

Can of Milk to Be 'Ticket' at Ohio Saturday

By WALTER D. HICKMAN
THE OHIO THEATER on Saturday morning will cooperate with the Advertising Club of Indianapolis by giving a special showing at 10 o'clock of "A Front Page Story," a movie showing newspaper life.

The ticket for admission will be a can of condensed milk which will be sent to the Bible lands to aid in feeding some starving child.

This will be the first public showing of this Vitagraph movie. This same movie will open a week's engagement Sunday at the Ohio. The picture will appeal to children because Buddy Messenger, a boy actor, is in the cast. Edith Roberts plays the chief feminine lead.

Lawrence Reid, writing in Motion Picture News, sums up "A Front Page Story" as follows:

The Story—Youth in search of work rides into small city at wheel of dilapidated flivver. Puts ad in local paper and by using his wits becomes partner of editor. His object is to patch up the quarrel between the editor and the mayor—which he does by bluffing with a scarehead story on front page of paper. Wins the editor's daughter.

Classification—Comedy-drama of political life in small city—with humor, rich and novel.

Production Highlights—The exceptional direction in getting every possible situation and idea from story. The fine acting by Edward Horton, James Corrigan and Lloyd Ingraham. The splendid atmosphere. The human interest. The convincing detail.

The special showing Saturday is worth attending and the can of milk may save the life of some baby in the Holy Lands.

Roberts Park Epworth League Presents Artists

Last night at Caleb Mills Hall, Vladimir Lenska, violinist; Helene Leaning, soprano, and Orley Ilsz, pianist and composer, were presented in concert by the Roberts Park Epworth League. It was a benefit for the Methodist Hospital fund.

The concert was only fairly attended. These days are commencement days, which might explain the poor patronage. What I heard of the concert was interesting, especially the work of the pianist, who played one of his own compositions, "A Japanese Love Song." Ilsz, the pianist, complained that the piano was slightly out of tune.

The soprano possessed a voice of high range. A Russian novelty played by Lenska was one of the novelties of the bill.

Dr. Hill Announces Commencement Program.

The sixteenth annual commencement exercises of the College of Music and Fine Arts will be held on Friday morning, June 22, at 10, in the Central Ave. Methodist Church. Dr. Orien W. Pifer will deliver the class address. President Harry G. Hill will present the diplomas.

Horace E. Whitehouse, musical director, and Harloe Fenn Dean and

IN THE CAST OF "A FRONT PAGE STORY," AT THE OHIO NEXT WEEK, WILL BE BUDDY MESSENGER (LEFT), A BOY ACTOR, AND EDWARD MORTON (RIGHT). THIS MOVIE WILL BE SHOWN SATURDAY MORNING AS A SPECIAL ATTRACTION AT THE OHIO FOR THE BENEFIT OF A MILK FUND FOR BABIES IN THE HOLY LAND.

Pasquale Montani of the faculty will provide the musical program.

The program is as follows:

Mendelssohn . . . . . Sonata in D minor

Choral and variations

Schumann . . . . . Canon in B minor

Widor . . . . . Andante from Symphony

Horace Whitehouse

Harloe Fenn Dean

Mendelssohn . . . . .

Presentation of diplomas

President Harry G. Hill

Impromptu in C minor

Pasquale Montani

Benediction . . . . . President Harry G. Hill

The graduating class includes:

Frank E. Percival, Arthur Graham, Earl Keen, Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson, Bernice Hawkins.

Frank E. Percival will receive the distinction of being the first graduate to whom the college has granted the degree of bachelor of music. Arthur Graham, who receives his artist diploma, recently won the first prize in the State contest of the Indiana Federation of Music Clubs, and will leave immediately to take master lessons with Joseph Levhine.

Graham and Percival will be members of next year's faculty at the College of Music and Fine Arts. Earl Keen receives a teacher's diploma in voice. Misses Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson and Bernice Hawkins will receive certificates for interlocutor.

having completed the two-year course in public school music.

President Hill is expected to announce the future plans and new location of the college, which will occupy new quarters when the fall term opens Sept. 10.

+.+.+

The theaters today are offering: "Smilin' Through" at the Murat; "Lawful Larceny" at English's; "Hoosier Follies" at the Palace; vaudeville and movies at the Rialto; "Alice Adams" at the Apollo; "Trimmed in Scarlet," with Kathryn Williams, and Buster Keaton in "The Electric House" at the Isis; "The Last Moment" at the Ohio; "You Can't Fool Your Wife" at the Circle, and "Sisters" at Mister Smith's.

