

RICHARD SMITH, MANAGING EDITOR OF NEWS, IS DEAD

Prominent Newspaper Man
Passes Away Sunday at His Home Here.

ILL FOR TEN YEARS

Deceased Was Friend of Delavan Smith, News Owner,
Who Died Last Week.

Richard Smith, 63, managing editor of the Indianapolis News for more than twenty years, died at his home, 36 W. Thirtieth St., Sunday morning at 3 o'clock, after a lengthy illness. He had been in poor health for ten years, but had been active in managing the News until March of this year.

Mr. Smith was not a kinsman of Delavan Smith, owner of the News, who died last week, but they had been friends since youth. Both worked for the Associated Press as young men, and when Delavan Smith gained control of the News he made his friend managing editor.

Richard Smith was born in Cincinnati, Aug. 14, 1859, the son of Richard Smith, Sr., editor of the Cincinnati Gazette. As a boy he was a reporter on the Gazette.

Traveled Widely
In his young manhood Smith traveled widely through the then undeveloped Northwest and in Europe.

Mr. Smith is survived by his wife, Mrs. Caroline Tilden Smith, whom he married in Cleveland in October, 1884.

Other surviving relatives are his sisters, Mary and Laura Smith of Milford, Ohio, and Mrs. Henry Andrews of Tokyo, Japan.

Funeral services will be held at his home Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Burial will be made in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati, Wednesday.

Flags in all State parks will be flown at half-mast until sunset Wednesday in tribute to Mr. Smith's memory. At the orders of Richard Lieber of the State department of conservation, who said that the deceased was a great friend of State park projects.

NEW ORGANO DEDICATED WITH FITTING SERVICE

Instrument, Which Cost $17,000, Is Second Largest in State of Indiana.

Several thousands persons were present yesterday for the dedication of the $17,000 pipe organ, the second largest of the State. Maj. Earl F. Hites, pastor of the tabernacle, conducted the services, in which the Gypsy Smith choir assisted. Organ recitals and renditions of the choir, together with a special sermon by Major Hites, marked the ceremony.

Twelve Indianapolis mothers were called to the rostrum and given an ovation by the choir and audience. The new organ occupies the rear center space behind the choir.

THREE NEGROES HELD

Slayers of Big Four Railroad Detective Sought.

MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 4.—Three negroes in jail here today were given the "third degree" in an effort to find the slayers of William Blazier, 38, a Big Four Railroad detective.

Blazier's body was thrown off a passenger train which passed through Farmland. He died a few hours later in a Muncie hospital from stab wounds.

The trio arrested have names of Thomas Withers, 20, Thomas Martin, 20, and Clifford Lane, 18, all of St. Louis.

Picks Off Window Bars

A burglar pried four bars off of a window at the J. M. Vincel commission store, 123 S. Delaware St., early today. Vincel said he did not know what had been stolen.

Pickpocket Gets $82

Gus Kahn, 306 Canterbury Apartments, told the police he was robbed by a pickpocket while at the Casino Gardens last night. The purse contained $82.

Impressive Ceremony Attends Dedication of Catholic School

The upper picture shows the new $50,000 school building of St. Catherine Catholic Church at Shelby and Kelly Sts., which was dedicated yesterday. Lower right, Rev. J. M. Downey, pastor, and Rev. Albert Deery, lower left, assistant.

By THE VISITOR
An impressive ceremony attended the dedication of the new school building of St. Catherine Catholic Church yesterday.

The opening of the new school marks an era of intensive work by Rev. Downey and his assistant, and devotion on the part of the congregation.

A parade of the school children of the 225 families which are members of the church, formally opened the exercises yesterday afternoon. The religious services were held in the church. Then a procession of the Uniform Rank of the Knights of St. George, altar boys and clergy of the church formed, and marched to the school building.

The school was completed just in time to permit the opening of school

SEPTEMBER SEES ANNIVERSARY OF MANY GREAT MEN

Month's Calendar Witnesses
Dates Made Famous in World History.

