

JUDGE PURCHASES APARTMENT HOUSE

Other Important Realty Deals Announced Include Washington Street Property.

Change of ownership in several important pieces of real estate have been announced.

Louis B. Ewbank, judge of the Supreme Court of the State of Indiana, purchased an apartment house from Mike Arnold for $24,000. The apartment is on the south side of Fall Creek between Meridian and Illinois Sts.

Frank E. Kottman, president of the Kottman Furniture Company, purchased for $50,000 a building on the north side of Washington St., between New Jersey and East Sts., from Frank B. Ross. Wilhelm Aldag bought the property west of Kottman's for $20,000 from Charles A. Dreyer and Arthur A. Stettler, administrators of the Aldag estate.

RILEY WEEK OCT. 1-7

Governor Calls on State to Observe Occasion.

Governor McCray has proclaimed the week of Oct. 1 to 7 as Riley week and has set Oct. 7, Riley's birthday, as the day for the laying of the cornerstone at the Riley Memorial Hospital.

The Governor, in his proclamation, calls attention to Riley's love of children and has asked that every one in the State join in observance of the week.

FEW DOG LICENSES

Controller Hogue Thinks Many Citizens "Get By" Without Paying. "Either the sausage factories are working overtime or hundreds of citizens are just getting by without paying taxes on their dogs," City Controller Joseph L. Hogue said today. Hogue said 2,000 fewer dog licenses have been paid this year than last. Bicycle owners are equally remiss, Hogue said.

"Say! Some of these returned veterans of ours give me a pain!" If you went across or had a son that did, you will laugh with a little catch in your throat as you read "This Hero Business" by Irvin S. Cobb in
