

WHEN FRENCH 'LISTEN TO REASON' U. S. IS READY TO AID

American Policy Is Now One of Watchful Waiting Until Invasion of Ruhr Has Either Proven a Success or Failure—Action Is Fraught With Danger.

By FRANK J. TAYLOR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Whenever the French government will listen to reason" on reparations, the American government is ready to step in as mediator to end the French invasion of Germany. Just as much as the United States could do, without actually suspending relations, has been done to avert the Franco-German crisis and seizure of the Ruhr valley, the President and his Cabinet advisers feel.

Though from now the American policy will be one of watchful

'VIGILANCE' RULE CONTROLS 200,000 PEOPLE BY FORCE

Arkansas 'Citizens Committee' Uses Arms, Lash and Rope.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 20.—The "citizens' committee" at Harrison, Ark., has controlled 200,000 people with an iron hand for nearly a week, according to a staff correspondent of the Memphis Press, who reached Springfield, Mo., today.

"Rides, shotgun, pistols, the lash and the hangman's noose have backed up the edicts of the citizens' committee which has established its seat in Harrison, although nine of its twelve members are from other towns and counties," according to the Press correspondent.

"The work of the committee, summarized, is this: "Rull strikers hanged because he repelled the advance of the home."

"Members of the 'committee' admitted thirty men have been tied up and lashed.

"At least 500 men and women have been told to 'light out for the hills,' and have been sent out of their valley to find shelter in the nearest town."

"The home of practically every striker along the 150 miles of the Missouri & North Arkansas Railroad have been entered and searched for evidence of depredations against the railroad."

"Declaring an organization was perfected a year ago to stamp opposition to the railroad "which has been practically crippled since June, 1921, when every union man walked out, rather than take a decrease in pay amounting to 25 per cent," the Press account says:

BRUHN ORDERED TO SUPPORT WIFE

Fred H. Bruhn, 570 E. Fall Creek Blvd., vice president of J. C. Perry & Co., wholesale grocers, was ordered to pay $168 a month for the support of his wife, Ellmore O. Bruhn, pending trial of his suit for divorce filed Dec. 14, 1922, in Superior Court, Room 2. He was ordered to pay her back bills.

Mrs. Bruhn petitioned for $250 a month. She told the judge that the rent was several days behind and that she was being annoyed by notes and telephone calls concerning the payment. The judge said he thought $68 for the rent and $100 for other expenses, as there are no children, would be ample to support her until the trial in March.

Mrs. Bruhn filed her suit two days after their separation in December. In his complaint he charges that Mrs. Bruhn "nagged, abused and cursed" him, said she "hated him" and that she made "life a burden."

WIEN AND MOUNT WIN CONVICTIONS

Two convictions in four blind trial cases in Criminal Court today were obtained on evidence furnished by Louis Wien and John Mount, special federal prosecutors.

Wien, R. R. E., Box 364, was fined $100 and costs, and John H. Riley, R. R. M., Box 273, was fined a like amount and sentenced to thirty days in jail.

Wien and Mount were transferred to Pittsburgh by Washington prohibition authorities early in the week after Sam Kelly, saloon keeper, is said to have made an affidavit charging Wien with selling him liquor, which Wien vigorously denied.

The transfer was suspended until Wien and Mount complete their work in pending liquor cases, when Prosecutor William P. Evans protested in their behalf in Washington.

Finding in the case of Orville Burgess, R. R. J. 1, box 263, was withheld until Wednesday to allow three other federal officers to appear as witnesses, and to allow Judge Collins to examine Burgess' record.

James L. Lark, 3179 N. Capitol Ave., the fourth defendant indicted on evidence gathered by Wien and Mount, was sick and his case was continued.

RECEPTION FOR DR. TRENT
A reception in honor of Dr. L. C. Trent, recently appointed pastor of the Woodruff Place Baptist Church, will be held Monday evening in the church. Short addresses will be made by C. S. Dea, S. A. Hayward, the Rev. Frank E. Davidson, pastor of the Englewood Christian Church, and Mrs. C. W. Craig. Dr. Trent came to the Woodruff Place Church from Elkhart, Ind.

Lady Nicotine Has Enemy in Bricklayer

Rep. Thos. B. Brown—Mt. Vernon

Lady Nicotine would be all out of luck if Representative Thomas B. Brown of Mt. Vernon had his way. Brown has introduced a bill in the Indiana House providing for a tax of five cents a package on cigarettes. He doesn't like any kind of tobacco, but he is particularly opposed to cigarettes. Brown is a bricklayer by trade and declares he can lay more bricks in a day than either of his sons, who also are bricklayers.

