SOCIAL Activities ENTERTAINMENTS WEDDINGS BETROTHALS

SORORITIES are becoming larger, more numerous and more important each year and as each girl when she leaves college joins an alumnae organization the Greek letter women are legion. The first national sorority was founded in Indiana fifty years ago so we Hoosiers can really claim to be the cradle of this great movement.

Many Indianapolis women remember the old days when one wore her sorority emblem on her shoulder or her hat or tie or cuff and never thought of having a definite location just over the heart where most girls wear them today. In those days, there was no standard of form and all sizes and shapes of pins set with various gems were worn. The chapter house and training of "pledges" was unheard of.

Over hundred and fifty members of the Alpha Chi Omega Sorority held their annual State luncheon Saturday in the Travertine room at the Lincoln. The lighted pins, the sorority emblem, and baskets of spring flowers were used in decoration. Fifty members of the Indianapolis alumnae chapter, twenty-five from Purdue and Indiana and forty-one from De Pauw were present. Mrs. C. E. Cunningham, vice president of the Indianapolis alumnae, was toastmistress. Toasts were given by Miss Floy Winkles, De Pauw; Miss Marjorie Mahin, Purdue; Miss Henrietta Little, Indiana; Mrs. Claud Wayant, Greensburg alumnae, and Mrs. Ferner F. Cannon, Indianapolis alumnae. Mrs. S. K. Ruick of the Lincoln Trio gave organ selections. Miss Lorinda Cunningham violin numbers and Mrs. Clark Best vocal solos. Each chapter presented a stunt.

At the dance this evening favors will be parasols and hats and the program will be of tortoise shell with scarlet and green streamers, the sorority colors. Mrs. E. H. Jennie is general chairman for the luncheon and dance.

The Indianapolis Alumnae Association of Kappa Kappa Gamma will entertain its annual party for the active chapter at Butler on Saturday, March 10 at the Spink-Arms at 2 o'clock. The entire chapter will attend and will present a stunt pertaining to life at Butler. Mrs. Delos Alig is chairman of the hostess committee, assisted by Mrs. Robert Gilliland, Mrs. George Losey, Mrs. P. K. Buskirk, Mrs. J. P. Field Steele, Mrs. Hubert Hickman, Mrs. E. J. Bolander, Mrs. Lyman Templeton, Mrs. Charles Ralshack, Mrs. Hughes Patten, Mrs. L. H. Millikan, Mrs. Tom Elrod, Mrs. Joseph Osterander, Mrs. Samuel Hansen, Miss Florence Wilson, Miss Mary Wilson, Mrs. George Cornelius and Mrs. Mark Resoner. Mrs. Horace Caldwell is chairman of the entertainment committee.

The meeting of the Indianapolis Alumnae Association of Kappa Alpha Theta, which was to have been held at the home of Miss Jean Brown, next Saturday afternoon, will be held at the home of Miss Morine Jeffries on Audubon Rd. Miss Virginia Moorehead, Mrs. James Murray, Miss Jean Steele and Miss Grace Parrott form the program committee.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dyer will spend next week in Chicago.

Miss Dorothy Ballard has as her guests over the weekend Miss Irene Thompson of Danville, and Miss Katherine Meyers of West Lafayette, who have come to attend the State luncheon and dance of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

Miss Minnie Spigner and the Boosters' Committee had charge of the luncheon.

NORMA TALMADGE'S Manners By Norma Talmadge

CONSIDERATION of the rights of others is an attribute of the courteous. One's breeding is constantly on trial in this respect, wherever he may be. Utmost consideration is necessary in all manner of public assemblages, but especially in the theater, where one's actions may make or mar the pleasure for which another has paid.

At the Theater

1. Men remove their top coats and hats before taking their seats, either checking or holding them. Women doff their wraps in the lobby, but remove their hats after being seated.

2. One who arrives after the orchestra has begun to play should enter unobtrusively as possible; one who arrives after the play has started should wait until the first intermission before taking his seat.

3. Either the man or the woman may properly precede in following the usher to their seats; but never walk down the aisle with arms linked.

4. One avoids continued conversation during the play; likewise boisterous applause.

5. One does not begin putting on wraps during the last act, but waits until the curtain falls.

—Martha Lee's Advice—

Hubby Would Win Back Love of Neglected Wife

HE loved her. He won her. And then he lost her.

It was his fault. He realized his mistake too late, and tried to hold her. Now he wants to win her again.

Read about it, men. This man's experience may be yours.

Lost Wife's Love

Dear Miss Lee: I was married at 19 to the best girl a man could want. We were married seven years and I was so bad I lost her. She got a divorce last fall. While we were separated I tried hard to show her I knew what her love meant to me.

The trouble was, I sought other women and neglected my wife, as men do. I can look back and see how I pelted her. If I had shown her half the affection she showed me, we should be together still.

We have a boy, 6. I love him dearly. I know my wife cares for no other man. Do you think that by doing nothing now I could win her back? Or would you try and help her? I know I am to blame. Here's hoping that others will not make the mistake I made, after they get the girl.

Yours truly, W. E. W.

Your letter should be a "Stop" sign to many husbands.

You threw away your happiness, but, by sincere effort, you may be able to regain it. Begin your courtship all over. If your wife turns you away, ask her, for your son's sake, to give you a chance to prove that you are sincere in your wish to do better.

I hope you win.

Wants a Home

Dear Miss Lee: I cannot get my husband to leave his parents so I can go to housekeeping by myself. We have been married two years and have been with his parents all the time. His mother and I quarrel all the time. I don't like to quarrel with her. I love my husband and he thinks a lot of me and our baby. What is your advice?

F. B. VIRGINIA.

Want to make a home for him and the baby. Explain to him you love his mother, but that you quarrel just because you are thrown together so much. Ask him to get a home for you near his parents' home. Then you could see them frequently, but would be happier.

Wait a Few Years

Dear Miss Lee: I am 17 and go with a fellow of 20. I am sure he loves me. I am not hesitating because he is very young and our religious differ. Do you think he is too old for me?

WAITING.

COULD HARDLY DO ANY WORK

But Since Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound This Woman Feels So Well

Keesville, N.Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for the good it has done me. I was so much troubled with female weakness I could hardly do any work. I saw your advertisement in the paper, and read it to my husband. He said, 'You had better try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,' so I bought six bottles, and by taking it I am not troubled as I was. I am gaining strength and getting fleshy. My female troubles have vanished and I have never felt so well. The Liver Pills are the best I ever took. If you think my letter will encourage other sufferers, you have my permission to use it as an advertisement."—Mrs. SARAH BLAISE, Box 177, Keesville, N.Y.

Doing the housework for the average American family is some task, and many women lose their health in so doing. If you, as a housewife, are troubled with backache, irregularities, are easily tired out and irritable, or have other disagreeable ailments caused by some weakness, give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. Let it help you.
