

WEIR GIVES SOME CAUSES OF SHIFT AMONG PRINCIPALS

Action Was in Interest of Efficiency, Says Assistant Superintendent.

The first statement of the reason for the action of the school board in changing a number of principals was given today by D. T. Weir, assistant superintendent of schools.

When the supervising system was changed last year the superintendent knew many of the principals would not be in a position to supervise in the same schools, said Weir. But the old principals were given a chance during this year.

"We found," Weir said, "that the suspicion was well founded. During the year the principals in many cases came to us and said it was impossible to do efficient supervising over certain teachers because of already established closeness in relationship.

"Other teachers came to us and complained that their principals were not capable of supervising them. Other minor reasons influenced the final decision.

"On May 30," said Weir, "Superintendent Graff and I spent seven hours behind closed doors in an effort to be just to all."

"According to Weir there are just as many commendations of the action as there are condemnations.

"Only," he said, "one hears of the condemnations because they are usually made in mass meetings. Those in favor of the action do not feel that it is necessary to call meetings to back their opinions."

'COCO COLA KING' MARRIES WIDOW

Eighty-Year-Old Millionaire and Bride on Honeymoon.

By United Press
ATLANTA, June 20.—Asa G. Candler, 80, multimillionaire, founder of the Coca-Cola Company, and Mrs. Mae Littlejohn, a widow with two children, were married today in the chapel of Emory University.

Immediately following the ceremony, which was attended only by a small gathering of relatives and friends, the "Coco-Cola king" and his bride left for Washington, D. C.

Candler, widely known for his philanthropies, several months ago was made defendant in a suit for $500,000 damages, alleging slander, by Mrs. Onezima De Bouchel, wealthy New Orleans beauty.

ANTI-FAT RECIPE GIVEN

"Go to Jail," Advise of George Reed—He Knows.

"Jail is the greatest anti-fat place I ever got into—I've lost twenty-two pounds," admitted George Reed, cook at the Bungalow roadhouse at 415 Brighton Blvd., who has been in the county jail thirty-two days since his arrest on a charge of operating a blind tiger. He weighed 230 pounds when he went in jail and in city court today, weighed 208 pounds.

Sheriff Snider said Reed would have fared much better if he had told him he was a cook. Judge Delbert O. Wilmett gave him the opportunity to "pick up" again by discharging him. Ed Barrett, proprietor of the Bungalow, arrested on a similar charge when three police squads raided his place and found several half-pints of whiskey 500 feet in the air of the place, also was discharged.

TEACHER LAW PRAISED

Burris Addresses County Superintendents at Statehouse.

"Enactment of the 1923 teachers' certification law, if it is properly administered, will add another epoch in the history of education in Indiana," said Benjamin J. Burris, State superintendent of public instruction, at a meeting today of more than eighty county school superintendents at the Statehouse.

The new licensing law, requiring thirty-six weeks of preliminary training for admission to the profession, was explained by Charles M. Curry, supervisor of teacher training, E. E. Ramsey, State high school inspector, and W. E. Wagoner, assistant, were among others on the program.

COLLEGE SENIORS 'STRIKE'

Refuse to Take Degree at Amherst When Prexy Is Forced to Resign.

By United Press
AMHERST, Mass., June 20.—Twelve Amherst College seniors refused today to accept their degrees at commencement as a protest against the forced resignation of Dr. Alexander Meiklejohn.

Dean Daniel Olds, professor of mathematics, has been appointed president in place of Dr. Meiklejohn.

Protection Bill Paid
A check for $137.50 was received by Oscar E. Wise, secretary of the board of safety, from the town of Greenwood, Ind. This is the first money received by the city for charges for the use of fire apparatus on calls outside the corporation line.

Another Recital Given
The last recital by the artists from Carlisle, Pa., was given last night at the Riley room of the Claypool. They were Francis Capra, bass, can. Miss Lillian Pringle, cellist, and Miss Edith Gyllenberg, pianist. The artists were brought here under the auspices of the American War Reliefs, in cooperation with the National Society for Broader Education.

EXTRA JUDGES SIT ON COURT BENCHES

Effort Made to Dispose of Divorce Cases.

Two extra judges were busy today in Superior Court helping the five regular judges clear away a mass of accumulated divorce cases. Ralph Spann officiated as special judge in Room 3, with seventeen non-contested suits by colored plaintiffs set, while Judge Sidney S. Miller heard the regular docket. Garth B. Nelson, special judge in Room 4, had twenty-five non-contested cases under consideration.

In addition, Judge H. O. Chamberlain of Circuit Court heard five cases. The end of the term is June 30. "Too much mother-in-law" was the secret of her trouble, said Mrs. Emma B. Raymond in Circuit Court. She was granted $8 a week support from Walter S. Raymond, Brookville Rd., until the case comes up again. Mrs. Raymond also charged her husband with bringing pigs in her parlor when she was absent, making a fuss.

Her husband wielded a wicked razor, Mrs. Ida B. Webster, colored, 566 Jones St., told Judge Spann. She showed cuts on face and arms. She was given a divorce from Horace Brown.

BANDITS TELL ROBBERY STORY

We drove around the country while Walsh gave us the lay of the land. "We drove back to Mohawk and Walsh went into the bank first and Vinson followed him. I stayed in the car with the motor running. A few minutes later Walsh and Vinson came out and said, 'All right. Let's go.'"