Dr. Orien W. Pifer will deliver the class address. Dr. Orley W. Pifer, D. B. "Lone" God of Abraham (from John 1:1), Mendelssohn

Harloe Fenn Dean

President Harry G. Hill

Impromptu in C minor

Pasquale Montani

Benediction . . . . . President Harry G. Hill

The graduating class includes:

Frank E. Percival, Arthur Graham, Earl Keen, Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson, Bernice Hawkins.

Frank E. Percival will receive the distinction of being the first graduate to whom the college has granted the degree of bachelor of music. Arthur Graham, who receives his artist diploma, recently won the first prize in the State contest of the Indiana Federation of Music Clubs, and will leave immediately to take master lessons with Joseph Levhine.

Graham and Percival will be members of next year's faculty at the College of Music and Fine Arts. Earl Keen receives a teacher's diploma in voice. Misses Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson and Bernice Hawkins will receive certificates for interlocutor.

+.+.+

The theaters today are offering: "Smilin' Through" at the Murat; "Lawful Larceny" at English's; "Hoosier Follies" at the Palace; vaudeville and movies at the Rialto; "Alice Adams" at the Apollo; "Trimmed in Scarlet," with Kathryn Williams, and Buster Keaton in "The Electric House" at the Isis; "The Last Moment" at the Ohio; "You Can't Fool Your Wife" at the Circle, and "Sisters" at Mister Smith's.

Dr. Orien W. Pifer will deliver the class address. Dr. Orley W. Pifer, D. B. "Lone" God of Abraham (from John 1:1), Mendelssohn

Harloe Fenn Dean

President Harry G. Hill

Impromptu in C minor

Pasquale Montani

Benediction . . . . . President Harry G. Hill

The graduating class includes:

Frank E. Percival, Arthur Graham, Earl Keen, Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson, Bernice Hawkins.

Frank E. Percival will receive the distinction of being the first graduate to whom the college has granted the degree of bachelor of music. Arthur Graham, who receives his artist diploma, recently won the first prize in the State contest of the Indiana Federation of Music Clubs, and will leave immediately to take master lessons with Joseph Levhine.

Graham and Percival will be members of next year's faculty at the College of Music and Fine Arts. Earl Keen receives a teacher's diploma in voice. Misses Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson and Bernice Hawkins will receive certificates for interlocutor.

+.+.+

The theaters today are offering: "Smilin' Through" at the Murat; "Lawful Larceny" at English's; "Hoosier Follies" at the Palace; vaudeville and movies at the Rialto; "Alice Adams" at the Apollo; "Trimmed in Scarlet," with Kathryn Williams, and Buster Keaton in "The Electric House" at the Isis; "The Last Moment" at the Ohio; "You Can't Fool Your Wife" at the Circle, and "Sisters" at Mister Smith's.

Dr. Orien W. Pifer will deliver the class address. Dr. Orley W. Pifer, D. B. "Lone" God of Abraham (from John 1:1), Mendelssohn

Harloe Fenn Dean

President Harry G. Hill

Impromptu in C minor

Pasquale Montani

Benediction . . . . . President Harry G. Hill

The graduating class includes:

Frank E. Percival, Arthur Graham, Earl Keen, Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson, Bernice Hawkins.

Frank E. Percival will receive the distinction of being the first graduate to whom the college has granted the degree of bachelor of music. Arthur Graham, who receives his artist diploma, recently won the first prize in the State contest of the Indiana Federation of Music Clubs, and will leave immediately to take master lessons with Joseph Levhine.

Graham and Percival will be members of next year's faculty at the College of Music and Fine Arts. Earl Keen receives a teacher's diploma in voice. Misses Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson and Bernice Hawkins will receive certificates for interlocutor.

+.+.+

The theaters today are offering: "Smilin' Through" at the Murat; "Lawful Larceny" at English's; "Hoosier Follies" at the Palace; vaudeville and movies at the Rialto; "Alice Adams" at the Apollo; "Trimmed in Scarlet," with Kathryn Williams, and Buster Keaton in "The Electric House" at the Isis; "The Last Moment" at the Ohio; "You Can't Fool Your Wife" at the Circle, and "Sisters" at Mister Smith's.

Dr. Orien W. Pifer will deliver the class address. Dr. Orley W. Pifer, D. B. "Lone" God of Abraham (from John 1:1), Mendelssohn

Harloe Fenn Dean

President Harry G. Hill

Impromptu in C minor

Pasquale Montani

Benediction . . . . . President Harry G. Hill

The graduating class includes:

Frank E. Percival, Arthur Graham, Earl Keen, Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson, Bernice Hawkins.

Frank E. Percival will receive the distinction of being the first graduate to whom the college has granted the degree of bachelor of music. Arthur Graham, who receives his artist diploma, recently won the first prize in the State contest of the Indiana Federation of Music Clubs, and will leave immediately to take master lessons with Joseph Levhine.

