

CITY CARS TAKEN TO DANVILLE FOR FIRST BALL GAME

Mayor Shank Is Greeted as 'Possible Candidate for President.'

Hailed with applause as a "possible candidate for President of the United States," Mayor Shank paraded with the Indianapolis Police and Firemen's band and score of city employees who had motored out in city cars to the "Me and Sarah" baseball team met the Browns at Danville, Ind., Sunday afternoon in the Browns' opening game.

The mayor, arriving on the field a little late, was greeted by the strains of the Indianapolis Police and Firemen's band and score of city employees who had motored out in city cars to the "Me and Sarah" baseball team met the Browns at Danville, Ind., Sunday afternoon in the Browns' opening game.

The mayor then introduced the baseball which was auctioned off for the benefit of the Danville Baseball Association. Shank started the bid with $15 and ordered it sold again. It was sold and re-sold for total sum of $60.50.

After the parade, in which the mayor carried an oversized red bat, the game was played, "Me and Sarah" club losing, 4-2.

THIEVES GET 140 POUNDS OF SUGAR

Grocery Store Looted Over
Week-end.

Thieves who robbed the Standard Grocery store, 335 Blake St., cared nothing about the high cost of sugar today. They carried away 140 pounds of sugar, with other groceries, some time between midnight Saturday and this morning, Albert Howe, 1428 Bellefontaine St., manager, told police.

Besides the sugar, they got fifty pounds of lard, a case of beans, a case of corn, a case of tomatoes, twelve cans of peaches, ten pounds of plug chewing tobacco, twelve cans of smoking tobacco, twelve packages of scrap tobacco, six cans of coffee, six pounds of cakes and ten pounds of chocolate candy.

Money and jewelry valued at more than $250 were stolen from the home of Ernest Allbrand, 216 E. North St. Miss Clara Johnson, 907 N. Pennsylvania St., said a coat valued at $50, and jewelry valued at $40, had disappeared from her home some time during the last two weeks. A thief robbed Miss Helen Brown, 505 Spink Apartments, Sixteenth and Pennsylvania Sts., of a purse containing $40.

EX-LOCAL RESIDENT DIES

Mrs. Margaret Foss Succumbs at Fresno, California.

Henry Robinson, 3731 N. Illinois St., has been notified of the death of his sister, Mrs. Margaret Foss, at Fresno, Cal. She will be buried in Fresno.

Mrs. Foss, who formerly lived in Indianapolis, is survived by her husband, a daughter, Mrs. Frank Hood, of San Francisco, Cal.; two sisters, Mrs. Gabriel Cook, and Mrs. Charles Wilking, and her brother, Mr. Robinson, all of Indianapolis.

PUPILS HEAR SERMON

Broad Ripple Students to Receive Diplomas Tuesday Night

The Rev. J. Ambrose Dunkel, pastor of the Tabernacle Presbyterian Church, delivered the baccalaureate sermon last night to ten seniors of the Broad Ripple high school. Commencement address will be delivered at the school Tuesday night by Albert Stump. The seniors and forty-six members of the eighth grade class will receive diplomas.

Meetings Here Tuesday

Poster Advertising Company.
Meeting. Lincoln.

National Paper Box Manufacturers' Association. Meeting and Reception. Claypool.

Women's Press Club. Luncheon. Claypool.

Indiana Cannery Association. Convention. Claypool.

Plumbers' Association. Meeting. Denison.

D. A. R. Meeting and luncheon. Spink-Arms.

Indianapolis Purchasing Association. Luncheon. Severin.

Indianapolis Whist Club. Luncheon. Severin.

Indianapolis Motor Bus Association. Luncheon. Lincoln.

St. Michel Lost Post, American Legion. Luncheon. Seventh floor C. of C.

American Legion. Post #4. Luncheon. Board of Trade.

Rotary Club. Luncheon. Claypool.

I. A. A. U. Luncheon. Seventh floor C. of C.

Grace Presbyterian Men. Luncheon. Seventh floor C. of C.

Gyro Club. Luncheon. Lincoln.

Mercator Club. Luncheon. Spink-Arms.

American Chemical Society. Luncheon. 1215 p. m. Seventh floor C. of C.

B. P. O. E. No. 13. Lodge meeting. Denison.

University of Michigan Alumni. Luncheon. Lincoln.

American Legion. Luncheon. Severin.

'Buck' Jones Is Wild Man of Alaska; 'Souls for Sale' Remains at Ohio

By WALTER D. HICKMAN
Buck Jones, the wild man of Alaska, goes our frind "Buck" Jones.

