

HIGHWAY DIVISION ACTS TO PROTECT INDIANA TOURISTS

Detours Necessitated by Maintenance Work in Good Condition.

Maintenance forces are constructing considerable stone and gravel mileage on secondary roads, widening roads, eliminating sharp turns and building guard rails, in addition to regular work of dragging roads two and three times a week. John D. Williams, director of the State highway commission, said today.

Construction of hard surface pavement is being rushed. The department is marking detours with standard signs. In most cases detours are in fair condition, the bulletin says. Condition of roads entering Indianapolis:

No. 1 (New Albany, Indianapolis, South Bend, Michigan Line)—Closed from two to five and one-half miles north of Crothersville. Traffic between Crothersville and Seymour should follow detour through Dudleytown.

Closed from four miles north of Westfield to three miles south of south end of concrete pavement, just south of Kokomo. Closed from three miles south of Kokomo to Lakeville.

No. 3 (National Road, Terre Haute, Indianapolis, Richmond)—Closed from four miles west of Stilesville to Manhattan. Closed from Pleasant Gardens to first road west of Pennsylvania Railroad overhead crossing.

No. 6 (Madison, Indianapolis, Monticello)—Closed north of Blackville to two miles north of Royalton. This is on the Indianapolis-Lebanon road, a short distance out of Indianapolis.

No. 22 (Bedford, Bloomington, Martinsville, Indianapolis)—New stone between Oolitic and Harrodsburg. Easing curves and widening road in several places.

Woman, Faced With Perjury Charge, Makes Confession.

By Times Special
PT. WAYNE, Ind., June 9.—Police today were hunting Alex Kraljowski, soft drink parlor proprietor, and his son-in-law, whose first name is given as "Stanley," after an alleged confession of Mrs. Ruth Alters, charging them with witness bribery. In city court Mrs. Alters is said to have changed her mind about drinks which Kraljowski sold her husband. She filed an affidavit that he had sold her husband whisky, but in court testified it was only "red pop."

The confession was made when she was faced with perjury charges, police said.

Foreigners to Attend Y. M. C. A. Conference

In closing the winter season of factory noon meetings, the central branch Y. M. C. A. reports that 171 weekly meetings were held in nine shops, with a total attendance of 12,722.

A speaker's bureau of fifty-six men was used, twenty-nine being ministers. The other twenty-seven included Ed Jackson, Jesse Eschbach, Merle Sidener, A. H. Godard, H. S. McMichael, Frank Jeffery, T. M. Overly, Fred Rindge, Dr. A. W. Taylor, Sen. C. O. Holmes, B. H. Caughran, E. O. Ennothen and Dwight Ritter. Sen. C. J. Buchanan is chairman of the shop meeting department. Twenty-six musicians played.

The shops in which meetings were held are J. D. Adams & Co., Bemis Bag Company, Furnas Office Furniture Company, Insley Manufacturing Company, Allison Coupon Company, Martin Parry Corporation, Pennsylvania Shops, Marietta Glass Company and Keyless Lock Company. Some of the meetings will continue throughout the summer. Similar meetings were held by the colored and railroad men's branches.

Several foreign students, attending local schools, will accompany the delegation of college men going to Lake Geneva, for the annual student conference, June 15-25. A. L. Lichter, Paul S. Habbe and J. H. Ehlers, city student secretary, will head the delegation. Such speakers as Raymond Robins, J. W. Wilson, Bishop McDowell, Fred Rindge, and "Dad" Elliott, will lead discussions.

Charles A. Teebaugh Jr., son of the State secretary, was the first boy to register for the State Y. M. C. A. camp at Bedford for the five-day period beginning June 28. This period is for boys 10 and 11 years old. Registration for the first encampment are coming in rapidly. Parents wishing to send their boys should register at once through I. N. Logan, boys' secretary.

On July 2 a ten-day period begins for boys of 12 to 15 years. These encampments are open to all boys, whether Y. M. C. A. members or not. The expense is very low. Trips will be made to Donaldson's cave, Lost River and other points of interest.

The local association has arranged for week-end overnight hikes for boys throughout the summer. Day-time educational trips will be made through shops and factories.

For boys wanting the privilege of showers and swimming pool and other club privileges during the vacation season, a special membership is provided for $2.50, good until Oct. 1. Free swimming lessons are given.

Two thousand two hundred twenty-seven men and boys have come to the Y. M. C. A. for vocational council during the past year, according to James E. Maxwell, vocational director.

A free employment department is operated, but emphasis is laid on the careful counseling of young men seeking employment, in order to get them into positions which hold a future for them.

BELASCO PLANS TO INSTILL NEW IDEA

the technique of picture making for some time.

Belasco refuses to tell just what his exact plans are but a digest of general statements shows that:

He will produce photoplays with as few subtitles as possible. He may not use them at all.

He will seek a perfection of the colored film.

He will dwell on the note of realism, seeking to carry that element farther than he has on the stage.

He will not direct the actual photographing of action. In all probability he will hold conferences with players and technicians and direct rehearsals of the plays before camera work begins.

Plans Series Historical Photoplays

He will probably take up a series of historical photoplays when he completes the photodramatization of his stage successes. He believes that motion pictures will be developed to the point where they will be the one great art of creation and that the drama of American men and incidents should be preserved to posterity.

Speaking of Belasco's intention to dwell on realism reminds me that Georges Clemenceau, Tiger of France, is now producing a movie called "The Vell of Happiness," written by him. So insistent was he on realism that he engaged a Chinese girl student in the University of Paris to play a Chinese part rather than have an experienced actress make up to look the part. Clemenceau knows more about movies than some veteran American directors.

NORTH SIDE STRUCTURE

Work to Start on Business Block at Thirty-Eighth and Illinois.

Work will begin immediately on a two-story apartment and store building to be erected at 3802 N. Illinois St. by Mothershead & Fittin, architects. It was announced today.

The building will be of a light yellow brick with trimmings of Bedford stone. It will be 40x122 feet with a basement. Cost will be $28,500.

The Builders Construction Company has the contract, and expects to complete the building this summer.
