

SUIT IS BROUGHT TO REMOVE KLAN

Governor Allen of Kansas Goes to Court for Ouster Order Against Organization.

INDIVIDUALS ARE NAMED

Felony Charges Possible Under 1919 Corporations Act, It Is Alleged.

By United News
TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 22.—Governor Henry J. Allen's promises of court action to drive the Ku-Klux Klan from Kansas materialized late Tuesday when the State filed a suit to oust the Klan in the Kansas Supreme Court.

The ouster suit charges that the Klan is a Georgia organization and is operating contrary to law because it has no charter allowing it to transact business in this State.

Alleged Leaders Named

Although the Klan is said to maintain secrecy as to its officials and membership, several alleged leaders of the Klan in this State are named among defendants in the suit, including W. B. McCrabb of Coffeyville, Bruce Hinkle and Richard Martin of Caney, N. C. McCall of Arkansas City and W. J. Robinson of Winfield.

The State first seeks an injunction against the Klan's continued operation, and if a temporary restraining order is granted its leaders must come into court and defend themselves. It is claimed.

The ouster petition alleges there are several thousand Klansmen in Kansas but does not attempt to give the exact number.

Judge Eagan, who prepared the case for the State, said felony charges might later be filed against individuals under the session laws of 1919, which provide that any person violating the provisions of the law requiring foreign corporations to obtain State charter board permits may be convicted upon a felony charge.

Governor Allen pointed out Tuesday that the action is the result of a number of violations of law being committed by men wearing masks.

AUTO STRIKES TRUCK; TRUCK STRIKES WOMAN

An automobile accident a mile east of Ben Davis on the National road at 6:10 p. m. yesterday resulted in the injury of Mrs. Jessie Meyer, 53, Rural Route No. 2, Box 8. She was walking west on the National road and was hit by a truck owned and driven by George D. Hardin, 2311 W. Washington St. The truck was east bound on the National road.

Hardin's automobile first was hit by a touring car driven by William Vehling, Linhurst Dr. The steering knuckle of Vehling's car broke. It is said.

Mrs. Meyer was knocked down. Hardin's truck went over the edge of the road into a ditch. Mrs. Meyer was severely cut and bruised. Dr. William L. Jennings of Ben Davis gave first aid and Mrs. Meyer was taken home.

The brighter the lightning, the bluer it appears.

NEW FLAPPER HERE Tarkington Character at English's

Here are two flapper expressions of Miss Mary Wall as Florence, who is Booth Tarkington's mile-a-minute flapper in "The Intimate Stranger." At English's beginning Thursday night.

By WALTER D. HICKMAN
A Tarkingtonian flapper arrives in town Thursday.

This brand of a flapper is different from the others.

Booth Tarkington's latest flapper will be revealed at English's when Elsie Ryan arrives in "The Intimate Stranger."

Miss Ryan is not the flapper of the play. Mary Wall, a southern girl of Ludlow, Ky., and remembered for her work with Nance O'Neil in "The Passion Flower" and with Jack Norton in "My Lady Friends."

Florence, the flapper, in the Tarkington comedy, is a boyish girl of 19. She drives her own auto. Plays better tennis than any boy. Thinks her aunts are "old fogies" and smokes cigarettes and dances all night. Some sly flapper, this Florence of Tarkington's imagination.

Miss Ryan plays the role of a quaint mid-Victorian aunt.

This delicious crowd of Tarkington characters arrives Thursday night at English's for a three-day stay.

On View Today

The following attractions are on view today: "Lillom" (not to be missed) at the Murat, "Why Wives Go Wrong" at English's, Pat Rooney and Marion Bent at B. F. Keith's, Dorothy Ferris and Girls at the Lyric, Eddie Ross at the Palace, burlesque at the

Broadway, musical comedy at the Rialto, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Park, "Skin Deep" at the Circle, "Nero" at the Apollo, "When Knighthood Was in Flower" at the Ohio, "On the High Seas" at the Colonial, "Without Compromise" at Mister Smith's, "The Fast Mail" at the Isla and "South of Northern Lights" at the Regent.

