

TEDDY O'BRIEN IS HELD FOR MURDER

Woman Wanted for Stabbing Fray Here Arrested, at Cleveland.

Indianapolis police were notified today of the arrest for murder at Cleveland of Teddy O'Brien, who is wanted in Indianapolis on numerous charges, having jumped her bond here.

According to a dispatch from Cleveland, the O'Brien woman shot Edward O'Connell as a result of a quarrel in a fashionable restaurant. The O'Brien woman and her companion, who gave his name as Clifford Barnett, are held at Cleveland.

Knife Is Souvenir

A long, keen-bladed knife is the safe at detective headquarters is a souvenir of Teddy O'Brien's visit to Indianapolis in April, 1931.

It was with this knife she stabbed Clarence T. Mahaffey, 23, a traveling man from Chicago, after robbing him of $34 at a local hotel.

She ran from the room pursued by her victim. When she reached the street she turned and plunged the knife several times into Mahaffey's arm. A policeman arrested both Mahaffey and the woman.

Jumped Her Bond

The O'Brien woman was charged with assault and battery with intent to kill and larceny. She was released on bond and escaped.

KNOX COUNTY MELONS ROT

Unable to Reach Market While Prices Here Are High.

With cantaloupes selling at 15 cents the half in Indianapolis, restaurants, and watermelons at 50 cents each, thousands of both are rotting in the fields of Knox County, a bare hundred miles south, according to reports reaching Indianapolis. Visitors are given all they can carry away, while luscious melons are sold on the streets of Vincennes at a penny apiece.

This condition is caused partly by an embargo on melons by the C. & E. L. railroad, which usually carries the product of the Decker field into the Chicago market.

LORIMER MAY WIN

Surgeons Say Operation To Save His Vision Was Successful.

By United Press
CHICAGO, July 26.—Within a week William Lorimer, former United States Senator and once the most picturesque figure in Illinois politics, will know whether his fight to "beat his way back" is successful.

Lorimer underwent a serious operation here Wednesday to save his eyesight. He had raced from the jungles of South America, where he is seeking to recoup his fortune. Surgeons declare it will be successful but bandages cannot be removed for another week.

Community Swimming Pool at Douglass Park Nears Completion at Cost of $70,000; Will Be One of Finest Open Air Natatoriums in This Section of Mid-West States

With exception of some plumbing fixtures, on which shipment is delayed, the new $70,000 municipal swimming pool at Douglass Park is completed. When landscaping planned by H. Houston Tall, assistant superintendent of parks and George E. Kessler, St. Louis expert, is carried out the plant is expected to be one of the most beautiful in this section of the country.

The basin is oval, measuring 192 feet in extreme length, and 128 feet at the widest point. Beneath the diving platform it is nine feet deep and at the opposite end three feet. More than 400 bathers can be accommodated at one time.

A twenty-foot walk surrounds the pool. Beneath the walk are offices, locker rooms, lavatories and showers, for women on one side and men on the other. Five hundred lockers are being installed. There is space for 1,600 swimmers. The pool will be equipped with swings, slides, floats and other facilities for water fun.

Douglass Park, lying east and north of Twenty-Fifth St. and Martindale Ave., is the chief negro recreation center, although authorities draw no color line. The colored Y. M. C. A. will cooperate with the park board in furnishing swimming instruction at the pool.

This is the second municipal pool completed this summer, the other being on a smaller scale at Willard Park.

Other pools similar to the Douglass Park plant are contemplated by the park board.

FACTORY USES OIL IN PLACE OF COAL

Maxwell Plant Resorts to New Source of Power in Emergency.

By United Press
NEWCASTLE, Ind., July 26.—Oil instead of coal is being used for fuel in the plant of the Maxwell Motor Company during the coal shortage.

Other industries are also feeling the pinch, but have sufficient coal for three weeks more. Utilities have a thirty-day supply.

Retail stocks were exhausted and the general public became alarmed over the winter supply for homes.