Takes Money and Jumps
"When we got near Indianapolis we saw some policemen in an automobile and Walsh gave me the bag with the money and told me to jump out of the car and hide. I jumped out and hid in the weeds, where I was arrested later. The car went on."

Dasey said he was sorry the cashier was not locked in a room so he could not spread the alarm. Walsh, in his statement, said when he first went to the bank he talked to Cecil V. Brooks, cashier, about getting a job in the bank. Brooks corroborated this statement. He said when he went back the second time he and Vinson drew revolvers on Brooks, forced him into the wash room and bound and gagged him.

Vinson said he got out of the automobile at Brookside Park and went home, where he was arrested. Walsh drove to W. Thirtieth St., where he was arrested. Walsh said he got $50 of the money.

Police say Vinson was known as John Borman and that he is the youth accused last fall by a number of boy automobile thieves of being their leader. They say Vinson served a sentence at the State farm for vehicle taking and that he was once sentenced to the State Boys' School.

When the police had finished questioning the bandits they were taken to Greentield by Sheriff New to face trial. They asked for a speedy trial and an opportunity to plead guilty and ask for leniency.

Walsh was captured by G. A. Pritchard, 3360 N. Meridian St., and Motor Policemen Heiler and Pettit. Pritchard, who operates a grain office in Mohawk, followed the robbers to Indianapolis. He had obtained a description from Brooks.

Pritchard after returning to Indianapolis discovered the bandit car at Thirty-Fourth and Pennsylvania Sts., and with the aid of the police trailed it until Walsh was caught.

Walsh Tried Before
According to police, Walsh some time ago was tried in Greentield on a charge of forgery and issuing fraudulent checks. The police say he also admitted robbing the Alder Coat Company, 203 Good Ave., of $198 when he was employed by the company.

The police say Dasey was wanted for issuing fraudulent checks. Walsh and Dasey formerly lived at the home of Mrs. H. H. Biddle, 2065 Broadway. She said they still owned room and that they had taken keys from her room.

BOY ROBBER CAUGHT AFTER LONG SEARCH

Youth Found Lying in Grass, Where Policemen Almost Stumble Over Him—Money Is Recovered.

By FELIX F. BRUNER
Lying flat on his back in the tall grass near the end of Orion Ave., west of Emerson Ave., Homer L. Dasey, 18, of 3714 N. Pennsylvania St., one of the three boy bandits who robbed the Mohawk Bank Tuesday after binding and gagging the cashier, was discovered after a two-hour search Tuesday evening. With him was a traveling bag containing $462.25 taken from the bank.

Dasey, with the two other boys who participated in the robbery, had been pursued by policemen in an automobile. They drove west on Brookville Rd., north on Emerson Ave., to Orion Ave. and west on Orion Ave. The avenue ends a block west of Emerson Ave. At this point Dasey jumped from the car with the grip containing the money. The car was driven north through a narrow drive to University Ave. and back to Emerson Ave.

Policemen Make Search
Scores of policemen beat through the grass and trees west of Emerson Ave. searching for Dasey. They were about ready to give up the search when the boy was found.

Five policemen and three representatives of The Times were grouped near the end of Orion Ave. discussing the hunt.

"They called me out of court on a cold trail. How do they expect me to catch a bandit that way?" complained Dasey.

He had hardly made the remark when Motor Policeman John Long shouted: "Here he is. Throw up your hands."

Dasey arose out of the grass near a little tree, his hands above his head. "Yes, here I am," he said.

He had been lying close enough to policemen and reporters to overhear their conversation.

Dasey looked like anything but a bandit as he stood with his hands in the air. He is a slightly built youth and was wearing big horn rimmed spectacles. He did not have a gun, but did have a pocket full of cartridges.

"What's your name?" asked a policeman. He gave his name and address.

In Bad Mess
"How old are you?" "Eighteen, and I'm in an awful mess," the boy replied.

Dasey had close beside him the grip containing the money. When captured Dasey said he met the two other youths downtown Tuesday and that they rented the automobile on S. Illinois St. He said he did not know the names of the other two except that one was known as Martin and the other as Ray. He said Martin was a Shortridge High School boy. When taken to police headquarters he changed his story.

GOMPERS URGES FARMERS' UNION FOR SQUARE DEAL

Senator Capper Scored by Board of Trade Head for Utterances.

By United Press
CHICAGO, June 20.—A "farmers' union" organized like the great labor unions of the country, is the only hope of the American farmer in his fight for a square deal, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, told the national wheat conference today.

Senator Capper, Kansas, in a speech before the body, termed the Chicago Board of Trade "the world's greatest gambling place" and charged that "every wheat grower has been victimized by vicious short selling at the hands of big manipulators."

John H. Mauff, executive vice president of the Board of Trade, jumped to his feet in protest, when Capper finished.

"I desire in the name of that honorable body of men, members of the Chicago Board of Trade, comprising bankers, transportation managers, men of high standing in Canada and Europe, and in nearly every city in the United States, to enter an adequate denial of the allegations so loosely thrown at this conference by the last speaker," Mauff said.

"This matter will be brought to the attention of our attorney and a meeting of the board of directors will be called to decide whether the utterance by Senator Capper is actionable—whether we can bring suit for damages on account of defamation of character of the 1,598 members of the Chicago Board of Trade."
