HOUSE BILL AIMED AT FRATERNITIES

Taxation of Property Is Proposed.

Property of all Greek-letter fraternities would be placed on the list of taxables under the provisions of a bill introduced today in the House of Representatives by Representative William G. Johnson of Bloomington. Other bills affecting fraternities either have been before the present session or are pending, but Representative Johnson's measure is the first specifying the group of college organizations.

The judge of the Marion County Criminal Court would have the power, on occasions of congestion of the docket, to employ a special judge at the regular rates of pay, under the bill introduced by Representative Russell B. Harrison of Indianapolis.

Authority of the State board of tax commissioners would be extended to include numerous enforcement details and power to impose punishment for non-payment through a bill introduced by Representative Myron H. Post of Anderson. Repeal of the law prohibiting grocers from returning stale bread to bakers is contained in a bill of Representative James M. Carlos of Terre Haute.

Other bills and their authors follow: Abolishment of State board of accounts and placing of its power in hands of auditor of State, by Representative Julius G. Schwing of Lawrenceburg; granting power to an attorney to establish lien on judgment, for legal services, by Representative John W. Thiel of Gary.

MOVIE AND COUNTY UNIT BILLS APPROVED

Women's Council Discusses Proposed Legislation.

The following bills were indorsed at a meeting of the Legislative Council of Indiana Women today: the Clappoott Hotel; Senate Bill No. 85 and Senate Bill 134 providing State motion picture censorship, and Senate Bill 37, providing for county unit school supervision.

House bill No. 102, which would make the reading of the Bible in the public schools compulsory, was not approved. The debate which was to have been held between Mrs. A. T. Cox and opponents on the eight-hour bill for women was postponed until next week because the opposition was not prepared.

Borst Speaks in Ohio

Homer W. Borst, executive secretary of the Community Chest, went to Lima, Ohio, today to give talk on "Family Welfare" tonight at the intercity conference of family social workers of northern Ohio.

Colds spread like wildfire in sneezing crowds.

After Exposure Take Hills

WHEN colds are going the rounds and la grippe and pneumonia are prevalent, you must exercise precaution.

You can't escape exposure. But you can strengthen your resistance by taking Hill's Cascara Quinine Tablets regularly.

Colds spread in the sneezing crowds that pack cars, streets, shops and theaters.

Play safe and keep fit. Take Hills before and after exposure.

MRS. EARLS TELLS WOMEN

How Backache and Periodic Pains Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Olean, N. Y.—"Every month my blood would go to my head and I would have such a headache, nosebleed, backache, and pains that I could not do my work. At night I could not get my rest and nothing seemed to do me any good. I read some of your testimonial about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others, so I decided to try it. I had only taken two bottles when I began to be better, and my back did not hurt me nor my head ache. I felt like a new woman. The Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine and I will always recommend it."—Mrs. A. D. EARLS, 630 N. 56th St., Olean, N. Y.

Mrs. Kelsey Adds Her Testimony

Copenhagen, N. Y.—"I read your advertisement in the papers and my husband induced me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to get relief from pains and weakness. I was so weak that I could not walk at times. Now I can do my housework and help my husband out doors, too. I am willing to you to publish this letter."—Mrs. HERBERT KELSEY, R. F. D., Copenhagen, N. Y.

CHAUFFEUR HELD ON GIRL'S CHARGE

Attacked at Point of Revolver, Katherine Lee Testifies.

Fred Walker, 22, chauffeur, 212 W. North St., was in the county jail today unable to furnish $5,000 bond. He is awaiting investigation of charges of criminal assault, carrying concealed weapons, drunkenness, assault and battery and a statutory offense. He was held to the grand jury by city court.

A story of a joy ride which ended when police arrested Walker and a young woman who gave her name as Miss Katherine Lee, 21, in an automobile on the Westfield road near Seventy-Fifth St., was told in city court by Miss Lee. She appeared attired in a Hudson seal coat and a smart afternoon frock. Statutory charges against her were continued indefinitely by Special Judge Lloyd D. Claycombe.

Miss Lee told of having visited a dance hall Tuesday night. Later she accompanied Walker and some other young folk to Garden Point, a chicken dinner place in Broad Ripple, she said. After the dinner, Walker promised to take her home, but instead drove to the Westfield road, she alleged. She testified he covered her with a revolver, struck and mistreated her.

STATE REHABILITATION LAW REPEAL PROPOSED

Second Senate Bill Provides for "Watcher" at Elections.

Repeal of the State vocational rehabilitation law is provided for in a bill introduced by Senator Noble Hays of Scottsburg today.

A measure submitted by Senator Richards of Terre Haute would give the primary committee of each party the right to appoint a watcher during the count of election ballots. It was referred to the committee on elections.

Six bills were passed to third reading. Included in them were Senator Winfield Miller's bill fixing the salary of the Marion County treasurer at $5,000 plus 3 per cent of delinquent taxes collected, and one permitting county commissioners to increase salary of certain judges.

