

BULGIN DESCRIBES BEST WAY TO RUN INFERNAL REGIONS

Devil Gets Some Pointers
From Evangelist at Tabernacle.

Hitting at the evils of the modern dance, card parties, frivolities of life, false standards of living and vulgar dress," Dr. E. J. Bulgin, evangelist at Cadle Tabernacle, delivered a sermon Monday night on "If I Were the Devil, How Would I Run Hell?"

"I would keep on doing a lot of the things you people in Indianapolis are doing now," he asserted.

"First I would enter the arena of dress. I would lure people with dress. Any woman who is vulgar in dress merely advertises the first sin."

"Next, I'd get in society and smooth the name of Jesus Christ. The emptiest thing in the world is society. It has no Bible, no God—it is nothing."

"Stop Right There"

"Then, I'd be a moral man and stop right there. A moral man is good in society, but you cannot substitute morality for Christianity."

"If I were the devil I would lay down a liberal code. But, folks, liberty is produced only by obeying those laws that are made for your well-being."

"I'd institute some pleasure—the dance. It is a time killer and a health destroyer. Ninety-five per cent of our fallen women blame the start or their downfall on the dance."

"I'd get some of my imps on all the church boards in the country. I'd go out and get a banker or a business man, because people say Christians are old fashioned. I would want to have some one who knows business."

"Imps to Write Books"

"I'd get my imps to write all the school books. Finally I'd effect a compromise on moral and spiritual question and substitute intellect for salvation."

Bulgin concluded by saying the devil uses all those wiles to blind the eyes of man.

The Rev. Percy James, assistant to Dr. Bulgin, arranged special services for school children after-school hours today.

Bulgin's subject tonight: "The Philosophy of Faith."

FORD MAY BUY VIRGINIA RAILROAD

Motor King Offers $90,000,000; $110,000,000 Asked.

By United Press
DETROIT, Mich., April 10.—Reports were current today that the Ford Motor Company is negotiating to purchase the Virginia Railroad.

Information that officials of the southern railroad held a meeting in New York last night, after which they refused to affirm or deny the report, added strength to the rumor.

A report from Norfolk, where Henry Ford was a recent visitor, stated that the motor king had offered $90,000,000 for the railroad. The directors, it is said, demanded $110,000,000.

Acquisition of the Virginia Railroad would give Ford direct connection with his extensive coal fields and also a through route from Detroit to the Atlantic coast.

BASEBALL TEAM GUESTS

TRIED MANY; FOUND THE BEST

Black-Draught Gives Satisfaction,
Says an Indiana Man Who Has Used It in His Family for a Good Many Years.

Harding Grove, Ind.—"I can recommend Black-Draught very highly for the benefit it has been to my own family," said Mr. Joe Craft of this town. "In all my years of married life, trying many liver medicines, I have never found one that gave the satisfaction that Black-Draught has."

"I use it for indigestion and when I have colds. My wife had severe headaches from torpid liver, or indigestion, so we use it for that. It cleanses the liver and is fine to carry off cold. I use a pinch after meals, except when I have a heavy cold or bitter taste in the mouth and a drowsy, tired feeling, then I take a good heavy dose and soon feel all right."

"I have used Black-Draught for a good many years and am satisfied enough to keep it up. I have recommended it to others, and have had them tell me that it was very good and they would keep it as a family medicine."

In first-aid home treatment of common colds, Thedford's Black-Draught has been found very helpful when taken as an adjunct medicine to regulate the bowels and help stimulate the liver to drive poisons out of the system.

Black-Draught is a purely vegetable herb remedy. It contains no calomel or other mineral drugs. It acts on the liver, stomach and bowels, in a simple, natural way and without bad after-effects.

Sold by all druggists. Try it. 25c.—Advertisement

Bulgin Bolts

BY E. J. BULGIN

Evangelist at Cadle Tabernacle

The hardest devil to manage is the one who comes as an angel of light.

Spiritualism is demonology at work in the world.

The best explanation of the word devil is imperialism of the human will.

A moral man is a dangerous advertisement for the devil's business. You can't get into heaven on morality alone.

Change the man and he'll find the right environment—You can't change the environment and make a man.

A remedy for the dance is a good dose of salvation.

At present picture shows are not a pleasure, they are a dissipation.

ARMY DIRIGIBLE ENDS LONG FLIGHT

TC-1 Reaches Illinois Army Field Safely.

The TC-1 was at its new home today—Scott Field, the Army post at Belleville, Ill., near St. Louis.

After a three-hour visit in Indianapolis, where it stopped at Ft. Benjamin Harrison for gasoline, the new airship, largest non-rigid dirigible of the United States Army, completed its journey at 5:40 p. m. Monday. It made the trial flight from Wingfoot Lake station, Akron, Ohio, where it was built, to Scott Field in fourteen hours and twenty-five minutes. Ft. Harrison was the only stop.

JAY WALKERS ADD TO TRAFFIC WORRY

Gray Hairs Developed by Vehicle Operators.

They are dangerous!

The girls who take out their powder puffs and begin primping as they cross Washington and Meridian Sts. during rush hours.

Not because they make the men forget to watch their step—

But because they are the ones who put gray hairs in the motormen's heads and add to the worries of motorists.

Sergeant Eugene Shine is authority. And don't forget the men who cross the streets while they are reading their newspapers, the sergeant adds.

KETCHAM ESTATE PURCHASE URGED

600 Sign Mapleton Petition to Park Board.

Six hundred signatures have been obtained by the Mapleton Civic League to a petition asking the park board to buy the property of the William A. Ketcham estate, Forty-Second St. and Capitol Ave., for a park. The league will meet tonight at the Community House, Fortieth St. and Capitol Ave., to consider plans of presenting the petition. Representatives probably will go before the board at its next meeting.

Impetus was given the movement by the almost complete destruction of the Ketcham homestead on the site by fire Sunday. The site contains seven acres and is wooded. It was stated William A. Ketcham before his death expressed the wish that the property never be divided into building lots.

It was explained that while the Ketcham heirs have expressed a willingness to sell, no price has been agreed. Persons living in the neighborhood have been particularly eager to have it used as a park since Fairview Park, in the neighborhood, has been bought by Butler University.

BURGLAR ALARM FALSE

Police Find Machinists Trolling When Emergency Squad Investigates.

Two men were surprised when the police emergency squad arrived at the Green Biscuit Machine Company plant, Miley Ave. and the C. I. & W. Railroad, early today. Frank Lane, 305 Caven St., and John H. Taylor, 2819 Olney St., were at honest toil in the shop. Police had been told burglars were working on the safe. It had not been molested. Police were unable to learn from where the call came.

PIGS IN THE PARLOR?

Mrs. Emma Raymond Sues for Divorce, Charging Cruelty.

Divorce from Walter S. Raymond, R. R. P. Box 381, is sought by Mrs. Emma Raymond in a suit on file today in Superior Court. She charges cruelty and says Raymond would bring young pigs in the living room of their farm home on the Brookville Rd. and feed them there in her absence.
