

RUHR SOCIALISTS ARE READY TO MAKE PEACE WITH FRANCE

WOMAN, TRAPPED IN BEDROOM BY FLAMES, ESCAPES

Fumes of Blaze Awaken Boarder Just in Time to Save Life.

HORSES VICTIMS OF FIRE

Hotel Guests Flee During Night When Smoke Causes Scare.

In one of three fires during the night Monday Miss Orvela F. Zook, 25, had a narrow escape from death when a coal oil stove exploded and the flaming oil covered the bed on which she was sleeping. Miss Zook has been rooming at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allison Davis, 514 S. Alabama St. The building is a two-story brick double. She occupied the rear upstairs room.

In another fire, three horses were burned. In a third fire, on Massachusetts Ave., heavy damage to the stock of candy in a store as caused by smoke and water.

"How I got out of that room I don't know," Miss Zook said today. "I was awakened by the choking fumes of the flames that covered my bed and lit the room. I screamed and ran to the door. I had locked it. How in the world I got it open I don't know. When I reached the hall I was met by Mr. and Mrs. Davis, who had heard my screams. My clothing was not burned, but my hat was singed."

The bed clothing was destroyed. The interior wood work of the room was burned. Some of Miss Zook's dresses were burned.

Davis estimated the damage at more than $300. C. A. Schrader owns the house. The stove that exploded is the same type as that which exploded and caused the death of a woman a week ago.

Three horses were burned when fire of undetermined origin destroyed a barn owned by J. Moore, contractor, 1066 Fremont St. The loss of the barn was estimated at $500, but no estimate was made of the value of the horses.

Guests of the Hoosier Inn, 440 Massachusetts Ave., fled to the street, partly dressed, when smoke began to pour into the hotel from a fire in the Best Candy Kitchen, 454 Massachusetts Ave. Firemen confined the flames to the kitchen, which was entirely destroyed. Fire, water and smoke damage amounted to $1,750.

HARRY K. THAW IS GRANTED VACATION

Slayer of Stanford White Will Visit Mother Until March 3.

By United Press PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—A formal application temporarily releasing Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, from the Pennsylvania Hospital for the Insane, so that he can visit his mother, Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw, in Pittsburgh, was signed by Judge J. W. Martin today.

Thaw will be released at once, under a guard, who will accompany him during his vacation. He will return to the institution not later than March 3.

EVELYN EXPECTS HARRY

Cabaret Woman Says Former Husband Will Visit Her.

By United Press ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Feb. 20.—Evelyn Nesbit expects Harry K. Thaw, formerly her husband, to "drop down and see her for a day or so," she said today when informed that the millionaire slayer of Stanford White was to be released from the Pennsylvania Hospital for the insane to permit him to visit his mother in Pittsburgh.

DESCENDANT OF EARL DIES

Pioneer Hoosier Will Be Buried at Former Home, Greensburg.

Funeral services of James A. Cunningham, 91, who died Sunday, will be held at the home, 51 Layman Ave., at 8 p. m. today. Burial will be in Greensburg, Ind.

Mr. Cunningham was born in Mt. Carmel, Ind. He moved to Acton, Ind., in 1855. He lived in Greensburg forty-three years. In 1907 he came to Indianapolis and retired.

His father settled in Indiana in 1788. Surviving are the widow, a daughter, Martha; two sons, L. S. and Dr. Charles M., and a brother, Elmer, living at College Corner. Mr. Cunningham was a direct descendant of James Cunningham, Earl of Glencairn, Scotland.

GERMAN BILL OPPOSED

Parent-Teachers and Central W. C. T. U. Pass Resolutions.

The board of directors of the Indianapolis Parent-Teachers Federation was on record today as opposing the teaching of German in public schools and also the textbook bill. The Central W. C. T. U. also has passed a resolution against the teaching of German in the schools.

Dies in Terrible Crash

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 20.—Terminated by a dream of a dead and her Mrs. Linda Giltz, 25, of a heart attack. Her

Four in Custody Here Pending Probe

SUSPECTS HELD IN BLACK HAND HUNT CONFESS IDENTITY

Deny Implication in Alleged West Virginia Murder Ring.

Two Italians, held here for investigation into whether they are connected with an alleged black hand murder gang at Clarksburg, W. Va., according to detectives, today admitted their identity to be:

Sebastino Muratore, 41, of Clarksburg, and Tonello Remando, 29.

Two women, Laura Agnes Edwards, 21, and Mary Norman, 21, were arrested with the two men in a raid by detectives at 302 E. South St., Monday as told exclusively in The Times in late editions Monday.

Charges of vagrancy against the four were continued in city court until Feb. 8. They are held in jail, the men under $10,000 bonds each and the women under $5,000 bonds each.

The West Virginia gang is said to have had a part in the killing of Bella Lamon, July 13, at Baltimore.

The prisoners maintained their innocence, but detectives said they admitted they knew of the murders.

Detectives Allen and Radamacher, who shadowed the men before the raid, said Muratore admitted he had a wife in Cabiria, Italy, that he left there three years ago, left Clarksburg about the time the murders were committed, went to Cumberland, Md., and came here Feb. 13.

According to Allen and Radamacher, Muratore admitted he was a miner in Cumberland about that all four were in Cumberland about Feb. 1, when a man named Patro was murdered in Clarksburg. They said the prisoner, said Muratore left Cumberland a few days before the murder and came back a few days afterward. The prisoners said they knew the murdered man and discussed the affair after they had read of it in newspapers, according to the detectives. Muratore denied he was out of Cumberland at this time.

The raid on South St., following information telephoned by Police Chief Wolf of Clarksburg, and an investigation made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher.

Detectives said they were told by one of those under arrest that all four were in Cumberland about Feb. 1, when a man named Patro was murdered in Clarksburg. They said the prisoner, said Muratore left Cumberland a few days before the murder and came back a few days afterward. The prisoners said they knew the murdered man and discussed the affair after they had read of it in newspapers, according to the detectives. Muratore denied he was out of Cumberland at this time.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses. This was one of the marks of identification given by Clarksburg police.

The raid was made by Detectives Allen and Radamacher, Conway, DeRosette, Fields, Kernode and Shaffner. No firearms were found.

The officers are puzzled by the fact that both men under arrest here have scars on their foreheads and noses.