

YOUNGSTER PLEADS BEFORE COUNCIL

Freckle-Faced Boy Plucks Up His Courage and Marches Into City Hall Chamber.

SAVES IT WITH POETRY

Town Fathers Vote $65,000 to Buy Playgrounds for Tenement Kids.

By United Press
NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Crowded tenement houses surround a privately-owned plot of ground in Brooklyn. There is no room in the neighborhood for the boys and girls to romp, to breathe, to play. Yet it is there that the "typical" American boy grows up.

So freckle-faced Robert Seaman, 13, one of the "regular guys" of the "diggins" decided to change things. He slammed a shapless cap over his mop of bushy hair and hit out for the city hall.

He shoved open a door on which the gold letters, "board of estimate" appeared. Politely, with his cap tucked under his arm and one hand in his bulging pocket, he strode the green rug to a mahogany table at which the board members were seated.

Bob looked them over.

Then he made a poetic plea for the city to buy "Rus Urban" for $65,000 so the kids could have a chance.

A few lines of his plea follow:

"They don't want children in a city flat.

"But there's always room for a dog or cat.

"They can't abolish children you know.

"As the horse for autos has to go.

"If the city will buy this park.

"We kiddies can play until almost dark.

"We thank you dear mayor for hearing this plea.

"Please give us the playground as soon as can be."

Then the chairman of the board said "those in favor please—" but all the members interrupted by shouting "aye."

Bob clamped on his cap and went back to the gang to break the news.

DRY FIGHT WILL BE MORE BITTER

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—A "more bitter and relentless" wet and dry fight is on than was waged when prohibition was adopted, Dr. Clarence True Wilson of Washington, D. C., secretary of the board of temperance, prohibition and public morals of the Methodist Episcopal Church, declared in a survey of the result of the Nov. 7 election, issued from the Chicago office of the board.

"Prohibition has been weakly led, betrayed in the house of its friends, red-backed by those who ought to have given it the main line, and the fight that it will have to avoid is now on, and it will be more bitter and relentless than was the fighting when prohibition was won," Dr. Wilson declared.

He added, however, in his opinion prohibition would stand.

Dr. Wilson said that the defeat of Congressman A. J. Volstead, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, although effected by a "bone dry" pitcher, was a great loss.

"With the overwhelming defeat of C. N. McArthur of Portland, Ore., who, he said, had been 'utterly, saturnally' wet," although representing a bone-dry State, he was beaten by a dry Democrat.

"As I look over the election results, I do not see any wet triumphs," he continued. "Every so-called 'wet victory' was in a wet State or city. I notice not one case where a distinctly dry section has gone wet in the referendum or in the election of a representative."

"On the other hand, every one must recognize that when California passes the Wright law, a duplicate of the Volstead act, by a majority overwhelming, it is a distinct turning of a wet State into the dry column."

GANNA WALSKA PLANS TO TOUR AMERICA IN CONCERT

By United Press
NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Ganna Walska, who married the ex-governor of the Chicago Opera Company, just couldn't wait until next season to chirp her exultation over Mary Garden and the others who said she couldn't sing well enough to sing with them. Accompanied by her latest millionaire husband, Harold P. McCormick of Chicago, she will return here from France and begin her American tour of triumph in January.

Jules Dabier, concert and opera manager, announces that Ganna Walska and her company will begin their American season on Jan. 15, with both concerts and opera. She is titled as a lyric soprano. Poo-poo for the scoffers. Ganna Walska is to sing in Paris on Christmas day. It was previously understood she would try herself and her company on a tour of France and defer her American venture until next fall.

Aside from the artistic aspects of Mme. Walska's venture, there is a legal angle which may keep the Polish beauty in publicity all winter: Mme. Luella Melius, an opera singer, has come to New York, intending to ask injunctions against the Polish prima donna in every city of the tour. Her trouble is that Dabier, according to her allegation, broke a contract with her to take over the management of Ganna Walska.

IMITATES HOUDINI

By United Press
NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Hugh Craig, sentenced to serve fifteen years for burglary, was free in an hour by slipping his handcuffs.

DO YOU TIP YOUR HAT RIGHT? NOTABLES DO NOT

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER JR.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN

DAVID WARK GRIFFITH

DAVID BELASCO

JUDGE BEN LINDSEY

DR. ADOLF LORENZ

STATE HOLDS UP BULK OF EVIDENCE

By United Press
SOMERVILLE, N. J., Nov. 21.—The State is holding up a tremendous accumulation of evidence against the "woman in gray" and the man whom it seeks to indict for the Halls-Mills murder.

