

Will Hays to Be the Principal Speaker at Federation of Clubs Convention

MOVIE CZAR FEATURE OF THREE-DAY MEETING FOR WOMEN'S ORGANIZATION

Thirty-Third Annual Gathering of Indiana Body Plans Interesting Program

Starting Tuesday Morning.

Probably the most interesting speakers at the State convention of the Federation of Clubs will be Will Hays, former postmaster-general and now president of the Distributors and Producers of Motion Pictures, on "Building the Nation Through Motion Pictures."

The convention, which is the thirty-third for the federation, will open Tuesday morning, Oct. 24, and adjourn Thursday evening, Oct. 26. The headquarters will be the Claypool Hotel. The program for the three days is as follows:

Tuesday morning, Oct. 24, meetings of the credentials committee, executive committee and executive board, followed by a luncheon for the executive board. At 2 o'clock a council meeting with Mrs. W. J. Torrance presiding, at which time plans for the future of the federation will be discussed. At 4 o'clock an "authors' tea" at the John Herron Art Institute. That evening at 8:15 o'clock the first session will be held, with Mrs. William M. Zeller, second vice president, presiding. The Indianapolis Matinee Musical will furnish music and Mrs. E. M. Barney will give the invocation. Governor Warren T. McCray will welcome the convention and Mrs. Samuel Elliott Perkins will respond. Mrs. W. J. Torrance, president of the Indiana Federation, and Mrs. H. G. Reynolds, president of the Kentucky federation, will speak. Dr. Earl Barnes of Philadelphia will talk on "The Unsuspected Position of Women" following the biennial hour, when Mrs. Frances R. Whipple will speak on "Press and Publicity." Mrs. E. F. White on "Legislation." Mrs. John E. Moore on "Public Welfare." Mrs. J. S. Boorshot on "Applied Education." Mrs. Hamet D. Hinkle on "American Citizenship" and Mrs. A. J. Dillon on "Fine Arts."

Hold Business Meeting
A business meeting will be held at 8:45 a. m. Wednesday at the Claypool, with Mrs. Torrance presiding. Mrs. Hamet D. Hinkle, chairman of music, will lead the musical number. Reports will be made by Mrs. Jesse W. Riddle, first vice president; Mrs. William M. Zeller, second vice president; Mrs. Myra S. Gordon, recording secretary; Mrs. Frank J. Sheehan, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles P. Drummond, treasurer; Miss Viola Newson and Mrs. E. C. Rumpel, general federation directors; Mrs. William A. Morris, for the trustees, and Mrs. Torrance, president.

With Mrs. Jesse W. Riddle presiding, the following district chairmen will report: Mrs. James S. Boorshot, first district; Mrs. T. J. Louder, second; Mrs. T. J. Brooks, third; Miss Fannie Foulke, fourth; Mrs. J. T. McFayden, fifth; Mrs. Harry Dalbey, sixth; Mrs. John Downing Johnson, seventh; Mrs. J. P. Meeker, eighth; Mrs. J. M. Thistlewait, ninth; Mrs. Harry Little, tenth; Mrs. Edwin F. Miller, eleventh; Mrs. R. L. Porterfield, twelfth, and Mrs. George Phillips, thirteenth.

Nominations for officers will be made.

A luncheon will be given in the Claypool at noon for the acting and incoming district and county chairmen. Mrs. Jesse W. Riddle will preside.

Will Hays to Talk
A talk by Will Hays, will feature the afternoon session. Hays' subject will be "Building the Nation Through the Motion Picture."

Miss Mary Matthews of the department of conservation will preside. Talks will be made by Mrs. Frank J. Sheehan on "Dunes Park;" Mrs. L. S. Fickenscher, "Natural Resources;" Mrs. Lawrence Foster, "Home Economics and Rural Life;" Miss Elizabeth Cowan, "Thrift;" Mrs. Fagot Kehrer, "Public Health." A general discussion will follow these talks.

At 4 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Dudley of Chicago will speak on "Art in Painting and Song." Wednesday evening Mrs. Julia Rode will give a musical program, and the Little Theatre Society of Indiana will give the same three one-act plays which they will present Tuesday evening at the Masonic Temple.