A. J. Elliott, known as "Dad" Elliott, will speak to delegations from Indiana student bodies Saturday evening in the Second Presbyterian Church. The Butler College quartette will sing. Both speakers will come here under auspices of the State Y. M. C. A.

HUSBAND GETS 'LAST WORD,' BUT MUST PAY

Third Spouse Ordered to Give Woman $2 a Week.

"No, judge, he is not my first love," testified Mrs. Franka Hedrick, 65, of 512 W. Pearl St. "He is my third husband. I have had him for ten years and for nearly eight years he has worked a little on and off, but very little judge."

Frank Hedrick was on trial in city court for alleged violation of the "lazy husband" law. After the dinner, Walker promised to take her home, but instead drove to the Westfield road, she alleged. She testified he covered her with a revolver, struck and mistreated her.

"He is not, he is only 58," interrupted his wife.

"Mrs. Hedrick," said Judge Pro Tem George Riniar, "this courtroom is one place where you will be forced to let your husband have something to say without interrupting him."

Hedrick then explained he was a sign painter. He said he earned one dollar last week and gave it to his wife. He admitted that his wife paid the rent on a four-room house and that two of the rooms were rented to roomers. The court ordered Hedrick to pay $2 a week to his wife.

GOOD BEHAVIOR 'BONUS' WANTED FOR PRISONERS

Greencastle Senator Proposes Sliding Scale System.

Prisoners will be entitled to a bonus, according to a bill introduced by Senator Andrew Durham of Greencastle today. The bonus would not be money, but is provided in good behavior sliding scale system, under which persons serving sentence on the State Farm near Putnamville would be discharged earlier if they have a good record. The scale ranges from a three-day bonus on a thirty-day sentence to a 212-day bonus for a two-year sentence.

ALL QUIET AT BLANFORD

There has been no trouble at Blanford, where colored persons have "ordered" to leave town by whites, according to a report received by Adj. Gen. Harry B. Smith from a National Guard observer stationed there. The report said only six colored men had failed to comply with the "order" to leave and that they were not molested.

REALTOR PRAISES WORK OF BOARD

Secretary Returns From Convention.

"The Indianapolis Real Estate Board compares very favorably with other boards throughout the country," said Henly Hottel, executive secretary of the local board. He has just returned from a meeting of the National Association of Real Estate Boards at Jacksonville, Fla.

Several hundred thousand dollars worth of property already have been appraised by the Indianapolis appraisal board this month, Hottel said. This body appraised the city's part of the proposed site for the war memorial plaza.

PERIOD OF GRACE IS GIVEN SMOKE MAKERS

City Wants to Be Sure Its Own "Consumer" Works.

No arrests will be made for violating the city smoke ordinance until it has been proven that the smoke consumer installed recently at the city hall is working satisfactorily, Mayor Shank said today.

The mayor ordered Fred S. Beck, city smoke director, to begin making arrests several days ago when the smoke consumer was first installed at the city hall heating plant, but at the request of Francis F. Hamilton, city buildings commissioner, no arrests will not be made until it is known whether or not the consumer will work during all kinds of weather and atmospheric conditions.

GOV. MORROW DEPLORES HUGE WASTE OF CREDIT

Kentucky's Chief Executive Speaks To Credit Men.

Credit is the rock of our economic life, said Edwin B. Morrow, Governor of Kentucky, in an address to the Indianapolis Association of Credit Men and the wives of members at a banquet in the Hotel Lincoln. Governor Morrow was introduced by Governor Warren T. McCrary.

"Look, there's the Ku-Klux Klan," she said, "Jones testified. "I raised up and looked out at them and was."

"They had black hoods. Two men were not masked. One was sitting in front seat of the touring car, with a sort of white rag tied around his face and the other was in the back of the truck.

"They kept right on until they got out of sight around a bend. On the other side of the curve we saw their lights by the ferry landing. Then the lights went out. After a bit the lights of one of the cars came up again and I started back to us."

REPUBLICANS HERE FOR ANNUAL MEET

Editors and Party Workers Hold Two-Day Confab.

Republican editors and party workers from all parts of the State were in Indianapolis today for the annual midwinter session of the Indiana Republican Editorial Association. The session opened at the Hotel Severin at 11 a. m. today with the showing of motion pictures of the process of paper making.

The editors expected to "talk shop" this afternoon and all day Friday, the meeting culminating Friday night in the annual editorial banquet.

Discussions on the program this afternoon were to be led by Julian D. Hogan of Danville, S. E. Boys of Plymouth, Jay C. Smith of Seymour and Frederick E. Schortemeyer, secretary of the Republican State committee.

"Their lights went on again and this car went on back to the lake and then we got back in the car."

"About an hour or so after the cars went down to the lake the lights went on again and the two cars came back."

"Did they pass close to you?"

"Within a foot or two."

"Were they the same people that you saw when the cars went down to the lake?"

"No, sir, the two men that didn't have black hoods on, they were miss-

"Did you see any other cars that night?"

"Yes, one about 2 o'clock in the morning and two or three coming that way back from the lake."