Resumption of testimony before the grand jury was spurred by discovery of a new witness, George Sipel, a "hog farmer," said to be able to identify the driver of the automobile, whose headlights threw into relief the participants to Mrs. Jane Gibson, the prosecution's star witness.

Sipel was in the vicinity of Easton Ave., on the murder night and says he saw a delivery truck, pointing into De Russey's Lane.

Resumption of testimony before the grand jury was spurred by discovery of a new witness, George Sipel, a "hog farmer," said to be able to identify the driver of the automobile, whose headlights threw into relief the participants to Mrs. Jane Gibson, the prosecution's star witness.

Sipel was in the vicinity of Easton Ave., on the murder night and says he saw a delivery truck, pointing into De Russey's Lane.

Resumption of testimony before the grand jury was spurred by discovery of a new witness, George Sipel, a "hog farmer," said to be able to identify the driver of the automobile, whose headlights threw into relief the participants to Mrs. Jane Gibson, the prosecution's star witness.

Sipel was in the vicinity of Easton Ave., on the murder night and says he saw a delivery truck, pointing into De Russey's Lane.

Resumption of testimony before the grand jury was spurred by discovery of a new witness, George Sipel, a "hog farmer," said to be able to identify the driver of the automobile, whose headlights threw into relief the participants to Mrs. Jane Gibson, the prosecution's star witness.

Sipel was in the vicinity of Easton Ave., on the murder night and says he saw a delivery truck, pointing into De Russey's Lane.

Resumption of testimony before the grand jury was spurred by discovery of a new witness, George Sipel, a "hog farmer," said to be able to identify the driver of the automobile, whose headlights threw into relief the participants to Mrs. Jane Gibson, the prosecution's star witness.

Sipel was in the vicinity of Easton Ave., on the murder night and says he saw a delivery truck, pointing into De Russey's Lane.

Resumption of testimony before the grand jury was spurred by discovery of a new witness, George Sipel, a "hog farmer," said to be able to identify the driver of the automobile, whose headlights threw into relief the participants to Mrs. Jane Gibson, the prosecution's star witness.

Sipel was in the vicinity of Easton Ave., on the murder night and says he saw a delivery truck, pointing into De Russey's Lane.

Resumption of testimony before the grand jury was spurred by discovery of a new witness, George Sipel, a "hog farmer," said to be able to identify the driver of the automobile, whose headlights threw into relief the participants to Mrs. Jane Gibson, the prosecution's star witness.

Sipel was in the vicinity of Easton Ave., on the murder night and says he saw a delivery truck, pointing into De Russey's Lane.

PRESS IS BARRED AT PEACE PARLEY

By United Press
LAUNAN, Nov. 21.—A struggle to determine which nation is to dominate the Near East began in secret conference at Chateau Ouchy when the allied and Turkish delegates opened what was ostensibly a peace conference. Nominally the conference is to establish peace between the Greeks and the victorious Turks.

But the Turks now claim that their victory over the Greeks wipes out their defeat in the great war and demand recognition as an equal among other nations with special rights in the Near East.

The conference opened today with Ismet Pasha, Lord Curzon, British foreign minister; Premier Poincare of France and Premier Mussolini of Italy meeting behind closed doors. The press was barred.

But the Turks now claim that their victory over the Greeks wipes out their defeat in the great war and demand recognition as an equal among other nations with special rights in the Near East.

The conference opened today with Ismet Pasha, Lord Curzon, British foreign minister; Premier Poincare of France and Premier Mussolini of Italy meeting behind closed doors. The press was barred.

But the Turks now claim that their victory over the Greeks wipes out their defeat in the great war and demand recognition as an equal among other nations with special rights in the Near East.

The conference opened today with Ismet Pasha, Lord Curzon, British foreign minister; Premier Poincare of France and Premier Mussolini of Italy meeting behind closed doors. The press was barred.

But the Turks now claim that their victory over the Greeks wipes out their defeat in the great war and demand recognition as an equal among other nations with special rights in the Near East.

The conference opened today with Ismet Pasha, Lord Curzon, British foreign minister; Premier Poincare of France and Premier Mussolini of Italy meeting behind closed doors. The press was barred.

But the Turks now claim that their victory over the Greeks wipes out their defeat in the great war and demand recognition as an equal among other nations with special rights in the Near East.

The conference opened today with Ismet Pasha, Lord Curzon, British foreign minister; Premier Poincare of France and Premier Mussolini of Italy meeting behind closed doors. The press was barred.

But the Turks now claim that their victory over the Greeks wipes out their defeat in the great war and demand recognition as an equal among other nations with special rights in the Near East.

