

POSTPONEMENT OF HYDRO-ELECTRIC HEARING GRANTED

Proceedings for Condemnation of Land Will Come Up Sept. 27.

TWO LAWYERS ARE ILL

Tippecanoe River Case at Norway Set for Trial Before Judge Vinton.

By Times Special
LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 7.—Hearing on the proceedings brought by the Indiana Hydro-Electric Power Company to condemn land which will be overflowed when the large dam across the Tippecanoe River at Norway is completed, has been postponed to Sept. 27.
Petition for the postponement was presented to Judge H. H. Vinton of the Tippecanoe Superior Court, who will hear the case. A continuance was asked because of the illness of two defense lawyers, A. K. Sills, Jr., and William Guthrie of Monticello.
Seven condemnation suits brought by the power company have been venued to Judge Vinton's court.

COAL OPERATORS SEE MERE GESTURE IN PRICE CONTROL

Organ Declares Legislation Could Apply to Interstate Shipments.

By G. C. LYON
Times Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Coal operators look upon the course of Congress in considering ways and means of stopping coal profiteering as merely a "gesture."
"The proposed (congressional) legislation," declares Coal Age, organ of the operators, "can apply only on interstate coal movements and without individual action by the States there can be no real control of profiteering."

This view is substantiated by the fact that on Aug. 28, the average spot price for bituminous coal at the mines was $5.29 a ton. During the previous week the Federal coal distribution commission had raised its "fair price" maximum from $3.50 to $4.50 a ton in most of the coal fields.
A sufficient number of operators disregarded the $4.50 maximum to bring the average price for the entire country to $5.29.

"The trade is unsettled, but a cross-section of opinion seems to hold to the belief that the market will settle down to around $5, for the winter," says Coal Age.

The Lone Wolf Leaped To the Rescue. Then—

"What followed was not very clear to him. The mock-American fought like a devil unchained. The animals at the pole ran away in good earnest, that wretched barouche rolled and pitched like a rudderless ship in a crazy sea, the two men floundered in its well like two fish in a pail.

"They fought by no rules, with no science, but bit and kicked and gouged and wrenched and struck as occasion offered, and each to the best of his ability.

"Douchemin caught glimpses of a face hideously distorted with working features and disfigured with smears of soot, through which insane eyeballs rolled and glared in the moonlight.

"Then a hand like a vice gripped his windpipe, he was on his back, his head overhanging the edge of the floor, a thumb was feeling for his eyes."

And so the "Lone Wolf"—that charming gentleman known as Douchemin who was once the greatest cracksmen in the world —was plucked from his ease in southern France and pitched into a whirlpool of adventure.