DANCER HURLED FROM CLIFF IS THEORY OF POLICE

Investigators Believe Young Woman Was Alive When Thrown Into Sea.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 20.—Fritze Mann, dancer whose half clad body was washed ashore on the Torrey Pines beach was thrown into the surf while she was still alive, police believed today.

She spent the night before the murder in a cottage at LaJolla with a "pale movie actor," according to evidence gathered by authorities.

Some time during the night Miss Mann lapsed into unconsciousness and the actor, believing her dead, carried her to the cliff and hurled her into the surf to hide a compromising situation, officials asserted.

Search for the movie actor was under way. Roger V. Clark, movie producer, was released when he proved he was not with the dancer on the night of her death.

Capt. Lewis Jacobs of Camp Kearny was still held by police for further questioning. His attorney has obtained a habeas corpus writ, but it is not returnable until Monday.

STATE TROOPERS IN KLAN, IS CHARGE

(Continued From Page 1)

openly displayed sympathy with the clan, one company—152d Howitzer Battery—meeting in regular drill, being dismissed after a short time and just before the parade, with the order to go upon the streets, mingled with the crowd, but not to loiter and to "report at the armory after the parade."

"That some of the officers were carrying side arms during this time. These guard members gathered closely around city officials when I, as mayor, forbade the Klan to parade, and these guardsmen openly showed by their actions and talk that in event of city officials attempting arrest they—the guardsmen—would take the part of the Klan."

"That officers of the guard met and conversed with klansmen leading the parade a portion of the way and that members of the guard marched along side the klansmen as though to protect them."

McCray Non-Committal
"I am busy now with the State budget and I have not had time to give consideration to the letter," the Governor said. "I do not know whether I will do anything about it."

ADJ. Gen. Harry B. Smith, head of the National Guard, was inclined to minimize the charges.

"Of course, I shall be glad to go to Portland to investigate. If the Governor wishes," General Smith said. "Members of the guard have a right to belong to the Ku-Klux Klan or any other organization. So long as they do not appear in uniform or under the command of their officers, the State has no right to interfere."

General Smith intimated this is not the first charge of Klan activities on the part of the guard he has received. He said he had reports from another city that the Klan was holding meetings in an armory, but had found this to be untrue.

HIGH POWERED HOOTCH
Quart of Liquid Defies Efforts at Classification.

A new world record for high power moonshine has been discovered, police said today. Joseph Falcone, railroad section hand, who lives in an old box car south of Cumberland, was arrested and a crude still seized.

EIGHT PERISH IN TENEMENT FIRE

By United Press
LAWRENCE, Mass., Jan. 20.—Eight persons perished in a tenement house fire here early today.

Two were injured, one seriously. The flames swept through a three-and-a-half-story tenement on Elm St. The dead are: Mrs. Angelo DeGloria and her four children, Rose, 10; Joseph, 8; Angelina, 7, and Mary, 3. Romano Reyesha, 25. Mrs. Mary S. Kalid, 55.

The injured are: Angelo DeGloria, broker, and Joseph Garvey, fireman, broken wrist.

Mrs. DeGloria was carried to safety by firemen but eluded her rescuers and plunged back into the burning building to save her children. She apparently found the little ones and attempted to lead them to safety but became lost in the smoke-filled halls. Firemen later found her body with those of the children grouped about her.

DeGloria, trapped on the third floor, leaped from the window. He landed on his back and was rushed to the hospital in a dying condition. Snow delayed the arrival of the fire department and the building was a mass of flames when it arrived. The blaze started in a coffee house on the ground floor, cutting off all avenues of escape.

Fifty persons were in the burning tenement. Many of them were crouched in corners awaiting death when the firemen rescuers arrived. They were led to safety through the smoke-filled halls.

Mrs. Rapp was arrested in company with Thomas R. Blensinger, 23, a business man of Philadelphia, at 11 p. m. Friday. Both were fined $15 and costs in city court on the statutory charge. The additional charges of contributing to child neglect will be placed against Mrs. Rapp, and child neglect against Blensinger in juvenile court, authorities said. However, no affidavits had been filed.

Mrs. Rapp was released on $200 bond signed by Walter Reuter, known as a professional bondsman, who also stayed her time.

The police of this city started to assist Mrs. Blensinger to unravel the love tangle last night when Motorcycle Policeman P. A. Taylor was called to the Great Eastern Hotel on a report of a disturbance. Mrs. Blensinger had discovered her husband and Mrs. Rapp in a room at the hotel, police said.