Advertiser Will Talk

R. L. Whittaker, director of sales of the Thomas Cusack Company of Chicago, will talk on "The New Day Methods," before the Advertising Club of Indianapolis at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow.

Miss Ryan is not the flapper of the play. Mary Wall, a southern girl of Ludlow, Ky., and remembered for her work with Nance O'Neil in "The Passion Flower" and with Jack Norton in "My Lady Friends."

Florence, the flapper, in the Tarkington comedy, is a boyish girl of 19. She drives her own auto. Plays better tennis than any boy. Thinks her aunts are "old fogies" and smokes cigarettes and dances all night. Some sly flapper, this Florence of Tarkington's imagination.

Miss Ryan plays the role of a quaint mid-Victorian aunt.

This delicious crowd of Tarkington characters arrives Thursday night at English's for a three-day stay.

On View Today

The following attractions are on view today: "Lillom" (not to be missed) at the Murat, "Why Wives Go Wrong" at English's, Pat Rooney and Marion Bent at B. F. Keith's, Dorothy Ferris and Girls at the Lyric, Eddie Ross at the Palace, burlesque at the

Broadway, musical comedy at the Rialto, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Park, "Skin Deep" at the Circle, "Nero" at the Apollo, "When Knighthood Was in Flower" at the Ohio, "On the High Seas" at the Colonial, "Without Compromise" at Mister Smith's, "The Fast Mail" at the Isla and "South of Northern Lights" at the Regent.

Advertiser Will Talk

R. L. Whittaker, director of sales of the Thomas Cusack Company of Chicago, will talk on "The New Day Methods," before the Advertising Club of Indianapolis at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow.

Miss Ryan is not the flapper of the play. Mary Wall, a southern girl of Ludlow, Ky., and remembered for her work with Nance O'Neil in "The Passion Flower" and with Jack Norton in "My Lady Friends."

Florence, the flapper, in the Tarkington comedy, is a boyish girl of 19. She drives her own auto. Plays better tennis than any boy. Thinks her aunts are "old fogies" and smokes cigarettes and dances all night. Some sly flapper, this Florence of Tarkington's imagination.

Miss Ryan plays the role of a quaint mid-Victorian aunt.

This delicious crowd of Tarkington characters arrives Thursday night at English's for a three-day stay.

On View Today

The following attractions are on view today: "Lillom" (not to be missed) at the Murat, "Why Wives Go Wrong" at English's, Pat Rooney and Marion Bent at B. F. Keith's, Dorothy Ferris and Girls at the Lyric, Eddie Ross at the Palace, burlesque at the

Broadway, musical comedy at the Rialto, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Park, "Skin Deep" at the Circle, "Nero" at the Apollo, "When Knighthood Was in Flower" at the Ohio, "On the High Seas" at the Colonial, "Without Compromise" at Mister Smith's, "The Fast Mail" at the Isla and "South of Northern Lights" at the Regent.

Advertiser Will Talk

R. L. Whittaker, director of sales of the Thomas Cusack Company of Chicago, will talk on "The New Day Methods," before the Advertising Club of Indianapolis at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow.

Miss Ryan is not the flapper of the play. Mary Wall, a southern girl of Ludlow, Ky., and remembered for her work with Nance O'Neil in "The Passion Flower" and with Jack Norton in "My Lady Friends."

Florence, the flapper, in the Tarkington comedy, is a boyish girl of 19. She drives her own auto. Plays better tennis than any boy. Thinks her aunts are "old fogies" and smokes cigarettes and dances all night. Some sly flapper, this Florence of Tarkington's imagination.

Miss Ryan plays the role of a quaint mid-Victorian aunt.

This delicious crowd of Tarkington characters arrives Thursday night at English's for a three-day stay.

On View Today

The following attractions are on view today: "Lillom" (not to be missed) at the Murat, "Why Wives Go Wrong" at English's, Pat Rooney and Marion Bent at B. F. Keith's, Dorothy Ferris and Girls at the Lyric, Eddie Ross at the Palace, burlesque at the

Broadway, musical comedy at the Rialto, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Park, "Skin Deep" at the Circle, "Nero" at the Apollo, "When Knighthood Was in Flower" at the Ohio, "On the High Seas" at the Colonial, "Without Compromise" at Mister Smith's, "The Fast Mail" at the Isla and "South of Northern Lights" at the Regent.

