

Martha Lee's Advice

Man's Mistaken Pride Puts Wife in Slavery

PRIDE sometimes makes us do queer things.

A woman has written to ask me and my readers what we think of a man who is "too proud" to do common labor, and so does not work, yet lets his wife work in factories and do the family wash at night.

It seems the man is not "too proud" to accept his wife's support. How fortunate it is that all men are not "too proud" to support their families —or that not all wives accept such an explanation.

To Proud to Work

Dear Miss Lee: Having read your questions and answers for a long time, I should like to hear what you and the Times readers, especially business men, think of a husband and father who is a working man— an electrician—and is too proud to work at common work, where he gets dirt, for fear his friends and business men may see him? Yet his wife works in factories and does the family wash at night. The husband says he does not want her to work, but he does not make any great attempt to get work so his wife can be home with her children. A READER.

The man's trouble is not pride, but laziness. If it were pride, he would be too proud to allow his wife to support the family. If the wife takes the man's place in supporting the family, she should leave the family washing for the husband to do. That would be fair enough. He also should be "allowed" to patch his own clothes and do other little household duties. I believe then he might change his mind about working.

Likes Two Boys

Dear Miss Lee: I am a girl of 18. I have been going with a fellow six months and I know that he really loves me. We do not go together often, but very often. I go with other fellows, but he does not care to go with other girls. A few weeks ago I met a fellow who is very nice and has a few dates with him and like him very much. Both are 19, nice and good-looking. The one I have known for six months wants me to go steady with him. I love him, but still I like the other fellow, because he is so entertaining and more like the fellows you meet now. He dances and the other fellow does not. Should I quit the other fellow and go with the one I have known the longer? G. H. A.

Wants Man Back

UNHAPPY: I really do not see how you can win back this man without humbling yourself completely. As he apparently was to blame for the quarrel, I should not think you would want to go to him. The only thing you can do is to act friendly when you see him, to show that he is forgiven. If you should start going together again you would have to give up all other boy friends, to keep his friendship. If you wish to do that, go to it and luck to you. But then you could not expect even to cure him of jealousy. Even though you cannot forget him.

Wants Girl's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I am in love with a beautiful girl. At times she seems to care a great deal about me. I bought her a nice wrist watch for Christmas and she seems to like it. I think she likes me, but not the way I want her to. Would you please give me some advice as to how to win her love? Her people seem to care a great deal about me, also. I have an idea she does care a great deal about you, Perry. She should, if she accepts such gifts as wrist watches from you. Just keep on acting as you do now, and she probably will find some day that she does love you. If you are ready to marry you might ask her now. That is the simplest way to find out.

PURSE DISAPPEARS

A pickpocket robbed Mrs. John Taylor, 1708 Spink-Arms Hotel, of her purse yesterday while she was in a drug store at Meridian and Ohio Sts. The purse contained $9.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Don't Let This Affair Prey on Your Mind

Be friends with other men and you will realize what you miss by thinking of this man constantly. Remember that it is not necessary to do very much of the talking yourself. Be an interested listener and you will be liked even though you do not say much. But this is an age when every one looks out for himself, so you must not just take a back seat.

Things Too Seriously

It is no crime to say "silly" things that mean nothing, but keep a conversation moving. And remember that it is not necessary to do very much of the talking yourself. Be an interested listener and you will be liked even though you do not say much. But this is an age when every one looks out for himself, so you must not just take a back seat.

Book Connoisseur is Dead at Age of Seventy-Four

Funeral services for Columbus T. Dollarhide, 74, who died at his home, 707 E. Eleventh St., will be held Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. Burial will be at Crown Hill Cemetery. Dollarhide was born in Iowa in 1848 and came to Indianapolis as a child. He attended Asbury College, now De Pauw University and then entered the employment of Bowen, Stewart & Co., book dealers. He continued in the employ of this company and its successors, the Bowen-Merrill Company, and the W. K. Stewart Company until 1919, when he retired. In the course of his employment he made

Acquaintance of Many Famous Authors

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Hortense Dollarhide; three sons, Edwin, Alfred and George, and a grandson, Robert Hubbard.

MRS. MAGGIE M'FARLAN RITES TO BE AT CHAPEL

Aged Woman Dies at Home of Stepdaughter. The funeral of Mrs. Maggie L. McFarlan, 75, who died Monday at the home of her stepdaughter, Mrs. A. E. Buchanan, Sherman Dr. and Thirty-Seventh St., will be held at 10:30 a. m., Wednesday, at the Flanner & Buchanan chapel, 320 N. Illinois St. Mrs. McFarlan was born in Chattanooga, Tenn., in 1843. For several years she was a school teacher. She spent the greater part of her life on the farm of her husband, John McFarlan, near Southport. She was actively engaged in church work in the Southport Presbyterian Church. For the past few years she has lived at the home of her stepdaughter, Mrs. Buchanan, where she died. Burial will be at Greenwood.