BRITISH NOTABLES BORN

Events of Significance in March of Civilization Freely Recalled.

If you were born on Sept. 7, it does not mean necessarily that you, as Magellan did, are going to circumnavigate the globe—it was that day the celebrated explorer completed the feat.

If you were born Sept. 18, it doesn't signify that you are going to be killed in any modern battle of Quebec—inasmuch as that was the day the British general, Wolfe, was killed.

You may have been born Sept. 17, but it doesn't mean you will have to sign a constitution. Furthermore, you may never land in England, despite the fact that William the Conqueror did the very act Sept. 29, in 1066.

But if you were fortunate enough to have been born in the month of September, it might be interesting to know what some of your predecessors did. They follow:

1. (1796) James Gordon Bennett, Sr., American journalist, born. (1807) Aaron Burr acquitted of treason. (1850) Jennie Lind arrived in America. 2. (1778) Louis Bonaparte, King of Holland, born. (1839) Henry George born. (1859) Eugene Field born. (1898) Kitchener defeated Dervishes and occupied Khartum.

3. (1688) Oliver Cromwell died. (1783) Treaty of Versailles signed between France, England and Spain, whereby France ceded Canada to England and Florida to Spain.

4. (1241) Alexander III of Scotland born. (1834) Phoebe Cary born. (1886) The Apaches under Geronimo surrendered to General Miles.

5. (1585) Cardinal Richelieu born. (1774) First Continental Congress met.

6. (1787) The Marquis de Lafayette born. (1861) Jane Addams born.

(1901) McKinley fatally wounded by assassin. (1909) Peary announced his discovery of North Pole.

7. (1522) Magellan's ships completed circumnavigation of globe. (1533) Queen Elizabeth of England born.

(1838) Grace Darling helped rescue nine people.

8. (1157) Richard Coeur de Lion (Richard I of England) born.

9. (1560) California admitted into the Union.

10. (1698) John Smith formally elected Governor of the Jamestown colony.

11. (1609) Henry Hudson entered the Hudson River. (1838) Archbishop Ireland born.

12. (190 B. C.) Battle of Marathon. (1494) Francis I of France born.

13. (1759) General Wolfe killed at Quebec. (1814) "Star-Spangled Banner" written. (1904) Prince Humbert of Italy born.

14. (1759) General Montcalm died. (1852) Duke of Wellington died. (1901)

land and Florida to Spain.

15. (1739) James Fennimore Cooper born.

16. (1638) Louis XIV of France born. (1802) Kossuth born.

17. (1787) Constitution of United States signed by convention.

18. (56) Trajan, Roman Emperor, born. (1793) Washington lays corner stone of capitol.

19. (80) Antonius Pius, Roman Emperor, first Roman Emperor, born.

McKinley died.

20. (1856) English defeat French at battle of Poitiers. (1881) Garfield died. (1899) Dreyfus pardoned.

21. (19 B. C.) Alexander the Great born.

22. (19 B. C.) Virgil died.

23. (1892) Two men and seven women executed for witchcraft at Salem.

24. (63 B. C.) Octavius Caesar Augustus, first Roman Emperor, born.

25. (1785) Chief Justice John Marshall born.

26. (1513) Balboa discovered the Pacific Ocean. (1793) Mrs. Hemans born.

27. (1815) Holy alliance formed by Russia, Austria and Prussia.

28. (1801) Louis XIII of France born. (1839) Louis Pasteur died.

29. (1066) William the Conqueror landed in England. (1868) Isabella II of Spain deposed and banished.

The wrong way To clear your skin

If your skin is red, rough, blotchy and clogged with dust and oil, don't pinch it and press it. That increases the irritation and sometimes causes infection, should the sensitive skin become bruised by the finger nails.

The use of Resinol Soap and Ointment is a very simple and pleasant way to overcome this condition. It can usually be relied upon for prompt and satisfactory results even in severe, stubborn cases.

Full directions for this treatment accompany every package of Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. You will also find detailed instructions on the care of the hair—why Resinol Soap is ideal for baby skin—why it should be adopted for the daily bath.
