

FIGHT ON PAVING TO GO TO COURT

Bookwalter Scores North
Siders for Remonstrance.

A resolution for paving Fall Creek Blvd. N. Dr. from Thirtieth to Thirty-Eighth St. has been ordered submitted to circuit court by Charles A. Bookwalter, president at the park board, in an effort to have a remonstrance against it overruled.

The remonstrance was received by the park board Tuesday. Paving of the street has been under consideration for some time, but the board is powerless to act unless the remonstrance is set aside by the court.

"These wealthy people who live in the best sections of the city are the ones who hold up improvements," Bookwalter said. "Persons living on streets where the property is barely able to stand the assessments ask us to give them sidewalks and streets and get them out of the mud."

The board approved plans for a $40,000 swimming pool at Melkel and McCauley Sts. The pool will be 50x75 feet.

A request by the Rev. C. G. Baker, president of the Hawthorne Community Association that the board pay a $1,000 mortgage on a plot of ground north of Washington St., between Bellview and Mount St. to New York St., was approved. The ground is to be used as a park and community center.

A tract north of Watson Road and east of Guilford Ave. was ordered purchased from Mrs. Ida B. Hasselman for $25,000. It will be converted into a park.

The board ordered definite action on acquisition of ground at State and Spann Ave., to be used as a playground. The board has appraised the property at $29,500. The owner, Harry D. Pierce asks $35,000. Continued hearing will be held next Thursday to effect a compromise.
