

Y. W. SECRETARIES END CONFERENCE

Representatives From Five States Outline New Methods.

The regional conference of the general secretaries of the Y. W. C. A. closed today. At the morning session Mrs. W. F. Hodges, president of the Gary Y. W. C. A., presided. Questions of membership and publicity were taken up. Methods of putting new spirit in membership were presented by Miss Maude Corbett, general secretary at Gary, and Miss Rennie Sebring Smith, general secretary at Muncie.

Miss Spencer discussed the proposed changes in the basis of membership in city associations. Miss Ruth Denison, general secretary at Evansville, discussed publicity as related to the life of the association. Luncheon was held in Hollenbeck Hall, with Mrs. Fred Hoke and Miss Pearl Forsyth in charge of discussions. This afternoon Miss Abigail Keegan, president of the Ft. Wayne association, presided. At this session Miss Anna Pyott, region industrial secretary, talked of the relationship of the Y. W. C. A. industrial department to the whole association, and Miss Marie L'Honnedeu, region finance secretary, on "Our Responsibility in a National and World Program."

With Any Old Frock and Deauville Scarf You Will Be Distinctive as Well as in Tip-Top Style

By MARIAN HALE
NEA Writer.

THE most distinctive novelty of this season—a good many seasons, in fact—is the colorful Deauville scarf.

Deauville, as you doubtless know, is the great French summer resort—one of the gayest, one of the most expensive, one of the most fashionable in Europe.

It was at Deauville, you may remember, that King Alfonso of Spain spent a lot of time last season dancing with any number of pretty girls, giving an expensive brooch to each of those he favored thus—making himself so popular, indeed, that this year his advisers said they'd rather he stayed at home—his cutting around had attracted a little too much attention.

For Sports Wear

Anyway, the Deauville scarf first appeared at this famed resort—originally intended for sports wear.

But it was too much of a success to be limited, in its activities, to any time, place or style of frock, and today it's featured in connection with evening gowns, afternoon attire, house dresses and even kimono.

It's added pep and dash to the dull costumes women had accepted for business wear and it's relieved the deadly monotony of the collarless neckline.

Naturally there are bound to be variations, so it isn't surprising to find ribbon being used decoratively in a manner which the scarf plainly inspired.

Save Your Frock

The photographs will give you suggestions that may enable you to save the old frock you'd intended to discard, evolving a snappy Easter costume from it instead, by the purchase of a few yards of ribbon and the expenditure of a little ingenuity.

To make the ribbon fichu (lower right) you need three yards of taffeta ribbon, preferably figured, doubled over with a loop knot in the very center and then the doubled pieces stitched together for half a yard, then knotted again. One end is drawn through the loop knot and the other's used to make the bow or knot that tie it.

At the upper left is shown an adjustable duster that may be used about the neck or hips, as you please. To make it, two pieces of ribbon are mitered to make a corner—one piece about a yard long with a double knot or loop in it through which the other end, about three-fourths of a yard, slips.

Fore and Aft

The upper right and lower left are fore and aft views of the same arrangement of the scarf. Four pieces of wide ribbon are mitered together by double hemstitching or fagoting. The opening formed by the pieces must be large enough to slip easily over the head. Once on, the scarf may be worn as a square or it can be pulled around so that one point comes down in front, with both shoulders and the back adorned with the other points. The shoulder points may be knotted or only one point tied. The clever girl can make her own adjustments.

KEEPS BOY'S HAIR COMBED

Mother! Boy's Hair Stays Combed, Well-Groomed

Few Cents Buys Jar Any Drugstore Not Sticky, Greasy or Smelly

"Hair-Groom" keeps any boy's unruly or stubborn hair combed, either pompadour, straight-back or parted. As the boy's hair is combed in the morning, so it stays all day. If applied after a shampoo, the hair can be combed as neatly and as easily as before. "Cow-licks" stay down.

Greaseless—Does not stain pillow! Hair-Groom is a dignified combing cream which is quickly absorbed, therefore does not show on the hair. It leaves the hair glossy and lustrous, but not sticky. Fine for hair!

Nothing else gives a boy or man more dignity than neatly combed, well-groomed hair. Millions of women buy "Hair-Groom" for their boys—also for their husbands.—Advertisement.

Must Be a Reason

Dear Miss Lee: I love a fellow and believe he cares for me. Mother does not approve of my going with him. Should I give him up? UNDECIDED GIRL.

