 7-5, 7-6, 6-3; Walter Westbrook, Detroit, defeated White, Armory, Pa., 6-4, 6-2; Ralph Burdick, Indianapolis, defeated Roy Coffin, Philadelphia, 6-1, 6-3; Benjamin Parks, Armory, Pa., defeated Editt, Cleveland, 6-2, 6-2.

Tuesday's junior results:
Mol Rosenberger, Detroit, defeated William Dorgan, Terre Haute, 6-2, 6-2; Philip Muller, Kokomo, defeated Don Strachan, Philadelphia, 6-0, 6-0; Julius Sagalowsky, Indianapolis, defeated Leland Haworth, Indianapolis, 6-2, 6-0; Frank Donovan, Detroit, defeated Hince Orme, Jr., Indianapolis, 6-4, 6-2; Byron Dunn, Detroit, defeated Sandy Wiener, Philadelphia, 6-3, 6-1; Mol Rosenberger, Chicago, defeated Phil Muller, Kokomo, 6-0, 7-5; Julius Sagalowsky, Indianapolis, defeated Frank Donovan, Detroit, 6-4, 6-2; Leonard Reed, Pittsburgh, defeated Byron Dunn, Detroit, 6-0, 6-4; George Lott, Chicago, defeated Guy Dixon, Indianapolis, 6-1, 6-3.

In a special mixed doubles match yesterday Johnny Hennessey and Mrs. H. S. Adams, women's Western champion, defeated Ralph Burdick and Mrs. C. W. Adams, New Jersey State champion, 7-5, 7-5.

Other Holiday Bouts
RUTLAND, Vt.—Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion, knocked out Al Demaris, sixth-rater, in the eighth round.

CANTON, Ohio—Carl Tremaine, Cleveland bantam, won a twelve-round decision from Jabez White, Albany.

AT MACON, GA.—Young Stribling earned the decision over Jake Abel in ten rounds.

AT TERRE HAUTE—Bud Taylor outpointed Babe Asher in ten rounds. Eddie Connors outpointed Billy Long.

AT ASHLAND, Ky.—Bill Brennan outpointed Bob Martin in twelve rounds.

AT YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio—Jimmy Jones, Alliance, won from Soldier Barthfield, Brooklyn, in twelve rounds.

LEONARD BACK IN OLD GRACES OF GLOVE FANS

New York Ring Followers Forget Mean Things Muttered Last Week.

HE'S A REAL CHAMPION

By HENRY FARRELL, United Press Sports Editor.
NEW YORK, July 5.—Such a beautiful thing as the friendship between Benny Leonard and Rocky Kansas had to be sacrificed yesterday to satisfy the aching heart of the world's lightweight champion.

Because the fans said nasty things about him after he had lost on a foul to Jack Britton and because he had been sneeringly referred to as a "good fighter" several years ago, Leonard had to go out and clip his little playmate on the chin.

In forcing handers of Kansas to toss in a sponge in the eighth round yesterday in Michigan City, Leonard showed that he is still just about as good as he was and wants to be.

Leonard always has been better than Kansas, but smart business men in the ring hesitate to knock off a good card when they figure him to be worth a return fight. Leonard apparently reached the point where he decided a continuation of the Leonard-Kansas firm to be unnecessary. So he bumped off Rocky.

Forcing Kansas to quit isn't being done every week in the year. The Buffalo lightweight is one of the toughest fighters in the ring and when Leonard put him out he showed that he isn't the helpless victim for Lew Tendler, July 27 at Jersey City, that many thought a week ago.

MURPHY WINS AT TACOMA

Tommy Milton Second Only Six Seconds Behind Winner.

TACOMA, Wash., July 5.—Jimmy Murphy nosed out Tommy Milton in the 260-mile auto race here Tuesday when Milton was forced to stop and change a tire in the 25th mile.

Tommy had led all the way, but relinquish the lead to Murphy at the time he changed tires and was never able to regain the lead thereafter. Milton was only six seconds behind the winner at the finish.

Murphy drove a Murphy Special and Milton a Leach Special. Roscoe Searles in a Duesenberg was third, Jerry Wonderlich in a Duesenberg fourth and Harry Hartz in a Duesenberg fifth. The time of the winner was 2 hours, 33 minutes, 55.5 seconds.

DOPE RUNS TO FORM AND LEONARD IS STILL CHAMP

Kansas Makes Game Showing, But Suffers Lots of Punishment.

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., July 5.—It usually happens that way—the champion gets the long end of the money and the contender gets the short end and a smashed mush and a broken bone or two.

Dope ran true to form yesterday afternoon when Benny Leonard, champion of the lightweight boxers, scored a technical knockout over Rocky Kansas of Buffalo in the eighth round when the latter's seconds tossed in the sponge.

Net result: Leonard gained all of the honors, and, better still, perhaps, from his point of view, the money, and the beaten man gained a terrible looking face and a fracture of the left forearm, received in the third round.

The fight ended in the eighth with Leonard slugging away at his man with a great deal of vigor and the hapless little fellow from the upper part of the Empire State defending himself as best he could, which wasn't much.

Leonard is a champion. Rocky Kansas is just a great, little, willing fellow of the highest type of gameness. He has beaten Lew Tendler, but as a boxer of the wonderful Leonard type, well, there can be no argument. Benny has it on him a dozen ways and then back again.

In the eighth round there was some doubt among the spectators whether the sponge or the police stopped the fight. In any event, Kansas was out on his feet. His second threw in the sponge to prevent further punishment. Almost at the same moment the police jumped into the ring with the same intent.

Physicians said today it is probable that Kansas will be unable to box again for at least two months as a result of his fractured arm.

AT MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Pal Moore of Memphis and Sammy Mandell, Rockford, Ill., fought eight rounds, with ringiders differing on a decision.