The conference opened today with Ismet Pasha, Lord Curzon, British foreign minister; Premier Poincare of France and Premier Mussolini of Italy meeting behind closed doors. The press was barred.

But the Turks now claim that their victory over the Greeks wipes out their defeat in the great war and demand recognition as an equal among other nations with special rights in the Near East.

The conference opened today with Ismet Pasha, Lord Curzon, British foreign minister; Premier Poincare of France and Premier Mussolini of Italy meeting behind closed doors. The press was barred.

But the Turks now claim that their victory over the Greeks wipes out their defeat in the great war and demand recognition as an equal among other nations with special rights in the Near East.

The conference opened today with Ismet Pasha, Lord Curzon, British foreign minister; Premier Poincare of France and Premier Mussolini of Italy meeting behind closed doors. The press was barred.

But the Turks now claim that their victory over the Greeks wipes out their defeat in the great war and demand recognition as an equal among other nations with special rights in the Near East.

The conference opened today with Ismet Pasha, Lord Curzon, British foreign minister; Premier Poincare of France and Premier Mussolini of Italy meeting behind closed doors. The press was barred.

But the Turks now claim that their victory over the Greeks wipes out their defeat in the great war and demand recognition as an equal among other nations with special rights in the Near East.

The conference opened today with Ismet Pasha, Lord Curzon, British foreign minister; Premier Poincare of France and Premier Mussolini of Italy meeting behind closed doors. The press was barred.

But the Turks now claim that their victory over the Greeks wipes out their defeat in the great war and demand recognition as an equal among other nations with special rights in the Near East.

The conference opened today with Ismet Pasha, Lord Curzon, British foreign minister; Premier Poincare of France and Premier Mussolini of Italy meeting behind closed doors. The press was barred.

But the Turks now claim that their victory over the Greeks wipes out their defeat in the great war and demand recognition as an equal among other nations with special rights in the Near East.

The conference opened today with Ismet Pasha, Lord Curzon, British foreign minister; Premier Poincare of France and Premier Mussolini of Italy meeting behind closed doors. The press was barred.

But the Turks now claim that their victory over the Greeks wipes out their defeat in the great war and demand recognition as an equal among other nations with special rights in the Near East.

The conference opened today with Ismet Pasha, Lord Curzon, British foreign minister; Premier Poincare of France and Premier Mussolini of Italy meeting behind closed doors. The press was barred.

How

Raise the hat off the head, but not so far as to be ostentatious. Incline the head slightly and smile, but do not bow.

A soft hat may be grasped from the top; a stiff hat by the brim, always in front.

Do not sweep the hat to the side, but lift to the front.

Touching the hat, instead of lifting it, is an indication of sheer laziness and lack of gallantry.

Profound and elaborate bows are old-fashioned and un-American—just a smile is absolutely necessary.

By THE POLICE REPORTER.

This story is for men only. Move on, lady, this is no place for you. Men, did you ever stop to think when you lift your hat to a woman you may be doing it all wrong? You may be a Chesterfield by instinct, but the chances are you don't tip your hat according to Hoyle.

Observe the seven gentlemen above, all snipped in the act—capitalist, politician, movie producer, stage impresario, judge, surgeon, author. Which ones are doing it correctly? Which ones are smashing the rules of etiquette?

We looked around for an authority on the subject—and had to go to a woman! She told us a few things we didn't know about tipping the hat.

The expert was Miss Lillian Eichen, author of the "Book of Etiquette," in two volumes, who has just published another guide, "Etiquette Problems in Pictures."

"Don't Tip It!"

"First off," said Miss Eichen, "Don't say 'tipping the hat.' One raises or lifts the hat; never tips it."

"Yes," we said, spreading out the pictures of the seven gentlemen, "please don't criticize us. Criticize these chaps. Who's right? Who's wrong?"

The arbiter of etiquette sniffed six times and said "Ah!" once.

"Only one's right," she said. "Which one do you think?"

"We'll pass," we parried. "Which one's right?"

"Mr. David Wark Griffith is half right. He smiles cordially. But, while it is correct to grasp a soft hat by the top, he makes the mistake of lifting it straight up."

The judgment on Judge Ben Lindsey of Denver was much the same—only a bit more so.

"Judge Lindsey is a bit too elaborate about it—though he is smiling," judge said, "because I believe that you deserve to witness one of the many scenes of tragedy which careless driving has brought about in Cleveland."

The autoists left the court room under guard of two patrolmen for St. Philip's Church, where the funeral was held.