Will Not Make Up
Mrs. Blensinger today declared she would not return to her husband. The love affair started in Philadelphia eight months ago, she said. Mrs. Blensinger's father is a wealthy man and is in the transfer business. In a suburb of Philadelphia, Blensinger was associated in business with him. While on a business trip Blensinger came to Indianapolis two months ago and met Mrs. Rapp, who had preceded him to this city, police said they were told. The couple, it is alleged, lived at a rooming house at 1021 E. Market St. for two months.

Blensinger received a telegram from his wife Sunday informing him that she was coming to Indianapolis, it is said. He met her at the Union Station, police said. When he again met Mrs. Rapp she followed them to the hotel, police said, which resulted in the arrest of Mrs. Rapp and Blensinger.

Pair Have Quarrel
The police said they were told that on Thursday there was a quarrel between Mrs. Rapp and Blensinger that ended in a fight, but that they made up.

Mrs. Rapp appeared to be familiar with prominent men in Indianapolis. She spoke of a gift of a book she had received from an ex-judge at a society event three years ago. She said she married when very young and that her husband was 27 years older than herself. The marriage was an unhappy one and she separated from him, although he furnished her a liberal sum of money on which to live, she said. She believed that he recently obtained a divorce but said that she was not sure.

Motorcyclist Taylor said that he was told that Mrs. Blensinger came to Indianapolis Friday night in an automobile.

There is no knowing what will happen when a brave people of sixty millions find themselves faced with utter ruin. Whether they turn to the left or to the right will depend on questions of personal leadership which are not yet determined. All we can be sure of is that they can hardly go on as they are, maintaining an honest struggle for ordered freedom and democratic self-government.

The French proclamation with its threat of "severest measures in case of recalcitrance" is ominous of much that may happen. No people accustomed to national independence have ever been able long to tolerate a foreign yoke.

Chancellor Cuno's action is the first manifestation of the spirit of revolt. It will certainly grow in intensity. The lash will then fall sooner or later and Germany will inevitably be driven to desperate courses. A communist Germany would infect Europe. European vitality is so lowered and exhausted that it is in no condition to resist the plague. Would a reactionary Germany be much better—brooding and scheming vengeance?

Russia, with her incalculable resources of men and material, is at hand, needing all that Germany can best give and best spare. The Bolshevik leaders only require what Germany is so well fitted to supply in order to reorganize their country and convert it into the most formidable state in Europe or Asia.

Nations hard pressed on the East have in the past moved forward irresistibly to the West. In obedience to the same law, a people hard pressed on the West will look to the East.

When French troops marched on Essen they began a movement the most far-reaching and probably most sinister in its consequences that has been witnessed for many centuries in Europe. And these are the people who, after fifty years of patient and laborious waiting, have demonstrated to the world in 1918 the stupidity of abusing victory in 1871.

If the teacher so soon forgets his own special lesson, the pupil is not likely to remember when fury overcomes terror.

You'll Never Be Too Old to Spend Money
But you may grow too old to earn money. Many a man has worked hard all his life only to feel the pinch of poverty in his old age. Others, because they saved, have been able to take advantage of their opportunities. Let this STRONG COMPANY—the oldest in Indiana—help you save.

THE INDIANA TRUST COMPANY
CAPITAL SURPLUS $2,000,000
OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS, 6 TO 8 O'CLOCK

MAN AND WOMAN HELD WHEN WIFE MAKES ENTRANCE

Philadelphians Involved in Love Triangle in Court Here.

"I would marry him tomorrow if he were divorced," declared pretty Mrs. Gretchen Rapp, 25, of Philadelphia today as she walked into the city court room, "but what I want of a married man?"

Mrs. Rapp was arrested in company with Thomas R. Blensinger, 23, a business man of Philadelphia, at 11 p. m. Friday. Both were fined $15 and costs in city court on the statutory charge. The additional charges of contributing to child neglect will be placed against Mrs. Rapp, and child neglect against Blensinger in juvenile court, authorities said. However, no affidavits had been filed.

Mrs. Rapp was released on $200 bond signed by Walter Reuter, known as a professional bondsman, who also stayed her time.

The police of this city started to assist Mrs. Blensinger to unravel the love tangle last night when Motorcycle Policeman P. A. Taylor was called to the Great Eastern Hotel on a report of a disturbance. Mrs. Blensinger had discovered her husband and Mrs. Rapp in a room at the hotel, police said.

