

DEPORTATION IS FACED BECAUSE OF TRIP ABROAD

Jacob Meissnest Is Detained at Ellis Island by Authorities.

FAILS TO GET PASSPORTS

Friends Are Interceding for Lafayette Man Back From Germany.

By Times Special
LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 9.—Jacob Meissnest of this city is being detained at Ellis Island, New York, and may be deported to Germany. He left here some time ago with George Baer and went to New York. While there he decided to go to Germany and Baer obtained passports. Meissnest neglected to do this, but made the trip. When they returned to America, two weeks ago, Meissnest was taken into custody by the immigration authorities and is being held. Efforts are being made by his friends to obtain his release.

HOOSIER BRIEFS

SULLIVAN—Sneezing suddenly while in a barber shop chair, Milton Haddon lost a piece of his nose from a razor's cut.

ELWOOD—The unusual plea was made by Malvin Kleya in court that he bought white mule for baths to cure his son's ailment.

TIPTON—In addition to his wife's oratorical outbursts telling him she did not love him, Senact Orr stated she hit him, breaking his nose.

PRINCETON—Only $3,000 is asked by Mrs. Anna Mossman from the C. & E. I. Railroad for carrying her past her station in Chicago.

TERRE HAUTE—Escaping from the Southeastern Hospital for the Insane Milton P. Kirkham has returned here to prove he is of sound mind.

EVANSVILLE—A doctor's famine threatens, according to Dr. B. H. Beeler, caused by universities raising requirements to seven years' study.

BLUFFTON—Zack Genzel beat a hold-up man near Travisville by grabbing a shotgun standing against a chair before the stranger could pull his revolver.

COLUMBUS—Gas at 33 cents and oil at 40 cents takes the joy out of motoring in Canada, according to Ray Butler and Bill Clark.

ALEXANDRIA—Miss Elizabeth Grimm, just admitted to citizenship, is the first woman to be naturalized in Madison county.

BLOOMINGTON—Tooting of Monon engines here aroused the populace to the fact that rumored settlement of the shompen's strike was false.

ALEXANDRIA—While doing the family washing at her home Mrs. Augusta Pyle, 61, dropped dead.

CONNERSVILLE—Oscar F. De

Weese's allegation that Orrie Miller alienated his wife's affections, for which he asked $10,000, will be settled out of court.

FRANKLIN—A door screen or a fire-escape are the latest in radio aerials, Art Ballard, enthusiast, has demonstrated.

BICKNELL—Both of Mrs. E. H. Tade's arms were paralyzed and her speech affected by paralytic strokes resulting from the sting of a bumblebee.

EVANSVILLE—Nicholas Littleman, 89, who was brought to this country when 9 months old, by his parents, has just been naturalized.

GREENSBURG—Apprehended in Tuscola, Ill., Helen Campbell, 14, and Ernest Hensley, 16, are returning to be married at home with parental consent.

LOGANSPOUT—A stranger was driven out of Ray Fawcett's house, but he returned with four other men and broke down a door.

BLUFFTON—For the third time since her marriage in August, 1921, Mrs. Otto Smith filed suit for divorce, two having been dismissed.

FRANKFORT—A passenger train was held up until the engineer of the freight train ahead returned from having his tooth pulled at the dentist's.

KOKOMO—Unable to buy bluegills to satisfy his craving C. H. Havens was forced to eat canned codfish at Bass Lake.

MOTION PICTURES

MISTER SMITH'S THEATRE

NEXT WEEK

Mix at His Best in His Latest Drama of the Western Plains

Riding a horse as fleet as the wind, oblivious of the hazards that barricade the road to victory; strong, virile and with a smile of pleasing assurance, Tom Mix romps through this story of Max Brand's, performing new feats of daring and producing new thrills of the sort that have made him one of the most beloved figures on the screen.

NEXT WEEK—William Russell in "THE CRUSADER"

Charles Jones

"in Trooper O'Neil"

A drama of the Canadian Royal Mounted and a doughty sergeant who went into the silent woods to get his man and encountered there an adventure that led to love and a fight for a girl's redemption.

AL ST. JOHN IN "ALL WET"
—NEXT WEEK—

AMUSEMENTS

SHUBERT PARK VAUDEVILLE

ALL NEXT WEEK

A SURPRISE REVUE
DEHAVEN & NICE
JOE TOWEL
MULLIGAN'S FOLLIES
ARTHUR BROWN

BROADWAY FLAPPERS
ENTERTAINING THE SHEIK
DEHAVEN & NICE
JOE TOWEL
MARGARET MERLE

DAVIS RELEASED

Casino Gardens Manager Is Indicted
By Grand Jury.

Garnette R. Davis, proprietor of the Casino Gardens, indicted by the Marion County grand jury on a charge of violating liquor laws, was at liberty today under a $500 bond.

Davis is charged with permitting the use of the garden as a drinking resort. He is further charged with sale and possession of intoxicating liquors.

MORE BEAUTY CONTESTS

PARIS, Sept. 9.—As a "counter-blast" to the feminine beauty contests which have swept across France this summer, the Paris post of the American Legion announces a "beauty contest" of its own. Instead of a competition to ascertain the most beautiful woman in the American colony here, the ex-doughboys have started a search for the most handsome American man in Paris.

MOTION PICTURES

The CIRCLE Theatre

You'll just Adore Norma Talmadge in The ETERNAL FLAME

Supported by Conway Tearle in Balzac's "Duchesse de Langeais." Never—never—never before has Norma Talmadge created a role so magnetic, so radiant as the Duchesse—Gorgeous to behold, yet never to be held. Stupendous in Spectacular Sweep! Mighty in Dramatic Sway!

Yesterday
Norma Talmadge's greatest achievement
was "Smilin' Thru."

Today
"The Eternal Flame"
must be hailed
as its peer.

DeLuxe Performances with Circle Orchestra, Grand
Organ and Stage Specialty.

Afternoons 3:00
Evenings 7:15-9:15

Standard Circle Prices
Mat. except Sunday 15c-25c
Eves. and Sunday 25c-40c
War Tax Included

II
OVERTURE
"ZAMPA" by Herold

III
EGBERT VAN ALSTYNE
Noted Composer-Pianist

IV
ORGAN SOLO
Schubert's "Serenade"
Played by Walter Flandorf

V
PATHE REVIEW

VI
Cartoon Comedy

VII
Circlette of News

VIII
Topics of the Day

Apollo

Next Week

HAROLD LLOYD

In His First Full Length Production

"Grandma's Boy"

5 Reels of Joy

A STORY OF LIFE THAT SEARCHES THE SECRET PLACES OF YOUR HEART, TICKLES YOUR RIBS AND PUTS THE UPWARD CURVE ON YOUR MOUTH.

MILDRED DAVIS, ANNA TOWNSEND, CHAS. STEVENSON, DICK SUTHERLAND AND NOAH YOUNG IN THE CAST.

For Laughter, Insure With Lloyd!

EXTRA! ADDED ATTRACTION

James Oliver Curwood's Brilliant Short Drama

"THE WHITE MOUSE"

With Lewis Stone, Wallace Beery and Ethel Grey Terry

FOX NEWS WEEKLY

RIALTO

OH, BOY!—LOOK AT THIS 'Whoop 'Er Up Mabel'

A Real Girl Show With a Real Girl Chorus

FEATURE PHOTOPLAY!

Mollie King In "WOMEN MEN FORGET"

TWO SHOWS IN ONE
SPECIAL ORCHESTRA PIPE ORGAN