Pauline's Promotions

Pauline had never worked before. She came to her position fresh from the high school.

She was a bright, intelligent girl and interested in her work. She learned quickly and her first promotion came soon.

But she found the long hours and routine of the office pretty wearing. She went out to lunch too tired and by the end of the afternoon she often felt faint and dizzy. She did not appear to be ill, as she did not eat enough and went to bed early to stay awake too long. She went to see a doctor, but Pauline insisted she was all right.

One night her mother made her drink a glass of Utica Club Pill-sener. Its snappy tangy taste made her ravenously hungry, so she ate a fine dinner. She drank another glass before she went to bed and slept like a top.

Now that she drinks the regular Utica Club Pill-sener she has returned. Its vitamins and rich cereal content have built up her under-nourished system and put red corpuscles into her blood.

Order a case at once from your grocer. If you don't carry Utica Club, phone Main 1518, Monticello Building Co., 312 N. Davidson St., Indianapolis local distributor.

West Siders Will Revive Disannexation Movement Tonight.