Will Not Make Up
Mrs. Blensinger today declared she would not return to her husband. The love affair started in Philadelphia eight months ago, she said. Mrs. Blensinger's father is a wealthy man and is in the transfer business. In a suburb of Philadelphia, Blensinger was associated in business with him. While on a business trip Blensinger came to Indianapolis two months ago and met Mrs. Rapp, who had preceded him to this city, police said they were told. The couple, it is alleged, lived at a rooming house at 1021 E. Market St. for two months.

Blensinger received a telegram from his wife Sunday informing him that she was coming to Indianapolis, it is said. He met her at the Union Station, police said. When he again met Mrs. Rapp she followed them to the hotel, police said, which resulted in the arrest of Mrs. Rapp and Blensinger.

Pair Have Quarrel
The police said they were told that on Thursday there was a quarrel between Mrs. Rapp and Blensinger that ended in a fight, but that they made up.

Mrs. Rapp appeared to be familiar with prominent men in Indianapolis. She spoke of a gift of a book she had received from an ex-judge at a society event three years ago. She said she married when very young and that her husband was 27 years older than herself. The marriage was an unhappy one and she separated from him, although he furnished her a liberal sum of money on which to live, she said. She believed that he recently obtained a divorce but said that she was not sure.

Motorcyclist Taylor said that he was told that Mrs. Blensinger came to Indianapolis Friday night in an automobile.

There is no knowing what will happen when a brave people of sixty millions find themselves faced with utter ruin. Whether they turn to the left or to the right will depend on questions of personal leadership which are not yet determined. All we can be sure of is that they can hardly go on as they are, maintaining an honest struggle for ordered freedom and democratic self-government.

The French proclamation with its threat of "severest measures in case of recalcitrance" is ominous of much that may happen. No people accustomed to national independence have ever been able long to tolerate a foreign yoke.

Chancellor Cuno's action is the first manifestation of the spirit of revolt. It will certainly grow in intensity. The lash will then fall sooner or later and Germany will inevitably be driven to desperate courses. A communist Germany would infect Europe. European vitality is so lowered and exhausted that it is in no condition to resist the plague. Would a reactionary Germany be much better—brooding and scheming vengeance?

Russia, with her incalculable resources of men and material, is at hand, needing all that Germany can best give and best spare. The Bolshevik leaders only require what Germany is so well fitted to supply in order to reorganize their country and convert it into the most formidable state in Europe or Asia.

Nations hard pressed on the East have in the past moved forward irresistibly to the West. In obedience to the same law, a people hard pressed on the West will look to the East.

When French troops marched on Essen they began a movement the most far-reaching and probably most sinister in its consequences that has been witnessed for many centuries in Europe. And these are the people who, after fifty years of patient and laborious waiting, have demonstrated to the world in 1918 the stupidity of abusing victory in 1871.

If the teacher so soon forgets his own special lesson, the pupil is not likely to remember when fury overcomes terror.

You'll Never Be Too Old to Spend Money
But you may grow too old to earn money. Many a man has worked hard all his life only to feel the pinch of poverty in his old age. Others, because they saved, have been able to take advantage of their opportunities. Let this STRONG COMPANY—the oldest in Indiana—help you save.

THE INDIANA TRUST COMPANY
CAPITAL SURPLUS $2,000,000
OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS, 6 TO 8 O'CLOCK

MAN AND WOMAN HELD WHEN WIFE MAKES ENTRANCE
Philadelphians Involved in Love Triangle in Court Here.

"I would marry him tomorrow if he were divorced," declared pretty Mrs. Gretchen Rapp, 25, of Philadelphia today as she walked into the city court room, "but what I want of a married man?"

Mrs. Rapp was arrested in company with Thomas R. Blensinger, 23, a business man of Philadelphia, at 11 p. m. Friday. Both were fined $15 and costs in city court on the statutory charge. The additional charges of contributing to child neglect will be placed against Mrs. Rapp, and child neglect against Blensinger in juvenile court, authorities said. However, no affidavits had been filed.

Mrs. Rapp was released on $200 bond signed by Walter Reuter, known as a professional bondsman, who also stayed her time.

WOMAN IDENTIFIES SECOND MEMBER OF HOODED MOB

Former Deputy Sheriff Named —Is Released Under $5,000 Bond.

By United Press
COURTHOUSE, BASTROP, La., Jan. 20.—Mrs. B. D. Carlisle today positively identified T. Jeff Burnett, former deputy sheriff and lifelong acquaintance, as one of the black-hooded mob that kidnapped Watt Dan-iel and Thomas Richards and three others shortly before the brutal murders of Daniel and Richards.

