WHO was the best three-year-old of 1922?

Morvich, who carried off the two-year-old honors at the close of the 1921 campaign, was a favorite for that distinction, the best three-year-old of 1922. Morvich, after winning the Kentucky Derby, failed miserably. Pillory, winner of the Preakness, also lacked consistency. The star three-year-old performers, Bunting, Lucky Hour, Kalsung, Morvich, Whiskaway, Snob II, Rockminster and the rest were in-and-outers.

The best three-year-old of 1922 will probably remain open to debate. It should be a much easier matter to rate the best three-year-olds of 1923. There will be no clash between the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness; the classics of the turf in the South and East. There will be no racing a week apart. There will be no racing on the part of some of the owners for ducking the issue to determine the three-year-old supremacy.

Now for the second Franklin-Wash scramble, at Franklin Thursday.

Columbus, Ind., is getting ready for baseball. Paul Hurst has been elected president of the baseball association of that city and a playing manager soon will be appointed.

Eight members of the Wisconsin track squad can leave their race tops in moth balls. The faculty has declared that number ineligible.

Navy twirlers will have an Indian sign on the batters this spring. Chief Bender, famous star of the old Athletics, has been engaged to assist the regular coaches in teaching the super-gobs how to pitch.

HELLO, HOLYVER! ELEVEN OUT OF TWELVE SHOTS FROM THE FOUL LINE IS NO ORDINARY FEAT. BULLY FOR OLD FRED!

It may or may not be just a coincidence that the place in the fence where Babe Ruth hits 'em over is just a wee bit closer to the home plate in the New York Yanks' new park than the fence at the Polo Grounds, where the Yanks have been at home for the last few years. In other places the fences are a bit farther from the home plate.

Wabash-De Pauw basketball dates have been switched at the request of Tiger authorities. Schedule now calls for Wabash to play in Greencastle next Monday and De Pauw to play in Crawfordsville March 7.

Sidney Glick, Indianapolis lightweight, has made his first appearance in an Eastern ring. He outpointed Emil Glazer before a Brooklyn club in ten rounds. Glick has joined the Frank Bagley stable. Bagley managed Gene Tunney when Tunney was American light heavy champ.

Bobby Bridges, local welterweight, must be developing a kick in his gloves. His latest victim was Jack Shea, whom he sent down for the count in eight rounds at Louisville.

The Joe Stecher-John Friberg heavy-weight wrestling bout carded for this city Friday night has been canceled by promoter Ted Smith. Smith gave as the reason inability to obtain either the Empire Theater or Tomlinson Hall. It is possible the big fellows will be brought together in 19, or a match substituted with Stranger Lewis as one of the principals.

City Boxing Commission Grants Fight Dates for Coming Months

CHOICE MAY 29 PERMIT GOES TO AMERICAN CLUB

Three Bid for Fistic Plum Night Before Annual Speedway Race.

The May 29 boxing permit, considered somewhat of a plum among Indianapolis promoters, has been granted to the American A. C. by the city boxing commission of seven councilmen. The commission met Tuesday night.

Applications from three clubs were received for the important date, it was said, but it is understood two withdrew and left the field to the American A. C. Nate Farb is matchmaker.

According to Ira Bramlett, a member of the commission, the Washington A. C. and the Pivot City A. C. were the other applicants.

Last year the Loyal Order of Moose staged the May 29 boxing show, and it is said the affair was not a financial success.

The reason the May 29 permit is considered a plum by promoters is the fact that the 500-mile race occurs the day following, and the chances for a big gate are unusually good. If the race date is changed this year, it is understood the American A. C. will be permitted to change its boxing date.

Other boxing and wrestling permits were granted by the boxing commission Tuesday. They follow:

Feb. 19—Wrestling permit, to the Gayety A. C. Ted Smith matchmaker.

Feb. 22—Boxing permit, to the American A. C. Nate Farb matchmaker.

March 5—Wrestling permit to the Gayety A. C. Ted Smith matchmaker.

March 12—Boxing permit, to the Washington A. C. Ed W. Harter matchmaker.

March 23—Boxing permit, to the American A. C. Nate Farb, matchmaker.

PURDUE FIVE WINS TIGHT ONE

By Times Special. LAFAYETTE, Ind., Feb. 7.—The Wisconsin-Purdue game here Tuesday night developed into a duel at the foul line between Gage of the Badgers and Holwerda of the Bollermakers. The final score was 17 to 15 in favor of Purdue. The local forward made eleven out of twelve chances good from the fifteen-foot line while Gage could snag only seven out of thirteen. It was the margin of victory.

The teams put up such a tight defensive that it was almost impossible to get shots. Only three field goals were made. Each club field goal guard, Gullion for two and Davis, who substituted for Robbins, dropped in one for the winners. Gage, Spooner and Elsom counted from the field for the losers.

