'PET' MEASURE IS KILLED

Amendment Causes Democrats to Defeat Soldiers' Orphans' Bill.

A pet measure of Senate Republicans was indefinitely postponed in the Senate late Monday when Democrats discovered a "rider" amendment to Representative Harrison's House bill standardizing the course of study in the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Knightstown. Both the bill and amendment were killed on motion of Senator Chambers.

The amendment provided that Civil War veterans could not serve as trustees of the home. At present, they are the only ones eligible. Provisions of the amendment originally were in another bill of Representative Harrison, but this bill also was killed in the Senate.

JUDGES' SALARIES FIXED

Salaries of the judge of the Indianapolis city court and his associate, an office created by the present Legislature, were fixed late Monday, when both houses concurred in a conference committee report.

The joint committee recommended a salary of $4,200 for the chief judge and $3,800 for his associate. At present the city judge receives $4,000. The original bill provided for $6,000 for the chief judge and $4,000 for the associate. Representative Updike introduced the measure which now goes to the Governor.

LANGUAGE BILL IS PASSED

Governor Gets Measure Applying to Elementary Schools.

Safety past the Legislature, the Elkhart House bill prohibiting the teaching of any modern foreign language in private, public or parochial elementary schools of Indiana was up to Governor McCray today.

The measure passed the Senate late Monday, 35 to 1. Senator Cann, cast the lone vote against the bill. Later he explained that he misunderstood the question, and desired to vote "aye."

At Alto Cruero, Bolivia, water freezes every night in the year, while at noon the sun sometimes is hot enough to raise blisters on the skin.

COMMISSION IS APPROVED

Governor Gets Bill Providing Investigation of Waterways Project.

The House bill creating an Indiana deep waterways commission to investigate the great lakes-to-ocean shipping project was up to Governor McCray today, following passage in the Senate late Monday, 35 to 4.
