

CAMP CROSLY MAKES MEN OF INDIANA YOUTH

Moral, Mental and Physical Training for 200 at Lake
Resort.

DAY AND NIGHT ACTIVITIES

Former Wabash College Athlete Is Directing Season's Program.

By HEZE CLARK
Times Staff Correspondent.

NORTH WEBSTER, July 13.—The boy of today is the athlete of tomorrow. The training he receives today morally, mentally and physically will make him the real man in the future.

On the east shore of Tippecanoe Lake in Kosciusko County, there is a boys camp where about 200 boys receive the training that will make them good men. This camp is known as Camp Crosby and it is under the auspices of the Muncie Y. M. C. A. The public spirited men of Muncie, however, have not limited the enrollment of boys in the camp to Delaware County boys, but boys in every part of the State can go to the camp.

Eighth Year of Camp

It is the eighth year of Camp Crosby. A big athletic field, tennis court, jumping pits and standards, running tracks, baseball diamonds and volleyball courts, form an important part of the camp. It is here the boys are taught not only to play these games and reap the physical benefit from them, but they are taught true clean sportsmanship.

Not only do the boys also have a wonderful chance to learn to swim but if already swimmers, to improve themselves in the aquatic art. Water sports at Camp Crosby are made. The shallow water with sandy bottom affords a wonderful place for the beginner. The boys are constantly under the watchful eye of expert swimmers when they are in the water or in boats. The moral stand of Camp Crosby is very high.

Pettijohn Is Director

H. A. Pettijohn, a former Wabash College man, who is in charge of the boys department at the Muncie Y. M. C. A., is the director of the camp. While he has perfect discipline still he does it in a way that makes him the idol of every boy in camp.

Night stunts are held in the big screened-in dining room and the boys gather around the big open fire place. There is real talent shown by these Hoosier boys. They are playing basketball and other stunts pass the evening. Boys between the ages of 10 and 19 gather each year at the camp just a mile and a half from North Webster, and late in the summer return to their homes better morally, mentally and physically for the training they have received.

Scenes in Rail Strike in Slater, Mo.

Slater, Mo., is the first city in the country where Federal marshals took command after local authorities failed to keep order in connection with the strike of railroad shopmen. The pictures above show strike scenes in and around Slater. O. A. "Buck" Lindsay, United States marshal in charge of the Government force, is shown at the upper left. Upper right shows pickets of the striking shopmen gathered at the depot to inspect trains coming into Slater for work to be done at the Chicago & Alton shops. Lower left shows E. L. Marquette, superintendent of the Chicago & Al-

DIES FROM OLD BITE

Victim of Dog's Attack Suffered From Wound For Year.

PASCOGA, R. I.—Robert Pollard, 40 years old, of this town, died a few days ago of hydrophobia, a year after he was bitten by a dog which died of rabies. With four other men, Pollard was bitten by a dog in July of last year. The five took the Pasteur treatment. The other four felt no ill effects, but two months ago Pollard complained of illness. He submitted to treatment, but his case proved baffling to his physician and finally another doctor was called in. Recently Pollard became much worse and Sunday was seized with violent spasms, which convinced his physicians his affliction was hydrophobia from the year-old infection. He died in agony.

UNION OF OLD FAMILIES REVIVES WAR MEMORIES

By United Press

LONDON, England, July 13.—The cream of London society, the King and Queen, and diplomatic representatives of foreign nations will turn out en masse July 15 to attend the wedding of Edwina Ashley to Lord Mountbatten. The Prince of Wales will be best man.

Popular interest is aroused in the match for it unites the famous houses of Battenburg and Cassel, which suffered heart-breaking experiences during the war because of their German origin.

Lord Mountbatten, who is just twenty-one, is the son of the late Prince Louis Battenburg, of the German House of Hesse, who was one of the war's tragic figures. Born in Germany, Prince Louis came to England as a boy and became a naturalized British subject. He entered the navy, rose to the rank of Admiral and became first sea lord in 1912, giving loyal service in preparing England's navy for the World War. But popular clamor was directed at him because of his German ancestry and though he pointed to his son, the present Lord Mountbatten who was fighting in the British navy, he was compelled to retire. King George, who was his cousin incidentally, anglicized his name from Battenburg to Mountbatten. His son suffered less and his friendship with the Prince of Wales continued unbroken.

Miss Ashley comes of an equally distinguished family, being the grand daughter of the late Sir Ernest Cassel, one of the world's most famous financiers. He also was an anglicized German. His driving genius built the great Assouan Dam that turned the Nile valley into a fertile realm. He reconstructed the finances of Argentina and helped float the big Chinese loan after the war with Japan. He gave fortunes to Jewish charities.

Miss Ashley was his favorite granddaughter and on his death, nearly a year ago, he left her $100,000,000, making her the richest woman in Europe.