There are supposed to be many wild people up in that northern land and "Buck" is one of the wildest.

Jones' latest movie is called "Snow-drift." It is a frank melodrama. It has first fights and lots of gun play.

When the villain becomes too wild, "Buck" becomes even wilder. The result is that the villain passes out of the picture.

The screen has its seasons just as the stage. Some years ago these wild melodramatic stories were much in favor, both as fiction and as movies.

Lately the desert and sheik drama has been the rage.

Now it seems that movie fans want to cool off a wee bit and the "frozen drama" of the North returns.

"Snow-drift" might be called a sort of northern "East Is West" affair. The central character is a pretty girl who thinks that she is a half-breed.

Jones, as a mere hero, who is attempting to forget whisky and gambling, comes into her life. He has to fight and kill the villain before he wins her, but he wins her just the same. Of course, he knew all the time she was white, but "Snow-drift" didn't.

Jones looks athletic and seems to enjoy being "wild" in the snow. This man has a certain appeal in melodrama. When he fights, he actually fights. Some of the blows exchanged by Jones and the villain would interest Jack Dempsey.

"Snow-drift" is the featured offering at Mister Smith's.

Indianapolis Looks Great in the Movies These Days.

A city can be in the movies these days.

Why not? Indianapolis makes a fine-looking leading player.

Indianapolis is just about the whole works at the Circle this week.

This grand old city has been photographed on the street and in the air. The result has been recorded on the film.

In this movie we are brought face to face with the many natural beauties of this city. Even the courthouse looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

looks good in the movies and the Statehouse

takes on added importance. The houses of James W. (Tom) Riley, Tom Taggart, former Vice President Fairbanks' home, and many other famous places.

This Indianapolis travel picture also shows the parade which opened the current baseball season. This film also gives one an idea of Mayor Shank's proposed city lake. You are also introduced to the police department and the fire fighters. The film is lengthy, but mighty interesting.

Modest Altschuler has written a composition which he calls, "Indianapolis First." It has a sort of a Sousa swing to it. It would not be a bad idea to make this composition a sort of an official city tune, as it is a merry tune.

The dramatic feature of the bill is something called "What A Wife Learned." I believe it is the most uninteresting movie I have seen for a long time. The story is downright silly at times. Milton Sills, John Bowers and Marguerite De La Motte do the best they can with stupid and unnatural roles.

The only redeeming feature of this film are the scenes devoted to the bursting of a dam.

One of the real delights of the bill at the Circle is a trombone solo by Benjamin Thrans in connection with a pretty presentation called, "Evening Star." The lights have been splendidly handled. Such presentation are a delight to the ear and eye.

At the Circle all week.

Ohio Retains Hollywood Movie for Another Week

"Souls for Sale," a movie showing famous movie stars and directors at work, is still on view at the Ohio this week.

This is the ninth day of this feature at the Ohio.

There are probably more big names appearing in this movie than in any other. The list includes Charlie Chaplin, Lew Cody, Eleanor Boardman, Richard Dix, Frank Mayo, Mae Busch, King Vidor, Alice Lake, T. Roy Barnes, Chester Conklin, Claude Gillingwater, Anna Q. Nilsson, Claire Windsor and many, many famous others.

The novelty of seeing Charlie Chaplin direct a picture instead of acting is shown in this picture.

"Souls for Sale" is not an expose of studio life but rather an effort to show some of the tragedy and comedy in the life of a movie actor.

The picture has been staged on a big scale. An entire circus tent is destroyed by fire. It is the best fire scene yet recorded by the camera.

The bill includes Round 3 of "Fight-to his bedroom several times at night, but never made any attempt to harm her.

"He was a nice man," the girl said. Since being brought here from Chicago, where she was taken into custody while accompanied by her mother, the girl has been kept secluded. Officials who brought the two to St. Joseph said the mother attempted to whisper to the daughter: "Now stand by Benjamin."

The mother and daughter fled from the colony.

to his bedroom several times at night, but never made any attempt to harm her.

"He was a nice man," the girl said. Since being brought here from Chicago, where she was taken into custody while accompanied by her mother, the girl has been kept secluded. Officials who brought the two to St. Joseph said the mother attempted to whisper to the daughter: "Now stand by Benjamin."

The mother and daughter fled from the colony.

to his bedroom several times at night, but never made any attempt to harm her.

"He was a nice man," the girl said. Since being brought here from Chicago, where she was taken into custody while accompanied by her mother, the girl has been kept secluded. Officials who brought the two to St. Joseph said the mother attempted to whisper to the daughter: "Now stand by Benjamin."