Advertiser Will Talk

R. L. Whittaker, director of sales of the Thomas Cusack Company of Chicago, will talk on "The New Day Methods," before the Advertising Club of Indianapolis at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow.

Miss Ryan is not the flapper of the play. Mary Wall, a southern girl of Ludlow, Ky., and remembered for her work with Nance O'Neil in "The Passion Flower" and with Jack Norton in "My Lady Friends."

Florence, the flapper, in the Tarkington comedy, is a boyish girl of 19. She drives her own auto. Plays better tennis than any boy. Thinks her aunts are "old fogies" and smokes cigarettes and dances all night. Some sly flapper, this Florence of Tarkington's imagination.

Miss Ryan plays the role of a quaint mid-Victorian aunt.

This delicious crowd of Tarkington characters arrives Thursday night at English's for a three-day stay.

On View Today

The following attractions are on view today: "Lillom" (not to be missed) at the Murat, "Why Wives Go Wrong" at English's, Pat Rooney and Marion Bent at B. F. Keith's, Dorothy Ferris and Girls at the Lyric, Eddie Ross at the Palace, burlesque at the

Broadway, musical comedy at the Rialto, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Park, "Skin Deep" at the Circle, "Nero" at the Apollo, "When Knighthood Was in Flower" at the Ohio, "On the High Seas" at the Colonial, "Without Compromise" at Mister Smith's, "The Fast Mail" at the Isla and "South of Northern Lights" at the Regent.

Advertiser Will Talk

R. L. Whittaker, director of sales of the Thomas Cusack Company of Chicago, will talk on "The New Day Methods," before the Advertising Club of Indianapolis at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow.

Miss Ryan is not the flapper of the play. Mary Wall, a southern girl of Ludlow, Ky., and remembered for her work with Nance O'Neil in "The Passion Flower" and with Jack Norton in "My Lady Friends."

Florence, the flapper, in the Tarkington comedy, is a boyish girl of 19. She drives her own auto. Plays better tennis than any boy. Thinks her aunts are "old fogies" and smokes cigarettes and dances all night. Some sly flapper, this Florence of Tarkington's imagination.

Miss Ryan plays the role of a quaint mid-Victorian aunt.

This delicious crowd of Tarkington characters arrives Thursday night at English's for a three-day stay.

On View Today

The following attractions are on view today: "Lillom" (not to be missed) at the Murat, "Why Wives Go Wrong" at English's, Pat Rooney and Marion Bent at B. F. Keith's, Dorothy Ferris and Girls at the Lyric, Eddie Ross at the Palace, burlesque at the

Broadway, musical comedy at the Rialto, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Park, "Skin Deep" at the Circle, "Nero" at the Apollo, "When Knighthood Was in Flower" at the Ohio, "On the High Seas" at the Colonial, "Without Compromise" at Mister Smith's, "The Fast Mail" at the Isla and "South of Northern Lights" at the Regent.

Advertiser Will Talk

R. L. Whittaker, director of sales of the Thomas Cusack Company of Chicago, will talk on "The New Day Methods," before the Advertising Club of Indianapolis at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow.

Miss Ryan is not the flapper of the play. Mary Wall, a southern girl of Ludlow, Ky., and remembered for her work with Nance O'Neil in "The Passion Flower" and with Jack Norton in "My Lady Friends."

Florence, the flapper, in the Tarkington comedy, is a boyish girl of 19. She drives her own auto. Plays better tennis than any boy. Thinks her aunts are "old fogies" and smokes cigarettes and dances all night. Some sly flapper, this Florence of Tarkington's imagination.

Miss Ryan plays the role of a quaint mid-Victorian aunt.

This delicious crowd of Tarkington characters arrives Thursday night at English's for a three-day stay.