SHORTAGE SCOPE SEEN

Questionnaire Replies Show Utilities Have Little Coal.

Many instances of coal shortage are being brought to light by answers to questionnaires sent public utilities. The Alexandria City Water Works has twenty tons of coal and sixty tons are used monthly.

The Union Traction Company reported it has 5,500 tons on hand, while 7,500 are required for one month's operation. The French Lick and West Baden Water, Light, Heat and Power Company requires 300 tons per month and has a supply of seventy-five tons on hand.

Bean Blossom Club Furnishes Amusement at Marion Inter-City Rotary Gathering

By C. E. CLARK

Times Staff Correspondent
MARION, Ind., July 26.—Bean Blossom, Ind., has a Rotary Club. It is growing in popularity. However, there are a few choice classifications open.

At a special session of the club at the inter-city meeting here last night a few more Bean Blossom curios were introduced as new members.

Judge James A. Collins of the Marion County Criminal Court took the part of president of the club, Judge Pusey.

UNCLE NILES TURNER THERE

After Uncle Niles Turner, with classification of blacksmith, as played by Joseph Gregoire, had struggled feebly to his feet from his wheel chair with the aid of three fellow members and led the roll call, he was wheeled to the center of the stage to sing a solo.

OTHER PARTS TAKEN

The new organization classifications were: Hiram Meadows, Ford starters; Ed Selvaige, Prof. Clem Harner, director of the Silver Cornet Band and teacher of saxophone, by Henry Stenger; Stew Nugent, soft drinks and pool; by Stuart Dean; Life Bud, radio expert; by Al Rapp; Clarence Purvis, dentist and tennis expert; by Harry Richardson; New Stuff, under-laker and picnic wagons; by Ed R. Hisey; Jake Bentley, Ford tops; by James Daugherty; Lester Snively, Ford Insurance; by Roy Sahm; Dr. Mops, eye, ear, nose, appendicitis and golf; by Dr. Harry Barr; Art Small, Ford fenders; by Ed Mayo; Tall Binkley, tornado insurance; by Herb King; Isadore Cohn, Ford loans; by Chester Ricker; Nat Pusey, prohibition enforcement agent; by Ralph Walker; and Joe Moon, buggy and landscape painter, by Frank Gaines.

OFFICIALS INTRODUCED

Preceding the Bean Blossom meeting, Frank Hatfield of Evansville, district Governor, and Emerson Gause of international headquarters at Chicago, were introduced by Verne Powell, president of the Marion Rotary Club.

Indianapolis lost to Marion in the afternoon baseball game, 10 to 4.

HELPS HUMANE SOCIETY

Auxiliary Body Forms—Will Show Importance of Work.

To impress on Indianapolis the importance of a humane society, a woman's auxiliary has been organized, with a slogan of "A Member for Every Black in the City."

The new organization decided to meet the first Tuesday of each month, and elected Mrs. L. Jane Gray president; Mrs. Ida Moore, vice president; Mrs. Dora Lantz, treasurer; and Mrs. Alice Wiltshire, corresponding secretary.

THRASHING STOPPED

Horseshoes, Other Pieces of Metal and Rocks Placed in Wheat Sheaves.

By Times Special
MONTICELLO, Ind., July 26.—Horseshoes, other pieces of metal and rocks have been found tied in the sheaves of wheat in several fields in White County during the last two weeks.

The most flagrant instance happened on the farm of Adolph Stuhmer, who engaged the outfit of Merritt Swartzell of Headie. Thrashing had to be suspended pending repairs to the machinery damaged by this method.

JOHN W. THOMAS, WELL-KNOWN

Insurance man of Wilmington, Del., who declares Tanlac promptly overcame his stubborn stomach trouble and run-down condition following two attacks of influenza. Gains weight and now feels fine.

"The flu left me in such a run-down condition I was miserable and work a burden," declared John W. Thomas, well-known insurance man, 600 Tattall St., Wilmington, Del., in a recent statement regarding Tanlac.