The mother and daughter fled from the colony.

to his bedroom several times at night, but never made any attempt to harm her.

"He was a nice man," the girl said. Since being brought here from Chicago, where she was taken into custody while accompanied by her mother, the girl has been kept secluded. Officials who brought the two to St. Joseph said the mother attempted to whisper to the daughter: "Now stand by Benjamin."

The mother and daughter fled from the colony.

to his bedroom several times at night, but never made any attempt to harm her.

"He was a nice man," the girl said. Since being brought here from Chicago, where she was taken into custody while accompanied by her mother, the girl has been kept secluded. Officials who brought the two to St. Joseph said the mother attempted to whisper to the daughter: "Now stand by Benjamin."

The mother and daughter fled from the colony.

to his bedroom several times at night, but never made any attempt to harm her.

"He was a nice man," the girl said. Since being brought here from Chicago, where she was taken into custody while accompanied by her mother, the girl has been kept secluded. Officials who brought the two to St. Joseph said the mother attempted to whisper to the daughter: "Now stand by Benjamin."

The mother and daughter fled from the colony.

to his bedroom several times at night, but never made any attempt to harm her.

"He was a nice man," the girl said. Since being brought here from Chicago, where she was taken into custody while accompanied by her mother, the girl has been kept secluded. Officials who brought the two to St. Joseph said the mother attempted to whisper to the daughter: "Now stand by Benjamin."

The mother and daughter fled from the colony.

to his bedroom several times at night, but never made any attempt to harm her.

"He was a nice man," the girl said. Since being brought here from Chicago, where she was taken into custody while accompanied by her mother, the girl has been kept secluded. Officials who brought the two to St. Joseph said the mother attempted to whisper to the daughter: "Now stand by Benjamin."

The mother and daughter fled from the colony.

to his bedroom several times at night, but never made any attempt to harm her.

"He was a nice man," the girl said. Since being brought here from Chicago, where she was taken into custody while accompanied by her mother, the girl has been kept secluded. Officials who brought the two to St. Joseph said the mother attempted to whisper to the daughter: "Now stand by Benjamin."

The mother and daughter fled from the colony.

to his bedroom several times at night, but never made any attempt to harm her.

"He was a nice man," the girl said. Since being brought here from Chicago, where she was taken into custody while accompanied by her mother, the girl has been kept secluded. Officials who brought the two to St. Joseph said the mother attempted to whisper to the daughter: "Now stand by Benjamin."

The mother and daughter fled from the colony.

to his bedroom several times at night, but never made any attempt to harm her.

ing Blood," and Schuyler Alward and his orchestra.

At the Ohio all week.

The Grand Players this week at English's is presenting "The Gold Fish." This play is new to Indianapolis.

"Mr. Pim Passes By" is the current offering of Stuart Walker at the Murat.

The Holy Cross Dramatic Club will present tonight and Tuesday night at the Holy Cross Church hall, North Oriental St., a three-act comedy, "The Spell of the Image." Rev. Urban Sandoman directed the play.

Patsy Shelly and his entertainers are the headline attraction at the Palace today.

Musical comedy and movies make up the bill at the Rialto.

ing Blood," and Schuyler Alward and his orchestra.

At the Ohio all week.

The Grand Players this week at English's is presenting "The Gold Fish." This play is new to Indianapolis.

"Mr. Pim Passes By" is the current offering of Stuart Walker at the Murat.

The Holy Cross Dramatic Club will present tonight and Tuesday night at the Holy Cross Church hall, North Oriental St., a three-act comedy, "The Spell of the Image." Rev. Urban Sandoman directed the play.

Patsy Shelly and his entertainers are the headline attraction at the Palace today.

Musical comedy and movies make up the bill at the Rialto.

ing Blood," and Schuyler Alward and his orchestra.

At the Ohio all week.

The Grand Players this week at English's is presenting "The Gold Fish." This play is new to Indianapolis.

"Mr. Pim Passes By" is the current offering of Stuart Walker at the Murat.

The Holy Cross Dramatic Club will present tonight and Tuesday night at the Holy Cross Church hall, North Oriental St., a three-act comedy, "The Spell of the Image." Rev. Urban Sandoman directed the play.

Patsy Shelly and his entertainers are the headline attraction at the Palace today.

Musical comedy and movies make up the bill at the Rialto.

ing Blood," and Schuyler Alward and his orchestra.

At the Ohio all week.

The Grand Players this week at English's is presenting "The Gold Fish." This play is new to Indianapolis.

"Mr. Pim Passes By" is the current offering of Stuart Walker at the Murat.