"I order you men to do this," the judge said, "because I believe that you deserve to witness one of the many scenes of tragedy which careless driving has brought about in Cleveland."

The autoists left the court room under guard of two patrolmen for St. Philip's Church, where the funeral was held.

"I order you men to do this," the judge said, "because I believe that you deserve to witness one of the many scenes of tragedy which careless driving has brought about in Cleveland."

The autoists left the court room under guard of two patrolmen for St. Philip's Church, where the funeral was held.

"I order you men to do this," the judge said, "because I believe that you deserve to witness one of the many scenes of tragedy which careless driving has brought about in Cleveland."

The autoists left the court room under guard of two patrolmen for St. Philip's Church, where the funeral was held.

"I order you men to do this," the judge said, "because I believe that you deserve to witness one of the many scenes of tragedy which careless driving has brought about in Cleveland."

The autoists left the court room under guard of two patrolmen for St. Philip's Church, where the funeral was held.

"I order you men to do this," the judge said, "because I believe that you deserve to witness one of the many scenes of tragedy which careless driving has brought about in Cleveland."

The autoists left the court room under guard of two patrolmen for St. Philip's Church, where the funeral was held.

"I order you men to do this," the judge said, "because I believe that you deserve to witness one of the many scenes of tragedy which careless driving has brought about in Cleveland."

The autoists left the court room under guard of two patrolmen for St. Philip's Church, where the funeral was held.

"I order you men to do this," the judge said, "because I believe that you deserve to witness one of the many scenes of tragedy which careless driving has brought about in Cleveland."

The autoists left the court room under guard of two patrolmen for St. Philip's Church, where the funeral was held.

"I order you men to do this," the judge said, "because I believe that you deserve to witness one of the many scenes of tragedy which careless driving has brought about in Cleveland."

The autoists left the court room under guard of two patrolmen for St. Philip's Church, where the funeral was held.

"I order you men to do this," the judge said, "because I believe that you deserve to witness one of the many scenes of tragedy which careless driving has brought about in Cleveland."

The autoists left the court room under guard of two patrolmen for St. Philip's Church, where the funeral was held.

"I order you men to do this," the

FREE BUREAU NOT FOR POLITICIANS

Politicians who are seeking appointments for their friends in the free City-Federal-State employment bureau did not get the City Hall are wasting their time, said Thomas A. Riley, Federal labor director for the State, today.

Riley said various politicians are claiming credit for inducing the city council finally to pass an appropriation which made possible re-opening of the bureau. They had nothing to do with it, said Riley.

Welfare organizations of Indianapolis which brought pressure on the councilmen finally convinced them the bureau was a good thing, according to Riley.

"There will be no announcement of who will be the men's director at $1,800 a year; women's director at $1,200 a year and stenographer at $1,000 a year in the bureau until after I confer with Governor McCray, Thursday or Friday," said Riley. "We are after men and women particularly qualified for employment bureau work."

Frank A. Symmes has been appointed special judge of the Marion County Criminal Court for a term of three weeks by Judge James A. Collins. He will serve in the absence of Judge Collins, who leaves Thursday for a visit with his mother in New England.

The judge's physician recently ordered him to take a month's rest following the intensive campaign. While Judge Collins is in Washington, D. C., en route home, Congressman Merrill Moore will move the judge's appointment to bar of the United States Supreme Court.

Adjustments of claims for damages incidental to proposed improvements in the Crawfordsville road northwest of Indianapolis by the board of county commissioners was postponed today until next Monday.

Claims totaling $65,000 have been filed by four farmers living along the five and one-half mile strip. John B. Carter asks $25,000 in return for six and a half acres; Curtis Rank, $15,000 for four acres; and David A. Odum $15,000 for two acres.

In addition, Rank and Thomas Keogh ask $5,000 each because in shortening the old road their house, now on the main line of traffic, will be left on a side road.

UNIDENTIFIED MAN DIES AT THE CITY HOSPITAL

An unidentified man became suddenly ill early today and fell on the floor of a restaurant at 401 Massachusetts Ave. Motor police sent the man to the city hospital in an ambulance and reported he appeared either to have taken poison or to have had a fit. The man died at the hospital.

Dr. Paul Robinson, coroner, started an investigation to learn the man's name, and the cause of death. The police searched the man, but found nothing by which he could be identified. Efforts to obtain a description of the dead man from the authorities at the city hospital failed. The hospital authorities said they could not even guess the dead man's age.