Borrowed From Orient

Some of the most elaborate pajamas are of Paisley silk in dull, rich shades, combined with bandings of Persian & blue velvet.

don't let this affair prey on your mind. Be friends with other men and you will realize what you miss by thinking of this man constantly.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Wants Girl's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I am in love with a beautiful girl. At times she seems to care a great deal about me. I bought her a nice wrist watch for Christmas and she seems to like it. I think she likes me, but not the way I want her to. Would you please give me some advice as to how to win her love? Her people seem to care a great deal about me, also. I have an idea she does care a great deal about you, Perry. She should, if she accepts such gifts as wrist watches from you. Just keep on acting as you do now, and she probably will find some day that she does love you. If you are ready to marry you might ask her now. That is the simplest way to find out.

PURSE DISAPPEARS

A pickpocket robbed Mrs. John Taylor, 1708 Spink-Arms Hotel, of her purse yesterday while she was in a drug store at Meridian and Ohio Sts. The purse contained $9.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Wants Girl's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I am in love with a beautiful girl. At times she seems to care a great deal about me. I bought her a nice wrist watch for Christmas and she seems to like it. I think she likes me, but not the way I want her to. Would you please give me some advice as to how to win her love? Her people seem to care a great deal about me, also. I have an idea she does care a great deal about you, Perry. She should, if she accepts such gifts as wrist watches from you. Just keep on acting as you do now, and she probably will find some day that she does love you. If you are ready to marry you might ask her now. That is the simplest way to find out.

PURSE DISAPPEARS

A pickpocket robbed Mrs. John Taylor, 1708 Spink-Arms Hotel, of her purse yesterday while she was in a drug store at Meridian and Ohio Sts. The purse contained $9.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Wants Girl's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I am in love with a beautiful girl. At times she seems to care a great deal about me. I bought her a nice wrist watch for Christmas and she seems to like it. I think she likes me, but not the way I want her to. Would you please give me some advice as to how to win her love? Her people seem to care a great deal about me, also. I have an idea she does care a great deal about you, Perry. She should, if she accepts such gifts as wrist watches from you. Just keep on acting as you do now, and she probably will find some day that she does love you. If you are ready to marry you might ask her now. That is the simplest way to find out.

PURSE DISAPPEARS

A pickpocket robbed Mrs. John Taylor, 1708 Spink-Arms Hotel, of her purse yesterday while she was in a drug store at Meridian and Ohio Sts. The purse contained $9.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Wants Girl's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I am in love with a beautiful girl. At times she seems to care a great deal about me. I bought her a nice wrist watch for Christmas and she seems to like it. I think she likes me, but not the way I want her to. Would you please give me some advice as to how to win her love? Her people seem to care a great deal about me, also. I have an idea she does care a great deal about you, Perry. She should, if she accepts such gifts as wrist watches from you. Just keep on acting as you do now, and she probably will find some day that she does love you. If you are ready to marry you might ask her now. That is the simplest way to find out.

PURSE DISAPPEARS

A pickpocket robbed Mrs. John Taylor, 1708 Spink-Arms Hotel, of her purse yesterday while she was in a drug store at Meridian and Ohio Sts. The purse contained $9.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Wants Girl's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I am in love with a beautiful girl. At times she seems to care a great deal about me. I bought her a nice wrist watch for Christmas and she seems to like it. I think she likes me, but not the way I want her to. Would you please give me some advice as to how to win her love? Her people seem to care a great deal about me, also. I have an idea she does care a great deal about you, Perry. She should, if she accepts such gifts as wrist watches from you. Just keep on acting as you do now, and she probably will find some day that she does love you. If you are ready to marry you might ask her now. That is the simplest way to find out.

PURSE DISAPPEARS

A pickpocket robbed Mrs. John Taylor, 1708 Spink-Arms Hotel, of her purse yesterday while she was in a drug store at Meridian and Ohio Sts. The purse contained $9.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Wants Girl's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I am in love with a beautiful girl. At times she seems to care a great deal about me. I bought her a nice wrist watch for Christmas and she seems to like it. I think she likes me, but not the way I want her to. Would you please give me some advice as to how to win her love? Her people seem to care a great deal about me, also. I have an idea she does care a great deal about you, Perry. She should, if she accepts such gifts as wrist watches from you. Just keep on acting as you do now, and she probably will find some day that she does love you. If you are ready to marry you might ask her now. That is the simplest way to find out.

things too seriously. It is no crime to say "silly" things that mean nothing, but keep a conversation moving. And remember that it is not necessary to do very much of the talking yourself. Be an interested listener and you will be liked even though you do not say much. But this is an age when every one looks out for himself, so you must not just take a back seat.