The Holy Cross Dramatic Club will present tonight and Tuesday night at the Holy Cross Church hall, North Oriental St., a three-act comedy, "The Spell of the Image." Rev. Urban Sandoman directed the play.

Patsy Shelly and his entertainers are the headline attraction at the Palace today.

Musical comedy and movies make up the bill at the Rialto.

ing Blood," and Schuyler Alward and his orchestra.

At the Ohio all week.

The Grand Players this week at English's is presenting "The Gold Fish." This play is new to Indianapolis.

"Mr. Pim Passes By" is the current offering of Stuart Walker at the Murat.

The Holy Cross Dramatic Club will present tonight and Tuesday night at the Holy Cross Church hall, North Oriental St., a three-act comedy, "The Spell of the Image." Rev. Urban Sandoman directed the play.

Patsy Shelly and his entertainers are the headline attraction at the Palace today.

Musical comedy and movies make up the bill at the Rialto.

ing Blood," and Schuyler Alward and his orchestra.

At the Ohio all week.

The Grand Players this week at English's is presenting "The Gold Fish." This play is new to Indianapolis.

"Mr. Pim Passes By" is the current offering of Stuart Walker at the Murat.

The Holy Cross Dramatic Club will present tonight and Tuesday night at the Holy Cross Church hall, North Oriental St., a three-act comedy, "The Spell of the Image." Rev. Urban Sandoman directed the play.

Patsy Shelly and his entertainers are the headline attraction at the Palace today.

Musical comedy and movies make up the bill at the Rialto.

ing Blood," and Schuyler Alward and his orchestra.

At the Ohio all week.

The Grand Players this week at English's is presenting "The Gold Fish." This play is new to Indianapolis.

"Mr. Pim Passes By" is the current offering of Stuart Walker at the Murat.

GIRL TRIES TO DIE FOR LOVE OF WESTERN HILLS

Chicago Cabaret Singer, Weary of City Life, Attempts Suicide.

CHICAGO, May 7.—It was love, but love for the hills and sagebrush slopes of Montana, where she was born, not love for a man, that caused her to take poison, said winsome Leona Pierce, 27, cafe entertainer, now at the Cook County Hospital, following an attempt to end her life.

"Would you imagine that when I first came to Chicago, I brought a divided skirt with me," she said, "and was terribly shocked when I saw the girls riding horses in Lincoln Park with breeches on? Back home no nice girl would have done that."

"I grew accustomed to the life here and was happy enough, but I never have felt quite at home in these granite canyons. When I was despondent at home, I could take my horse and ride among the real canyons until the hurt was all gone, but here there seemed nothing that would ease my heart."

"My mother and father live in California now, but I would not have them know of this, because it would hurt them. I am glad my attempt to seek death was a failure, and I will never try it again."

"It was an impulse. I think if I could have had one minute out in the friendly hills I would not have done it."

Santo Domingo lays claim to being the logical site for a truly Pan-American Columbus Memorial.

Store Open Saturday Until 9 P. M.

$5 Novelty Skirts for Women and Misses

Values and styles that are out of the ordinary for such a low price. Pleated skirts, tailored models, rich and attractive color combinations. Sizes 24 to 32 waist.

$2.95

Girls' Polo Coats and Capes Sizes 2 to 15 Years

Regular $15 Values
Dressy styles with panel capes and embroidered coats of fine quality polaires, overplaid and tweeds. Colors are rookie, Copen and tan.
Choice From a New Complete Assortment

$5

Men's Blue
Chambray
Work Shirts
49c
Sizes
14 1/2 to 17

Tuesday, the Ninth Day of the Great Ten-Day

DEMONSTRATION SALE

Featuring ten sensational offerings that will demonstrate The Fair's Super Value-Giving. We suggest you come early in the day, for in some instances quantities are limited.

Tuesday's Feature Event Is a Great Purchase and Sale of Stunning New Spring

Coats, Capes, Wraps

Offering Garments That Were Made to Sell at $25. At the Demonstration Sale Price of—

Fine Quality
Suedine
Velours
Polaires
Overplaid
Canton Crepe

$13.75

Beautifully
Fur, Braid
Embroidered
and Panel Trimmed

The Styles! The Fabrics! The Variety! All say value. They offer the best for the least—and you are going to need a wrap this summer—so be prepared. It is safe to say that not a day goes by, but for comfort one must have a wrap—light in weight, perhaps, still a little extra warmth as evening approaches. These have every requisite, good lines, good materials, HANDSOMELY SILK and LINGETTE LINED. Surely the low price is so appealing that women will choose now.

Misses' Sizes, 14 to 18—Women's, 36 to 44—Stouts, 46 to 54