Thursday morning Mrs. W. M. Zeller will talk on "Cooperation for the Blind" and Mrs. H. J. Otto will explain the bulletin publication. Mrs. Mary Orvis on "Reciprocity," and Mrs. O. M. Pittenger on the "Fauntleroy Home," will precede the talks by the department of legislation, given by Mrs. Albion Fellows Bacon, Mrs. Emil Well and Mrs. E. W. Barrett. The Hon. Medill McCormick, United States Senator, Washington, D. C., will speak on "Our International Relations."

The conservation luncheon will be held at the Lincoln with Miss Mary Matthews presiding. The afternoon will be devoted to the department of education with talks by Mrs. Guido H. Stemple, Mrs. Curtis A. Hodges, Mrs. Hamet D. Hinkle, J. T. Boyer, Miss Margaret Wade, Mrs. W. C. Seaman. The final report of the resolutions committee will be given at this time. A dramatic reading, "The Land of Heart's Desire," by Ottilie Turnbull Seydell will conclude this session.

Dinner Thursday Evening
Thursday evening there will be a dinner in the Riley Room at the Claypool Hotel. Riley's "Prayer Perfect" will be read as an invocation and music will be given by Hortense Drummond. Dr. Norman E. Richardson of Northwestern University will speak on "The Dynamics of Christian Citizenship" and the presentation of the gavel will be made. The election board will give its report and new officers will be presented.

Friday morning an executive board meeting. The committee in charge of the program for the convention is Mrs. Fred Woodward, Mrs. Samuel Elliott Perkins and Mrs. Philip Zoercher.

Fur Trimmed Pillows
Fur trimmed sofa pillows have a suggestion of winter as well as of coziness about them. While this trimming is most usually seen on velvet or brocade materials, it is shown on some of the newest lingerie pillows—used, however, in moderation.

LOCAL WOMEN WILL BE USHERS AND PAGES

NINA L. COX

FLORENCE COFFIN

Miss Coffin and Miss Cox by Moorefield.

Miss Lucille and Miss Marion McCray, Miss Nina L. Cox and Miss Florence Coffin are four of the Indianapolis women who will be ushers and pages at the convention of the Federation of Women's Club to be held here Oct. 24-26.

Club Index

AFTERMATH—Oct. 19, hostess, Mrs. Earl W. Kurtz. Mrs. W. H. Foreman and Mrs. H. H. Elstun will be on the program.

HEYL STUDY—Oct. 17, Y. W. C. A. Mrs. A. M. Alexander, Mrs. W. S. Given, Mrs. George Knodde and Mrs. V. B. Sharritts will speak.

INDEPENDENT SOCIAL—Oct. 17, hostess, Mrs. Arthur E. Carr.

INDIANAPOLIS LITERARY—Oct. 16, Propylaeum. Dr. Edward Haines Kistler is to speak on "Who Knows."

IRVINGTON FORTNIGHTLY—Oct. 16, hostess, Mrs. Clarence Forsyth. Mrs. Bertram Day and Mrs. Forsyth will talk on "Some American Songs." MAGAZINE—Oct. 21, hostess, Mrs. W. H. Alford. Mrs. H. O. Warren, Mrs. L. K. Babcock, Mrs. W. C. Bartholomew and Miss Adelaide Carmean. "Panama" will be under discussion and Mrs. Delbert O. Wilmetth will speak on "The Building of the Canal."

MONDAY CONVERSATION—Oct. 16, hostess, Mrs. Edwin Hunt. "Class of Fashion" will be depicted by Mrs. E. J. Baker and Miss Della Dearborn.

NEW ERA—Oct. 16, hostess, Mrs. Everett A. Hunt. President's Day will be observed with a luncheon.

WELFARE—Oct. 19, entertainment at home for aged women. Mrs. Frank Hunter is chairman of the committee in charge of the entertainment, which includes Mrs. Harold Dillon, Mrs. William Coyner, Mrs. Fred Klee, Mrs. William Cox, Mrs. Joseph Capron and Mrs. Louise Marshall.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON—Oct. 18, hostess, Mrs. J. L. Dunn. Mrs. John L. Geiger, instructor in Indiana University school of music, will entertain the members of his class in the history of the opera by a recital.

Music Notes

Miss Aubrey Call a 10-year-old violin student of P. Marinus Paulsen, instructor at the College of Music and Fine Arts, won the first place in the young artist's contest at the Seventh National American Music Festival at Buffalo last Thursday. Miss Call began studying with Mr. Paulsen when she was nine years of age and has never had another instructor.