Book Connoisseur is Dead at Age of Seventy-Four

Funeral services for Columbus T. Dollarhide, 74, who died at his home, 707 E. Eleventh St., will be held Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. Burial will be at Crown Hill Cemetery. Dollarhide was born in Iowa in 1848 and came to Indianapolis as a child. He attended Asbury College, now De Pauw University and then entered the employment of Bowen, Stewart & Co., book dealers. He continued in the employ of this company and its successors, the Bowen-Merrill Company, and the W. K. Stewart Company until 1919, when he retired. In the course of his employment he made

Acquaintance of Many Famous Authors

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Hortense Dollarhide; three sons, Edwin, Alfred and George, and a grandson, Robert Hubbard.

MRS. MAGGIE M'FARLAN RITES TO BE AT CHAPEL

Aged Woman Dies at Home of Stepdaughter. The funeral of Mrs. Maggie L. McFarlan, 75, who died Monday at the home of her stepdaughter, Mrs. A. E. Buchanan, Sherman Dr. and Thirty-Seventh St., will be held at 10:30 a. m., Wednesday, at the Flanner & Buchanan chapel, 320 N. Illinois St. Mrs. McFarlan was born in Chattanooga, Tenn., in 1843. For several years she was a school teacher. She spent the greater part of her life on the farm of her husband, John McFarlan, near Southport. She was actively engaged in church work in the Southport Presbyterian Church. For the past few years she has lived at the home of her stepdaughter, Mrs. Buchanan, where she died. Burial will be at Greenwood.

Borrowed From Orient

Some of the most elaborate pajamas are of Paisley silk in dull, rich shades, combined with bandings of Persian & blue velvet.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Wants Girl's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I am in love with a beautiful girl. At times she seems to care a great deal about me. I bought her a nice wrist watch for Christmas and she seems to like it. I think she likes me, but not the way I want her to. Would you please give me some advice as to how to win her love? Her people seem to care a great deal about me, also. I have an idea she does care a great deal about you, Perry. She should, if she accepts such gifts as wrist watches from you. Just keep on acting as you do now, and she probably will find some day that she does love you. If you are ready to marry you might ask her now. That is the simplest way to find out.

PURSE DISAPPEARS

A pickpocket robbed Mrs. John Taylor, 1708 Spink-Arms Hotel, of her purse yesterday while she was in a drug store at Meridian and Ohio Sts. The purse contained $9.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Wants Girl's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I am in love with a beautiful girl. At times she seems to care a great deal about me. I bought her a nice wrist watch for Christmas and she seems to like it. I think she likes me, but not the way I want her to. Would you please give me some advice as to how to win her love? Her people seem to care a great deal about me, also. I have an idea she does care a great deal about you, Perry. She should, if she accepts such gifts as wrist watches from you. Just keep on acting as you do now, and she probably will find some day that she does love you. If you are ready to marry you might ask her now. That is the simplest way to find out.

PURSE DISAPPEARS

A pickpocket robbed Mrs. John Taylor, 1708 Spink-Arms Hotel, of her purse yesterday while she was in a drug store at Meridian and Ohio Sts. The purse contained $9.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Wants Girl's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I am in love with a beautiful girl. At times she seems to care a great deal about me. I bought her a nice wrist watch for Christmas and she seems to like it. I think she likes me, but not the way I want her to. Would you please give me some advice as to how to win her love? Her people seem to care a great deal about me, also. I have an idea she does care a great deal about you, Perry. She should, if she accepts such gifts as wrist watches from you. Just keep on acting as you do now, and she probably will find some day that she does love you. If you are ready to marry you might ask her now. That is the simplest way to find out.

PURSE DISAPPEARS

A pickpocket robbed Mrs. John Taylor, 1708 Spink-Arms Hotel, of her purse yesterday while she was in a drug store at Meridian and Ohio Sts. The purse contained $9.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Wants Girl's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I am in love with a beautiful girl. At times she seems to care a great deal about me. I bought her a nice wrist watch for Christmas and she seems to like it. I think she likes me, but not the way I want her to. Would you please give me some advice as to how to win her love? Her people seem to care a great deal about me, also. I have an idea she does care a great deal about you, Perry. She should, if she accepts such gifts as wrist watches from you. Just keep on acting as you do now, and she probably will find some day that she does love you. If you are ready to marry you might ask her now. That is the simplest way to find out.

PURSE DISAPPEARS

A pickpocket robbed Mrs. John Taylor, 1708 Spink-Arms Hotel, of her purse yesterday while she was in a drug store at Meridian and Ohio Sts. The purse contained $9.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Wants Girl's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I am in love with a beautiful girl. At times she seems to care a great deal about me. I bought her a nice wrist watch for Christmas and she seems to like it. I think she likes me, but not the way I want her to. Would you please give me some advice as to how to win her love? Her people seem to care a great deal about me, also. I have an idea she does care a great deal about you, Perry. She should, if she accepts such gifts as wrist watches from you. Just keep on acting as you do now, and she probably will find some day that she does love you. If you are ready to marry you might ask her now. That is the simplest way to find out.