"Twice I was a victim of the flu," he continued, "the last time about two years ago, and since then I suffered from stomach trouble, nervousness and dizzy spells. After eating, gas on my stomach worked up my chest and made my heart beat so fast it alarmed me and I nearly smothered. I could never get a good night's sleep and got up mornings with a mean taste in my mouth and all tired out."

"Other medicines seemed to do me harm instead of good, but three bottles of Tanlac rid me of indigestion, the nervousness and dizziness. My sleep is restful and I am feeling like a different man. Tanlac is certainly great."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.—Adv.

GARFIELD TO BE FUEL DICTATOR?

Wartime Executive Said to Be in Touch With Herbert Hoover.

By United Press
BOSTON, July 26.—Dr. Harry A. Garfield, fuel administrator during the war and now president of Williams College at Williamstown, Mass., may be recalled to Washington, to again assume his duties of fuel administrator if the coal crisis continues.

Confidential reports from friends of Dr. Garfield state that he has already been in communication with Secretary Hoover in regard to the situation.

TRUCK DRIVERS AVAILABLE

Many Applications for Jobs at Postoffice in Emergency.

There will be no chauffeur shortage if Uncle Sam finds it necessary to use Army motor trucks to deliver mail during the railroad strike. Applications for the jobs have been received on every mail from all parts of the State since the Postoffice Department announced its intention of using motor trucks for emergencies, according to Robert H. Bryson, postmaster.

Should it become necessary, about 100 of the 800 trucks now in storage at Beech Grove are ready for immediate service. Postmaster Bryson said.

CHEMISTS NOT SATISFIED

Receive Replies From Government on Return of Chemical Patents.

Members of the Indianapolis chapter of the American Chemical Society today said replies from President Harding and from the Attorney General's office to resolutions against return of chemical patents to the alien property custodian are unsatisfactory.

Efforts to get authentic information about the governmental purpose will be continued.

PATROLMAN RESIGNS

Patrolman Frank Johnson has resigned. Johnson was suspended several days ago when policemen said they found him under the influence of liquor.

LEAVES IN A HURRY

Mrs. Sheabum Fled With Mule, Officer Says.

A police officer came in one door of Mrs. Sheabum's house just as Mrs. Sheabum was leaving hurriedly with a pint of white mule. It was related in city court today.

"Why didn't you stop her in her house?" Mrs. Sheabum's attorney asked.

"Because she just didn't stop," admitted the officer.

"I said to her 'Wait a minute,' but she just kept right on going."

While leaving Mrs. Sheabum tried to conceal the white mule in her dress, but it was too bulky. Then she fled trying to give it to persons in a waiting automobile. So she put it down beside a telephone pole and the officer captured both Mrs. Sheabum and the mule.

"Two hundred dollars and costs," Judge Wilmett said.

LOVERS' UNION IS BUSY PAIRING 'EM

Finds Many Widows and Widowers Seeking New Chances.

By United Press
HAMMONTON, N. J., July 26.—Officers of the Lovers' Cooperative Union, organized to bring together lonely widows and widowers, are now engaged in pairing applicants who are inclined to matrimony.

Hundreds of letters from many States have reached Lewis S. Conley, president of the unique organization, and Thomas B. Decker, its secretary.

"I am a widow and good-natured," writes one applicant. "I would care well for a home I would get. I would like a nice man, one who will be a real companion, as I am very lonely." Here's another from a "lonely widow of 45."

"I am a lonely widow, 45 years of age, attractive, good looking, very stylish dresser, good cook, good housekeeper. I have a very nice, refined home. Have means and would like to meet a congenial companion. If suited, I would marry him."

A widower would like to get into touch with "some nice elderly lady, one who owns a farm preferred."

"I have been talking to a number of bachelor friends. All good, clean fellows," says another letter. "Like myself, they want to settle down in life, preferably on a farm."

"I am tired of going through life alone," a widower writes. "I hope you will assist me in finding a suitable person for a wife."