The judges were R. G. McCutchan and Jeffrey O'Haira. The contest was open to any student in the United States, between the ages of fifteen and twenty-eight. The young woman played Burleigh's Concerto No. 2. Friday evening she was given added distinction by being invited to appear on the senior artist's program and the demand for her was so enthusiastic the management requested her to appear for the third time on Saturday.

John L. Geiger, instructor in Indiana University school of music, will entertain the members of his class in the history of the opera by a recital.

at his studio in the Judson Apartments, 126 E. Pratt St., Friday evening, Oct. 20. Mrs. Hazel Simmons Steele, soprano, will sing Russian folk songs and opera music.

Caroline Scott Harrison chapter of the D. A. R. will observe "Caroline

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

All Souls Unitarian Church will be the scene of a pretty autumn wedding at 8 o'clock this evening, when Miss Ruth Austin McGinnis will become the bride of William Duhaime Peaslee. The altar will be covered with yellow and white chrysanthemums and wild amilax lighted by tall cathedral candles. Preceding the service, which will be read by Dr. F. S. C. Wicks, Miss Rachel Jane Hamilton, soloist, and Charles Hampden, organist, will give a group of bridal airs. An arrangement of "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," by Hanna Van Vollenhoven, the Dutch pianist, which was dedicated to Miss McGinnis, will be played.

The bride will be effectively crowned in white satin simply fashioned in draped style with underskirt and trimming of filmy lace. A court train falling from the shoulders will be covered by an embroidered tulle veil reaching to the hem line in front. A high Spanish comb of pearls and brilliants is a lovely part of the costume.

The bridesmaids, Miss Katherine Keith of Los Angeles, Miss Fay Turpin and Miss Marie Nemeroff of Chicago, will wear white taffeta frocks in Veequeez style and carry bouquets of maidenhair ferns and rose buds. The matron of honor, Mrs. Charles Arthur Jones of Birmingham, Ala., will wear turquoise blue taffeta, and the maid of honor, Miss Marjorie Pickthall, will wear orchid taffeta. Both will carry bouquets of maidenhair ferns and roses.

The men attendants will be Kneifer McGinnis, U. S. N., brother of the bride, best man; Charles Clark, Chicago; Manuel Chenerols, Madrid, Spain; Thomas McGinnis, New York; Dr. Lewis D. Belden and Morris Hamilton, ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Peaslee will leave for a visit in the Berkshires, following a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Philip Meier. They will be at home Nov. 20 at 1152 S. Michigan Blvd., Chicago.

The October meeting of the Wayne County Society will be held Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Kopler on W. Twenty-Ninth St. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. W. H. Blodgett, Mrs. James Berry, Mrs. Frank Roller and Mrs. John H. Larsson. This will be the first of a series of six meetings to be held during the winter. Prof. W. F. Hieser of Manual Training High School will speak. Frank W. Roller will tell the early history of Wayne County and the meeting will be presided over by William E. Osborn, president.

Caroline Scott Harrison chapter of the D. A. R. will observe "Caroline

Scott Harrison day" and the anniversary of the fall of Yorktown Thursday afternoon in the Propylaeum. Judge A. R. Robinson will speak on "The Fall of Yorktown" and there will be reports from the delegates to the State convention and Mrs. Merle N. A. Walker, chairman of the program committee. Mrs. Harry Schurman and Mrs. Alfred Conklin will have charge of the musical program and the hostesses will be members whose names begin with the letters D E F.

Mrs. Nancy Coates of London, England, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. George Huthies, has gone to Salt Lake City, Utah, to visit friends.

The Nature Study Club will go to Monticello Sunday, Oct. 29, to visit the city and the Norway water power project. The Monticello Chamber of Commerce will furnish motors for the visit in the community and E. C. Burch will be in charge of the party.

The annual guest day of the Pi Beta Phi alumni organization was observed today at the John Herron Art Institute. In the receiving line with Mrs. Luther Williams, hostess, were Mrs. Demarchus C. Brown, Mrs. Clay Bachelder, Mrs. R. C. Beel, Mrs. W. K. Garshwiler, Miss Josephine Ferris, Miss Clara Hatfield, Mrs. Payette Haskell, Mrs. C. E. Hollingsworth, Miss Louise Fitchman, Miss Helen and Mrs. Robert J. Aley presided at the tea table and Miss Margaret Kellenback lead a group of the active chapter girls in singing college songs. Wine and silver blue, sorority colors, were used in decoration.