DOLLARHIDE FUNERAL TO BE CONDUCTED WEDNESDAY

Book Connoisseur is Dead at Age of Seventy-Four

Funeral services for Columbus T. Dollarhide, 74, who died at his home, 707 E. Eleventh St., will be held Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. Burial will be at Crown Hill Cemetery. Dollarhide was born in Iowa in 1848 and came to Indianapolis as a child. He attended Asbury College, now De Pauw University and then entered the employment of Bowen, Stewart & Co., book dealers. He continued in the employ of this company and its successors, the Bowen-Merrill Company, and the W. K. Stewart Company until 1919, when he retired. In the course of his employment he made

Acquaintance of Many Famous Authors

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Hortense Dollarhide; three sons, Edwin, Alfred and George, and a grandson, Robert Hubbard.

MRS. MAGGIE M'FARLAN RITES TO BE AT CHAPEL

Aged Woman Dies at Home of Stepdaughter. The funeral of Mrs. Maggie L. McFarlan, 75, who died Monday at the home of her stepdaughter, Mrs. A. E. Buchanan, Sherman Dr. and Thirty-Seventh St., will be held at 10:30 a. m., Wednesday, at the Flanner & Buchanan chapel, 320 N. Illinois St. Mrs. McFarlan was born in Chattanooga, Tenn., in 1843. For several years she was a school teacher. She spent the greater part of her life on the farm of her husband, John McFarlan, near Southport. She was actively engaged in church work in the Southport Presbyterian Church. For the past few years she has lived at the home of her stepdaughter, Mrs. Buchanan, where she died. Burial will be at Greenwood.

Borrowed From Orient

Some of the most elaborate pajamas are of Paisley silk in dull, rich shades, combined with bandings of Persian & blue velvet.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Wants Girl's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I am in love with a beautiful girl. At times she seems to care a great deal about me. I bought her a nice wrist watch for Christmas and she seems to like it. I think she likes me, but not the way I want her to. Would you please give me some advice as to how to win her love? Her people seem to care a great deal about me, also. I have an idea she does care a great deal about you, Perry. She should, if she accepts such gifts as wrist watches from you. Just keep on acting as you do now, and she probably will find some day that she does love you. If you are ready to marry you might ask her now. That is the simplest way to find out.

PURSE DISAPPEARS

A pickpocket robbed Mrs. John Taylor, 1708 Spink-Arms Hotel, of her purse yesterday while she was in a drug store at Meridian and Ohio Sts. The purse contained $9.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Wants Girl's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I am in love with a beautiful girl. At times she seems to care a great deal about me. I bought her a nice wrist watch for Christmas and she seems to like it. I think she likes me, but not the way I want her to. Would you please give me some advice as to how to win her love? Her people seem to care a great deal about me, also. I have an idea she does care a great deal about you, Perry. She should, if she accepts such gifts as wrist watches from you. Just keep on acting as you do now, and she probably will find some day that she does love you. If you are ready to marry you might ask her now. That is the simplest way to find out.

PURSE DISAPPEARS

A pickpocket robbed Mrs. John Taylor, 1708 Spink-Arms Hotel, of her purse yesterday while she was in a drug store at Meridian and Ohio Sts. The purse contained $9.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Wants Girl's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I am in love with a beautiful girl. At times she seems to care a great deal about me. I bought her a nice wrist watch for Christmas and she seems to like it. I think she likes me, but not the way I want her to. Would you please give me some advice as to how to win her love? Her people seem to care a great deal about me, also. I have an idea she does care a great deal about you, Perry. She should, if she accepts such gifts as wrist watches from you. Just keep on acting as you do now, and she probably will find some day that she does love you. If you are ready to marry you might ask her now. That is the simplest way to find out.

PURSE DISAPPEARS

A pickpocket robbed Mrs. John Taylor, 1708 Spink-Arms Hotel, of her purse yesterday while she was in a drug store at Meridian and Ohio Sts. The purse contained $9.

Can't Talk in Company

Dear Miss Lee: I am in hopes you can give me a little advice. I am a little past 16 and have liked to be in company all my life. I am considered good-looking, so "take" better among the boys than the girls. I am just as contented when with the girls. But it seems they always know something when I do not. My great fault is being bashful. I know most girls say things to boys that I would not like to say, but it makes them bold. It is a terrible feeling when you do not know what to say. Can you tell me how I can overcome this bashfulness? NABEL.

Wants Girl's Love