DISPUTE WITH MEXICO IS SETTLED AMICABLY

By United Press
MEXICO CITY, Nov. 21.—The Mexican government today sent a note to Washington stating that the recent incident in regard to the petroleum law project has been agreeably ended by a statement from Secretary of State Hughes.

Thief Nabs Overcoat

Russell Duntch, 815 W. Forty-Ninth St., told police a thief stole his overcoat from Harry Cooler's poolroom. The coat was worth $20.

HEADACHES FROM SLIGHT COLDS

Laxative, BRUMO QUINTINE Tablets relieve the headache by curing the cold. A tonic laxative and germ destroyer. The box bears the signature of E. W. Grove. (Be sure you get BRUMO.) 30c.—Advertisement.

Refuse substitute "PINE-TAR HONEY" inside on DR. BELL'S

DR. BELL'S Pine-Tar Honey

Used by mothers for 34 years

Eases Coughs—Breaks Colds

30c buys a bottle of this genuine syrup of pine-tar and honey, a strong drugstore. Quickly loosens phlegm, soothes dry, irritated throat and makes breathing easy. Feverish condition is relieved, coughing stops and colds are broken up. Harmless ingredients and pleasing taste make it the ideal syrup for children as well as adults.

Two Machines Taken

Two automobiles were stolen last night. The owners of the missing cars were O. H. Lee of Acton, and W. C. Van Nuy of Newcastle.

NAMED DEPUTY AUDITOR

Carl Cue, Democratic chairman of Clinton County, will serve as deputy State auditor when Robert Bracken, State auditor-elect, of Frankfort, takes office. Mr. Bracken announced today.

Why Stay Fat? You Can Reduce

The snorer of most fat people is that it is too hard, too troublesome and too dangerous to lose the weight down. Marmola, the famous American dietitian, has discovered that they are absolutely harmless, entail no dieting or exercise, and have the added advantage of checking a case in solid at one dollar by all druggists the world over, or by mail direct to the Marmola Co., 3512 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. Now that you know this, you have no excuse for being fat, but can reduce steadily and easily without going through long series of distressing exercises, or resorting to diet or fear of bad effects.—Advertisement.

Kidney and Bladder Troubles Conquered or Money Back

For 40 years, said Dr. Carey, I have been prescribing my prescription No. 777 (known for years as Marsh's) for kidney and bladder sickness and now that I have retired from active practice I have made arrangements with leading druggists to dispense this wonderful prescription at a moderate price, on the money back if dissatisfied plan.

Beware of kidney disease—thousands die of it every year who ought to be enjoying the blessings of life and health. Watch the symptoms. If you have specks floating before the eyes, puffiness, edema, foot or moist palms, backache or urinary troubles, you ought to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's famous prescription No. 777 right away.

It has wonderfully benefited tens of thousands of cases of kidney and bladder troubles and is the medicine you can always depend upon. Results are guaranteed.

NOTE—Dr. Daniel G. Carey was a practicing physician for many years and his great prescription No. 777 aided thousands of sufferers from kidney and bladder troubles. Hereafter you can always get this effective prescription in both liquid and tablet form at Hook's Drug Store, Pearson Drug Co. and all reliable pharmacists the country over.—Advertisement.

EVELYN DARE'S STORY

By ADNIL NORTON.

Evelyn Dare was a stenographer, an orphan, obliged to provide for herself. This she was competent to do and every day her typewriter rattled away in company with other typewriters used by other girls in a large room presided over by a kindly forewoman. For a while Evelyn was happy because she was independent, well and strong, but there came a time when she could not sleep and arose fatigued, her back ached and she could hardly drag her weary body to work. Every day she grew worse. She knew in a vague way that the organs peculiar to her sex were not normal, irregular, and finally not being able longer to endure the pain, she consulted a physician, who, after questioning her closely, advised her to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which he knew would help her, as it was a potent yet harmless herbal remedy for the peculiar troubles of women. She followed his advice and after taking it for a few weeks, good sound, refreshing sleep returned, the irregularities and pains and aches ceased, her eyes sparkled and a fresh color crept into the pale cheeks. Her rosy cheeks and satiny skin proclaimed her health and Evelyn blessed the old physician for recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

All women who suffer from feminine disorders are invited to write the Faculty of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for free confidential consultation and advice, no charge being made for this high professional service. This will enable every woman to benefit by the advice of the distinguished corps of physicians which Dr. Pierce has gathered about him in his celebrated Buffalo Institution.

All druggists sell the Favorite Prescription in liquid or tablet form, or send 10 cents for trial sample to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, 665 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advertisement.

Why Stay Fat? You Can Reduce

The snorer of most fat people is that it is too hard, too troublesome and too