Graham and Percival will be members of next year's faculty at the College of Music and Fine Arts. Earl Keen receives a teacher's diploma in voice. Misses Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson and Bernice Hawkins will receive certificates for interlocutor.

+.+.+

The theaters today are offering: "Smilin' Through" at the Murat; "Lawful Larceny" at English's; "Hoosier Follies" at the Palace; vaudeville and movies at the Rialto; "Alice Adams" at the Apollo; "Trimmed in Scarlet," with Kathryn Williams, and Buster Keaton in "The Electric House" at the Isis; "The Last Moment" at the Ohio; "You Can't Fool Your Wife" at the Circle, and "Sisters" at Mister Smith's.

Dr. Orien W. Pifer will deliver the class address. Dr. Orley W. Pifer, D. B. "Lone" God of Abraham (from John 1:1), Mendelssohn

Harloe Fenn Dean

President Harry G. Hill

Impromptu in C minor

Pasquale Montani

Benediction . . . . . President Harry G. Hill

The graduating class includes:

Frank E. Percival, Arthur Graham, Earl Keen, Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson, Bernice Hawkins.

Frank E. Percival will receive the distinction of being the first graduate to whom the college has granted the degree of bachelor of music. Arthur Graham, who receives his artist diploma, recently won the first prize in the State contest of the Indiana Federation of Music Clubs, and will leave immediately to take master lessons with Joseph Levhine.

Graham and Percival will be members of next year's faculty at the College of Music and Fine Arts. Earl Keen receives a teacher's diploma in voice. Misses Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson and Bernice Hawkins will receive certificates for interlocutor.

+.+.+

The theaters today are offering: "Smilin' Through" at the Murat; "Lawful Larceny" at English's; "Hoosier Follies" at the Palace; vaudeville and movies at the Rialto; "Alice Adams" at the Apollo; "Trimmed in Scarlet," with Kathryn Williams, and Buster Keaton in "The Electric House" at the Isis; "The Last Moment" at the Ohio; "You Can't Fool Your Wife" at the Circle, and "Sisters" at Mister Smith's.

Dr. Orien W. Pifer will deliver the class address. Dr. Orley W. Pifer, D. B. "Lone" God of Abraham (from John 1:1), Mendelssohn

Harloe Fenn Dean

President Harry G. Hill

Impromptu in C minor

Pasquale Montani

Benediction . . . . . President Harry G. Hill

The graduating class includes:

Frank E. Percival, Arthur Graham, Earl Keen, Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson, Bernice Hawkins.

Frank E. Percival will receive the distinction of being the first graduate to whom the college has granted the degree of bachelor of music. Arthur Graham, who receives his artist diploma, recently won the first prize in the State contest of the Indiana Federation of Music Clubs, and will leave immediately to take master lessons with Joseph Levhine.

Graham and Percival will be members of next year's faculty at the College of Music and Fine Arts. Earl Keen receives a teacher's diploma in voice. Misses Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson and Bernice Hawkins will receive certificates for interlocutor.

+.+.+

The theaters today are offering: "Smilin' Through" at the Murat; "Lawful Larceny" at English's; "Hoosier Follies" at the Palace; vaudeville and movies at the Rialto; "Alice Adams" at the Apollo; "Trimmed in Scarlet," with Kathryn Williams, and Buster Keaton in "The Electric House" at the Isis; "The Last Moment" at the Ohio; "You Can't Fool Your Wife" at the Circle, and "Sisters" at Mister Smith's.

Dr. Orien W. Pifer will deliver the class address. Dr. Orley W. Pifer, D. B. "Lone" God of Abraham (from John 1:1), Mendelssohn

Harloe Fenn Dean

President Harry G. Hill

Impromptu in C minor

Pasquale Montani

Benediction . . . . . President Harry G. Hill

The graduating class includes:

Frank E. Percival, Arthur Graham, Earl Keen, Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson, Bernice Hawkins.

Frank E. Percival will receive the distinction of being the first graduate to whom the college has granted the degree of bachelor of music. Arthur Graham, who receives his artist diploma, recently won the first prize in the State contest of the Indiana Federation of Music Clubs, and will leave immediately to take master lessons with Joseph Levhine.

Graham and Percival will be members of next year's faculty at the College of Music and Fine Arts. Earl Keen receives a teacher's diploma in voice. Misses Louise Martin, Sarah Littler, Corrine Wilson and Bernice Hawkins will receive certificates for interlocutor.

+.+.+

The theaters today are offering: "Smilin' Through" at the Murat; "Lawful