Mrs. James E. Watson will arrive in Indianapolis today from Washington. Mrs. Watson will accompany Senator Watson on a speaking tour through Indiana.

Mrs. Norman Deane who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. T. Endsley, has returned to her home in New York City.

Mrs. Dewey Lawrence entertained the members of the Phi Etta Sorority yesterday afternoon at her home on Shepherd St. The house was decorated with Halloween colors and Halloween favors were given. The following officers were installed: Mrs.

CANDIDATES TO SPEAK

Judgeship Aspirants to Be Heard at League of Women Voters Meeting.

The Republican and Democratic candidates for Superior and Criminal Court will be given five minutes each to speak at the first open meeting of the Indianapolis League of Women Voters Monday afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Allen T. Fleming, president, will introduce Mrs. J. F. Edwards, chairman of the program committee, who will introduce the following speakers:

Republicans—Superior Court: James M. Leathers, Room 1; Linn D. Hay, Room 2; Sidney S. Miller, Room 3; Clinton H. Givan, Room 4; Theophilus J. Moll, Room 5. Criminal Court: James A. Collins.

Democrats—Superior Court: Salem D. Clark, Room 1; Smiley N. Chambers, Room 2; Edward W. Little, Room 3; Clarence E. Weir, Room 4; Gideon W. Blain, Room 5. Criminal Court: James D. Earnston.

J. A. Knerr, president; Mrs. Edgar Lawrence, secretary; Mrs. Charles Harris, treasurer, and Mrs. Theodora W. Klippel, sergeant-at-arms. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harold Peterson.

The Zeta Phi Club will meet for the first time this season Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. H. Langan on N. Sherman Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Murphy, formerly of Akron, Ohio, have made their home in the Van Courtland apartments on N. Meridian St.

Mrs. Frank Green will entertain members of the Woman's Auxiliary to the 35th Division Veterans' Association with a card party at her home on Ashland Ave. Each member is asked to bring a pie and may invite a guest.

A pre-convention meeting of the club women of the Seventh district of the Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at 10 o'clock Friday morning on the twelfth floor of the Odd Fellows building.

The Road Is Open
Garden Point
BROAD RIFPLE
Chicken Dinners
OPEN ALL THE TIME
Broad Riffle Car Steps at Place
Dancing Refreshments
Telephone, Washington 2917.

ENGLISH'S OPERA HOUSE Tomorrow Night

BOX OFFICE OPEN 5 P. M.

Appearance of the Famous "Psychological Enigma"

HUME AND HIS COMPANY OF MEDIUMS

DEMONSTRATING

SPIRIT POWER IN THE LIGHT

Producing such phenomena as Slate writing, supernatural visions, floating tables and chairs; remarkable tests of the human mind materialization and dematerialization—produced with all the weird and impressive surroundings of the seance room. Not in darkness, but in open light. ALL INVITED

BULBS

Our very select shipment of Narcissus, Tulips, Crocus, etc., has just been received from our Holland Growers.

Exceptionally good bulbs and best variety.

Our prices will attract you. Buy them now!

Lowry Nursery & Landscape Co.

147 N. Delaware St.

Circle 1786.

"M-m-m- Ballard's Brick Ice Cream!"

SHE likes Ballard's Brick Ice Cream because it's so good! There are many reasons why it's good—and many reasons why Ballard's Brick Ice Cream is the cream to buy.

Ballard's Brick Ice Cream is absolutely sanitary—never touched by hand. It's made by machinery and packed in clean parchment lined cartons.

Brick Ice Cream gives you a full measure. A quart of Brick Ice Cream serves two more persons and a pint one more person, than bulk ice cream.

You don't have to wait for the dealer to dip ice cream for you—just ask for Ballard's Brick.

It comes in plain flavors and combinations. Plain flavors, same price as bulk cream—combinations a trifle higher. It's the best way to buy ice cream—the easiest to serve.

Ballard's Brick Ice Cream is always in perfect condition.

And lastly, the reason why it's good—it's Ballard's.

"None Better."

ASK FOR IT AT YOUR DEALER

Sunday Special—French Tutti-Fruitti

Ballard's