SOLDIERING IN FAR EAST BEST PAYING PLACES

Third of Men in Republic Draw Good Wages for Their Time.

WASHINGTON — Soldiering has come into its own in the newest of republics. In the Far Eastern republic, in Siberia, soldiering is the best paying steady job at present, and about one-third of the adult male population follow it as a means of livelihood. It provides an existence, something that has been extremely uncertain in Siberia, and in addition there is a well-defined necessity for an army, which makes military service a patriotic duty. The army is not well equipped, comfortably clothed or sufficiently fed, but it has shown its willingness and ability to fight, which makes it an important factor in the life of the world's youngest republic.

"The Far Eastern republic has an area of about 445,000 square miles, a population of 1,500,000 and an army numbering between 50,000 and 60,000," says a writer in the Army and Navy Journal. "This is supplemented as the political exigencies or local conditions demand by bands of so-called 'Partisans'—a Siberian version of the American Minute Men of '76—who take the family rifle and join the ranks until the emergency has passed. The republic's military force is extremely flexible and guerrilla warfare is a conspicuous part of its activities.

MINE OPERATORS TIE STRINGS TO PROPOSAL'S O. K.

Anthracite Men Accept Harding's Plan With Reservations.

SUGGEST THREE CHANGES

Workers' Leaders Study Reply as Representing Whole Industry.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Anthracite operators attach strings to their acceptance of President Harding's proposal in the strike situation, tending to confirm the growing belief all parties concerned demand modifications. Agreeing to the President's suggestion that, pending a permanent scale, "the mine workers are to return to work on the scale of wages which expired last March," the anthracite operators counter with the following suggestions:

1—A separate commission study and arbitrate the anthracite controversy.

2—This commission fix a wage scale other than the present scale.

3—A temporary wage scale expiring March 1923 will not prevent a recurrence of the present unfortunate situation.

Union Officials Study

President John L. Lewis and Vice President Philip Murray of the United Mine Workers, now in Washington, the both studying the anthracite operators' reply. They believe it may represent the stand to be taken by the bituminous operators.

The miners wish to know officially whether President Harding is satisfied the men representing the bituminous operators are duly authorized to negotiate a strike settlement to be applied to every union operator in the United States, it was said.

Further concern is felt by the miners as to whether the arbitration commission to be created by Congress under the President's proposal will be as powerful as the railroad labor board, with power to order men back to work and to conduct a subsequent investigation into the coal controversy.

AGAINST PROPOSAL

National Coal Association Says Costs Will Be Increased.

By United Press

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 13.—Sentiment of the regular quarterly meeting of directors of the National Coal Association was against President Harding's plan of arbitration to end the coal strike.

Production costs would be increased 30 to 40 per cent if the strikers returned to work under the old scale, the operators explained in a letter to Secretary of Commerce Hoover.

SCRAP SHOWS STILL WORKING IN APARTMENT

Janitor and Assistant Quarrel Over Who Should Sweep.

NEW YORK—A quarrel between George Schmidt, superintendent of an apartment house, and his assistant, Mrs. Annie Suring, led to the discovery by police of a twenty-five gallon still in operation in the basement, three barrels of corn mash and several bottles of liquor.

The shrill blasts of police whistles aroused the neighborhood yesterday morning and patrolmen responded. They entered the cellar, where the angry disputants argued over whose duty it was to do some sweeping.

"What's the trouble?" asked a policeman.

"You should ask me what's the matter," the woman replied. "This man has a still, for one thing."

In a rear room the officers found the still and other paraphernalia.

TIMELY BEAUTY HINTS

Society women wash their own hair, not because it is a fad, but because they wish to obtain the greatest possible hair beauty and be sure they are not using anything harmful. They have found that in washing the hair it is never wise to use a makeshift, but is always advisable to use a preparation made for shampooing only. Many of our friends say they get the best results from a simple home-made canthorox mixture. You can use this at a cost of about 3 cents a shampoo by getting some canthorox from your druggist and dissolving a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes enough shampoo liquid to apply to all the hair instead of just the top of the head, as with most preparations. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear in the rinsing water. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its luster and softness will also delight you.—Advertisement.

WORKS FOR CHILD MUST KEEP WELL

Mothers in a Like Situation Should Read This Letter from Mrs. Enrico

Chicago, Illinois.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a serious trouble. I had tried doctors and all said the same—operation. At first I only felt the pain on my left side. But later I seemed to feel it on both sides. I am a power sewing-machine operator and have a little girl to support. I work in a tailor shop and that line of work has been very slack this year and I am home part of the time. I do not like to take any chances, so I consulted my friends, and one lady said, 'Take Lydia Pinkham's medicine,' so I did. I have felt better right along and am in good enough health to go to work. I recommend your Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash to all."—Mrs. MARY ENRICO, 459 N. Carpenter St., Chicago.