Robbins, the great little floor guard of Purdue, was out of the game before the first half ended on personal fouls and Davis, who took his place, made the most of his opportunity by playing a fine game and contributing one of the few-and-far-between field goals.

The struggle was close all the way, the score at the half being tied at 9 apiece. Everman was fast and clever on the floor, while Wellman at back guard, played one of his best games of the season.

The loss was the first of the season for the Badgers in the Big Ten race. They have won four games and are tied with Michigan for second place in the western conference.

HERE is the Central High School squad of Evansville that startled Indiana basketball followers by trouncing the Vincennes Wonder Five on the Vincennes floor last Friday night, 31 to 29. The Evansville team lost to Vincennes by eleven points at Evansville. Vincennes is the only team that has defeated them this year.

Reports from the game stated that the Vincennes team was outplayed and the winning team deserved its great victory.

The Evansville team is coached by Herb Henderson, former Ohio State grid star. Henderson has been at Evansville two years and has developed football on a high plane there. He is now acting in a supervisory capacity over athletics in both of the high schools in Evansville, but personally coaches the Central team.

In Flentke and Allen, Henderson has two of the best all-around athletes in the State. Both were mainstays on the gridiron and Flentke scored seven field goals against Vincennes before he was removed from the game on personal fouls. Allen is captain and is an A-1 student, as well as a fine athlete.

WABASH SWAMPS QUAKER NETTERS

Earlham Gets Only One Field Goal Throughout Game.

By Times Special. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 7.—Wabash got plenty of revenge Tuesday night for its earlier defeat by Earlham. The Little Giants walked all over their rivals from Richmond, the count at the end of things being, 46 to 9. It was a walkaway from the start and the first half ended 27 to 3.

Wabash was able to send Chadwick against Earlham this time and the big center made a great deal of difference in the play of the team. Captain Adam was feeling just right and found the hoop for six baskets. Chadwick and Goldsberry contributed four each. A number of the substitutes got a chance in the contest and went good during the last minutes of the tilt.

Grater and Goldsberry put up a real defense and the Quakers got very few shots. They made only one field goal in the forty minutes.

FAMOUS FOOTBALL STAR TO REFEREE BIG FIGHT HERE

Walter Eckersall Will Be Third Man in Taylor-Moore Go Feb. 13.

Walter Eckersall, famous a number of years ago as all-American quarter back with the Chicago University eleven, today was named by Matchmaker Harter to be the third man in the ring at the Paul Moore-Bud Taylor feature bantam bout at Tomlinson Hall next Tuesday night.

Eckersall has stepped out as a boxing critic and referee in recent years and his national prestige is expected to add luster to the scrap between Indiana's premier bantam and the clever boy from Memphis.

The third man in the ring at the three other bouts on the fistic card Tuesday will be Heze Clark, also a former famous football player. Clark starred with Indiana when Eckersall was Chicago's sensation and they were in conflicts together on opposing teams.

Taylor is working out in Terra Haute for the scrap here and Moore is tuning up in Chicago. Terra Hautes will be behind Taylor strong in the big scrap and at least 100 ring fans are expected over from the "Hut."

The Butler basketball team will meet the Hanover five Friday at the Irvington gym at 7:45 p. m. Hanover has some good players on the squad and showed good defensive ability in the game with Franklin last week. Butler will not enter the game overconfident, as some surprises have been sprung on the small floor of the Irvington gym.

Next week State Normal will be met here on Tuesday night, and Butler will go to Crawfordsville to play Wabash on Friday night. Eight days later, on Saturday, Feb. 24, one of the feature battles of the season will be played here, when the Little Giants and Butler mix at Tomlinson Hall.

South side fistic fans are interested in the main go bout at the Marion Club tonight. Solly Epstein, former newsboy champion, is trying a comeback in a ten-round scrap with Joe Cappadora of Ft. Benjamin Harrison. The boys will meet at 116 pounds. Solly has been training full time for weeks in an effort to regain some of his old form.

In meeting Cappadora, Epstein is going to face a hard-fisted battler. The lad from the Army post is short on ring craft, but, like most boxers from the fort, he is said to carry a punch.

Five bouts are on the Marion Club card and the first will be staged at 8:30. Frank Gardner will referee.

CHICAGO MEN TO REVIVE RACING

Plan Is to Restore Famous Old American Derby.

By United Press. CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—In hopeful anticipation of legislation favorable to horse-racing in Illinois, a group of wealthy Chicagoans have incorporated the Chicago Washington Park Club at Springfield and are now trying to recruit about 500 members. The club has been incorporated for the encouragement of clean and healthful horse-racing. It has been announced, and not for pecuniary gain. The new organization hopes to restore to Illinois the famous old American derby. Present directors are Arthur Meeker, Stanley Field, Silas H. Strawn, John Borden and Maj. Frederick McLaughlin.
