

WAVE OF CRIME TAKES GERMANY; WREAKS HORROR

Bestial Murders, Such as Never Before, Are Causing Citizens Alarm.

POLICE EXPERTS FAIL

Apprehension of Maniacs Seems to Be an Impossibility,
They Say.

By CARL D. GROOT,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

BERLIN, July 28.—Berlin is suffering this season with a series of bestial murders, such as it has never witnessed before the war.

While the ordinary crime of house-breaking, pocket picking, embezzlement and that like still flourishes, the population is in a state of horrible excitement over a series of crimes, the nature of which scarcely bear repeating.

One of these, the murder of little Dorothea Schmidt, by a maniac, is still unclear to the police, though they believe they know the man. The little girl was lured into a cellar, brutally assaulted and then stabbed to death. She came running upstairs to her parents with blood flowing from several wounds and told them what had happened; then died. In the meantime the maniac had escaped.

Attack Children

Men who follow children and attack them are quite numerous.

Still another case is that of the murderer, Carl Grossmann, who enticed women of the street to his dwelling, attacked them and then hacked their bodies to pieces.

BREAKS ZION'S LAW

Aged Communicant Found Dying
From Burns Due to Smoking.

By United Press

CHICAGO, July 28.—The law in Zion City bars the use of cigarette, cigar, stogie and pipe. Likewise, chewing tobacco.

W. D. Normandie, 82, defied the law. "I'll smoke until I die!" he challenged.

He was found in a dying condition from burns. Smoking was given as the cause.

Don't let baby scratch

Teething rash, prickly heat, chafing—these are a few of the trying skin ills which make baby fretful and keep anxious mothers busy trying to soothe the torment.

RESINOL OINTMENT is the very thing to give quick relief. Try it and note how soon baby's fretful crying stops as this gentle, cooling ointment reduces the itching and burning.

Resinol Soap for baby's bath keeps it soft and silky. At all drug stores.

The Life of the Party

Once there was a man who longed to be popular at parties. He would look at somebody who was bright and entertaining, and sigh to himself: How I wish I could be like that.

One day he went to a doctor. The doctor looked him over and said: "Your digestion is sluggish. No wonder your vitality is low."

The doctor was wise. He didn't prescribe a lot of medicines or drugs. He ordered the man to drink Utica Club Pilsener regularly, before meals and with meals. Its vitamins toned up his system. Its snappy, tangy hop flavor stimulated his appetite. He began to feel like a new man. Now when he goes out, he feels so well that people say he is the life of the party.

Try Utica Club Pilsener. You will like it and it will benefit you. A case of 24 bottles costs very little. Ask your grocer or phone the Monument Bottling Co., 912 N. Davidson St., Indianapolis, local distributors. Phone Main 1516.

For Indigestion

Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, Bloating, Sour Stomach, Gas on the Stomach, Bad Breath—you will find nothing better than that wholesome physic—

FOLEY CATHARTIC TABLETS

Never disappoint. Take one tonight and feel better in the morning.

George Jensen, San Antonio, Texas: "Foley Cathartic Tablets have proven to be the best laxative I ever have taken and I recommend them for constipation and biliousness."

THE "MOTHER OF MEDICINE"

Isis, the Queen and afterwards the Goddess, was called the "Mother of Medicine." In ancient Egypt, centuries before Christ, women were skilled in medicine. They knew the great value of medicinal plants.

Hippocrates, the "Father of Medicine," many centuries later, knew less of the merit of vegetable drugs than did the women of ancient times. Lydia E. Pinkham, nearly fifty years ago, gave to women her Vegetable Compound, now known everywhere as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This is a woman's medicine for women's ailments, prepared from medicinal plants. Advertisement.

Some Life

By Jackie Cogan, Jr.

I have a girl!

Her name is Patsy and she lives next door to us in Hollywood.

Sometimes we play store; sometimes house. I pretend that I've been out late and she scolds me like anything. I say I'm sorry. I'll never do it again. But I do.

It's the game.

I was thinking about Patsy when they took me to the circus in New York. She sure would have enjoyed it! I had peanuts to eat and lemonade to drink and a balloon. The lemonade was pink. Daddy said that all circus lemonade was pink ever since there's been a circus. He didn't think it would kill me.

It didn't.

I fed an elephant and met the giant and the midgits and the lady with the pictures on her skin.

Mr. Flo Zeigfeld, who runs a big show in New York, came over with his wife, Miss Billie Burke. I said to him:

"Are you with the circus, too?" He said: "No, Jackie. Why?"

I laughed and told him: "Well, you're dressed up like a circus."

He was all dolled up in an evening suit with a white vest and tall, shiny hat. He laughed. But daddy gave me a dirty look—full of meaning.

One day Mrs. Vanderbilt invited me to lunch at a swell hotel. My daddy dressed me up and told me to be careful of my manners.

Everything was going along fine—when one of the guests looked at me and started to laugh.

I had bitten into a hard biscuit and left my tooth behind!

In the last picture I made, I lost two more teeth. I had to wear a brace with false teeth while I was working.

Patsy has lost some of her teeth, too.

She's a sweet girl, all right.

The Search for the Secret Telephone!

Did the JEWS have a Secret Wire into the WHITE HOUSE?

NOTHING in the whole Ford campaign against the Jews shows the ridiculous lengths that race hatred will go so well as the search for the Secret Telephone. It was supposed to run into the White House from the home of Justice Brandeis, of the Supreme Court. AND while Josephus Daniels, was Secretary of Navy, his own brother C. C., was receiving reports from the Ford operators searching for this secret wire. See "THE STRANGE ADVENTURES of No. 25H", the third of Norman Hapgood's startling series on "Henry Ford's Jew-Mania" in Hearst's International for August.

Brothers Under the Sod!

THE Illinois National Bank was building a $4,000,000 new home One day the steel workers worked, the next day they didn't. If they did, the terra cotta men were off, or the plumbers and steam fitters Angus McLloyd, the president, sent for Mr. Honey Dew: "You can break or settle these strikes" "I'll deal with you" said Honey Dew suddenly "But I want something. I want you to send Mrs. McLloyd to make a social call on my wife" Read Clifford Raymond's vigorous story of labor, strikes, and social strata in Hearst's International for August.

He Married a Painted Lady!

"YES" she repeated in the same flat voice, "it is quite true. I wasn't a good woman before I married; but I am a good woman now." Can a BAD woman ever become a GOOD woman? Can any woman become a GOOD WIFE merely by OBEYING her husband? This is the problem that Gouverneur Morris works out for you in "THE BETTER WIFE"—one of the great novels of the year—in Hearst's International for August.
