

COUNCIL PASSES TWO BILLS OVER VETO OF SHANK

Increases Stenographer's Salary and Disannexes 34th to 38th St. Territory.

BLOCKS PARK BOARD LOAN

Commends Rikhoff for Dance Regulations—Postpones Odor Question.

Ordinances increasing the salary of the city court stenographer from $1,100 to $1,500 a year and disannexing territory bounded by Thirty-Fourth and Thirty-Eighth Sts., and Tacoma and Keystone Aves., were passed over Mayor Shank's veto by the city council last evening.

President Theodore J. Bernd blocked suspension of rules on an ordinance authorizing a temporary loan of $50,000 for the park board, saying he thought the loan would not have been needed if economy had been practiced. Bernd unburdened himself of a long speech in which he commended Police Chief Rikhoff for regulating dancing.

Councilman Walter W. Wise said he and Councilman Otto Ray made a tour of dance halls and found many girls from 14 to 15 years old.

Councilman Ira L. Bramblett joined with praise of Chief Rikhoff for guarding street crossings near school buildings.

Ray said he thought the council might give the administration money with which to hire fifty more patrolmen.

Bernd wasn't in favor of giving the administration any help.

Although 150 West Indianapolis citizens were present to lobby for it, action on the ordinance prohibiting operation of industries emitting offensive odors within five miles of the city limits was postponed two weeks because Wise, chairman of the committee to which it was referred, said he had not seen a copy of it.

Salary of the chief assistant building commissioner was raised from $1,500 to $2,400 a year, and of the building commissioner's clerk from $1,320 to $2,000.

BAND TO OPPOSE BLUE LAW BILLS

Branch of Anti-Blue Law League Organizes With Headquarters Here.

Opposition to enactment of Sunday blue laws will be made by the Indiana branch of the Anti-Blue Law League of America, Inc., which has been formed with Mark E. Archer of Indianapolis as State secretary, and Karl W. Hoffman, Indianapolis, secretary.

State offices have been opened at 140 Consolidated Building. The league will publish a periodical to be known as the "Anti-Blue Law Freedom."

WOULD SAVE FISH

State Fisheries Department Finds Many in Shallow Water.
A crew of men under George Berg, superintendent of State fish hatcheries, is working in bays and shallow pools to save fish trapped during high waters. A large number already have been saved and replanted in deeper water. George N. Mannfeld, superintendent of the fish and game division of the department of conservation, has announced.

SHOPMEN RENEW INJUNCTION FIGHT

Judge Rules Out Affidavits Because Signers Knew Nothing of Object.

By United Press
CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Railroad shopmen today renewed their fight against the Daugherty injunction, strengthened by their first victory in the legal battle.

Judge James H. Wilkerson declared that 283 affidavits offered by the Government charging violence on the part of rail workers must be stricken from the records, as the signers did not state they were making the statements to be used in court.

Indications today were that the defense would occupy today and part of tomorrow in the presentation of its case.