On View Today

The following attractions are on view today: "Lillom" (not to be missed) at the Murat, "Why Wives Go Wrong" at English's, Pat Rooney and Marion Bent at B. F. Keith's, Dorothy Ferris and Girls at the Lyric, Eddie Ross at the Palace, burlesque at the

Broadway, musical comedy at the Rialto, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Park, "Skin Deep" at the Circle, "Nero" at the Apollo, "When Knighthood Was in Flower" at the Ohio, "On the High Seas" at the Colonial, "Without Compromise" at Mister Smith's, "The Fast Mail" at the Isla and "South of Northern Lights" at the Regent.

Advertiser Will Talk

R. L. Whittaker, director of sales of the Thomas Cusack Company of Chicago, will talk on "The New Day Methods," before the Advertising Club of Indianapolis at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow.

Miss Ryan is not the flapper of the play. Mary Wall, a southern girl of Ludlow, Ky., and remembered for her work with Nance O'Neil in "The Passion Flower" and with Jack Norton in "My Lady Friends."

Florence, the flapper, in the Tarkington comedy, is a boyish girl of 19. She drives her own auto. Plays better tennis than any boy. Thinks her aunts are "old fogies" and smokes cigarettes and dances all night. Some sly flapper, this Florence of Tarkington's imagination.

Miss Ryan plays the role of a quaint mid-Victorian aunt.

This delicious crowd of Tarkington characters arrives Thursday night at English's for a three-day stay.

On View Today

The following attractions are on view today: "Lillom" (not to be missed) at the Murat, "Why Wives Go Wrong" at English's, Pat Rooney and Marion Bent at B. F. Keith's, Dorothy Ferris and Girls at the Lyric, Eddie Ross at the Palace, burlesque at the

Broadway, musical comedy at the Rialto, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Park, "Skin Deep" at the Circle, "Nero" at the Apollo, "When Knighthood Was in Flower" at the Ohio, "On the High Seas" at the Colonial, "Without Compromise" at Mister Smith's, "The Fast Mail" at the Isla and "South of Northern Lights" at the Regent.

Advertiser Will Talk

R. L. Whittaker, director of sales of the Thomas Cusack Company of Chicago, will talk on "The New Day Methods," before the Advertising Club of Indianapolis at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow.

Miss Ryan is not the flapper of the play. Mary Wall, a southern girl of Ludlow, Ky., and remembered for her work with Nance O'Neil in "The Passion Flower" and with Jack Norton in "My Lady Friends."

Florence, the flapper, in the Tarkington comedy, is a boyish girl of 19. She drives her own auto. Plays better tennis than any boy. Thinks her aunts are "old fogies" and smokes cigarettes and dances all night. Some sly flapper, this Florence of Tarkington's imagination.

Miss Ryan plays the role of a quaint mid-Victorian aunt.

This delicious crowd of Tarkington characters arrives Thursday night at English's for a three-day stay.

On View Today

The following attractions are on view today: "Lillom" (not to be missed) at the Murat, "Why Wives Go Wrong" at English's, Pat Rooney and Marion Bent at B. F. Keith's, Dorothy Ferris and Girls at the Lyric, Eddie Ross at the Palace, burlesque at the

Broadway, musical comedy at the Rialto, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Park, "Skin Deep" at the Circle, "Nero" at the Apollo, "When Knighthood Was in Flower" at the Ohio, "On the High Seas" at the Colonial, "Without Compromise" at Mister Smith's, "The Fast Mail" at the Isla and "South of Northern Lights" at the Regent.

Advertiser Will Talk

R. L. Whittaker, director of sales of the Thomas Cusack Company of Chicago, will talk on "The New Day Methods," before the Advertising Club of Indianapolis at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow.

Miss Ryan is not the flapper of the play. Mary Wall, a southern girl of Ludlow, Ky., and remembered for her work with Nance O'Neil in "The Passion Flower" and with Jack Norton in "My Lady Friends."

Florence, the flapper, in the Tarkington comedy, is a boyish girl of 19. She drives her own auto. Plays better tennis than any boy. Thinks her aunts are "old fogies" and smokes cigarettes and dances all night. Some sly flapper,