Burnett was released today on $5,000 bond because further confinement on a charge of complicity in the killings was believed dangerous to his life.

E. C. Osborne testified in the open hearing today that he left Morehouse Parish on orders of the "vigilantes" committee when he was unable to obtain protection of authorities.

Osborne testified that although he had never been flogged by the "vigilantes," his brother Clay had been whipped.

Dewey Brown, next witness, testified to receiving a threatening letter which he took to the sheriff.

AMERICAN LEGION POST INDORSES TWO BILLS
Memorial Day and Boxing Measures Are Favored.

Indianapolis Post No. 4 of the American Legion was on record today as favoring a bill prohibiting racing and other athletic events on Memorial day, and a bill making legal the holding of boxing matches, which have been introduced in the Legislature.

At a meeting of the post Friday in the Board of Trade building the following officers were installed: Frank Jeffrey, adjutant; Harold Batchelder, chairman of membership committee; Clarence Antin, athletic officer; Miss Mabel West, chairman of the visiting committee; Scott Brewer, chairman of the entertainment committee.

The April meeting will be a ceremonial for initiation of new members. A past commander's medal will be presented to Myron Cester and to Nathan Seivies.

There is no knowing what will happen when a brave people of sixty millions find themselves faced with utter ruin. Whether they turn to the left or to the right will depend on questions of personal leadership which are not yet determined. All we can be sure of is that they can hardly go on as they are, maintaining an honest struggle for ordered freedom and democratic self-government.

The French proclamation with its threat of "severest measures in case of recalcitrance" is ominous of much that may happen. No people accustomed to national independence have ever been able long to tolerate a foreign yoke.

Chancellor Cuno's action is the first manifestation of the spirit of revolt. It will certainly grow in intensity. The lash will then fall sooner or later and Germany will inevitably be driven to desperate courses. A communist Germany would infect Europe. European vitality is so lowered and exhausted that it is in no condition to resist the plague. Would a reactionary Germany be much better—brooding and scheming vengeance?

Russia, with her incalculable resources of men and material, is at hand, needing all that Germany can best give and best spare. The Bolshevik leaders only require what Germany is so well fitted to supply in order to reorganize their country and convert it into the most formidable state in Europe or Asia.

Nations hard pressed on the East have in the past moved forward irresistibly to the West. In obedience to the same law, a people hard pressed on the West will look to the East.

When French troops marched on Essen they began a movement the most far-reaching and probably most sinister in its consequences that has been witnessed for many centuries in Europe. And these are the people who, after fifty years of patient and laborious waiting, have demonstrated to the world in 1918 the stupidity of abusing victory in 1871.

If the teacher so soon forgets his own special lesson, the pupil is not likely to remember when fury overcomes terror.

You'll Never Be Too Old to Spend Money
But you may grow too old to earn money. Many a man has worked hard all his life only to feel the pinch of poverty in his old age. Others, because they saved, have been able to take advantage of their opportunities. Let this STRONG COMPANY—the oldest in Indiana—help you save.

THE INDIANA TRUST COMPANY
CAPITAL SURPLUS $2,000,000
OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS, 6 TO 8 O'CLOCK

MAN AND WOMAN HELD WHEN WIFE MAKES ENTRANCE
Philadelphians Involved in Love Triangle in Court Here.

"I would marry him tomorrow if he were divorced," declared pretty Mrs. Gretchen Rapp, 25, of Philadelphia today as she walked into the city court room, "but what I want of a married man?"

Mrs. Rapp was arrested in company with Thomas R. Blensinger, 23, a business man of Philadelphia, at 11 p. m. Friday. Both were fined $15 and costs in city court on the statutory charge. The additional charges of contributing to child neglect will be placed against Mrs. Rapp, and child neglect against Blensinger in juvenile court, authorities said. However, no affidavits had been filed.

Mrs. Rapp was released on $200 bond signed by Walter Reuter, known as a professional bondsman, who also stayed her time.

Popular

MUNCIE, Ind., Jan. 20.—A girl bootlegger who carried booze in a perfume bottle and gave it to thirsty fellow students in high school here, is in a report made public today by Clarence Dearth, juvenile judge. Other cases of alleged delinquency are said to be known to the court.

automobile in company with Homer S. Dean, 1023 Grand Ave., Dayton, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Ames, 222 Forest Ave., Dayton. The Blensingers have two children.

