

UNION MINERS ESCAPE TRIALS IN 'TREASON' CASES

State Laws Provide They Must Be Released After Three Terms of Court.

FOURTH DEFENDANT IS UP

Operators Anxious to Get Something on Two Men Who Head 47,000.

By C. C. LYON
Times Staff Correspondent
CHARLESTOWN, W. Va., Sept. 7.— Hundreds of West Virginia union coal miners, who are under indictment for 'treason' in connection with their armed march into Logan County last summer, are to go free.

Under the laws of West Virginia an indicted person must be tried within three terms of court after his indictment has been returned.
The third term will expire in December, and up to this time the operators have tried only three men: Bill Blizard, acquitted of 'treason,' and the Rev. John Wilkerson and his son, James, convicted of second-degree murder.

The fourth trial, that of Walter Allen, for 'treason,' is now on. It is expected the case will be drawn out for many weeks.

After Keeney and Mooney

The operators want to 'get' Frank Keeney and Fred Mooney, president and secretary, respectively, of the West Virginia miners. These men are the brains of the union movement in the West Virginia coal fields. In the few years that they've increased the union membership from 5,000 to 47,000.

One of these two men probably can be tried before the court term closes in December. The statute of limitation will set the others free.
Both are under indictment as being 'accessories to the fact' in the murder of John Gore, non-union mine guard.

PLATFORM IS ISSUED

Socialists Make Public Declarations for Fall Campaign.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The Socialist party has just put out its platform for this year's congressional campaign. It is based on the statement that the country's employers are engaged in a great conspiracy to smash all unions and force the open shop system on workers.

Public ownership of public utilities, including mines and railroads, minimum wages, a 44-hour week, taxation of uncutivated farm land, an anti-child labor amendment to the constitution, amnesty for so-called political prisoners, and complete freedom of speech and the press are other planks.

BORAH IN DEMAND

Republican Speakers' Bureau After Least Regular Party Man.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Senator Borah of Idaho, who is less of a party man than any Republican in the Senate, is, strangely enough, the most sought after Senator today by the Republican speakers' bureau, and by individual Senators who want him to campaign for them. Borah has been appealed to by Frelinghuysen (New Jersey), Lodge (Massachusetts), and by friends of Poindexter (Washington), and other Senators, to stump their States for them. But most of those who want Borah's admittedly effective aid as a speaker happen to have voted opposite him on important issues. Borah has told them all, as he had told the Republican speakers' bureau in Chicago, that this year he is going to make some speeches in the West and will not commit himself now to any speaking program.

Carter De Haven Visits City to Meet Managers and Critics

By WALTER D. HICKMAN

Carter De Haven, equally well known on the stage and on the screen, is visiting in Indianapolis today.

He is here to meet the manager and local staff of the Film Booking Office of America, Inc., of 111 W. Maryland St., theater managers and movie critics.

To do this Mr. De Haven will be host at a dinner to be given by him at the Claypool Hotel this evening. He declares he is having the time of his life jumping from city to city and banquet board to banquet board.

He decided to take this method of getting acquainted with the press, movie managers and staffs of the F.
B. O. instead of making personal appearances at theaters.

This is the first vacation Mr. De Haven has had in the last three years.
When this vacation tour is completed, he will return to the Pacific coast to resume making comedies.

De Haven will visit thirty cities in about as many days. We remember him best on the stage in "The Girl in the Taxi."

Meet a Fine Lad

Tom Douglas is the 19-year-old youngster appearing at Keith's this week in Lefty Clemen's comedy of youth, "When Love Is Young."

This is Tommy's first appearance on the speaking stage as he has devoted his time for the past four years to movies. His first work was under the direction of D. W. Griffith. He will be remembered as leading man for Dorothy Gish in "The Country Flapper." Tommy then joined the Fox stars and was featured in the special production of "Footfalls." Tommy will continue his tour of the Keith Theaters until the first of the year when he and Lillian Ross are to be featured in a new play which will have its Broadway premier early in January.

Lillian Ross, who plays Dorothy Blake in "When Love Is Young," is the original Jane of "Seventeen." Miss Ross was with the Stuart Walker Company at the Murat five years ago.

ASSAILANTS SOUGHT

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 7.—Police are looking for three alleged assailants of James M. Young, who claimed they took him into the country and beat him up after he had applied for work at a local railroad shop.

COUPLE ARRESTED

Negro and Wife Held for Theft of Jewelry.

Frank Alexander, 24, negro, 1809 Cornell Ave., and his wife Connie Alexander, 20, negress, 317 Fayette St., were arrested at the Union Station when they arrived from Mt. Vernon, Ill.

The Mt. Vernon police alleged that the Alexanders had stolen a watch worth $25 and a diamond ring worth $120. The watch was found in Mrs.
Alexander's possession when she was searched by the matron at police headquarters. The ring was not found.