Why does your mother disapprove? Find out. Then either prove to her she is wrong or give him up, if you can't convince her. She is thinking of your happiness.

All Are to Blame

Dear Martha Lee: I am 21 and went with a girl steady for two years. We were to be married on my twenty-third birthday. My father and mother would not consent. My girl said she would wait. I consented, because my father was the kind to take the matter to court.

This girl's mother and father are dead.

AN INTIMATE STORY OF INNERMOST EMOTIONS REVEALED IN PRIVATE LETTERS
Copyright 1925-NEA Service Inc.

LETTER FROM JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT TO JOSEPH GRAVES HAMILTON.
Joseph Graves Hamilton, Sharon, Pa.

My Dear Mr. Hamilton—

By the time you receive this letter Leslie probably will have told you that I have asked her to be my wife. As you know nothing of me, however, I thought it would be nothing less than honorable to tell you a little about the man to whom you are being asked to give your daughter.

As you probably have guessed from my name, John Alden Prescott, my forebears were of Puritan stock. My father is dead and my mother has enough to keep her comfortably without any help from me.

My mother is especially proud of being a direct descendant of John Alden, but that of course means nothing to me. In fact, I have felt that all my life I have been somewhat circumscribed and confined because my mother expected me to live up to the more or less narrow precepts of my ancestors.

I haven't done it. I am just a modern young man who has gone through college with more or less escapades and honors—perhaps more escapades and less honors.

However, I have not done anything that I am sure even you would consider unpardonable.

Of course, I cannot expect to keep Leslie in the way in which she now lives, but I am getting $4,000 a year with the Acme Advertising Company, and I have prospects of being raised another thousand shortly, and a good chance of becoming a member of the firm some day.

Leslie tells me that she is sure she can live on a comparatively small salary and I think perhaps she would be willing to make some sacrifices for me, at least for a while. I shall give up my means nothing to me beside the fact that I shall be privileged to call the sweetest woman in all the world my wife.

If you think me not wholly unworthy it will give me the greatest joy, but I must also tell you that with or without your consent, I shall make Leslie Hamilton my wife, because I love her with all my heart, and she has told me that she loves me.

Respectfully yours,
JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT.

LETTER FROM JOSEPH GRAVES HAMILTON TO JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT

Mr. John Alden Prescott, Albany, N. Y.

My Dear Sir—
So you want to marry my girl, do you?

Well, I've been expecting this for a long while. I knew some man would have the good taste to pick her out, but I must also tell you that I was very glad to get your letter, my boy, because Leslie had been singing your praises from the moment I met her at the train, and yet I found that she really knew nothing about you.

I asked her what you were going to live on, and she did not know; in fact, with the exception of knowing the name of your advertising company, she knew nothing about your present earning capacity or your future prospects.

I think she did tell me that you

Have Curly, Wavy Hair Like "Nature's Own"

Women who have trouble keeping their hair in curl, or of securing the desired wavy effect, should try the new slimmer method. In no other way can they acquire such pretty waves and curls, having all the appearance of "Nature's own." And the hair, instead of being shaggy, ragged or dead looking, has such a lively lustre and wholesome beauty. When combed out it is nice and fluffy. If one will get a bottle of plain liquid slimmer at any drug store and follow the accompanying directions, she will be simply delighted with the result. This product is perfectly harmless and there is nothing sticky, greasy or unpleasant about it.—Advertisement.

Every Day in Every Way Good Teeth will Make You Better and Better

Good Teeth are Essential to Good Health

There is no question about it; you can not be normally healthy and happy if your teeth are not well. Don't let them go with the idea that tomorrow is soon enough, because every day you let them go they get harder and harder to remedy. We will give you a careful examination without cost.

The extraction of my teeth at the People's Dentists was accomplished without pain. You are more than welcome to use my name.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Any one who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It is very easily prepared, and there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a pint bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and disappear. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, spasmodic croup and hoarseness.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.—Advertisement.

The Consumer's OPPORTUNITY

MANUFACTURERS of every kind of canned food from coast to coast are cooperating this week with the grocers to make it a harvest time for housewives.

This week is the Consumer's opportunity to buy delicious, palatable and nourishing canned foods at prices which are lower, with few exceptions, than existed before the war. Your Grocer has provided special displays of canned foods from all parts of the world. He offers special values which will enable you to actually save money on your grocery bill. Buy canned foods by the case or the dozen. Ask your grocer to explain to you the saving effected by this method of buying.

Now is the logical time to fill the pantry with canned fruits, vegetables and meats.