WOMAN IDENTIFIES SECOND MEMBER OF HOODED MOB

Former Deputy Sheriff Named —Is Released Under $5,000 Bond.

By United Press
COURTHOUSE, BASTROP, La., Jan. 20.—Mrs. B. D. Carlisle today positively identified T. Jeff Burnett, former deputy sheriff and lifelong acquaintance, as one of the black-hooded mob that kidnapped Watt Dan-iel and Thomas Richards and three others shortly before the brutal murders of Daniel and Richards.

Burnett was released today on $5,000 bond because further confinement on a charge of complicity in the killings was believed dangerous to his life.

E. C. Osborne testified in the open hearing today that he left Morehouse Parish on orders of the "vigilantes" committee when he was unable to obtain protection of authorities.

Osborne testified that although he had never been flogged by the "vigilantes," his brother Clay had been whipped.

Dewey Brown, next witness, testified to receiving a threatening letter which he took to the sheriff.

AMERICAN LEGION POST INDORSES TWO BILLS
Memorial Day and Boxing Measures Are Favored.

Indianapolis Post No. 4 of the American Legion was on record today as favoring a bill prohibiting racing and other athletic events on Memorial day, and a bill making legal the holding of boxing matches, which have been introduced in the Legislature.

At a meeting of the post Friday in the Board of Trade building the following officers were installed: Frank Jeffrey, adjutant; Harold Batchelder, chairman of membership committee; Clarence Antin, athletic officer; Miss Mabel West, chairman of the visiting committee; Scott Brewer, chairman of the entertainment committee.

The April meeting will be a ceremonial for initiation of new members. A past commander's medal will be presented to Myron Cester and to Nathan Seivies.

There is no knowing what will happen when a brave people of sixty millions find themselves faced with utter ruin. Whether they turn to the left or to the right will depend on questions of personal leadership which are not yet determined. All we can be sure of is that they can hardly go on as they are, maintaining an honest struggle for ordered freedom and democratic self-government.

The French proclamation with its threat of "severest measures in case of recalcitrance" is ominous of much that may happen. No people accustomed to national independence have ever been able long to tolerate a foreign yoke.

Chancellor Cuno's action is the first manifestation of the spirit of revolt. It will certainly grow in intensity. The lash will then fall sooner or later and Germany will inevitably be driven to desperate courses. A communist Germany would infect Europe. European vitality is so lowered and exhausted that it is in no condition to resist the plague. Would a reactionary Germany be much better—brooding and scheming vengeance?

Russia, with her incalculable resources of men and material, is at hand, needing all that Germany can best give and best spare. The Bolshevik leaders only require what Germany is so well fitted to supply in order to reorganize their country and convert it into the most formidable state in Europe or Asia.

Nations hard pressed on the East have in the past moved forward irresistibly to the West. In obedience to the same law, a people hard pressed on the West will look to the East.

When French troops marched on Essen they began a movement the most far-reaching and probably most sinister in its consequences that has been witnessed for many centuries in Europe. And these are the people who, after fifty years of patient and laborious waiting, have demonstrated to the world in 1918 the stupidity of abusing victory in 1871.

If the teacher so soon forgets his own special lesson, the pupil is not likely to remember when fury overcomes terror.

You'll Never Be Too Old to Spend Money
But you may grow too old to earn money. Many a man has worked hard all his life only to feel the pinch of poverty in his old age. Others, because they saved, have been able to take advantage of their opportunities. Let this STRONG COMPANY—the oldest in Indiana—help you save.

THE INDIANA TRUST COMPANY
CAPITAL SURPLUS $2,000,000
OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS, 6 TO 8 O'CLOCK

MAN AND WOMAN HELD WHEN WIFE MAKES ENTRANCE
Philadelphians Involved in Love Triangle in Court Here.

"I would marry him tomorrow if he were divorced," declared pretty Mrs. Gretchen Rapp, 25, of Philadelphia today as she walked into the city court room, "but what I want of a married man?"

Mrs. Rapp was arrested in company with Thomas R. Blensinger, 23, a business man of Philadelphia, at 11 p. m. Friday. Both were fined $15 and costs in city court on the statutory charge. The additional charges of contributing to child neglect will be placed against Mrs. Rapp, and child neglect against Blensinger in juvenile court, authorities said. However, no affidavits had been filed.

Mrs. Rapp was released on $200 bond signed by Walter Reuter, known as a professional bondsman, who also stayed her time.

AUTO DRIVER IS HELD AS RESULT OF BOY'S DEATH